The educational institutions of the Conference express their sincere appreciation of the good will, energetic co-operation and, in many cases, sacrificial giving, of pastors and laymen a year ago that resulted in the successful completion of the Bi-Conference Movement. It will be recalled that the movement was made necessary by the imperative need of immediate additional funds for the current maintenance and endowment of the schools. The cost of the campaign was heavy, and was met by the institutions themselves, in each case by borrowing the money. Much of the larger part of the subscriptions was in estate notes, and other deferred payment pledges, and only a comparatively small amount in regular pledges and cash. Some of the donors have generously paid their full pledges in advance of the regular times of payment, but even with that, the amounts actually received have been small. The schools are suffering from lack of current funds. The committee greatly urge all friends to pay their subscriptions as promptly as possible; and especially hope that many of the donors who gave estate notes may find it possible to pay now, at least in part.

General Conference Legislation.

The recent General Conference ordered that hereafter "Education shall be recognized as one of the major activities" and the World Service Commission was instructed "to make such apportionment to our educational tasks as to give substantial aid to our schools and colleges in their necessary maintenance costs." We suggest that the pastors call the attention of their people to these needs of the schools; and especially that they take frequent occasion to urge the claims of education, and the possibilities of rendering greater service by gifts and annuities, and by remembering the schools in will.

The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois.

The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois is the Methodist Church at work among students at our state university, ministering to them in all the ways in which a church can minister. The work is no longer an experiment. The results in terms of life are proving that it is a sound enterprise with everwidening influence and efficiency year by year.

The field of work for the Wesley Foundation is the students of the University of whom the number is increasing steadily. Last year 8,928 students, not counting summer session or Chicago departments, were enrolled in the departments of the University at Urbana-Champaign. Of this number 2,448 were Methodists or more than a fourth.

Thirteen hundred sixty students were last year enrolled as members of Trinity Church, the church of the Foundation. This enrollment expressed more than a nominal interest for Sunday after Sunday through the church year, students were turned away from the service of worship. We must have a new Trinity Church as soon as possible. We are actually losing scores of students who would come, had we the facilities for them.

The Foundation is a great training center. Through its Life Service Group, Country Life Club, School of Religion, Epworth League, Student Council, students are finding themselves in relation to the work of the church either as laymen or as specialized workers. The courses in Old and New Testament, the teaching of religion and other similar subjects for which the University is giving credit, are meeting a real need. Through them we are in the vanguard of the new movement for the teaching of religious education in tax-supported institutions.

The problem of support is a very serious one, growing out of the amazingly rapid growth of our work. If the opportunities in this wonderfully strategic field continue to be met there must be increasing numbers of friends who will contribute regularly to the work of The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

It is a pleasure to report that the Illinois Wesleyan University whose hospitality this Conference is now enjoying has made continuous progress during the past year in equipment, endowment, attendance and quality of work.

Equipment—A year ago it was reported that the new Buck Memorial Library had been dedicated and was ready for use. One year has been spent in the library and it has been found to be a wonderful addition to the equipment of the university and a real asset to the work which is undertaken for the students. The Wesleyan has taken over another good sized residence for music school purposes and has added a number of very fine pianos to the equipment of the music school, so that we are now in a position to say that the music school was never so well equipped with studios, practice rooms, pianos and organs as it is at the present.

Endowment—The Illinois Wesleyan's share of the gross proceeds of the Bi Conference Movement in terms of subscriptions of every kind, was $358,739.82. The cost of the campaign was $41,905.24, leaving a net amount of cash and subscriptions of $316,834.58. Since the campaign closed the Staymates estate has been settled, which gives a lecture fund endowment of a little more than $35,000. When Mr. Robert W. Patterson, an alumnus of the university passed away, he left in his will a large part of his estate for the Wesleyan, which will probably amount to at least $75,000. The development of the university, especially with respect to its attendance, is making it more and more imperative that the endowment must be increased by an additional million dollars at the earliest possible date.

Attendance—The attendance in the College of Liberal Arts moved forward from 476 to 574, notwithstanding the increase in tuition. There were 133 in the law school and 535 in the College of Music. The total attendance in all departments of the university, names counted but once, was 1,162 last year. The freshman class numbered 249. The present indications are that the freshman class will register about 300, and the total attendance will doubtless reach 1,200 this year. In view of the fact that so many students are applying for admission who need financial aid, Illinois Wesleyan is much perplexed to know how to do what ought to be done for them. Many of them manifest a spirit of sacrifice and bravery which is not only thrilling but ought to be a challenge to the Methodists of the Illinois Conference to come up to their help by aiding the institution in establishing a great scholarship fund.

Quality of Work—During the past year a great deal of attention has been given to further revision of the curriculum, the standards of scholarship and the standards of preparation of the professors. It can be said that there are more men in the faculty who have earned the Doctor of Philosophy degree than ever before, and that these teachers are Christian men. There have been added to the faculty of the College of Music three men who have had extensive foreign training and have all been teachers in Berlin. The School of Music is more like a modern school than it has been at any time in its entire history.

Seventy-fifth Anniversary Illinois Wesleyan—This year brings us to the seventy-fifth anniversary of the foundation of the Illinois Wesleyan University. We have heard with interest the proposal of the joint Board of Trustees and Visitors to celebrate the historic occasion in a series of events throughout the college year. We believe that such a program will not only fittingly honor the men and women who founded the institution and have made possible the record of these years, set forth the achievements and future policies of the school but will be of inestimable service to the course of Christian Education as represented by all our schools. We urge upon the pastors and laymen of the conference the heartiest co-operation in giving publicity to the plans and attendance upon the events in this celebration.

Illinois Woman's College.

Illinois Woman's College has added another year to its long period of service. We are glad to note that the college is steadily maintaining both its scholastic efficiency and its Christian idealism. The Illinois Conference visitors in their report for 1924 call especial attention to this symmetrical development where both the intellectual and the spiritual find their proper planes. One evidence of this is to be found in the class of 1924, where five out of the twenty-seven graduates are going into some form of Life Service.

The number of students desiring to attend any given school is a good index concerning the need for such a school. Judged by that standard Illinois Woman's College occupies an important place in the middle west, for the class rooms and dormitories are filled, with many other young women still seeking admission. But there can be no increase in the student body until additional buildings are secured.

The greatest problem before the college today is that of endowment and current support. Scholastic standards, as fixed by the University Senate and the North Central Association, are constantly being raised. Additional endowment must be secured. The Bi-Conference Movement is helping but even when all this is collected, there will be barely enough to meet present standards for the present enrollment. Besides this, a new science hall is imperative, so that provision must be made for funds over and above those secured through the Bi-Conference Movement. It is most fortunate that Dr. Joseph R. Harker, the President, is returning after several months of rest, to lead in this great enterprise. We ask that to him be given the heartiest co-operation as he plans to secure adequate endowment for this great school.

Distribution of Moneys.

We would respectfully recommend that the Board of Education in its distribution of moneys to the various institutions of our Conference, maintain the same ratio as in the past year, as follows: To the Board of Education, 20 per cent; to Illinois Wesleyan, 35 per cent; to Illinois Woman's College, 35 per cent; to Wesley Foundation, 10 per cent.

Theological Schools.

We have been greatly delighted to have at our Conference Dr. F. W. Hannan of Drew Theological Seminary with his genial personality and warm hearted message.

We note with deep interest the election of Dr. F. C. Eiselen to the presidency of Garrett Biblical Institute. We congratulate the institution on securing this noted scholar, teacher, administrator and brother to direct the future policies of this historic school. We also felicitate Garrett Biblical Institute on the completion of the magnificent administration building, thus bringing to consummation one of the most beautiful quadrangles in the world.

We believe our Methodist theological schools are doing the best work of their history and we commend them to all our young men preparing for the ministry and to laymen who should include them in their investments.

EVANGELISM.

The passion for souls of men is born of the spirit of prayer. Only he that talks with God knows his will concerning men, therefore we, the Committee on Evangelism, make the following report:

First: That we pray daily for the deepening of the spiritual life of the entire membership of the church.

Second: That each District Superintendent in District and Group Meetings, give attention to the importance of Evangelism, and that the programs set up give emphasis to this most vital subject.

Third: That every pastor be urged to make Evangelism the major consideration of his work during the ensuing year.

Fourth: That the pastors be urged to co-operate as fully as possible with the Committee on Evangelism appointed by the General Conference and associated with the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, and that special emphasis be placed upon the importance of Evangelistic work among the young life of the church through the Epworth League, with "Win My Chum" week, through the observance of Decision Day in the Sunday School, and Christmas and Easter special services.

Fifth: We plead with every pastor to carefully plan and prayerfully execute revival campaigns in every church, employing consecrated means such as the exchange of pastors, the calling of accredited evangelists and other Christian workers, and the using of Gospel teams for personal evangelistic work.

O. B. HESS, Chairman.

A. R. WASSELL, Secretary.

HOSPITALS AND PHILANTHROPIES.

We view with growing pleasure the widespread interest the church is taking in the care of suffering people everywhere.

In this His church is following in His steps. For when He saw the multitude, He was moved with compassion upon them, and He healed their sick. The Illinois Conference in the past has fostered and helped its institutions and we doubt not they will continue to do so. Therefore, we bring to the attention of our people the following homes and hospitals and ask them to give a hearty response to any appeal which may be made to them for funds or supplies, namely:

The Cunningham Children's Home and Orphanage, Uubana, Illinois.

The Baby Fold, Normal, Illinois.

The Mattoon Memorial Hospital, Mattoon, Illinois.

Wesley Memorial Hospital, Chicago, Illinois.

Recognizing the fine Christian service rendered the sick and dependent of our territory by Wesley Memorial Hospital, through its "Free Bed Fund" we gladly commend it to our pastors and people for their patronage and support.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE T. WETZEL, Chairman.
W. C. HARMS, Secretary.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

The history of American Methodism has been closely associated with that of the nation, and in every crisis our church has been loyal. It is, therefore, fitting that we, the Illinois Annual Conference, reassert our position on every great moral issue.

We urge the enforcement of all law, and particularly the making effective of the 18th amendment of the Constitution.

We fully approve our church's program for world peace as enacted by our General Conference.

Because our country is greatly torn by social, religious and industrial prejudices, we urge that the attitude and spirit of the Louisville Students Conference prevail in all discussions and dealings with these questions.

We greatly appreciate the address of Mrs. Mae Cornell Stoiber of the Nash Industrial System, and Rev. A. A. Heist of the Methodist Federation of Social Service and we recommend a careful study of their programs.

We fully recommend that the spirit of the Golden Rule be applied in all dealings with industrial disputes and particularly in the enactment of laws governing immigration.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The consolidation of our General Conference of the Board of Sunday Schools and the Board of the Epworth League with the Board of Education presents the importance of religious training during the entire life of youth. With the growth of our public school and university system we have seen also an alarming growth of disrespect for law and order among the youth of our land. A few years ago we as a nation believed that the full safety of our country rested in an adequate educational system. Now we know, quoting from Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, that "a man can walk among the stars intellectually and wallow in the mud morally." The purpose of all education should be to accord mind and heart. The training of the heart and the developing of a sense of responsibility to God is left almost entirely to the church. The time is fast approaching when the local church will need to formulate a plan for week day religious education. Until that time we must use the agencies of the Sunday School and of the Epworth League more effectively.

The Sunday School.

We therefore recommend that the Sunday School be strengthened

1. By stressing evangelism in both the general exercises and the class work. Many children and some adults find their only knowledge or worship in the Sunday School. A large opportunity to increase the attendance upon the services for public worship lies in the building of a spirit of worship in the Sunday School. It is truly said that the Sunday School is the recruiting ground of the church. But unless our youth learn that the spiritual side of religious life as well as the intellectual side we shall find them leaving the church.

2. By emphasizing the need of a better trained teaching force. Many of our teachers would fail in the simplest of Bible examinations. This is not time for an untrained leadership.

3. By establishing the graded system of departments and work throughout the Sunday School. We believe our Methodist publications will best meet our needs for graded work.

4. By supplementing the work of the Sunday School with the daily vacation Bible School.

5. By creating a better district organization for the stimulation of Sunday School work. Standardization methods of comparison between Sunday Schools of approximately equal size should help materially to develop a healthy spirit.

The Epworth League.

Your committee believes in the Epworth League. They rejoice in the advancement of the young people's work. In continuance of this, we urge that a closer co-operation may be established between pastor and young people and between District Superintendents and Epworth League Presidents of the district.

The Illinois Conference Epworth League Institute was of outstanding importance this past summer. Especial credit for the success of the institute belongs to Rev. E. G. Sandmeyer, the Conference Epworth League President, to Rev. H. G. Beck, the institute dean, who provided a most excellent faculty and program, and to Rev. D. V. Gowdy, the local manager, who provided ample living and class room accommodations for the 537 young people who registered for instruction. The untiring zeal of the registrar, Rev. W. G. Pulliam, has provided a complete record of the work of the young people. Twenty-four life service decisions are the result of the evangelistic work of the institute. The pastors who are sending their young people to the Epworth League Institute find they return better trained and more ready to undertake the work of the local field.

We extend our thanks to the city of Jacksonville for the splendid co-operation and the substantial financial backing given to the institute.

The following officers elected at the institute are submitted for the approval of the Conference:

President, E. V. Young; First Vice President and Dean, Harris G. Beck; Second Vice President and Local Manager, D. V. Gowdy; Third Vice President and Treasurer, T. B. Lugg; Fourth Vice President and Recreational Director, J. D. Butler Secretary and Registrar, A. A. Heinlein.

The following Institute Commission is presented for approval:

Ministers—E. V. Young, E. G. Sandmeyer, C. R. Booth, H. G. Beck, J. D. Butler, W. G. Pulliam, D. V. Gowdy, G. L. Losh, H. A. Keck, A. R. Grummon, T. B. Lugg, A. A. Heinlein, J. H. Singleton, C. H. Thrall.

Laymen—T. V. Hopper, R. M. Utterbrook, Carl Shaw, N. L. Eddy, W. H. Gronemeier, I. E. Merritt and Dr. I. H. Neece.

A. A. HEINLEIN, President.

T. B. LUGG, Secretary.

BOARD OF STEWARDS.

1. Whereas, we believe it to be fundamental to the success of any pension system that its funds shall be administered in justice and equity; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, First, that for the sake of expedience the Board of Stewards be authorized to pay annuity at the rate of $24.00.

RESOLVED, Second, that from the cash allowance of any claimant whose years of service upon which his claim is based are not previously paid to the Preachers Aid Society, there shall be deducted the sum of nine dollars per year and for each widow the sum of six dollars per year for each year for which dues had not been paid, until the sum of forty-five dollars for each delinquent year has been fully paid. These deductions are to be indicated in a separate column in the report of the Board of Stewards.

RESOLVED, Third, that the District Superintendent be requested to report to the Committee on Conference Relations, at the opening of the Conference session, all cases where members are coupling business pursuits for compensation with pastoral work to such an extent that only part of their time is devoted to the work of the church to which they have been assigned. This committee is hereby directed, after proper consideration, to recommend to the Conference what relation, if any, such members shall sustain to this Conference.

RESOLVED, fourth, that the case of all members of this Conference, who are rendering service or are seeking appointments to render service to organizations and institutions, not under the direction and control of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and whose appointment, as per direction of the Discipline, require the recommendation of the District Superintendent and a two-thirds confirmatory vote of the Conference, and in harmony with the Conference Rule No. 23 shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations, and no such appointment shall be made until after the recommendation of this committee shall be heard.

RESOLVED, fifth, that no member of the Conference serving outside the pastorate or the regularly constituted organizations of the Methodist Episcopal Church, except as provided by the Discipline, shall be continued in the effective relation, unless the organization served by him, or the member personally, shall pay annually into the superannuate funds of the Conference, an amount equal to that required by the Conference, of the pastors and the churches which they serve, or he shall give to the Conference a written statement that he will surrender his annuity for the years he has served outside the regular constituted organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church. It is furthermore expected of him that he shall notify the Board of Stewards at the opening of the Conference year, which of these alternatives he selects.

RESOLVED, sixth, that no member of this Conference appointed to any position requiring, as directed by the Discipline, the recommendation of the District Superintendents and a two-thirds confirmatory vote of the Conference, shall construe such action as a pledge on the part of the Conference of an annuity for service rendered under such appointment.

RESOLVED, seventh, that the claims of all members of the Conference upon the annuity funds of the church for service rendered outside of the regularly constituted organizations of the church, be presented to the Conference by the Board of Stewards, with the recommendation that the claim for these years of service be disallowed for the Conference years 1924-25, on the ground of expediency.

RESOLVED, eighth, that all ministers who are received into the Conference, whether from probation or transfer, or in any other way, shall be required to file with the secretary of the Conference and secretary of the Board of Stewards a complete pastoral record of all items which may affect the annuity rights of the claimant and that no claim shall be allowed until such record has been filed.

When a minister is transferred out of the Conference the secretary of the Conference shall forward to the secretary of the Conference to which the brother has been transferred his complete record.

A claimant on the funds of the Annual Conference may draw his first quarterly benefit October first, following the session of the Conference at which he becomes a claimant. But such prospective claimant should notify the secretary of the Board of Stewards not later than August first, preceding the Annual Conference session.

That with every member of the Illinois Conference it is a matter of good faith that he become an active member of, and pay his annual dues to the Preachers Aid Society in the benefit of whose funds he is sure to share.

That every member of the Conference appointed to service other than that of pastor or District Superintendent, shall file with the statistical secretary of the Conference the name of the position held and the amount of salary or income received, and the statistical secretary is hereby instructed to include these reports in the statistics of the Conference.

That all who handle Conference Claimants' Funds shall furnish bonds in such amount as the Conference may decide.

That the Conference year of the Board of Stewards begin and end with the beginning of the Conference session, and that the accounts of the treasurer of the Board of Stewards be audited annually.

That the income on invested funds remain in the hands of the treasurer of the Preachers' Aid Society until the treasurer of the Board of Stewards shall need the same in order to meet the claims due from quarter to quarter, and that upon request of the treasurer of the Board of Stewards the treasurer of the Preachers' Aid Society shall remit to the treasurer of the Board of Stewards in the amount apportioned for the coming year.

That for the Conference year 1924-25 each pastoral charge be apportioned an amount equal to 10 percent of the pastor's cash claim for the Conference Claimants' of the Illinois Conference.

R. Y. WILLIAMS, President.

W. G. LLOYD, Treasurer.

WALTER MITCHELL, Secretary.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference met at 7:30 Tuesday evening, September 9, 1924, in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Bloomington, W. A. Smith, president in the chair. Christie Galeener offered prayer. Present—W. A. Smith, Christie Galeener, S. H. Whitlock, H. C. Gibbs, C. F. Buker, T. N. Ewing, B. F. Shipp and F. B. Madden. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

H. C. Gibbs, the treasurer, read his annual report. On motion of S. H. Whitlock the report was adopted and ordered filed. On motion of S. H. Whitlock the treasurer was instructed to draw a check for $1,600 in favor of the Board of Stewards.

On Motion of B. F. Shipp, T. N. Ewing was appointed to preach the Strawbridge sermon and Christie Galeener alternate.

On motion of T. N. Ewing the preacher of the Strawbridge sermon was requested to notify the pastor and official Board of the Church in which the sermon is to be preached, that it is our judgment that the sermon should be preached at a date other than July or August.

On motion of B. F. Shipp, W. A. Smith was appointed to preach the Hiram Buck Prentice sermon in First Church, Springfield, on "The Ministry of Service as Exemplified by Our Pioneer Preachers," and T. N. Ewing as alternate. The sermon next year to be delivered in St. James Church, Danville. Further that the same method of selecting the preacher for the H. B. Prentice sermon be pursued as in the selection of the preacher of the Strawbridge sermon.

On motion of Christie Galeener, the trustees recommend that the Conference grant Rev. A. M. Wells authority to use the Insurance money received from the Clarksburg parsonage and sale of lot to secure a parsonage at Mode and also the money to be derived from the sale of the Mount Carmel church for the same purpose.

On motion of C. F. Buker, the trustees recommend that the Conference grant the request of the Shelbyville quarterly Conference to use the money from the sale of the Buck's Castle Church for improvements made on the Shelbyville Church.

We recommend that the Pine Grove Church on the Edgar work, the Wabash Church on the Gays work, the Walnut Prairie Church on the West Union work be sold, and the money turned over to the Conference Trustees.

Called Meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Trustees met at 8 a. m., Saturday, September 13, 1924. Present—W. A. Smith, A. H. Whitlock, Christie Galeener, B. F. Shipp, T. N. Ewing, H. C. Gibbs, F. A. Havighurst, C. F. Buker, F. B. Madden.

On motion of S. H. Whitlock the sale of Wesley Chapel Church was recommended and proceeds to be reinvested in church at Thayer; the sale of South Forks Church and proceeds to be turned over to Conference Trustees; Knox Church sold and proceeds to be turned over to Conference Trustees.

On motion of B. F. Shipp, the proceeds of the sale of the Pearl Church to be reinvested in parsonage at Pleasant Hill.

On motion of H. C. Gibbs the sale of the church and parsonage at Topeka be authorized and proceeds be turned over to the Conference Trustees; that the Lease Grove Chapel be sold and the proceeds to be reinvested at Easton; that the church lot at Breckenridge and the Bethany church be sold and money be turned over to Conference Trustees.

On motion of T. N. Ewing, the sale of Willow Dale Church is recommended and the proceeds to be reinvested in Millersville Charge or to move building to Millersville.

On motion of H. C. Gibbs the sale of the Center Grove Church is recommended and the proceeds to be turned over to Conference Trustees.

On motion of T. N. Ewing it is recommended that the trustees of the First Church, Lincoln, be authorized to sell the church and to reinvest the proceeds in a new church.

On motion of B. F. Shipp, the sale of the Forest Grove church is recommended and the proceeds to be reinvested at New City.

W. A. SMITH, Chairman,
F. B. MADDEN, Secretary.

Minutes of the Called Meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference, Held at First Church, Springfield, August 15, 1924.

Present—W. A. Smith, Chairman. S. H. Whitlock, H. C. Gibbs, F. A. Havighurst, F. B. Madden.

On the motion of S. H. Whitlock, the President and Secretary of the Board were authorized to execute a deed in favor of C. O. Bayha for the Miss Eva Gunn residence property, lot 9, Spencer-Taylor addition, Doolin avenue, Jacksonville, Illinois; said C. O. Bayha agrees to the following terms of sale: He gives a note for $700.00 with interest at 6 per cent per annum, signed by himself and wife and secured by the vendors lien for the same amount; and further agrees to give a contract that he will spend at least $400 in improving said residence within twelve months from date of deed, and to assume the responsibility and expense of securing an abstract and accepts the property subject to tenant's rights, and will pay the 1924 taxes.

On motion adjourned.

W. A. SMITH, Chairman.
F. B. MADDEN, Secretary.

(C) SPECIAL COMMITTEES AND RESOLUTIONS.

AGE OF RETIREMENT.

The following resolution on the age of retirement for ministers was adopted:

Any member of the Illinois Annual Conference who is in good standing may at the session of the Conference nearest his sixty-fifth birthday ask for the Retired Relation and upon his request such relation shall be granted.

PERMISSION TO REVISE AND AMEND THE ENTIRE CONSTITUTION OF THE PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

WHEREAS: The Preachers' Aid Society is not ready to report at this session of the Conference on the revision of certain articles of its Constitution and By-Laws, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the time for this report be extended until the next meeting of the annual Conference and that its powers be enlarged to permit the revision and amendment of the entire Constitution and its By-Laws.

H. C. GIBBS.

COMMITTEE ON GRADUATED SCALE OF PER CENTS TO THE CHARGES FOR THE RAISING OF INCOME FUNDS FOR THE RETIRED MINISTERS.

Be it Resolved, That a committee be appointed to consider and report at the next Conference a graded scale of per cents for the raising of income funds for the retired ministers to take the place of the level rate of ten per cent, and that this committee be composed of the Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society and the officers of the Board of Stewards.

H. C. GIBBS.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE OF ILLINOIS.

WHEREAS: The desperate fight for national supremacy is still on between the dries and the wets, and we must fight to a finish, or lose all we have gained up to date and have it all to do over again; and

WHEREAS: The wets fear and hate Anti-Saloon League as they do nothing else, and say the only way they can kill Prohibition is to kill the Anti-Saloon League, and the only way they can kill that foe is to get the people to cease giving their means to carry on its work; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we will be loyal to that official agency of the federated churches in opening our pulpits to its representatives at favorable times to furnish the means to carry on its work and secure the election of dry officials, especially members of our Legislature and the National Congress and all law enforcement officers.

By this and in all other ways in our power we will wage the battle till Prohibition becomes the settled policy of our land the status for the whole wide world. We welcome Major Frank B. Elbert as our new State Superintendent.

We recommend as our Directors on the Board of Trustees for the State League: T. N. Ewing and H. W. McPherson, ministers; Thomas E. Lyon, Springfield; Charles W. Graves, Champaign; and Frank M. Rice, Bloomington, Laymen.

R. Y. WILLIAMS,
W. A. SMITH,
C. GALEENER,
PARKER SHIELDS.

CHILD LABOR.

Be it Resolved, That we urge the Legislature of Illinois to ratify the proposed amendment on Child Labor, which is the Twentieth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

COMMISSION ON CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

Campaign for Endowment Funds. Adopted by the Annual Conference of 1924.

First—That the Conference Claimants' Commission with the powers conferred by the Conference of 1916, and reaffirmed by each Annual Conference since, be and are hereby continued, and that this Commission for the ensuing year be composed of the District Superintendents, and other members of the Conference as follows: F. A. Havighurst, from the Board of Trustees; Wm. G. Lloyd, from the Board of Stewards; and C. F. Buker, from the Preachers' Aid Society, together with the following laymen: Geo. S. Connard, Ira B. Blackstock, and H. S. Gebhart.

Second—That the Commission shall provide for all necessary expenses incident to the most efficient prosecution of the work.

Third—That it is the judgment of the Commission that the work will require the full time of an executive officer, and we therefore recommend that Henry C. Gibbs, be appointed as the Field Secretary to work under the direction of the Commission and be ex-officio member of the Commission.

CHADDOCK BOYS SCHOOL.

The Illinois Conference celebrates its one hundredth anniversary and Chaddock Boys School its twenty-fifth this year. Our anniversary celebration was productive of good in many ways. It brought together not only the friends of Chaddock in Quincy, but many from all parts of the Conference. The financial response was a great help to us in meeting our current expenses for the year. Friends from far and near with their congratulations enclosed the Silver Anniversary checks to speed us on our way.

The Bi-Conference Movement revealed many whose hearts are warm and tender toward the boy from the broken home. Many did not know the opportunity Chaddock affords to express their sympathy in a practical way toward these lads. We realize that the greatest asset any institution can have is friends. The new friends added through the Bi-Conference Movement only lengthens the list that is continually growing. The friends who have stood by us through the years are encouraged and made even more enthusiastic by the addition of these new friends.

The ministers of the Conference in ever increasing numbers are becoming more enthusiastic supporters of Chaddock Boys School. We are most grateful to them for their co-operation the past year.

Chaddock is looking forward to a building program which will accommodate at least twice the number of boys we can now receive. With this we must add to the endowment that we may be able to receive the boys who need us most.

Seventy-five boys were enrolled in Chaddock Boys School the past year. To meet the needs of those who had no one back of them financially we had to raise fifteen thousand dollars.

The faculty the past year rendered exceedingly fine service. There have been but two changes in the teaching force this year.

The Department of Bible and Religious Education under the direction of Mrs. Anna M. Kellogg is one of the most vital factors in our School. With Norman E. Richardson we believe that the adolescent period "includes the very heart of life," and that it is the time of the souls' overflow when greatest care must be taken that these impressionable years may be utilized to form right religious habits of thought and action. We are glad to feel that any boy passing through the course at Chaddock is led to give the Bible a place in his plans through the intelligent leadership for this work.

I need only to mention the name of the Reverend Wm. G. Pulliam as Associate Superintendent of Chaddock Boys School to cause the Conference Deaconess Board to congratulate itself upon this addition to the administrative force of Chaddock Boys School. He is helpful in every way and we look forward to another year of association with him in this work with very great delight.

The Treasurer's report sets forth the financial condition in every detail.

If Chaddock Boys School is to become the institution that will serve Methodism in the care of these lads from broken homes and serve the boys with home and school privileges of the high type we ought to offer in the name of Jesus Christ, we must build and endow in a larger way through the years immediately ahead of us.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. EVA FRIELDS, Superintendent.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD.

The annual meeting of the Conference Deaconess Board met in the 2nd Presbyterian Church, Bloomington, Illinois, at 2 p. m., Friday, September 12th. Rev. E. L. Pletcher, President of the Board, presided. There were present Rev. E. L. Pletcher, Rev. G. L. Losh, Rev. C. R. Morrison, Corinne Calvert, Harriet Severns, Mrs. Eva C. Fields and Bertha A. Beadles.

The meeting was opened by prayer by the Rev. Pletcher. Mrs. Fields moved that the action of the Secretary of the Conference in appointing Rev. Pletcher as President of the Conference Deaconess Board be made the action of the Board. The motion prevailed.

The President called for reports of the Deaconesses of the Conference.

The following reports were read and placed on file.

Miss Corinne Calvert gave report of her work at Nokomis, Illinois.

Miss Harriet Severns gave as Visitor for the County Anti-Tuberculosis Society.

Miss Bertha Beadles gave a verbal report of her work at Chaddock Boys School.

Mrs. Eva Fields gave a general report of the work of all Deaconesses connected with Chaddock Boys School.

The report of W. J. Singleton, Treasurer of Chaddock Boys School was read. The Board took special action in relation to this report, directing the Secretary to write Mr. Singleton expressing appreciation.

It was voted that a meeting of the Conference Board be held at Chaddock Boys School some time during the Conference year.

The Trustees of Chaddock Boys School for the Class of 1924 were nominated. This list was afterwards read and they were elected by the Conference.

The Rev. W. G. Pulliam was elected a member of the Conference Deaconess Board.

The meeting adjourned.

G. L. LOSH, Secretary.

MISSION FOR THE DEAF.

Eleven tours have been made, one by my daughter, Constance, who now holds a local preacher's license, and ten by myself. She conducted four preaching services, supplemented by stereopticon talks on missions, beside a chapel talk to deaf children at the state school; and I held fifty-three preaching and eighteen communion services, beside seven chapel talks at the state school.

The rite of water baptism was administered to these children (hearing) and their father (deaf) in Springfield.

The deaf have contributed $19.00, to be applied on Conference Claimants Fund.

We beg leave to bring to your attention the wisdom of finding and training young men beforehand for the ministry of the gospel to children of silence, in view of my thirty-one years continuous service and of my age of sixty-three years (next December). Our present crops consists of an assistant pastor aged about fifty-one years, who looks after the work in the Rock River Conference outside of Chicago, Central Illinois, the three conferences in Iowa, the Nebraska, and the two conferences in Missouri, my daughter, Constance, who assisted me in Chicago and other parts, and myself. One laborer less would disturb the general program of the work, which also includes the three conferences in India.

I would like for the Conference and the Central Illinois Conference to provide a joint commission to look into the needs of the deaf within their territory, and secure and train some young man for the work. He will be able to do much more work and in a more thorough manner, as he will not be occupied with any work outside of the conferences as we three now are continually. It is necessary to see something done now, for we have children of silence with us always, and the gospel must be ministered to them in their own conventional sign language.

Thanking you for continued interest in our work, I remain,

Fraternally yours,

PHILIP J. HASENSTAB, Pastor.

NEAR EAST RELIEF.

BE IT RESOLVED, That we hereby indorse the good work of the Near East Relief organization and commend it to the prayerful consideration and support of all our Methodist people.

COMMISSION ON MERGER.

WHEREAS, The General Conference of 1924 has granted to the St. Louis German Conference an Enabling Act, the legal right to merge with the contiguous Conference whenever it may deem it wise to do so, and

WHEREAS, We deem it wise to do so at the next annual session of our Conference in accordance with the provisions of the discipline now in force, provided a feasible plan, just to all conferences concerned, can be worked out by the Commission.

WE, THEREFORE, move that a commission of three be appointed—and their alternates—to plan in detail all the necessary steps leading to a merger of the St. Louis German Conference with the contiguous conferences, and to report their findings and plan at the next session of our Conference for final action in accordance with the provisions of the discipline now in force.

We also respectfully request the contiguous conferences to appoint similar commissions of three members each—and their alternates—to meet with the Commission of the St. Louis German Conference, and we respectfully request the Bishop of our Area, Bishop Hughes, to preside over the joint sessions of these commissions.

LEATON'S HISTORY OF ILLINOIS CONFERENCE.

RESOLVED, That the celebration of the Centennial of our Conference should be marked by something of a permanent form that those at home may profit by and enjoy as much as we do who are assembled at this annual Conference, and that one of the best things we can do toward that end is the publishing of another volume of Leaton's History of our Conference, the manuscript for which is in existence, or the publication of an entirely new history in one volume.

Therefore we request the Bishop and his cabinet to appoint a commission to consider the whole matter, recommend the plan it may deem best, and the method of carrying their recommendation into effect, and to report the same at the 1925 session of our Annual Conference.

MERGING CONFERENCE CLAIMANT'S FUNDS.

WHEREAS: The different organizations of this Conference holding Conference Claimants Funds have an aggregate sum of nearly $600,000.00; and

WHEREAS: An agreement was entered into by these organizations in 1916 that when the total sum of their holdings should amount to $500,000.00 these funds should be merged for administrative purposes, and

WHEREAS: Great care should be taken that these funds should be so handled that the income from same shall accrue forever, to the benefit of the retired preachers of the Illinois Conference; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That a committee composed of the District Superintendents be appointed to devise plans for the administration and protection of these funds, that this committee be instructed to call to its aid, such persons as they may need in formulating these plans, and that this committee report at the next Annual Conference.

H. C. GIBBS.

PUBLICATION OF THE MINUTES.

Your committee submits the following report:

The contract has been let to the Illinois State Register Printing Co. for the publication of 6,000 copies of the Conference Journal and Year Book. This being the Centennial year of our Illinois Methodism, the Journal is to contain the photographs of the ministers, and much valuable statistical and historical matter. The contract price is $1,950, with ten cents additional for each line changed from the original. All Centennial matter to be paid for on the pro-rata basis of the regular 224 page Journal.

We desire to make the following recommendations:

That each pastor, district superintendent and preacher in detached service, be required to pay into the Minute Fund an amount equal to two-fifths of one per cent of his cash salary to defray the cost of this publication, and that this quota be paid before the close of this Conference Session. That the collectors be given the privilege of the floor on Saturday morning, to call the names of the ministers who have not at that time complied with these resolutions.

That the Minutes be distributed at thirty-five cents per copy to the ministers, including postage, the number being determined by the amount of money paid, and the price to be marked on the Minutes at fifty cents.

That the Secretary of the Conference be elected editor of the Minutes, that the pastor of the Douglas Ave. Methodist church be elected treasurer of the Minute Fund, and that he be required to furnish the publishers a mailing list and the quota of Minutes to be sent to each minister.

That the pastors of the Douglas Avenue and Laurel churches, W. A. Smith, the District superintendent of the Springfield District and the Secretary of the Conference constitute the committee for the publication of the Minutes.

Respectfully submitted,

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Because of the interesting and profitable session of this Illinois Annual Conference now nearing adjournment, we desire to offer the following expressions of appreciation and gratitude:

We greatly appreciate the self-sacrificing efforts of our genial host, Dr. F. A. McCarty and his associate pastors of Bloomington, who, together with the splendid company of laymen and women of their churches, have successfully striven to make our visit to this city one of great pleasure and profit.

We have also noted, with delight, the courteous manner in which the pastors and members of other denominations have given themselves and their possessions to our comfort, convenience and efficiency and offer to them our hearty expressions of thankfulness.

The President and faculty of Illinois Wesleyan University have stood along side those previously mentioned and have contributed their full share toward the making of this Conference Session that which it should be.

We desire especially to express our deep appreciation of the exceptionally clean and intelligent manner in which our Conference has been represented by the Bloomington Press and to extend our expressions of gratitude to them.

To the Bloomington business men who have assisted us by innumerable and inestimable courtesies, we offer our thankfulness and assure them of the lingering pleasure that shall be ours because of their kindness.

To our faithful and efficient corps of secretaries and treasurers we owe an ever-living debt of gratitude which we here gladly acknowledge.

To the Western Union Telegraph Company and the Postoffice for their courteous services.

We remember the faithful services of Dr. W. S. Phillips, who for many years led us in the singing of our Conference hymns, but quickly lift our heads to say, "God's Will be done, and to express the recognition of our good fortune in securing the services of Rev. J. A. Betcher to wear the mantle that has fallen from his shoulders.

We regret the exegencies that have removed from the supervision of the Chicago Area, that master of detail and efficient supervisor, Bishop Thomas Nicholson, who, like Napoleon, knew almost every private by name, but are greatly rejoiced, if that must be, that the same exegencies have brought to us that fine scholar, splendid preacher and capable administrator, Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes. Long may he live with us.

We would especially commend the splendid Centennial Program, prepared and presented with much effort and great success, making special mention of the faithful and efficient services of the Misses Mattie Simmonds and Anne Laughlin.

We now come to voice our expression of deep gratitude and satisfaction because of the presence with us as our presiding Bishop, of our former leader, friend and brother, Bishop William Fraser McDowell, and to say to him, not because we are expected to say it, but because we feel it in our hearts, that we are glad he is here and we are better, wiser and stronger because he has been with us in this Session.

We appreciate the presence and helpful messages of Bishop Herbert Welch and the other representatives of the church who have greatly instructed and inspired us by their presence.

WHEREAS: During the last three years an attempt has been made by the several religious denominations of the State of Illinois, to enter into closer relations in an effort to solve the many problems of our common faith and also in the interests of good government, and that for this purpose resolutions have been adopted by a number of them; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we join with others in this movement and that Bishop McDowell be requested to appoint a committee of three to co-operate with other similar committees, to carry out the purpose herein indicated.

J. E. EVANS, Chairman,
A. A. LUCE, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY AND HOME SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, The great task of sending the gospel to the women and children of the non-Christian lands has in part fallen to the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, and that the carrying of the same gospel to our needy home people has become the task of Women's Home Missionary Society; be it

RESOLVED, That we, the pastors of the Illinois Conference will aid them in their laudable undertakings by our hearty co-operation; and be it further

RESOLVED, That each pastor seek to organize and foster in every way, one or both of these societies upon his charge.

ALBERT S. MAXEY, Chairman.

FRANK M. HARRY, Secretary.

SELECT NUMBER.

The select number appointed by the Conference in the cases of Wiley Johnson and S. T. Weaver gave as their unanimous decision:

In the case of Wiley Johnson that he be not located.

In the case of S. T. Weaver we find that there are no charges or specifications in proper legal form to furnish a basis for action. We therefore return all papers and documents to the Conference.

Plan of Conference Examinations

Conference Studies

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

Chairman—C. D. Robertson.

Registrar—R. L. Steed.

Examiners—J. A. Biddle, H. G. Beck, A. L. Caseley, J. E. Evans, A. R. Grummon, C. W. Hamand, C. F. Juvinall, H. A. Keck, F. A. McCarty, D. F. Nelson, A. C. Piersel, W. G. Pulliam, W. A. Smith, Chesteen Smith, E. L. Tobie, J. F. McAnally, T. B. Lugg.

RULES OF THE BOARD

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners by the chairman. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall conduct the examinations in the Courses of Study, and make recommendations to the Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline."

3. Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study or to appear for examination, shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time for examination. And in case of such failure to pass, the Registrar shall report the fact to the student and to the Chairman of the Board.

4. Examiners shall report grades on all papers to the Registrar within two weeks after the examinations are held.

5. The examination questions shall conform to the requirements of the Commission on Conference Courses of Study and the markings upon both examinations and collateral reading shall be upon the scale and according to the method established by the Commission, and no mark below 70 per cent shall pass.

6. All credits from schools shall be sent to the Chairman, who shall decide upon the acceptability of them. All grades other than those given by the Board of Examiners shall be marked as "P," indicating a passing grade, which does not affect the general average of the student.

7. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each student, including candidates for admission trial, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, and other expense incidental to the work of the Board.

8. It shall be the duty of the Chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of the candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the Board of Examiners. And it shall be the duty of the Board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable, concerning the candidates, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the Chairman to make similar investigations and of the Board to make similar recommendations in the case of applicants for admission from another church. District Superintendents are requested to report to the Chairman the names of all candidates for admission on trial or into full connection, for admission from other churches, and of all candidates for orders, in time to allow such investigation on the part of the Chairman.

9. The annual meeting of the Board of Examiners, in accordance with the Discipline, shall be held at 4 p. m. of the day preceding the session of the Annual Conference.

10. "Honorable Mention," with public recognition, will be conferred at each annual conference session upon the five students having the highest averages in their respective classes. But no one is eligible to this honor who has not done at least 50 per cent of his work under this Board, or whose standing in the course of study is irregular.

11. All examination papers shall be sent to the examiners by registered mail, and the receipts for the same brought to the seat of the annual conference.

12. A deduction will be made in the grades of all papers in which the spelling, grammar or general appearance is faulty.

13. Papers on Methodist Review must conform to the specified length of 200 words. Otherwise the grade will be made less.

Plan of Organization of Itinerants' School of the Illinois and Central Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Name

The name of this organization shall be THE ITINERANTS' SCHOOL OF THE ILLINOIS AND CENTRAL ILLINOIS CONFERENCES OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Government.

The organization and government of the School shall be vested in a joint committee consisting of three numbers from each conference. One of these three shall be the Chairman of the Board of Examiners; the other two shall be elected by the Board of Examiners.

The two elected by the Examiners shall hold office for one year and may be re-elected.

The Joint Committee shall have power to organize and conduct the School, provide the faculty and special lecturers, and take general oversight of the work of the School.

The Joint Committee shall work with the counsel and help of the Commission on Courses of Study as far as is practicable.

The Joint Committee shall be the final authority in questions of policy.

Faculty.

The faculty shall be chosen from the Examiners of the two Conferences.

Session

The sessions of the School shall be held annually as soon after the commencement season as is practicable.

The sessions shall be held at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington.

Attendance Required

All students in the Conference Course of Study shall be required to attend the School unless previously excused by the Chairman of their respective Boards of Examiners.

Finance

The expense of the School shall be met by apportioning to the churches a minimum of Fifty Dollars ($50) for each district, or such larger sum as the conferences shall fix upon from year to year.

The District Superintendents are asked to provide for the collection of the amount designated before June 1.

Examinations.

All examinations except those required by the Discipline to be given at Conference, shall be held the last day of School.

Written Work.

No student shall be admitted to the examination in any subject unless his required Written Work in that subject is done.

Review by Conferences.

The work of the School shall be subject to review and approval by the two Conferences.

Continuance.

This plan of organization shall continue from year to year unless modified or abrogated by the Conferences.

Committee on Itinerants' School:

C. D. ROBERTSON,
Chairman Board of Examiners Ex Officio.
R. L. STEED.
A. C. PIERSEL.

Report on Itinerants' School

The work of the Board of Examiners is being conducted more and more completely through the Itinerants' School. The School this year, the third session, was the best yet held, both in point of numbers and spirit. The enthusiasm of students and instructors was very high, and the atmosphere of a school very pronounced.

Instruction in the entire Course of Study is given with two or three minor exceptions, and examinations are given at the close of the School.

The special lecturers this year were Prof. J. Newton Davis, of Drew Theological Seminary, and Dr. Jesse S. Dancey, of Court Street Church, Rockford. Prof. Davis gave a remarkable course of Word Studies in both Old and New Testaments, which proved a powerful inspiration to the young men to engage in further study of this kind. Dr. Dancey gave a course on "The Ministry of the Congregation," which was illuminating and helpful in the highest degree. A new course this year was, "Recreational Leadership" by Prof. R. E. Browns of Illinois Wesleyan, who contributed his services gratis as did all of the faculty except the special lecturers.

In order to facilitate the administration of the School and of the Board of Examiners, as well as to bring into yet closer relations the two conferences concerned, we offer the following motion:

That our Board of Examiners shall be authorized in its regular work, to make use of such examiners in the Central Illinois Conference as it shall choose through its committee on the School for undergraduates, provided that our Board shall not thereby relinquish final authority and supervision over the work of the undergraduates thus involved.

C. D. ROBERTSON,
Dean Itinerants' School.

Memoirs

J. M. ELDREDGE.

John Merrill Eldredge was born in Sangamon County, Illinois, August 6, 1865, and expired suddenly in Fithian, Illinois, September 3, 1924. He was converted at the age of fifteen, and when twenty-three years of age, he entered the Northwestern University at Evanston, Illinois, where he remained for six years. He united with our Conference in 1895, and successively served the following charges: Berdan, Literberry, Metcalf, Stewardson, Neoga Circuit, Riverton, Waverly Circuit, Loraine, Witt, Atwood, Butler, Niantic, Grove City, Kenney, Irving, and Loami, besides preaching during vacations one summer in Nebraska and six months in Hardin County, Illinois. He was a man who spoke no harm of any one, and was a true and faithful minister of Jesus Christ.

He was united in marriage September 24, 1895, to Minnie L. Funderburk, and to this union were born four children, Mrs. Ruth Quick, of White Pigeon, Michigan; Helen, a teacher in Greeley, Colorado; Mrs. Miriam Kent, Clinton, Illinois; and John J., at home. His wife, and all his children, and three grand-children, survive him. He leaves also, two brothers and two sisters, Dr. T. S. Eldredge, of Springfield; Jerry Eldredge, of Divernon; Mrs. Julia Finley, and Mrs. Addie Powers, both of Rochester, Illinois. "How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things."

His funeral services were held in Zion church, six miles north of Pawnee, Illinois, conducted by Dr. A. S. Chapman, his District Superintendent, assisted by H. B. Lewis, with several others of his ministerial brethren present. Interment was in the cemetery by the church.

J. M. GOODSPEED

A child was born, a son was given, to Simpson S. and Anna Fish Goodspeed in Wooster, Ohio, June 22, 1845, and they announced him to the world as James Monroe Goodspeed. His grandfather was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. His parents were worthy Eastern people, and he himself was a soldier in the Civil War, with several enlistments, and rose to the rank of Sergeant. In his early years he came with his parents to Urbana, Illinois, and was educated there in the public schools, and in the University of Illinois. Here he was converted in 1865, and he received his Theological preparation to preach in Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, Illinois, entering that school in 1869. He united with our Illinois Conference in 1873, and served the following charges: Tuscola Circuit, Ludlow, Catlin, Camargo, Fairmount, Georgetown, Homer, Arcola, Villa Grove, Arthur, Sidell, Arthur again, Broadlands, Hindsboro, West Ridge, and Georgetown Circuit. During a part of those years he was on the supernumerary list, and in 1916 he took the retired relation, and continued therein till his translation. He served 33 years in the effective ranks by appointment of the Conference, and during nearly all the other years he served as a supply in charges that could be worked from his home town, Tuscola. He was a true preacher of the gospel, and the results of his ministry were large and blessed. He was such a good man that practically everybody esteemed him very highly. His brethren in the ministry loved and trusted him, and his memory is blessed. In all his relationships in life, he was as true and steady as the North Star itself. He loved and faithfully served his relatives, his church, humanity and God.

Brother Goodspeed was united in marriage April 14, 1875, to Miss Rebecca Jesse, daughter of David H. Jesse. Two children came to bless their home, Wilbur F., living near Tuscola, and Edith Jesse, wife of G. J. Buehrig of Tuscola. Both children and his companion survive him, besides two grand-children and other relatives, including a brother, Charles of Urbana, Illinois, the last surviving member of a family of seven children, the Biblical number for completeness. He fell asleep May 8, 1924, nearly seventy-nine years after his birth, following a long and severe illness. Funeral services were held in the Tuscola Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. A. L. Caseley, the pastor, officiating. He was assisted by M. G. Coleman, who delivered a fine and fitting address, C. F. Buker and W. G. Lloyd. Interment was in Tuscola cemetery where the Frank Reed Post, Grand Army of the Republic, was in charge, of which Rev. Goodspeed was long a true member, and of which he was Commander at the time of his decease.

W. S. PHILLIPS.

William Sandusky Phillips was born near Mackville, Kentucky, July 8, 1856, and died in the seventh year of his pastorate in Carlinville, Illinois, November 8, 1923. He was a son of the Rev. Franklin William Phillips, M. D., and Lucy Jane Dungan, and a nephew of John M. Phillips, long senior agent of the Book Concern at New York. W. S. Phillips was educated in the public school and at Illinois College, where he won the degree of Master of Arts. He served the state with distinction for a number of years, first, as Superintendent of the School for the Blind, then at the State Reform School. He joined our Illinois Conference in 1894, and served a number of charges with unusual acceptability.

Brother Phillips was united in marriage in June, 1884, to Mary Caroline, daughter of the late Preston Wood, Sr., of the Illinois Conference. To them was born four sons, who, with their mother, survive him. They are: William Preston, head of the Music Department of Lake Forest University, and a leading baritone of Chicago; Franklin William, Dean of Monmouth College; John Milton, pastor of Pilgrim Congregational church, Manchester, New Hampshire; and Albert Wood, manager of Capps Mills, Jacksonville. His death was due to pneumonia, after less than a week's illness. Funeral services were held both in Carlinville and Jacksonville. Interment was made in Diamond Grove cemetery, Jacksonville, and over sixty of the members of the Illinois Conference attended the two funeral services.

Appreciation by a Life-Long Friend and Ministerial Brother.

William Sandusky Phillips had a singularly rich personality. To his intimates he summed up all the gracious qualities of mind and spirit that make the Christian gentleman. His was the sunny optimism born of perfect faith. His was the tender sympathy shown in his love of neighbor. His was the bubbling humor begotten of a clear conscience and a sound sense of proportion. His was the rare patience born of God. His was the enthusiasm, unquenchable, growing out of his vision of the Christ, for his Christ had become to him "the Way, the Truth, and the Life."

A minister said of him while living, "I have never known any other man so perfectly rounded as W. S. Phillips. There is no part of the equipment which a minister should have lacking in him." He was many-sided, and so could be all things to all men. He could discuss music with the musician, stock with the farmer, athletics with the boy, books with the student, business with the dealer, and toys and pets with the child. He was at home with all classes and conditions of men because he loved them, and was interested in everything that touched their lives. That interest had no hint of professional flavor, but was as genuine as the man himself. Yet back of that tactful approach with which he made his way into the citadel of men's hearts was not simply a wide range of interests, but a great character, and character never fails. He was born in Kentucky, and perhaps to the chivalry of the South he owed his knightly courtesy to women and children, a courtesy not only of his polished manners alone, but of ingrained nature and personal attitude. Men, women and children gave him genuine affection, for they saw in him a protector of the weak and defenseless, and though he had lived for more than three score years, children would run on flying feet to hold his hand and walk with him. Children are not so foolish as to insist that their companions be young in years, but young in heart. Spring was perpetually in his life, and his lips never lost their fluency in speaking the language of youth. Those in trouble went to him confident of a sympathetic hearer, and a counsel of the kindest and sanest sort. He gave to those needing financial help, for out of his meager salaries he made gifts that might put to shame wealthier citizens of the Kingdom. Some of our young people knew of his kindnesses, and here and there young men and women in our Colleges are evidence of his unflagging good will.

In the Illinois Conference we thought of Brother Phillips as a splendid leader of song. Music was both a gift and a passion with him. Endowed with the voice and artistic understanding for a musical career, he used his gifts in the ministry only to further his Master's cause. He ignored the vanity of display. None knew the old hymns of the church better than he. As the years rolled on, he turned more and more to those majestic melodies, made doubly sacred to him because his father and his father's father had sung them in Methodist Churches. In the heavenly choir we shall hear again that melodious voice singing "Wonderful Peace."

But he was much more a minister than a musician. He was wise in organization. His knowledge of people enabled him to choose leaders who could lead. He made plans which gripped his people's hearts. No difficulties daunted him, and he radiated confident enthusiasm. Consequently his churches were organized for service. Benevolent offerings were in full, and no great denominational interest was allowed to lag. Those results were secured without flurry or friction, and church interests became in all departments both vital and joyful. In the pulpit, he rose to the heights. He flamingly preached the story he loved. He read good books, and the habits of his student days in college remained with him to the end. To the student of homiletics his sermons were models of the sermonic art. His illustrations served their purpose well. His logic never abandoned the field to rhetoric. Every sermon was vibrant with life and warm with the spirit of a preacher unashamed to have an old-fashioned passion for souls. He was liberal in that he welcomed new light on old truths, but conservative in that he built on the sure foundation of faith. His message reached strong men everywhere, and drew men who had lived apart from the church and captured them for Christ. He was a preacher of a true and winsome gospel. Methodism has her roll of great names, but she will never forget the services of men like W. S. Phillips, who, in Christian loyalty and humility were content to follow the example of John the Baptist, and serve in second places. Fame, wealth and position were all relegated to the rear, and with singleness of purpose he pressed toward the goal of his high calling in Christ Jesus. His wife and sons have lost an ideal husband and father, and the Illinois Conference a servant tried and true. Heaven will be the gainer by his translation.

W. F. PITNER.

Upper Iowa, Colorado and the Illinois Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal church were all bereaved in the passing of William Franklin Pitner. He was born in Clay City, Illinois, October 11, 1857, and died in San Francisco, California, January 21, 1924. He was the son of Dr. Franklin Ruble Pitner and Sarah Ridgway Pitner. Though previously a member of the church, he did not give his heart to God till he was sixteen years of age. At a revival meeting he struggled ten nights at the altar, yet was not saved because he rebelled against a definite call to preach the gospel. On the last night he surrendered, and said to the Lord, "I will." He was at once gloriously converted, and like Andrew, immediately went after his own brother, Charles M. Pitner. Finishing his high school course, he taught school, and during vacations, attended Normal School. He was also a graduate of Garrett Biblical Institute. At its semi-centennial, Cornell College gave him the degree of Doctor of Divinity, and after five years of study while pastor, the Chicago Seminary of Sciences conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

Doctor Pitner was received on Trial in the Upper Iowa Conference in 1883. In that Conference he served the church for 26 years in important charges, six years of the time on Marshalltown District. He built a church at Clinton, and held several large revivals. He was nine years in Decorah and Waterloo churches. He was recognized in this Conference as a resourceful, aggressive worker. Two thousand souls are reported as saved as a part of the fruits of his ministry. He was also President of the Citizens' League, which brought the saloons under the Muley law.

In 1909 Dr. Pitner transferred to the Colorado Conference where he displayed skilled leadership. During his seven years here, he built two churches and a parsonage, and led over 600 souls to Christ. He was known in this Conference as a man of vigor and power. In his whole ministry he was thoroughly conscientious, outspoken and courageous, and a most impressive speaker, delivering a real and vital message. He was utterly out of patience with everything of a flippant or sensational nature, and was a real builder, never simply marking time. He had fixed convictions as to the fundamentals of the religion of Jesus. Like Paul he gloried in nothing save in the cross of his Christ, and convinced others of its reality and significance. He was a man of fine gifts and complete consecration.

Dr. Pitner transferred to the Illinois Conference in 1916, in exchange with a brother minister who was afflicted with tuberculosis. Four Pitners have been members of our Conference, his uncles, Levi and Wilson, and his brother, John L. Pitner. Dr. Pitner was never really well after his last transfer, and only by his indomitable will-power did he carry on the work of the last few years. He realized his ambition to complete forty years in the active ministry, and in 1923, with a clean-cut record he retired. He and Mrs. Pitner had planned a home in California, and stopped on their journey in San Francisco to visit their two sons who live there. Here they were compelled to remain, as Dr. Pitner was unable to leave his bed, and for five months was helpless. He was a marvel to all his friends in the sweet, cheerful spirit he manifested. The secret was the indwelling

Christ, and his unshaken faith in God. He was brave and true, always seeking to exalt the Christ whom he loved best of all. All that loving ministry could do was done, but Dr. Pitner passed on to hear the Master's plaudit, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." His devoted wife, two sons, one grand-son, a sister, two brothers and a host of friends mourn his departure. He leaves behind the memory of a life well spent, a fruitful ministry, and a character unstained.

The funeral services were conducted in San Francisco by Dr. F. M. Larkin, editor of the California Christian Advocate, assisted by Dr. W. J. Sherman, pastor of Central church. The interment was in Cypress Lawn cemetery, where his brother pastors in the city committed his body to its place of rest amid a profusion of floral tributes from far and near.

"Another soul has finished the pilgrim path below,

No more to see but but dimly, but face to face to know."

T. B. WRIGHT.

Thomas Benton Wright was born April 16, 1856, near Virden, Illinois. He was the son of Preston and Susan (Dawson) Wright, who came from Kentucky to Illinois in 1849. He was one of the younger of thirteen children and was educated and lived much of his life in the vicinity of Virden. He was married to Emma Day Wright in 1878. Two children were born of this union, Mary Florence and David Allen. The latter lived only two years, but the former, after finishing school and University work, consecrated her life to God, and became a missionary. She was married to Kingsley E. Pease in 1901, who was from West Plains, Missouri.

They left for their work in Singapore, Malaysia, that same fall. After cheerfully giving herself to the work of the Master for one and a half years God took her to the deathless life in the Glory Land from the field where she had served her Savior. Mrs. Wright died June 20, 1896, at Rochester, Illinois. He was afterward married to Lilly M'Coy, of Rochester. One daughter came into their home, Helen Eloise, who was married in 1919, to Rex Good, of Coldwater, Michigan. They now live in Springfield, Ill. Influenced by the teaching of a devoted Christian mother, who was spared to him only nine years, Brother Wright was converted in his early teens, became an earnest worker for God, and entered our Conference on trial in 1888. He was pastor of a number of charges, besides serving in other capacities, especially as publisher of our Conference Minutes. He was an ardent lover of home, and home folk, and for twenty years had been a link in the family-chain-letter with his four sisters, reaching the 146th link. One of the bright spots in life for him was the family re-union, held near his old home, and of which he was President, or Vice-President, continuously from its beginning. Almost an invalid, since April 8th, last, he gradually lost physically, but gained in Spiritual strength. He patiently bore his sufferings, awaiting the will of God for relief and coronation. On Sunday, September 7th, 1924, he sweetly fell asleep to awaken in the presence of his Redeemer. Surviving him are his wife, the daughter, two granddaughters, and also two sisters, Mrs. Mary Gibson, of Girard, Illinois, and Mrs. Linnie Atterberry, of Kansas City, Missouri; a number of nephews and nieces, and a host of other relatives and friends. His supreme delight in giving of his life for the benefit of others has endeared him to all, and his departure from earthly scenes will be keenly felt by many who knew and loved him best. May that unselfish life be a benediction to each one, and a stepping stone to higher ideals and a deeper consecration to God and His cause.

Funeral services were held in the Temple with pastor H. C. Munch in charge. W. A. Smith, his former Presiding Elder, and who officiated at his second marriage, delivered the main address, with tributes by all his ministerial brothers present, who were also his pall bearers, with burial in the Rochester cemetery.

MRS. G. W. DUNGAN.

Eleanor V. Whitehead was born in Jerseyville, Illinois, January 7, 1844, and at the age of fourteen years, she united with the Presbyterian church, and was loyal to her church membership vows. Here she grew to womanhood. In 1864 she was married to Moses Daggett. One son, whom they named Lewis, passed away at the age of eleven months. Her husband died in 1876. She was again wedded, this time to Rev. George W. Dungan of our Illinois Conference, in 1884, and transferred her church membership to the Methodist Episcopal church. She shared with him as a worker and winner of souls the experience of a life in the itinerant ministry the remaining years of his active work in the Conference, and after his retirement in 1912, in Springfield, Illinois, up to the time of his translation, March 20, 1919. Thereafter she made her home with her sister, Sarah M. Loar, in Jacksonville, Illinois, where she fell asleep November 25, 1923. This sister, with a brother, Ellis E. Whitehead, both survive her. Three sisters and two brothers preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held at her sister's home on South Main Street, and her remains were taken for interment to Jerseyville, Illinois, by the graveside of her first husband.

MRS. ROBERT HONNOLD.

Mrs. M. E. Honnold, for many years a resident of Camp Point, Illinois, passed away at her home May 20, 1924, after an illness of five years. Her ailment had been gall trouble, and that, coupled from time to time with other afflictions, had so sapped her vitality as to keep her in bed her last two months, in which she grew weaker and weaker till the flickering flame of life died, and closed her earthly career.

Mary Elizabeth was the daughter of Walter and Katherine Norris. She was born April 11, 1843 on a farm in Baltimore County, Maryland. She was one of a family of ten children. She came with her parents to Adams County, Illinois, in 1854, and settled near Columbus, where she grew to womanhood. At the age of eighteen she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal church, and later in life placed her membership in our church in Camp Point where she has always taken a keen interest in the Sunday School and church work,

Our sister was united in marriage with Rev. Robert R. Honnold in 1871, at Columbus, who was then pastor there of our church. She readily adapted herself to the work of a pastor's wife, and moved with her husband to Barry, and later to White Hall, where he acceptably served those charges until his health failed. The family then moved to Camp Point, which has been their home ever since. For three years Sister Honnold devoted herself unceasingly to the care of her husband during his sickness till he died of cancer July 14, 1876. After his decease she gave her life to the care of her children, doing her best to develop in them the highest type of Christian character. Her church was her joy and pride. She ever maintained an interest in the work of the church at large, and kept in touch with the ministry of the church that toiled in the days when she was active as an itinerant's wife. She continued to love and enjoy her home and church life to the end, unailing in her hospitality, and was never happier than when entertaining her many friends and relatives in her home.

Her children remain to deplore her departure: W. L. Honnold, Los Angeles, California; Mrs. Paul M. Folckemer; Mrs. R. L. Rhea; and Miss Nellie Honnold, all of Camp Point. There are two grand-children, William and Irene Folckemer. She also leaves three brothers and two sisters, George and Dan. Norris, of Bowen, John Norris, of Baylis, Mrs. Yeargain, of Quincy, and Mrs. M. M. Moore, of Anaheim, California. After the death of Rev. Honnold his sister, Mrs. Ella Collier, greatly beloved by all of them, was the constant companion of Sister Honnold in the care of the home and the children. Many more distant relatives and a host of friends remain who will always feel that her life has been a great blessing to them.

Brief and fitting funeral services were held from her home, in charge of her pastor, W. M. Hailey, with burial in Evergreen cemetery, at Camp Point.

MRS. W. M. POE.

Another heroine of the cross has entered into her reward. The weapons of her Christian warfare were exchanged for the symbols of eternal triumph when Mrs. Melinda Frances Poe, widow of the late Rev. W. M. Poe, passed from this world into the larger life.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Yoke, and was born in Shelby County, Indiana, October 12, 1845. In her girlhood the family moved to Casey, Illinois, where she made good use of the opportunities for education and salvation that were available, and with her growth to young womanhood developed a strong and beautiful Christian character. In childhood she gave her heart to God, and united with the Presbyterian church, changing her membership to the Methodist Episcopal church when she married. Her disposition was quiet and retiring. Nevertheless so real was her Christian character that the impress of her personality was always felt.

She was united in marriage to W. M. Poe, September 26, 1875, and accompanied him to the session of the Illinois Conference in Springfield, that year, when and where her husband was admitted into our Conference, and she began her service as the wife of a Methodist preacher. For thirty years she shared with him the varied experiences of a preacher's toil and home. She shirked no responsibility, and was a model mistress of the manse. It is only just to say that her faithful service contributed largely to the successful ministry of her consecrated husband.

Three children were born to bless the home, Fred M., of New York City, Mrs. Nellie Frances Tudor, of Homer, Illinois, and Elmer, who preceded his mother in death. Failing health compelled the retirement of Brother Poe from the active ministry in 1905. Thereafter they made their home first in Urbana, then in Homer. He went hence November 21, 1914. Mrs. Poe is survived by both her son and daughter, named above, one step-daughter, Mrs. Laura Cadwell, of Whittier, California, and four grand-children, Grace Cadwell McLean, Ralph Cadwell, William Poe, and Genevieve Tudor. After years of ill health the angel messenger opened for her the gates of light, May 22, 1924, in the 79th year of her age.

Funeral services were held in the home of her daughter, in Homer, in charge of her pastor, Albert H. Flagge, and the body was given interment in the Homer cemetery.

Sleep on, beloved, sleep and take thy rest;
We loved thee well, but Jesus loved thee best.
Good night.

MRS. A. P. STOVER.

Mary Sunderland Stover, wife of the late Rev. A. P. Stover, died at her home in Delavan, Illinois, December 30, 1923, after a lingering illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Stover, the daughter of Richard Thomas and Martha Pratt Sunderland, was born in Zanesville, Ohio, April 23, 1851, and was one of a family of eight children. She came with her parents to Delavan in 1852. She united with the church in 1860, under the pastorate of Rev. J. B. Colwell. On April 27, 1871, she married William H. Nicoll, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. H. Webster, pastor of the local Methodist church. Mr. Nicoll died in 1896. Her marriage to Rev. A. P. Stover, a well known minister of the Illinois Conference, took place in Manhattan, Kansas, November 14, 1899. She served with Rev. Stover in the following charges: Paris; Kumler, Springfield; Lincoln; and Rushville. In 1909 Rev. Stover retired from the ministry and they went to Delavan to live, building them a comfortable home and remaining in it until they were each called Home. Rev. Stover preceded his wife in death, April 11, 1912. Mrs. Stover was by tradition and training well qualified to become a minister's wife. During the years she traveled in the Conference with her husband, she gladly gave the best of her time and effort to the charges he served. She was interested and helpful in every department of the church and gave intelligent sympathy to all its work. She was of a domestic, retiring disposition, but gladly put aside her inclinations, when called to public service. She centered her active interest in the church, to the time of her death, and was a member of the Board of Stewards when death called her. Knowing so well the peculiar trials of parsonage life it was her delight to minister in many kindly ways to her pastor and family. They found in her a constant friend. She bequeathed a liberal sum toward the building of a new church in Delavan and remembered the W. F. M. S. and W. H. M. S. in her will. She is survived by one brother, E. H. Sunderland of Kansas City, one sister, Mrs. B. T. Dunn of Oakland, California, and two daughters, Mrs. W. H. Mills of Decatur, Illinois, and Mrs. H. L. Haywood, of Pana, Illinois. Funeral services were held by her pastor, Rev. D. F. Nelson at her late residence and her body laid to rest in Prairie Rest cemetery, Delavan, Illinois.

MRS. E. A. WANLESS.

Sarah Earl was born December 5, 1843, on a farm near Azatlan, Wisconsin, where she grew to young womanhood. She lost her mother at the age of 14 years, and with her sister, two years younger, assumed the responsibility of making a home for her father and a brother, David, three years old, to whom she gave the care of a mother. Being a student, and determined to obtain an education, she sacrificed for the coveted goal. She attended Milton College in Wisconsin, later entering Rockford Seminary for girls, graduating in 1867. She taught school near Lake Mills, Wisconsin, close to her old home, for some years, then in 1871 went to the great unknown west, where she taught school in Walla Walla, Washington. Returning to the east, she continued teaching until she relinquished that task to take up the greater mission of becoming the wife of a Methodist minister, with its various duties. She was married in 1876 to Rev. E. A. Wanless, to whom she was a help meet indeed. Her great pleasure was to work among the young people in the various charges where her husband served. It was usually her privilege, as she termed it, to teach in Sunday School a young men's class, generally a large one. After faithfully working together with her husband in many charges to which he was appointed, they retired from their public ministry and came to Danville, Illinois, in 1906, to spend the declining years of their lives. Here Rev. Wanless departed this life November 7, 1915. His widow is survived by her step-daughter, Mrs. G. A. Clotfelter, and two step-grandchildren of Hillsboro, Illinois, one brother, Roy Earl, and one half-sister, Mrs. Maud Root, both of Minneapolis, Minnesota. The activity and energy of Mrs. Wanless, with her strength of character, left the impress of her touch, and made her a source of inspiration on all with whom she came in contact. After such a life of ministry and self-sacrifice as her public work demanded, she has entered into her reward, and her works do follow her, for her life influence will still live on telling for the Master's cause, with whom she has gone to dwell. She suffered a stroke of apoplexy February 24, 1924, from which she never recovered. Her spirit took its flight to celestial realms the seventh day of the following month.

Funeral services were held at her late residence in Danville, Illinois, conducted by Dr. T. N. Ewing. The remains were taken to Hillsboro, Illinois, for interment beside the grave of her husband.

Historical

HISTORICAL STATEMENT.

By Rev. Royal Wesley Ennis, Ph. D.

The name of Illinois first appeared as an appointment in 1803 when from that date to 1809 it was in the Cumberland District of the Western Conference which was formed in 1796. This conference comprised all of the country west of the Allegheny mountains. The first preacher assigned to Illinois was Benjamin Young. In 1810 Illinois was an appointment in the Indiana District of the Western Conference. In 1811 there was an Illinois District with Samuel Parker the Presiding Elder and an Illinois appointment with Jesse Walker and George A. Colbert as pastors. At the General Conference in 1812 the Western Conference was divided into two conferences; viz: the Ohio, embracing Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Eastern Indiana, Western Virginia and Northern Kentucky, and the Tennessee including Mississippi, Tennessee, Southern Kentucky, Western Indiana, Illinois, and all the territory west of Mississippi River. This year the Illinois District had Jesse Walker as Presiding Elder and the Illinois appointment had James Dixon as the pastor. In 1813 Jesse Walker was Presiding Elder with three appointments in the Illinois District, Illinois, Little Wabash and Massac. The only change the next year was the addition of a new charge, St. Mary's, and the combining of the Little Wabash and Massac into one charge. The year 1815 found the Illinois District with five charges, viz.: Illinois, Okaw, Cash River, Big Bay, and Wabash.

In 1816 the Missouri Conference was formed out of the Tennessee Conference and Illinois was placed in that conference and remained there with an Illinois District until 1824 when the Illinois Conference was formed out of the Missouri Conference and included the territory of the states of Indiana and Illinois. There were two Districts this year with ten appointments and Jesse Walker as a missionary to the settlements between the Illinois and Mississippi Rivers and to the Indians in the vicinity of Fort Clark.

In 1832 the Illinois Conference was divided by the setting off of the State of Indiana as a conference, leaving the whole state of Illinois in the Illinois Conference.

In 1840 the Rock River Conference was organized; in 1852 the Southern Illinois Conference was organized; in 1856 the Central Illinois Conference was organized, leaving the Illinois Conference with its present territory except that it included Calhoun County until the year 1902 when it was annexed to the Southern Illinois Conference.

From the Illinois Conference came the Indiana in 1832, the Rock River in 1840, the Southern Illinois in 1852 and the Central Illinois in 1856.

From the Indiana Conference came the Northern Indiana in 1844 and the Southeast Indiana in 1895. From the Northern Indiana Conference came the Northwest Indiana in 1852 while the Northern Indiana and the Southeast Indiana have merged with the Indiana.

From the Rock River Conference came the Iowa in 1844 and the Wisconsin in 1848. From the Iowa Conference came the Upper Iowa in 1856 and from the Iowa Conference and Upper Iowa Conference came the Des Moines in 1860. From the Upper Iowa and Des Moines Conferences came the Northwest Iowa in 1872. From the Northwest Iowa Conference came the Dakota in South Dakota in 1885.

From the Wisconsin Conference came the West Wisconsin and the Minnesota in 1856. From the Minnesota Conference came the North Dakota and North German in 1886 and the Northern Minnesota in 1895. In 1924 the North German Conference united with Minnesota.

From the Rock River and Minnesota Conferences came the Northwest German, in 1864, Northwest Swedish in 1877 and the Norwegian-Danish in 1880.

From the Northwest German Conferences came the Northern German in 1886 while from the Northwest Swedish Conference came the Northern Swedish and Central Swedish in 1896. In 1924 the Northwest German and Chicago German Conferences merged, forming the Chicago-Northwest Conference.

In 1839 and 1851 there were 15 Districts in the Illinois Conference, the largest number; in 1824, two Districts, the smallest number.

The largest number to come into the Conference in any one year was in 1851 when 47 new men identified themselves with the Conference, of whom Wm. McK. McElfresh was the last surviving member, he dying in 1909. In 1861 not a single person came into the conference by trial, transfer, or otherwise while two died, 13 transferred out, four were discontinued, one located and one withdrew making a decrease of 22 over the preceding year.

During the 100 years of the history of the Conference 623 have transferred out, 241 have located, 211 were discontinued, 61 withdrew, 13 were expelled, 10 withdrew under charges or complaints, six unknown, that is their names drop from the minutes without any notation as to why, and one was deposed, making a total of 1165 former members of the conference.

The Death list contains 360 names and the present membership is 331 making a total of 1862 who have been and are now Members and Probationers of the Illinois Annual Conference at the close of the First century of its history.

THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENCY OF THE ILLINOIS CONFERENCE 1824-1925.

This office was known as the Presiding Eldership until the General Conference of 1908 at Baltimore changed its name to the District Superintendency

Conference Rules

"1. The Conference shall meet at 8:15 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12 o'clock, noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

"2. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"3. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"4. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"5. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"6. No effective member of the Conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"7. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"8. All written motions, reports and communications to the Conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the Conference.

"9. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"10. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"11. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"12. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"13. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and, if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"14. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"15. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1) when a member has the floor, (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided, (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question, (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending, (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

"16. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"17. The mover of any question or resolution, that shall in any way place a financial obligation on the Conference or any member of the Conference or any church in the territory of the Conference, shall introduce the same before the Conference at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote on the same, and he shall post a duplicate typewritten copy of the same in a conspicuous place at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the Conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but, on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the Conference, and if the call be sustained by _____ members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than _____, may have their votes recorded by name.

"21. The District Superintendents shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the Conference in advance of the Conference Session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"22. Vacancies in the Conference Board of Trustees, the Conference Board of Stewards and the Conference Deaconess Board shall be filled by election of the Conference on nomination by the District Superintendents.

"23. All requests for special appointment shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

"24. The report of the committee on education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday of each session of the Conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

"25. The Statistical Secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the Conference Session immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"26. Each member in effective relation, and each supply, shall contribute a sum equal to the amount of 1-10 of 1 per cent of his cash salary to be applied as necessity may require to the purpose of securing expert accountants, or stenographers, or assistants, and for Secretarial Expenses.

"27. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the Conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

"28. These rules shall not be suspended except by a majority of all the members of the Conference."

The District Vice-Presidents gave verbal reports concerning the work of the Laymen's Association in their districts, each showing advance.

Committee on Resolutions reported as follows:

The Resolutions Committee realizing the world's challenge to Christianity in helping to bring together in one great Brotherhood of the Nations of the earth as well as the uplift and christianizing of our own country, fitting all for better service in the building of the kingdom of our Christ, wish to submit the following resolutions:

Be it Resolved: That we, the Laymen's Association now assembled, wish to extend our thanks to the members of Grace M. E. Church for their courtesy and use of the Church; be it further

Resolved: That we believe Evangelism should be the keynote of all our effort and recommend that special services be held wherever practical and that we urge our Laity to do personal work;

Resolved: That we urge the fullest publicity of the real facts of our need in the Home and Foreign Fields and that our Laymen work shoulder to shoulder with our Pastors in the World Service Movement, so that we shall not be forced to call back a single worker from this field;

Resolved: That the Laymen of the M. E. Church stand for the enforcement of Law and that we give our support to our officials to that end;

Resolved: That we commend the stand of the last General Conference on its peace pronouncement;

Resolved: That we heartily recommend the Daily Vacation Church School to and for all of our Churches. In these days of distraction, we need more than the Sunday Service of the Sunday School to tie up the childhood to Church and Kingdom. The Vacation Church School is proving most satisfactory because it interests the eager young mind and heart, and is of greatest value as an educational factor in this very formative period;

Resolved: That we unreservedly approve Church Night. "Take time to be Holy" is a good sentiment and song. It is one of the features in Church life today to put this sentiment into practical operation by instituting Church Night for a week-day evening in every Church, little or large. It is needed for it is most effective for fellowship, for study, for worship, for business. It is one of the marks of an efficient and growing Church.

Respectfully submitted,

S. E. DILLAVOU,
BERTHA KIMBLE,
J. W. HENRY.

The Secretary moved that formal and urgent requests be sent to the Pastor and Treasurer of the Official Board of each Church in the Illinois Conference that the $1.00 Annual dues be sent to the Vice-Presidents of each district before July 1st provided an arrangement cannot be made with each District Superintendent similar to the method employed by Dr. Fairchild, District Superintendent of Mattoon District.

Carried unanimously.

As members of the Area Council of the World Service, Springfield District reported the election of H. D. Lukenbill, of Springfield, and Decatur District reported that Dr. I. H. Neece, of Decatur, had been chosen. Other districts would elect their members within the coming month.

The Committee on Nominations reported unanimous recommendation of the following officers for the ensuing year: D. L. Musselman, President; Professor A. R. Crook, Secretary-Treasurer. District Vice-Presidents: Bloomington, W. F. Engle; Champaign, C. W. Groves; Decatur, I. L. Long; Jacksonville, Thomas V. Hopper; Mattoon, Judge H. R. Snavelly; Quincy, C. W. Caughlan; Springfield, H. S. Wiley. Carried.

The new President was formally introduced and announced the Executive Committee for the ensuing year as follows: D. L. Musselman, Professor A. R. Crook, C. C. Grimmett, I. B. Blackstock and Mrs. F. M. Wells.

It was moved and seconded that the 1924 Minutes of the Laymen's Association be published in the Conference Minutes as usual. Carried.

Upon motion the meeting adjourned.

Friday Morning, September 12th.

Joint Session Illinois and Central Illinois Conferences.

Presiding, C. C. Grimmett, President Laymen's Association, Illinois Conference; Honorary Chairman, C. P. White, M. D., President Laymen's Association, Central Illinois Conference.

Devotions were lead by Thomas V. Hopper of Jacksonville.

The old and new officers of both conferences were invited to come forward and occupy seats on the platform.

John B. Johnson, Carthage (Central Illinois Conference), and D. L. Musselman, Quincy (Illinois Conference), led in the discussions of "Unification." Dr. Parker Shields also spoke.

Mrs. G. L. Palmer, Bloomington, sang "The Mercy Seat" accompanied by Mrs. E. V. Young of Bloomington.

James E. McClure, Carlinville (Illinois Conference), and Edward Torley, Monmouth (Central Illinois Conference), talked for a "Warless World."

Dr. Merle English was introduced and told of the seventy-fifth anniversary of Illinois Wesleyan University.

Mrs. Asher of the Baby Fold, Mrs. Frields of Chaddock College, and Mrs. Pfizenmeyer for Cunningham Home, were introduced and spoke briefly.

H. B. Fisher, Streator (Central Illinois), and Harry Webb (Illinois Conference), (who read a paper from Horatio Hall of Palmyra) led the consideration of the topic, "Idealism of Youth."

Messages of affection were ordered sent to Judge I. A. Love about the accident to Mrs. Love and to Benjamin F. Kagey concerning the illness of his father and to C. W. Caughlan whose son was quite sick.

George Wilson, Quincy, spoke of "World Service." Mr. Musselman, Secretary of the Executive Committee Area Council, presented the question of approval of the World Service program of the Chicago Area Council and Dr. Harker moved the adoption seconded by Dr. Barbour and it was carried unanimously.

Dr. C. P. White, President of Central Illinois Laymen's Association discussed what is known as the "Kewanee Plan of Church Organization."

Dr. J. C. Baker, Wesley Foundation; President Davidson, Illinois Wesleyan University; and Dean Mumford, University of Illinois, were introduced.

Mrs. D. G. DuBois, Grant Park (Central Illinois), and C. W. Groves, Champaign (Illinois Conference), talked about "Amusements."

A general discussion of Unification, Warless World, Idealism of Youth, World Service and Amusements was led by Dr. E. E. Barbour, Peoria, the newly elected President of Illinois Laymen's Association.

Mr. Riley Johnson, Tuscola, officiated at the piano for the hymns during the sessions.

Benediction by Rev. A. V. Babb.

Meeting adjourned for the Luncheon at the Illinois Hotel where Bishop Hughes addressed the laymen.

C. C. GRIMMETT, President;

IRA B. BLACKSTOCK, Secretary.

Daily Proceedings

FIRST DAY.

Beardstown, Ill., Wednesday, Sept. 16, 1925.

The Illinois Annual Conference convened for its One Hundred and Second Session in the First Methodist Episcopal Church. Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, presiding over the Conference for the first time, called the session to order at 8:45 a. m., announcing Hymn 560 beginning "And Are We Yet Alive?" The Bishop led in prayer. Hymn 530 was sung and the Bishop delivered the devotional address which was based upon Matt. 18:20, "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

W. A. Schell, in behalf of the members transferred from the Indiana Conference to this Conference, extended greetings to Bishop Hughes who was formerly a member of that Conference, to which the Bishop responded.

The Bishop, assisted by the District Superintendents and the pastor of the Church, administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The Communion Hymns were 233 and 234. During the reading of the Ritual Sentences, an offering was taken to assist a student in college.

Roll Call—The Secretary of the last Conference called the roll and 216 members and 20 probationers responded.

Organization—On motion of E. G. Sandmeyer, C. H. Young was elected Secretary with power to name his assistants. Assistants named, C. W. Hamand, J. E. Evans, J. Fred Melvin, and R. L. Steed, Registrar.

O. H. Meyers was elected Statistician and he named E. H. Sauer as his assistant.

H. H. Waltmire was elected Treasurer, and E. A. Hedges, Auditor, and they named their assistants. (See lists.)

Bar of the Conference—The entire auditorium was fixed as the Bar of the Conference.

Official Program—The printed program was made the official program of the Conference, subject to necessary changes.

Reports

(A) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT.

Freeman A. Havighurst, Superintendent.

Bishop Hughes and Fellow Members of the Illinois Conference:

One year ago by the appointment of Bishop McDowell, I was called upon to face duties I had always hoped I should never be appointed to undertake and from which I had four times previously asked to be excused. However, though entering upon the District Superintendency reluctantly, the work for the year has brought me many new, happy and interesting experiences. The good will and co-operation of the pastors, the gracious hospitality of the parsonage homes, the new friendships formed with outstanding laymen of the churches as well as the exhilaration of driving more than 10,000 miles through many beautiful towns surrounded by attractive and fertile country, have made the year for the most part a constant inspiration and joy. Alas! however, my study has become an office, new books placed upon library shelves have waited long to be read and I frankly confess that the hairs of my head greatly outnumber the new sermons and addresses I have had time to prepare.

In presenting this my first annual report as a District Superintendent, I may say the year has been one of successes and achievements and of difficulties and partial failures—successes sufficient to encourage and difficulties enough to keep one humble. To successfully do the work devolving upon the minister in this confusing modern day taxes the ability and the devotion of the best and strongest men of our generation. I believe the men of the Bloomington District have measured up to the greatness of their task at least reasonably well. If we have done our best, we come to the close of the year with the joyful consciousness of the approval of our Great Leader and Master. If we have shrunk from strenuous labor, if we have given way to temptation to lives of ease and comfort, if any of us have loafed on the job, there should come to us as we stand here to give account of our stewardship a sense of shame and a realization of our recreancy and a holy determination that it shall not be so another year. The responsibilities are too great, the results of half-hearted work too disastrous, to permit of anything but the best work of which each of us is capable.

Time would fail me to make honorable mention of each pastor who has some record of worthy achievement. Doubtless, many whose names do not appear may be as worthy of mention as those whose names are introduced into this report.

Ministerial Changes.

I found the work of the District in good condition with no problems of especial difficulty left over to embarrass me. Only two charges were left to be supplied for which I found two excellent retired brethren, Dr. Chris Galeener for Covell and the Rev. A. N. Simmons for Wapella. In June, Brother E. C. Sandmeyer, who was supplying the Seymour charge, asked to be relieved in order to continue his graduate studies in California. I secured W. J. Goreham, principal of Armstrong High School, to supply the charge for the summer. During the year the parsonage homes were spared the sorrow of bereavement. However, one of our pastors, the Rev. J. F. McAnally, was seriously ill and though his health is somewhat improved, his physician has advised him not to continue the active work of the ministry. He will, therefore, at this session of Conference, ask for the retired relation because of disability. Brother McAnally is a man of unusual gifts and educational qualifications whose ministry did not reach its full fruition because through most of the years he was handicapped by ill health. Another of our pastors, the Rev. A. A. White, after thirty-five years of distinguished and fruitful ministerial service, having reached the age of retirement, will ask to be placed in the retired relation. It may be reported here also that two of our brethren, M. J. Hall and A. L. Wood, were recently injured in automobile accidents. Brother Wood's injury was the more serious, requiring the amputation of his left hand, but he hopes to be ready for work at the beginning of the new conference year.

There will be two candidates in this district for admission on trial.

Evangelism and Church Membership.

The chief work of the ministry is still the winning of people to Jesus as their Lord and Master but evangelism is no longer confined to one method. Our pastors this year have been at work in many ways, using the revival method, various methods of Sunday School evangelism, following the Guy Black plan, and by personal pastoral labor pursuing the "still hunt for souls." I have a conviction that the Sunday School will for some time be our best evangelistic field but that we shall have to be more careful and more intelligent in dealing with childhood evangelism. There is a good fruitage to show for faithful, evangelistic labor on the part of our ministers. Several excellent revival meetings and many pre-Easter meetings were held. The most notable revivals were at Park Church with 246 conversions reported and 67 accessions into full membership; at Weedman 39 conversions and 39 accessions; at Clinton 82 conversions and 80 accessions; at Lincoln 100 conversions and 90 accessions; at Arrowsmith 51 conversions and 50 accessions. There were other excellent results where other methods were used. Altogether there have been 997 decisions for the Christian life, and a total of 1138 received into full membership from preparatory membership or by transfer. There is a net gain of 766.

Local Finance.

I am glad to state that there are no deficits on ministerial claims in the district. In some of the charges it has required heroic work but they have the fine satisfaction for their effort of knowing that all claims are paid in full. An increase in salary has been voted at the following places: Weedman $300, Hopedale $300, Mason City $200, Downs $200, LeRoy $200, Waynesville $200, Mahomet $100, San Jose $100, and Arrowsmith $80, a total of $1,680. $400 additional is probable. Unfortunately, this encouraging record is spoiled by the action of the Farmer City Church to carry out a decision reached more than a year ago to make a sharp cut of $500 in salary. Under this head, I also report that the Area, Conference and District Expense Fund has been paid by all the charges of the District.

World Service.

I have endeavored most earnestly throughout the year to impress both the pastors and the churches with the tremendous importance of the World Service cause. I have reason to believe that practically all of the pastors have done faithful and diligent work for World Service and have done all that could be reasonably expected. Many took advantage of the Easter opportunity and some of Christmas to take special World Service offerings in the Sunday School. The World Service canvass I believe was faithfully made in every charge. In spite of well-laid plans and earnest work by the pastors, the total for World Service will show a further loss as compared with recent years. Nevertheless, it is encouraging to report that twelve charges show a gain of a total of $1,475. Gibson City gains $398, Mahomet $350, and there are smaller gains by DeLand, Delavan, DeWitt, Fisher, LeRoy, Green Valley, Saybrook, Waynesville, Wapella and Weldon. The total reported for the thirty-nine charges is $25,999. There is a grain of comfort that we may extract from the report of further decrease in the fact that World Service contributions as distinguished from payment on Centenary pledges are larger this year than last year.

Building and Improvements.

There have been many material improvements of a minor character and some major projects have been carried out or are in the process of being carried out. At Arrowsmith the church has been re-decorated and the basement enlarged at an expense of $2,000. Atlanta Church and parsonage have been improved at a cost of $515. A new roof, furnace and garage at Beason have cost $1,050. $1,200 has been raised at DeLand for re-decorating and other repairs. $500 have been spent on DeWitt Circuit. Gibson City re-decorated its church at an expense of $1,353 but secured $2,190 which will provide for still other needs. On the Heyworth Circuit, $700 was spent on basement repairs at Heyworth and painting and roof repair at Wesley Chapel. LeRoy re-decorated its church at an expense of about $1,400. Mansfield parsonage was greatly improved at an expense of $550. At McLean, $500 was spent on a new furnace and other small repairs. At Waynesville, the parsonage was painted and a new porch built at an expense of $600. Weldon put on a new roof on the church costing $750. Improvements costing less than $500 have been made at several charges. At the following places the amounts indicated have been paid this year on improvements undertaken preceding this year: First Church, Bloomington, $6,000; Grace Church, Bloomington, $3,325; Fisher, $1,200; Hope-dale, $2,200.

Among major building operations may be mentioned the building of a new parsonage at Bondville valued at $5,500 without the lot, all of which is covered by subscriptions and $2,000 of which is paid. The parsonage at New Holland completed late in the fall cost $4,100 on which $3,000 has been paid this year. Park Church Bloomington, is carefully but surely pushing forward its building project which will cost about $55,000. Sorely disappointed in their confident expectation of $15,000 to $20,000 from the Church Extension Fund, Rev. W. E. Keenan and his people have nevertheless faced their task with heroic spirit. They have secured $15,000 in subscriptions from their own membership and expect about $5,000 more. An appeal to their friends in the city and elsewhere will be made and it is hoped that the building operations will be begun sometime during the new conference year. Rev. T. H. Tull and his people are also making progress toward a new church edifice at Clinton. Additional ground has been purchased in recent months and it is probable that the coming conference year will see a great church building project launched in Clinton.

The crowning building enterprise is at Lincoln. This project has grown in magnitude during the year, the people deciding in the fall upon somewhat larger plans and finally in the spring determining to build in stone instead of brick. The cornerstone was laid in July and the church will be completed during the new conference year. The church when completed will be worth $135,000 and will rank with the very best church structures of the conference. Brother Grummon and his people are to be congratulated on their vision and courage. The total cost of buildings projected and improvements made is $212,938 of which $110,425 has been subscribed and $58,250 has been paid. In addition, $12,655 has been paid on old indebtedness. A total of $70,915 has been paid in cash this year on buildings and improvements.

Women's Societies.

The Ladies' Aid Societies, sometimes going under another name, have been abundantly active. In addition to making a helpful contribution to the social life of the church, they have raised during the year the magnificent sum of $25,064. Of this $4,700 has been contributed to local budgets and most of the remainder to church and parsonage improvements. The auxiliaries of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society and Women's Home Missionary Society have had a good year, furnishing a most helpful missionary influence in the churches and in nearly every case securing as much or more for the missionary cause as in the preceding year.

Sunday School.

The Sunday Schools have enjoyed a particularly good year with an average attendance of 5,170, an increase of 502 or nearly ten per cent. Park Church gained 46 in attendance, Clinton 60, Lincoln 37, Mahomet 43, Weedman Ct. 52, Delavan 25, Fisher 22, Mason City 20. In several churches where there are the proper facilities, some progress was made in further departmentalization of the schools. Ten of the Sunday Schools conducted Daily Vacation Bible Schools with an enrollment of 886. The pastors are enthusiastic over the results. At Clinton and Mason City there are plans for Week Day Religious Instruction.

Epworth League.

The Epworth League under the presidency of J. W. Starr shows a year of progress. We held four group rallies in the fall with an average attendance of over one hundred at each. There was an attendance of 264 at the annual convention at Heyworth. Park Church League won the banner with 1,174 points, 269 more points than the banner league made the year before. Bloomington District sent 102 delegates to the Jacksonville Institute, ranking next to the Jacksonville District in number attending. The Rev. H. L. Thrall, Third Vice President, deserves credit for the excellent success of the Booth Festival held at the Atlanta Fair Grounds. A considerable increase in attendance and in contributions are reported. The reports I have received from the pastors indicate a gain of nearly nine per cent in membership and attendance at devotional meetings. Thirty-five study classes have been conducted with an enrollment of 442. There are only four Intermediate Leagues and nine Junior Leagues in the District but they are much appreciated where organized. There are interesting Junior Churches at Clinton, Atlanta, Fisher and Beason. They are worthy of study by other churches.

Church Night.

There has been growth in the observance of Church Night in the District. Fifteen of our churches reported an average of eight weeks and an attendance of 954. Farmer City, Heyworth and Weldon each report a weekly attendance of over one hundred. Thirty-one study classes were conducted with an attendance of 704. I am convinced of the value of Church Night when carefully planned for. In this connection it may be of interest to know that twenty-one of the thirty-nine charges hold no prayer meeting. In two churches prayer meetings were newly established this year. In the eighteen churches which conduct prayer meetings, the attendance varies from five to fifty-five, the largest attendance being at Park Church with an attendance of fifty-five and at Clinton with an attendance of thirty-five. However, the prayer meetings which are not large are also often spoken of with much appreciation by the people.

Church Papers.

I have endeavored to emphasize the importance and value of our church papers in our homes. We have made a gain of fifteen per cent in the circulation of the Northwestern, the total number of subscriptions in the District being 502. Forty-six other Advocates are taken, 307 Epworth Heralds and eleven Methodist Reviews.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

Bloomington District has within its bounds the largest and perhaps the most important institution in the Conference, the Illinois Wesleyan University. While the college will be more fully represented by a separate report, a brief word is both the privilege and the duty of the District Superintendent. Illinois Wesleyan has closed its best year and is just entering most auspiciously upon a new year. President Davidson has given the college skillful and inspiring leadership. The outlook for the future is most promising. There is a strong faculty and a fine college spirit among the student body. I trust that all of us at Bloomington, faculty, churches and pastors, will recognize more than ever before the tremendous significance of these years in the religious development of the young people attending the college and surround them with those Christian influences they so much need in these formative years of their lives.

In conclusion, I desire to express my heartiest appreciation of the good will and sympathetic co-operation of the pastors and the splendid body of laymen of the District. I have endeavored to give the best leadership of which I am capable but the credit for the results achieved belongs of course for the most part to the pastors and the laymen of the individual churches. If it be my lot to superintend the District another year, I shall endeavor to make my part of the work more perfect than in the year which has closed. Let us pray for a larger vision of the Kingdom and for a deeper spiritual life on the part of both ministers and laymen. To have some part as a co-laborer in the building of a better world under the leadership of Christ, our Lord and Savior, is a calling which should inspire the heart of every true and aspiring soul. With hope, optimism and eager spirit, we turn our faces toward the new year.

CHAMPAIGN-DANVILLE DISTRICT

A. K. Byrns, Superintendent.

Bishop Hughes and Members of the Illinois Conference:

Among the several visions which Ezekial had is one of a mystical person dressed in a white robe, carrying an inkhorn at his side and keeping a record of what transpired. In the 11th verse of the 9th chapter of his visions the following statement is made: "And behold the man clothed with linen which had the inkhorn by his side reported the matter, saying I have done as Thou hast commanded me."

If the transactions of that far off day were in any sense kept account of by a divinely appointed scribe, we have every reason to believe he is still walking the earth, in the white robes of truthfulness, with the inkhorn at his side, recording the achievements of men, especially of those who are assigned the tasks of carrying out the divine commands and will.

Two questions thrust themselves into my mind at the beginning of this report.

First, if what I am about to report would be included if the divine scribe were making it, and if what I am leaving out might not make up the most of his report?

My second question is—if there may not be a long distance between his final statement in which he said—"I have done as thou hast commanded me," and the actual fact respecting the tasks which have been committed to us. Yet even with these questions in our mind we can do no better than to follow the well established form of such reports trusting that in some degree at least it may resemble His report and reveal in some degree also, the carrying out of the commands of Him whom we have set ourselves to obey.

Changes.

Brother C. S. McCullum, on account of impaired health was compelled to give up his work on the Gifford-Penfield charge about the middle of the year. E. L. Carson has cared for the charge since that time.

Mrs. H. F. Delap, the pastor's wife at Sidney, was advised by her physician, after a serious illness, that a few months complete rest was necessary to her recovery. Consequently, Rev. Delap asked to be released for the remainder of the year. Lloyd Scheerer was placed in charge at Sidney. I am glad to report the promised recovery of Mrs. Delap has been realized.

At Oakwood, R. B. Spurlock took the place of Charles Spear who had to relinquish on account of the serious illness of his parents.

In some respects this year has been one, we believe, of unusual progress as revealed by the following items:

Church Members.

Reports from the pastors indicate that there have been received during the year a total of 1,223 members. Of these 588 have been received from preparatory membership, 546 by certificates, and 89 came from other denominations.

The losses by death have been 130, to other denominations 36, and by certificates to other M. E. Churches 217, leaving a net gain in church membership for the year of 840—which is 6 per cent increase on the basis of last year's report in the Conference Minutes.

Sunday Schools.

The net gain in average attendance in our Sunday Schools this year over last year has been 705, which is more than 12 per cent increase.

We now have what we believe to be the Sunday School with the highest average attendance of any Methodist Church in the State of Illinois. It is First Church, Champaign, which has had an average attendance for this Conference year of 929.

Religious Vacation Schools were held in twenty-five charges of the District. The total enrollment was 1,375. No service of the church has proven more profitable or met more unanimous approval. Comments like the following have been received from thoughtful observers: "More valuable than two years of Sunday School." "No longer an experiment, a real success and of great value." "The very best thing for any church." "One of our church's greatest tasks," etc.

Rural Association.

Our District Rural Association has had a fine year under the supervision of Miss Marie Marvel, our Rural Director of Religious Education, and Rev. J. H. Singleton, Conference President.

Monthly noon luncheons have been held with the small town and rural pastors of the Champaign County group throughout the year to facilitate the carrying out of a unified program. Epworth League retreat, interchange of dramatic programs, Gospel Team work, Teachers' Training Courses, special conferences, scores of personal interviews by the director with Sunday School teachers, League officers and social workers, and Religious Vacation Schools in almost every charge are only some of the activities which have been promoted through this organization.

Dr. W. A. Goodell of the Wesley Foundation has rendered inestimable service in giving intensive Teachers' Training Courses in various community centers. The Student Council of the Wesley Foundation has also co-operated as well as other organizations of the University of Illinois. In all 53 students have assisted during the past year in the Rural Association work. The creating of right methods, better equipment, efficient leadership and with all, to establish a new outlook in these fields, has been our aim.

Epworth League.

We have an enrollment of 1,678 members in the Epworth Leagues of the District. More than 100 attended the Institute at Jacksonville. The League means business and is growing in numbers and influence yearly. In several chapters there are fine groups of Life Service members.

Church Property.

Two fires occurred during the year. One at Catlin destroying the old parsonage which we still owned, though the church had purchased a new one three years ago. It brought to the trustees $1,500 insurance money which was promptly applied on the indebtedness of the present pastor's home.

On April 2nd Lincoln Church, Danville, burned to the ground. When this occurred the congregation of that church were within a week of letting a contract for a $30,000.00 parish house which they had long needed and were now ready to sacrifice to their utmost to make possible. This catastrophe thrust upon them the necessity of undertaking, not a $30,000.00 building but one costing $100,000.00. Nothing in the record of the heroisms of the church builders of the early days can surpass the splendid courage of this fine group of people, inspired and directed by that patient, wise and unconquerable leader, Rev. F. E. Lockridge. They have undertaken the full task of providing an adequate plant and are well within the requirements of the Discipline with $75,000 in money and good subscriptions. The contract has been let and on September 8th ground was broken for the new church and parish house which will soon rise above the ashes of the building destroyed only six months ago. Both gratitude and commendation is due the citizens of Danville of all denominations for their sympathy and financial support in this new church undertaking.

McKinley Church, on the east side of Danville, is in the process of adding a new room and basement to the present equipment, which will give about three times as much space for Sunday School and social work as formerly. The cost of this improvement will amount to about $3,000.00.

In January of this year our church at Dewey dedicated their new plant which consisted of a parish house and Ladies' Aid equipment attached to the church which they already had. In addition to many hundreds of dollars of donated work the cost was about $2,800. The entire community is justly proud of this splendid achievement.

Tilton remodeled their old parsonage, which was located on the lot adjoining the church, into a parish house and it is serving most helpfully.

Central Park paid the last of the indebtedness on that church which they had been carrying in the building and loan for the past ten years. Their next step is to add another room to their present building.

St. James' trustees have collected about $24,000 of their $175,000 new church fund pledges. The architectural plans have been agreed upon and every month brings them nearer the realization of their building.

The church at Potomac has been redecorated inside and out.

At East Lynn, the pastor with his good people put on a campaign during the month of July for a new parsonage fund by which they realized $6,500 in cash and subscriptions. About that time an unexpected opportunity came to them to purchase one of the best homes in the community which is modern in every respect and almost new. The price paid was $4,500 which is estimated, by all who know the building to be a great bargain. It is being refrescoed and put in readiness for occupancy immediately following Conference.

Many other improvements have been made such as new furnaces, and painting of churches and parsonages, etc., which we will not now take time to mention. Indebtedness on church properties to the amount of $40,391.00 and on parsonages $7,775 have been paid.

Ladies Aid.

The Ladies Aid Societies of the Champaign-Danville District have, I verily believe, broken all former records in the amount of money they have raised and expended in helping meet the needs of the local churches. They are real "Aiders."

W. F. M. S. and W. H. M. S.

I have every reason to think the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies will show a marked advance in giving over last year. This is indeed gratifying in the face of the lowering World Service returns. One factor doubtless which makes this possible is the educational program which these two organizations carry on with constancy and persistence. The women know our mission fields as the men do not. To know is to act.

World Service.

I scarcely know how to approach this part of my report. In most cases the pastors have put forth faithful efforts in trying to cultivate our people to confidence in and loving loyalty to our benevolent activities. The result in money figures will, to say the least, be disappointing. Though we have tried to set "a goal of advance" and the pastors generally have believed they should reach it, the present indications are that we will fall considerably below the district totals of last year. Some of this, however, will be accounted for in the fact that in last year's report there was a single gift of $10,000.00 from the will of Brother E. N. Crane of Rantoul.

Cunningham Children's Home.

Our Cunningham Home located at Urbana is worthy to be spoken of as "God's own institution," under the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Illinois Annual Conference. It gives home, education and mother care to scores of otherwise helpless children. This year, under the wise and efficient management of the new superintendent, Miss Ara Vaught, has been one of great satisfaction.

A quotation from her pen gives the following interesting and commendable information:

"We have had our capacity taxed all year with an average of seventy-five and eighty children. Seventy-six children in the home now; fifty-five attending the public schools in Urbana. Three of our boys entered Chad-dock Boys School this fall. We have made some very substantial improvements. A new library, a new hot water equipment in two buildings, four drinking fountains installed, a new electric bread-mixer, an electric mangle, a new Ford sedan, success with chickens and garden, a splendid group of workers, children well and happy. We have made room by shifting furniture for nine more beds."

The Wesley Foundation.

For four years now I have been an interested and thorough student at first hand of the Wesley Foundation. My office is in the Social Center Building and I therefore have had unusual opportunity for observation. I record these things:

1. The size of our task and privilege. 2,549 Methodist students were in the departments of the University at Urbana-Champaign during the regular school year. Steadily year by year this host of young life increases.

2. Second, the remarkable response from these students to the program of our Wesley Foundation. It is not something apart from them. It fits into their life. They assume leadership in the shaping and execution of its plans. They are as full of idealism as any generation of youth has ever been and they are effective workers in the development of the many sided and rich activities of the Foundation. They are not only meeting an immediate situation but gaining training as laymen in the work of the Kingdom.

3. The central place which religion has in the work of the Wesley Foundation. There is a rich vital religious spirit permeating all the activities. This fact makes all the more imperative the need of the new church. The inadequacy of our physical plant to care for the worship side of our students is appalling. Scores and we verily believe hundreds cannot worship with us who would for lack of room. We must have the new Trinity.

Dr. Baker's report will give the statistical items concerning the Foundation. I am eager out of my intimate contact with what is going on to have the Conference know what far-reaching, thorough, vital work he and his associates are doing.

In Conclusion.

I wish to record my gratitude to God for His unfailing Grace; to our Bishop for his courteous considerations; to my colleagues in toil—the District Superintendents for their brotherliness; to the pastors for their untiring devotion to their tasks; to the parsonage homes with their blessed children for their many kindnesses; to that fine group of twelve hundred local church officials for their co operation; and to the fourteen thousand church members for unfailing loyalty.

The year has not been without its mistakes, shortcomings, and failures, for which we are truly sorry but we dare entertain the hope that the days and years to come may bring both improvement and progress.

DECATUR DISTRICT.

A. M. Wells, Superintendent.

Bishop Hughes and Members of the Conference;

At the close of the last Conference session there were five charges in the Decatur District left to be supplied. Sanner Chapel received very cordially Alva C. Jacobs, the son of a Methodist minister, and he has completed a year of successful service and will ask for admission on trial in the membership of the Conference. Cecil E. Pease was appointed to Lakewood and F. H. Byrne came from Missouri to serve on the Windsor Circuit. James Wilson, son of Milton Wilson, of this Conference, has rendered an exceptionally successful and happy year's service at Cadwell and his people are enthusiastically looking for his return for another year. Rev. Mack Crider came from Indiana to supply at LaPlace but closed up his work on Easter Sunday, folded his tents and returned to the place from whence he came. Indiana furnished his successor in the person of Marion O. Smith, who took charge of affairs on June first. He has creditably finished the year and now seeks admission to the Conference on trial. Mrs. Smith, the gifted daughter of the parsonage of the United Brethren church, has received local preacher's license and, with her husband is in good favor with the people of LaPlace charge.

Health of Ministers and Their Families.

There have been many cases of serious illness within the District ranks. Mrs. Gordon Waggoner of Warrensburg, Mrs. H. F. Powell of St. Paul's church, Rev. W. A. Boyd and Rev. R. Y. Williams have each submitted to surgery during the year and Rev. E. K. Crews has been greatly incapacitated having become sick shortly after Conference and is yet in a poor state of health. Mrs. J. M. Judy has suffered throughout the year and is still in serious condition. Soon after moving to Sadorus last fall Rev. W. E. Whitlock was the victim of an automobile accident that nearly cost his life. Rev. A. S. Flanigan having suffered much through the year and solely because of health conditions is asking for the retired relation.

Death.

In January Mrs. H. B. Martin, the widow of one of the honored former members of this Conference, after a long illness passed peacefully into unawaking sleep in her home in Tower Hill where she had lived since the death of her husband, and her body was laid to rest in the family lot in the village cemetery near the body of her husband at whose side she had faithfully and lovingly labored through long years. In large measure she held the esteem and affections of the community where she had lived.

Births.

A son came to gladden the parsonage home of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Curry at Latham.

Dedications.

St. Paul's Church, Decatur, was dedicated on October 26, 1924. This property still carries a mortgage of $32,000.00 but it is hoped that this amount can be reduced to $20,000.00 within the next year when the present pledges will have expired and another financial campaign will need to be made. This church has a great field and a great future and when the tremendous handicap of this very large indebtedness which has already been a source of extreme annoyance has been provided for it will have a field and opportunity that will challenge the ablest service upon the part of its membership and ministry.

For near fifty years Sargent Chapel on South Broadway, Decatur, less than one block from the building that, in the pre-Volstead days was the Decatur Brewery plant, has carried on and nearly always the way has been a discouraging one. The creation of Lake Decatur has caused a shift in population and a revival of home building in southeast Decatur and soon after Conference last year an option was taken on a very fine city lot, 63x152 feet, several blocks east of the old location and in December the title for this lot came into our possession the purchase price having been fully paid. Immediately plans were set in motion for the building of a new church. The old building was in a most dilapidated condition and it was advantageously sold. The membership of this church was very small and these were nearly exhausted with the endeavors to maintain their work through the years. The new house is very modest in its construction, yet it will adequately provide for the comfort of the worshippers and add largely to the facilities for the activities and service that is there to be rendered. Under the leadership of the Pastor, Rev. J. T. Stretton, this achievement has been wrought. Not only is this a new building in a new location but also a new name has been adopted and it bears now the name of Cleveland Avenue M. E. Church. The appointment of John Thomas Stretton to this church was no less than providential. He has done immense service and is in great favor with the people, not only of the church, but of the entire community and his return to that church has been most earnestly and enthusiastically sought. The work and service of the year in this church worthily culminated on the last Sunday of the year, September 13, when the District Superintendent in the presence of a great throng solemnly dedicated the new building to the worship of Almighty God. I am glad to report that the entire cost was provided for on dedication day and we will now be free for the progress and development of the activities and life of the church. (1327-1940.44.)

Another addition to our equipment is the excavation of the basement under the church at Tower Hill where more than 2,000 hours of labor was donated and at a cost of $1,800, this valuable improvement has been made. At this place Brother Harry Ingram has been called upon to do heroic service and he has wrought well and brings up a worthy report.

Many of the churches and parsonages have been beautified with paint and decoration and minor improvements, a total cost, including the Cleveland Avenue Church and the Tower Hill basement, of $31,000.00.

Debts to the amount of $16,000.00 have been paid and there is still carried over indebtedness on church property to the amount of $72,000.00 and of this $32,000.00 is at St. Paul's and $25,000.00 is at Lovington and thus there is but $15,000.00 of debts scattered in small amounts throughout the District and it is hoped that most of these can be provided for within the next year.

World Service.

The World Service collections have received much attention and care but the results are not flattering to a great church and a great District. From the reports made by the pastors brought together during the last few days it would seem that we will report nearly as much as last year. These reports indicate a pre-conference total of $20,000.00. The miscellaneous benevolences aggregate $9,500.00.

Goal of Advance 40 Per Cent.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has made a good record this year, turning in reports totaling $10,788.00 of which $10,629.00 has gone to the mission fields. This is an advance of $684.00 over last year.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society has also had a good year and have made a worthy record reporting cash and supplies at $7,339.00 which is $387.00 in excess of last year.

Ladies Aid Societies of the District have raised $17,500.00 as a result of their activities for the home church.

The average attendance in the Sunday Schools will show an increase over last year.

An earnest evangelistic effort has been made through the year and as a result at least 637 persons received the sacrament of baptism and 1,161 persons were received into full membership in the church.

Ministerial Support.

There are a number of places in the District where the salary paid is inadequate and therefore it is difficult to secure men for these fields. Three charges in the District reduced the amount paid this present year below last year a total of $550, while fifteen charges have paid $3,425.00 more than last year, making a net gain of $2,875.00. The charges making these advances were, Assumption, $200.00; Cisco, $100.00; First Church Decatur, $500.00; Grace Church Decatur, $400.00; Sargent Church Decatur, $300.00; LaPlace, $100.00; Long Creek, $275.00; Lovington, $250.00; Maroa, $100.00; Sanner Chapel, $100.00; Warrensburg, $100.00, and in the rearrangement of the Elwin and Boody charges there is a net gain of $200.00.

In setting the salaries at the Fourth Quarterly Conference this year to be paid during the coming year two charges have made reductions aggregating $275.00 while ten others have generously made advances totaling $1,650.00, a net gain of $1,375.00. The following are the charges making advance: Arthur, $200.00; Bethany, $200.00; Cadwell, $50.00; Cowden, $100.00; Cleveland Avenue Church Decatur, $400.00; Elwin, $100.00; Hammond, $100.00; Lakewood, $200; Maroa, $200.00, and Sadorus, $100.00. Two or three other advances are likely to be made at the First Quarter.

District Visitors.

Miss Mabel Morgan, a missionary to India, spent two weeks in the District the first of last December speaking in at least nineteen places. During the month of May, Miss Kezzia Munson, missionary to India, made a District itinerary speaking in thirty-two places. Both of these ladies gave eminent service and satisfaction, their addresses being interesting, illuminating and inspiring. During the winter Dr. James M. Taylor gave a week's service in each of six places in the District and he was heard with interest and profit.

On October 26, Bishop Edwin H. Hughes visited the District dedicating the St. Paul's Church and speaking on Oct. 27 at the District meeting. He visited us again in the spring in connection with the Bi-district meeting. On August 20, he appeared in a lecture engagement at Monticello and delighted a large group at a luncheon meeting at the noon hour. Monticello was happy in his visit. On February 19, Bishop Frederick D. Leete of Indianapolis visited Decatur and spoke at a joint Quarterly Conference held by the Decatur city churches. Bishop E. L. Waldorf of Kansas City spent Holy Week, including two Sundays, preaching in Grace Church Decatur where he rendered a beautiful and popular ministry.

With gratitude to God for his goodness and sustaining grace and to my brethren, the pastors in the District, who have been devoted and earnest in service, for their friendship, we close this year of toil and rejoice that we have been permitted to have place in this great service of redemption

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

Arthur S. Chapman, Superintendent.

Bishop Hughes and Brethren:

The Illinois Conference adjourned a year ago with several charges to be supplied in the Jacksonville District. I secured for Loami and Lowder Brother A. E. Pentland, who comes into the Conference this fall; for Petersburg, I secured Geo. V. Herrick, of the Rock River Conference; Brother Leo Howard came to Oakford about the middle of the year; and Brother Keith Loveless, a student at the Illinois Wesleyan, took charge of the work at Berdan about the same time. These, together with the other men of the District have labored faithfully to advance the interests of the Kingdom.

Sickness and Death.

With the one exception of the Palmyra parsonage, there has been no serious illness in any of our parsonage homes. At Palmyra, Brother Theobald has fought a losing battle for his health, and after months of suffering feels that he must drop from the active ranks. It is to be hoped that a few months of absolute rest will bring him back to where he will be able to continue to do the same type of efficient service he has been doing during the past twenty-five years.

But while our parsonages have enjoyed an unusual degree of health, death came to two of our retired ministers, Brother Chas. Wehrman passing on in May, and Brother H. A. Sherman taking his departure the same month. Both of these brethren had labored faithfully for the Kingdom's interests, and have gone to receive a well earned reward.

Finances.

The District had a well worked out financial plan beginning the first week after Conference and continuing with the educational work for four weeks, followed by an every member canvass for both the budget and benevolences. The result on the budget side was most encouraging, the education and the systematic canvass making the work of financing the local churches much easier than the year before; but as a District evidently we were not prepared for the benevolent canvass, for it proved a great disappointment to both the District Superintendent and many of the pastors. But as a District we believe the canvass should be made in the beginning of the year for both budget and benevolences and most of the charges will try the same method again this year.

World Service.

We have striven in the matter of World Service to stop the retreat of last year, and have held before the people the "Goal of Advance." Some of the churches caught the vision and have responded gloriously, Grace Church leading with an advance of over one thousand dollars, while Franklin, Chatham, Carlinville, and a number of others have done proportionately as well, which shows that in most cases where the pastors and officials will cooperate the people will respond to renewed giving. This does not underestimate the work of some churches that have held the line this year, though last year there was exceptional giving on old Centenary pledges. As near as we can now count it would appear that the giving of the District will not be far from last year.

Evangelism.

One of the topics taken up at our fall meeting was the matter of evangelism, and the pastors and laymen voted to set aside everything from January first to Easter Sunday for this great cause. Evangelism was to be interpreted not as one long protracted meeting, but rather of putting first things first; of endeavoring to shut out everything for this period except those matters that pertain to the deepening of the spiritual life and the winning of men to Christ. Nearly every charge in the District co-operated in this program with the result that in many cases we have most encouraging reports. The net increases in membership in some of the charges are as follows: Grace Church 101, Centenary 83, Virginia 92, Greenfield 69. Others have labored under adverse circumstances, but there are about a dozen charges that report no conversions and a net loss in membership. Among those who have reported no conversions are men who ten and twenty years ago were known for their soul winning passion. One man wrote "For the first time in my ministry I am reporting no conversions and it breaks my heart." There is no time for more than this question; Has it come about that we have become so absorbed in finances and social betterment and recreation and increased salaries, that we have lost the passion for men and women that are lost?

Improvements.

The year has seen a number of our church buildings greatly improved and beautified. Athens lead off by expending about $8,000 in remodeling their building, redecorating, putting in new pews and new carpets. It required both vision and courage to do it but they have one of the most beautiful little plants in the District. Whitehall expended about $7,000 in a new heating plant, building an addition to the building, and making other improvements; Carrollton last year expended several thousand dollars in improving their plant, and continued by expending about $7,000 additional in making their basement one of the most complete Sunday School plants in the District. Petersburg worked over the basement at an expense of about $1,500, while Virginia expended $2,600 in decorating and otherwise improving the plant; Arenzville put in a new basement, Lynnville expended $900 on church property; but time would fail to tell of all the lighting systems, new roofs, paintings and general improvements on the eighty-eight buildings in the District, that have cost more than $50,000 and bespeak a love for the Lord's work which He must greatly rejoice in. Nor is the end yet. Early in August fire broke out in the roof of our church at Auburn and before it could be extinguished the building was entirely consumed. But while this is not one of the strong churches, numerically, they are strong in faith and courage, and plans are well under way to rebuild on the same ground a building to cost not less than $25,000.

While the task will not be so simple because the building still stands, at Rockbridge the people are planning to replace their old frame building with one of brick and stone.

The Illinois Woman's College.

Thirty-two years ago Dr. Joseph Harker and his companion were called to the Illinois Female Seminary. It was practically a private institution with an enrollment of 70 pupils ranging from the kindergarten grade up to high school. The property valuation was about $50,000. This year he steps from the active management of the school having saved the College from private ownership to the church, with an estimated valuation of grounds, buildings, equipment and endowment of something over $1,250,000, with the largest enrollment this fall in the history of the school, having 300 students working for degrees, and a group of friends of the school that constitute a multitude.

And now the trustees after careful study of the needs of the school and after advising with educators and churchmen all over the land have invited Rev. Clarence P. McClelland, Ph. D., to become Dr. Harker's successor. He comes well equipped by training and experience for the task, with a vision and a spirit of service that should win him the confidence and cooperation of all friends of this splendid institution. He has made a careful study of the needs of the school but as he stands at this registration period he finds confronting him the need for some friend that will make it possible for the Illinois Woman's College to care for needy girls as Mr. Rector has made it possible for DePauw to care for needy students over in Indiana. The trustees and visitors are back of the new president and ask the cooperation of ministers and laymen that the work so nobly begun by Dr. Joseph Harker may be carried on by his successor.

League Institute.

Again the Illinois Conference Epworth League Institute met this year in Jacksonville. Nearly six hundred fine young people enrolled and spent a week in trying to learn how they might be better workers for Christ and His church.

Other lines of work should be spoken of such as the Sunday Schools where we have an enrollment of more than 13,000; of the "Church night" services where scores are receiving training as workers in the church; the Epworth League, where Brother C. C. Nordling and his cabinet are inspiring the young people of the entire District, and the work of the women in the missionary societies and the Ladies Aid that toil faithfully all the year.

Survey.

In cooperation with the Board of Home Missions we have tried during the year to make an adequate survey of the entire District. Rev. S. H. Hoar of Easton has handled all the material sent in by the brethren, and has compiled the following interesting information:

The Jacksonville District is composed of a strip eighty miles long and fifty miles wide, extending from the Central Illinois Conference on the north to the Southern Illinois Conference on the south; it has a part of eight counties, but no entire county lying within its border. It has seven county seat towns. The District contains 4,000 square miles and has a population of 137,067. There are in the District 43 Methodist pastors and 88 active churches and two abandoned churches that have been ordered sold by the Illinois Conference.

Within this territory there are of all denominations 354 church buildings, 31 of which are listed as abandoned. Counting the 323 active churches we have one church for every 437 persons in the District. This would seem to leave a very small constituency but one pastor has reported a section where there is not a church or Sunday School within six miles, and when he was called a few months ago to preach a funeral sermon in the community he was told that the grown children of the man that was being buried that day, heard a sermon for the first time in their lives.

The report shows that 40 per cent of the churches listed are gaining, 20 per cent are remaining stationary, while 40 percent are actually losing ground. This makes it apparent that unless there is a statesman-like cooperation among all the denominations involved that some sections will be filled with small, unattractive, struggling churches, while other sections will become as pagan as India. In ten towns of 2,500 or more there are 67 resident pastors or one for every 665 population; while there are but nine resident pastors in the open country, or one for every 1,423 of population. There are 56 resident village pastors.

That the District offers still opportunity for men with evangelistic passion may be revealed by the fact that of the 137,067 population, 46,724 are claimed as members of churches, 21,009 are claimed as constituents, while 69,334 or 50 per cent are claimed by no church either Catholic or Protestant as either member of constituent.

It is in this field we have labored and by the loyal cooperation of pastors, officials and membership we have come to the close of another year with some tokens that we have met His approval; and we face the new year with a better understanding of our task and with a desire to do greater things in the year to come.

MATTOON DISTRICT.

E. G. Sandmeyer, Superintendent.

Bishop Hughes and Brethren of the Conference:

In bringing to you my first report as Superintendent of the Mattoon District, I desire first of all to express my sincere gratitude to God the Father, and Jesus Christ His Son and our Lord, for the Divine favors and the showers of blessing that have continually been pouring upon us during the year. We have deeply felt from the beginning that if anything worth while should be accomplished for His sake and for the Kingdom, that it would be "Not by might, nor by power, but by His Spirit," and we are more and more convinced that the things that abide are "The fruits of the Spirit."

It is also with a deep sense of appreciation that we express our gratitude for having had so worthy a predecessor in the person of Dr. W. D. Fairchild, who for seven years was at the helm, and who, like a general at the head of the hosts in the Mattoon District led them on "From victory unto victory." His was the master hand in the work. His genius at organization has left its indelible mark, and the journey through the year has been easier and more pleasant because he preceded us.

At the beginning of the year there were forty-two charges on the District, twenty of which are Circuits. Five of these were left without appointments. C. A. Curtis was secured for the Charleston Circuit, R. P. Geyer for the Federated church at Grandview, Clarence Skelton for our church at Greenup, Odus Mitchell for the Marshall Circuit, and R. S. Shaw for the Toledo work. Odus Mitchell could not continue his work on the Marshall Circuit, and Brother A. V. Babbs was secured to fill out the year. The District has been carrying on with forty-two pastors, thirty-three of whom are Conference men, and nine are supplies. Twenty-three of the pastors are new men in their respective charges. Two churches which have been inactive for a few years have been "born again" and will take their places in giving full ministerial support during the coming year. Two or three other inactive churches are beginning to show signs of life, and it is to be hoped that something can be done next year to have regular pastors in these neglected places.

Resident Bishop's Visits.

Bishop Hughes has been within the bounds of the Mattoon District four times this year. At our Fall District Ministerial and Lay meeting at Mattoon, at the Bi-District meeting at Tuscola, at the State Sunday School Convention in Paris, and later at the Chautauqua in the same city. On each occasion his message was an inspiration and his presence a benediction. Bishop, you have a most cordial invitation to keep up this fine record during all the years that you are among us.

District Organization.

The District is organized into five groups with two pastors and a layman as leaders. On several occasions this organization has been of great help in facilitating the work of the District, and some real results have been obtained. In one or two groups the organization has been especially helpful in our World Service Campaign, and it is greatly to be desired that these group organizations be used to a larger extent next year.

Evangelism.

In our first message to the pastors stress was laid upon the importance of a sane, effective and continuous evangelism. It is our conviction that if greater emphasis were laid upon the right sort of evangelism, there would be less need of revivalism in many of the churches. Practically every church on the District has had some sort of an evangelistic campaign during the year. In some instances the "Guy Black Plan" was used with marked success, as in Tuscola, Villa Grove, Marshall, Charleston, Paris, First and Mattoon. The result has been that not only were there large additions to the churches, but the entire membership became interested, and many of the laymen have discovered themselves and have experienced for the first time the joy of winning others to Christ and the church. In a larger number of the churches the continuous revival was held. The meetings continued from one to thirteen weeks. On the Martinsville Circuit, a five point work, George E. Baldrige, the pastor, continued for ninety-two nights in revival effort, being greatly assisted by his good wife, who gave herself to personal work and other helpful activities. As a result of these various meetings on the District there were 665 conversions, and 924 accessions to the church. For the most part the pastors have been their own evangelists; in some instances musical directors were secured. Rev. E. K. Towle rendered efficient service at Chrisman and at Hume where good meetings were held and many conversions secured.

It is our firm conviction that the right sort of evangelism will not only build up the spiritual life of the church and assure the growth of the Kingdom, but will also be the means of solving many perplexing problems. There is not a church on the Mattoon District, however small or isolated, but could carry his full financial obligation and measure up to the local responsibility; not a church but could pay every dollar of its World Service apportionment, if it were spiritually awake. It is not a question of ability; it is the larger question of a spiritual vision, and a deeper consciousness of their stewardship.

World Service.

Last year we were greatly humiliated when confronted with the fact that there was a large decrease in contributions to World Service. Mattoon District had its share of the slump and humiliation. With a view of preventing another such experience the District was organized early for a vigorous campaign throughout the year. The first thought was to inform the people of the seriousness of the situation and to give them information of the world's needs, and to lay upon their hearts their personal responsibility in the matter. The pastors have used every available means to bring this to pass. The canvass was put on in May, and where not completed at that time was continued until the day before Conference convened. It is impossible to say definitely at this time what the outcome will be, but the latest information is that we will not be far short of last year's giving, if we do not go beyond. Though it is greatly to be regretted that we cannot report more, this a notable victory, because in last year's totals there was more than fifty per cent of old Centenary money; this year there is scarcely any from that source, which means that many new pledges have been secured, and in many instances there has been increased giving.

Church Finances.

Most of the churches have more or less difficulty in adequately financing their local enterprises. This may be accounted for, in a measure, at least, because of a lack of systematic, businesslike methods. In most instances, even where the Every Member Canvass is taken, the difficulty seems to be that the work is not completed, and if completed, it is all too often neglected. With but few exceptions it is found that the deficit in local churches is in the hands of people who have either not been solicited, or who have not been carefully and regularly looked after. In most instances pastor's salaries are still inadequate for a comfortable support, and leave little or nothing for the education of their children and future needs.

Twenty-five of the churches on the District will hold steady on pastor's salary for next year. Four are slipping just a little. Twelve are increasing their salaries, namely, Allenville $150; Allerton $100; Charleston $200; Greenup $175; Hume $100; Kansas Circuit $125; Lerna $200; Martinsville Circuit $50; Metcalf $100; Paris Tabernacle $25; Sidell $150; Toledo $100; Trilla-Etna $100; making a total increase of $1,575.

A number of the churches are realizing the importance of an educated, trained and consecrated leadership, and are willing to give increased compensation where such leadership can be had.

Sunday Schools.

There has been a notable improvement in the Sunday School work this year. There has been an increase in most of the eighty-four Sunday Schools, with an average attendance of more than 7,000. Only three schools report a decrease in average attendance. The greatest need of our schools, according to reports from the Sunday School Superintendents, is "Trained Teachers." We have an army of 1,475 teachers and officers but many of them have no adequate training for their task. Most of the schools are paying their own way; in a few instances contributions are made by the church to the support of the school. On the other hand there are schools which contribute to the budget of the local church. The Sunday Schools of the District contributed more than $3,000 to benevolences this year.

We have emphasized in our Quarterly Conference the importance of using the literature furnished by our own church, and as rapidly as we can we are doing away with the cheap literature published for personal profit.

Epworth League and Young People's Work.

Mattoon District has pioneered in its young people's work. Even before the General Conference legislated to combine Epworth League and Sunday School efforts in the Board of Education, the Mattoon District operated along those lines. Under the leadership of A. A. Heinlein as District President and a corps of workers the young people's work has made progress. Four Sub-District meetings were held in the spring with an aggregate attendance of 477. And although Mattoon District is farthest away from Jacksonville, sixty-four of our young people journeyed to that shrine of inspiration and helpfulness, known as the Epworth League Institute. Our young people have a forward look and will not tolerate anything that looks like a backward step.

Vacation Bible School.

Nine churches held Vacation Bible School this year for a total of forty weeks. It is already assured that next year will see more of these schools in operation. With the Sunday Schools giving an average of only seventeen hours per year in religious instruction, it is easily to be seen that the Vacation Bible School is a vital necessity. Even with a bare two weeks' duration the Vacation Bible School will give the individual child more religious instruction than the Sunday School does in an entire year.

Church Training Night.

Ten churches held Church Training Night services, running all the way from two to fifteen weeks. The total average attendance was 815. The most notable success along this line was in Mattoon church where the pastor, Brother Beck, has again demonstrated the vast possibilities in this work. For fifteen weeks there was a steady increase in attendance, mounting as high as 470, and averaging for the entire fifteen weeks 388. Thirteen classes were conducted each Wednesday evening, taught by volunteer teachers of marked ability. This Training Night service in the Mattoon church has attracted church-wide attention and its program was printed in the Church Night Bulletin prepared by the World Service Commission.

Church Papers.

If more of the people called Methodist would take and read the church papers there would be some hope of their coming to a knowledge of the truth in regard to the work of the church, and their own responsibility in the matter. The latest report indicates that only a few more than five hundred Northwestern Christian Advocates are taken on the District, and one hundred sixty Epworth Heralds are subscribed for by the young people.

Material Improvements.

Early in the fall the people of Gays laid plans for church improvements, and when they had finished they dedicated on May 5th what is practically a new church, having expended in the neighborhood of $6,500 on the enterprise. The pastor, W. H. Stephens, deserves much credit and praise for his faith and sacrificial labors in leading his people. Dr. W. J. Davidson did what seemed to be an impossible task on dedication day, and got the entire amount of the indebtedness subscribed. He also rendered efficient service on the day of the Arcola re-opening, for which the people are indeed grateful.

Arcola, Redmon, New Hope, Paris Tabernacle and Kansas made more or less extensive repairs on church and parsonage property at considerable cost. Minor repairs were made at Paris First, Camargo, Marshall, Hindsboro, Hume, Ridgefarm, Edgar, Allerton, Toledo, Westfield, Newman, Sidell, and the Armstrong church on the Marshall Circuit. The total cost of these repairs will aggregate more than 1,900.

At Indianola the trustees purchased a ten room house for a parsonage, and although not modern in every respect, is adequate and comfortable. The trustees of the Harmony church on the Kansas Circuit sold their old parsonage and purchased a new modern home for their pastor. In both instances the cost was $3,000.

$7,100 has been paid on old indebtedness this year, and there is still an indebtedness of $14,500 on church and parsonage property. Brocton, under the leadership of the pastor, Brother S. C. Pierce, is laying plans to build a new church next year. And Metcalf under the leadership of the pastor, H. B. Ambler, is making similar arrangements.

Women's Work.

There are forty Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies on the District and they will report approximately $11,000 for the year's contribution.

Seven Woman's Home Missionary Societies will report a total of $4,373. These two societies are for the most part doing very fine work in their respective fields.

There is a Ladies Aid Society, or a similar organization, in practically every charge, and on some circuits in every church. These good and faithful women have saved many of our churches from financial disaster. They are always active and seem never to become "weary in well doing." This year they raised more than $15,000, and paid more than $3,000 on the running expenses of the church. In addition to this they have been the Pioneer subscribers to most of the building and improvement enterprises in all of our churches. Truly, as Bishop McDowell says: "If St. Paul were writing today he would not say what he said centuries ago, namely: "Brethren, help these women." He would say: "Brethren, get these women to help you." God bless these faithful women workers of our churches.

Pastoral Labors.

Forty-three pastors report 14,083 pastoral calls during the year. Thirty-nine pastors report 3,986 sermons preached, including revival sermons. Thirty pastors report having performed 261 marriage ceremonies. Forty-three report having conducted 319 funeral services, 103 of this number being for deceased members of our own churches.

There are sixty-one children in our parsonage homes, thirty-one boys and twenty-seven girls. Twenty-five of these girls are in grade schools, seventeen in High School, and three in college. Thirty-four of our charges have accredited High Schools, four have two-year High Schools, and four have no High Schools at all. We have forty parsonages on the district, twenty-three of which are modern, seventeen not modern, and only two charges are without parsonage homes.

Health.

Very little in the way of sickness has come to disturb the peace and happiness of our pastor-families. There have been few instances of minor sickness, some of which might have become severe but for prompt medical service, but as a whole these afflicted have recovered in short order and are again in good health.

Early in the year Mrs. C. W. Jacobs, of Casey, widow of our deceased brother Jacobs, passed to her reward, and early in the summer Mrs. G. A.

Frazier, the faithful companion of our honored retired brother, George A. Frazier, of Villa Grove, was translated from the church militant to the church triumphant. On Thursday, September 10, 1925, Brother W. E. Rose, an honored and respected retired brother of this Conference, passed away after a brief illness at Tuscola.

On The Honor Roll.

Five retired brethren live within the bounds of the Mattoon District. D. T. Black at Marshall, G. A. Frazier at Villa Grove, J. O. Kirkpatrick at Hindsboro, W. E. Means at Paris, and J. A. Stout at Martinsville, all of whom have enjoyed unusually good health during the year. The fellowship of these brethren has been a delight. Their sweetness of spirit, and their abounding faith, takes some of the sting out of the anticipation we have of one day being in that relation ourselves.

Eight pastors' widows also live within the bounds of our District: Mrs. M. F. Ault at Kansas, Mrs. S. W. Balsh at Mattoon, Mrs. J. M. Goodspeed at Tuscola, Mrs. A. C. Hunter at Pesotum, Mrs. H. W. Miller at Ridgefarm, Mrs. J. H. Pence at Camargo, Mrs. P. F. Thornberg at Martinsville, and Mrs. F. B. Ward at Sidell. When health permits these faithful women of the cross can always be found in their places of services in their respective churches.

Methodist Memorial Hospital.

The Methodist Memorial Hospital at Mattoon continues to grow in favor and is rendering service to an ever enlarging patronizing territory. During the year it has admitted 970 patients, eighty-two of whom were free patients, and sixty-two partly free. Three thousand four hundred fifty-seven dollars seventy-nine cents was expended this year for free bed work. Ninety-two of God's precious blessings first saw the light of day in its maternity ward. The Board of Trustees, of which Brother R. A. Gabbert is President, seeks to give the best that medical and surgical science can afford. The city of Mattoon has responded nobly to the support of this institution, but it needs help far beyond that which the city can give. Its greatest needs at this time are: A Nurse's Home, an adequate endowment, and liberal donations for its Free Bed Work.

A Challenging Opportunity.

One of the outstanding problems and opportunities of the Mattoon District and of the Illinois Conference has to do with the student situation at Charleston in the Eastern Illinois Teachers' College. Last year there were more than two thousand students registered in this institution. Of this number more than eight hundred expressly stated their preference for the Methodist church. Nineteen members of the college faculty also are Methodists. The School is rapidly expanding and the enrollment is increasing annually. The recent Legislature appropriated $175,000 for a new Manual Arts and Home Economics Building. This School is now a standard College, granting the Bachelor's Degree for four years' work.

The relations between our church at Charleston and the Teachers' College is most cordial. During the past year more than four hundred Methodist students have had active relations with our church through the service of worship. Epworth League, Sunday School, and other agencies of the church. Up to the present time the Methodist Episcopal Church has not invested as much as one dollar to meet this outstanding challenge in this tax supported institution where hundreds of our Methodist young people gather every year. This challenge is peculiar in that at least 95 per cent of the graduates of the school will become teachers and moulders of character, and it is highly important that those who are responsible for character formation should have the highest possible Christian ideals, and a Christianized training. Our church at Charleston under the leadership of the pastor, Brother Charles E. Pettit, is doing its best to minister to this fine group of young people. But it is easily to be seen that no single church unaided can adequately minister to this enlarging group as the situation demands. When 40 per cent of the student body of an institution like this is Methodist in faith and desire, and has persistently held to that percentage for a number of years, it appears that it is time for the church to give some attention to this strategic opportunity and responsibility.

Methodist Old People's Home.

Early in the Conference year, a good woman whose name I am not at the present time authorized to disclose, but one who does not belong to any one of our Evangelical churches, decided to dispose of her property, and after due consideration came to the conclusion that the Methodist Episcopal Church could best render the service desired. In accordance with her decision she deeded her beautiful fourteen room, modern brick home, with four acres of ground, to our church for the purpose of establishing a Methodist Old People's Home for the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The deed is now in the hands of our Conference Trustees, and the property will be available for use immediately upon her death. The property is valued at between $25,000 and $30,000. It is deeded to us without any obligation on our part, except that it be used for the purpose designated within four years after the donor's death.

A Closing Personal Word.

I would indeed be ungrateful if I did not register my sincere thanks to Almighty God for His goodness through the year, and to the brethren who served as pastors of our churches for their co-operation in our common task. We owe a debt of gratitude to the pastor's wives who have been so hospitable during the year, and to the devoted laymen for their co-operation and fine reception on the various charges. But for the help of all these we should have felt helpless and alone, but with them and their prayerful interest, we have felt that we were a part of a mighty host that cannot be defeated. For the most part the pastors of the District have co-operated in a most helpful way; they have responded to every appeal, and have been faithful to every charge committed to them. In many communities they were the outstanding leaders for righteousness. For their delightful fellowship, their brotherly consideration, and their personal and general helpfulness, we are devoutly thankful.

We are far from being satisfied with our first year's work; we had hoped to accomplish more. But with the way cleared by an acquaintance with the field, we shall hope by the Grace of God to bring forth a more abundant harvest in another year.

QUINCY DISTRICT.

E. S. Combs, Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

Never since the dawn of time when the stars sang together for joy was the race of life so swift as today. Truly, "Time and tide wait for no man." The years go by so swiftly that we do not realize that five years have gone by since we began to travel the ways of the Quincy District.

Apparently little has been accomplished, but the harvest we leave to others and trust God to give the increase in due season. Bishop Hughes says in that great sermon, "For God's sake." What a slogan for all souls! What a persuasion to righteousness! O, men of the priesthood, for the Master's sake let us work while it is day for the night soon cometh when no man can work."

We are workmen in the Master's Temple. We should be workmen that needeth not be ashamed. There is a work to edifying and a work to destruction. Dr. Cadman says in that great sermon on "Character and Work," "We produce after our kind either stuff for the burning or costly stones for the temple. Those who build ambitions to occupy spacious areas, or to fill up fields of vision, or from pride's promptings rather than for God's Glory or Betterment are left stripped and beggared at the last. The foolish ones who are busy with cap and bells, with dance and drink, with the making of money and with its spending, do not appreciate Paul's sublime philosophy on building, 'But the verities by which men are made firm as granite, pure as marble, refined as gold, chaste as silver, are part and parcel of our inmost selves.'"

So we have been trying to build on the Quincy District. We have done the best with what material we had given to us, but I appreciate the opportunity of being permitted to build and work in this great Illinois conference. I love this conference, for it has not only given light and life to me but to all my fraternity back to Washington County Court House, Virginia. Why should I not pause today on this, the 102d anniversary of the Illinois Conference and say, "God bless this Conference, and may the Lord help us to build and to build for eternity.

The year's work has been strenuous, demanding, exacting on soul, mind, and body; but under the burdens of long hours of toil and exacting patience in conferences, there has been an abiding joy and pleasure to know that the sacrifice was for a better life, homes, churches, and Kingdom.

Parsonage Homes.

Death entered our parsonage homes but once during the year. On February 14, Miss Doris Meyers, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. O. H. Meyers, passed on to the great beyond. She was a beautiful daughter and loved by all her high school mates. God bless this bereaved home.

These homes are occupied by godly folks, the worth of whom this land does not as yet know; occupied by men as the Sumamite said of Elisha, "I perceive that this is an holy man of God."

One layman said in a quarterly conference the other day, "I do not want to live in a town where there is no preacher to walk the streets. God bless the parsonage homes of the Quincy District and grant that we who occupy them may make and keep them veritable shrines of prayer and holiness from which there shall radiate a godly influence over the entire community.

Ministry.

There has been twenty-five conference men on the Quincy District this year, and seventeen supplies, all toiling at the task of the Kingdom. There have been three churches without pastors.

I would love to take an hour and tell of the work of these men of God; how that those in city and hamlet have toiled, sacrificed, battled against wrong and greed. Tell how they have humbled themselves to accomplish the great task of the Kingdom; how they have lived on small salaries, and like the disciples of old, carried neither script or purse because they had nothing to carry. I do pause to speak of Dr. G. E. Scrimger, who for fifty years has traveled the way of a Methodist minister in the Illinois Conference and will ask for retired relations this year. None has been more faithful during the years than this brother. May God's face shine upon him! They are not all Pauls or Apollos but they are all men after God's own heart. They are faithful to their great task. The demands upon them are great.

Dear comrades of the ministry, the task of leading the world to Christ is a great task—nothing like it—and if we are to be equal to the work, we must be equipped with knowledge. If ignorance is a crime in the world, it is a sin in the ministry. We also must possess the grace of our Christ and in a degree all the attributes that he possessed; but above all of these, we must be men of God, pure, holy and undefiled before God and the Church—yea, avoid every appearance of evil. Paul, the great preacher said to Timothy, "Keep thyself pure." Paul knew that of all men, the priest of God must live a pure and undefiled life from lip to heart, from step to deeds, from acts to thoughts. Men of the ministry, let us so love the Galileean that we will think or do no evil or give cause for offence or opportunity for gossip or pretext for reflection upon the sacred altars of our great Church. We must do this if we are to convert the world to God. Live, brothers, so when you meet the Galileean you will not blush for shame or have to apologize.

Good Literature.

There are something over 400 Advocates taken in the bounds of the Quincy District, which is an advance over last year; and about 250 Epworth Heralds. Then there is a large number of Women's Missionary Friend and Home Mission papers taken; but we still lack one great thing, the reading and absorbing of this good literature. I fear many of our people have become movie people instead of reading, observing, and absorbing.

Finances.

Finances are not the main objective but around them revolves and evolves the life of every charge and pastor. This year has been no exception. There have been financial problems, but most financial problems appear when there are other problems. Where the pastor and people are happy and the pastor has proved the right man in the right place, everything ends in the 100 per cent list. Even the benevolences move toward a higher goal under such conditions.

When I came to the district five years ago, it paid the smallest sum total of ministerial support of all the districts and had the largest number of deficitis. Twice it has reached the 100 per cent class, and from all indications will reach it this year; therefore, Quincy is no longer trailing the procession. Salaries have increased and some have decreased but the upward pull will be greater than the downward pull.

Building and Improvement.

During the five years on the district, seven new churches have been builded at a cost of about $300,000. This year, Basco remodeled their old church at a cost of $4,500. Doddville and Columbus are building new churches at a cost of $15,000 each. Each of these will be ready for dedication before Christmas. One of our good laymen gave his fine residence for a parsonage at Meredosia. It is modern and it meets a real need. The pastor is moving and it is open for occupancy.

Sunday Schools.

There are 87 Sunday Schools in the district and a total enrollment of 14,013. No other field presents so great an opportunity for evangelism and religious education as this field. The great need here is efficient, willing and trained officers and teachers. We are sending missionaries to the foreign field and home cities. Why not send some of our college trained workers to a district to work with our young people and let the mission boards pay their salaries? It will be money well spent, and it will bring great results in years to come.

Epworth League.

There are over 1,000 Epworth Leagues in the district. There should be five thousand, but for lack of trained leaders we are losing here every year. In May and June, under the leadership of Rev. Howard Leach, District President of the League, six group meetings were held for the young people of the district and there was an attendance of 725. These were great inspirational meetings which culminated in a fine District Epworth League meeting at Barry, and a fine class who attended the Institute at Jacksonville.

Laymen.

On July 23, at Quincy, the laymen of the district held a very interesting and profitable meeting for laymen only. Many of the ministers attended but the laymen furnished the program. This meeting was so profitable that another will be held in early October.

Chaddock Boy's School

This school continues to grow in favor with our Methodist Church, filling a needy and vital place in our connection. In May, Rev. W. G. Pulliam was appointed by Bishop Hughes to the Assistant Superintendency of the School, devoting his time to field work. He has been successful in his work.

There are 77 boys in the school this year and we should have 300 but we cannot house them. We plead for your prayers for this worthy school. We, who have seen its small beginning, its struggles against great odds, and yet it has gone on and on until it has a place. In the future years Methodism will have a great institution there and someone will wonder why. Its success now and in the future will be due to these years of sacrificing and planning. May we all do our best for this school.

Early in the year 1925, the founder and best friend of this school, Rev. W. T. Beadles, passed on to his glorious reward. None wrought more persistently and faithfully for the Church and School than did his brother. His record is fine—none better. Rev. D. V. Goudy has been appointed to take the place of this good man as chaplain of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home in Quincy. I am sure no better appointment could be made.

Rural Church.

There is an ever increasing rural church problem. Many of our country churches are fast passing out of existence. Unless something is done, half of the country churches will be closed in the next ten years. The only thing that can save the day is a great revival.

Religious Education.

At Griggsville and Pittsfield, large classes in religious education were carried on during the High School year. These pupils received credit for this work on their High School course and in each instance made a very creditable showing.

Missionary Societies.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has given a total of $6,833.14, a gain over last year. The Woman's Home Missionary Society has given this year about $2,000. These societies have great problems to solve and great difficulties to meet, but heroically they march on and on to victory.

World Service.

Early in the year, plans were consummated for the World Service program. The pastors used every means of publicity in the way of leaflets, sermons and lectures to get the information and needs before the churches. The district was covered twice with group work and once with the young people in the interest of World Service. In May, the canvass was made from house to house but in many instances the people would not pledge, saying they would give at the close of the year. The pastors have had to wait till the last to make reports and some of those reports are not in at this hour. It looks now as though we would not equal last year. We hope so, but it looks doubtful. This unusual thing happens, the rural churches pull up and the city churches fall behind. I cannot explain this. We hope for a better day.

There are a multitude of interests ever demanding of the churches an offering or subscription and unless something is done to protect the churches, we will suffer. Many of these outside organizations get larger offerings than the World Service. I plead for some method to protect these churches.

Evangelism.

The Methodist Church was born in a great Wesleyan revival and it has gained its strength from revivals during the years. We must keep the revival fires burning or we perish. Yea, we will lose our way. The best revivals were held on the Rushville circuit. Other good revivals were held but nothing outstanding. There are about 400 conversions and 650 accessions. We cannot have a better world or churches until we have a more completely redeemed world. The time has come when we must place first things first, and last things last. We pray now, O, Lord, let the spirit come upon us in the Illinois Conference.

Churches.

John wrote a remarkable epic on the seven churches of Asia in the first chapters of Revelations. In every one of these seven churches there were good points and bad omens and every one of the seven presented a problem; but if John had served on the Quincy District his problems would have been multiplied by over fourteen. There are 100 churches in Quincy District and every one presents a problem and every one has some good things, but in spite of all of this the church is the very salt of the community. It is a power for good and godliness. It stands as a bulwark against evil, and as the churches of Asia become the light of Salvation to all that oriental and occidental country, so the churches of today stand for salvation and power in every community. We cannot measure the power or estimate their wealth of riches to the community in which they exist. We do observe this, that in communities where churches have ceased to exist or never have existed, the moral, intellectual and financial tone is low.

"O, where are kings and empires now,
Of old that went and came?
But, Lord, Thy Church is praying yet,
A thousand years the same.

"Unshaken as eternal hills,
Immovable she stands,
A mountain that shall fill the earth,
A house not made with hands."

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT.

Second Chronicles.

Bishop Hughes and Brethren:—

Prologue.

There are two ways to make chronicles interesting and readable. First to have an abundance of vitally important things to chronicle. Second, for the chronicler to have the imagination of a poet or the descriptive power of a real estate agent. In the absence of either the other may cover a multitude of shortcomings. Given both, even the annual report of a district superintendent might be well worth reading. This chronicler is tempted to chronicle, without word pictures or poetic flights, the deeds done in the district body during the last 12 months. They are many and interesting.

Chapter I.

Appointment and Supplies.—At the close of last conference three charges were left to be supplied. A. F. Waters was secured for Buckhart, and in that trying field has been found faithful. Buckeye, and Ohlman and Fairview, the other two, were cared for by H. M. Knight of Pineville, Kentucky, and A. M. Sinclair of Pana, Illinois. Both have done such excellent work that, it is entirely unwise if not indeed unsafe to recount their many virtues in the presence of designing members of the cabinet. D. V. Goudy was appointed chaplain of the Soldiers' Home at Quincy in the middle of the year. R. F. McDaniel was secured to finish the year at Stonington, and has done good and faithful service. In all other charges pastors sent by Bishop McDowell have labored faithfully throughout the year. Their efforts along the various lines of twentieth century church activities have been fruitful. There are events of importance and even thrills enough to make a most interesting chronicle; and only the absence of descriptive powers, or a marked degree of self-restraint on the part of the chronicler prevents poetic flights or bursts of oratory in an attempt to express our appreciation as we contemplate the loyal service, the willing co-operation, and the genuine brotherliness of these men of God. May the Heavenly Father richly bless them and theirs, and crown their labors with eternal reward.

Again, a second year, our parsonage homes have not been overcast by the shadow of death. There has been some illness, more or less serious of course. Our dear brother, J. S. Smith, of Edinburg, where he is most beloved by his people, is forced to miss this session of Conference, absent in body though present in spirit; being by order of his physician confined to his bed for a few weeks to insure recovery from a general break-down which he suffered recently. May the Great Physician restore him speedily.

The ranks of faithful retired servants have been thinned. Mrs. T. B. Wright, wife of our brother whose death occurred at the opening of Conference last year, passed from this life just sixteen (16) weeks to a day and hour after the going of her companion. She was greatly beloved by all who knew her. Her funeral service was held in the new church at Rochester, December 30. Dr. W. A. Smith, too well known to need more than the mention of his name to the Illinois Conference, and so well loved by us all as to need no words of eulogy; passed to his reward March 23. He continued in active service until within a few days of the end. Heaven must offer some great cause to champion, else how could this soldier of the cross be happy? He fought the good fight and today wears the crown of victory. The Conference is lonesome without him.

Chapter II.

Building the Kingdom has been the goal in all of the plans through all the days of this year. The spiritual has been the keynote, and we have endeavored to tune all to that pitch.

Continuous evangelism has been the program of most of the charges, with 93 weeks of revival meetings, resulting in 924 conversions. In all ways 1,346 members have been received, making a net increase of 781 or over 5 per cent for the year. Twenty-nine (29) Sunday schools show a net gain of 283 in average attendance. Eight (8) report a loss, and some are standing still. The Epworth League is a live institution with us. District gatherings, institute attendance, regular and special local programs indicate a healthy growth, and that work among the young people is going forward with most gratifying results. Church Night was observed by 18 charges, a total of 133 weeks with a weekly average attendance of 844. Daily Vacation Schools were held in 10 charges, a total of 26 weeks with a weekly average of 397. Assured of the value of pastoral visitation we called for a report of visits made during the year. Thirty-eight (38) of the forty-seven (47) pastors reported a total of 20,687, an average of 544. This is a fruitful field worthy of cultivation. Any pastor who neglects it places himself at a serious disadvantage.

Mere words mean little in an effort to set forth the doings of the faithful women of the district. The Women's Missionary work, both home and foreign goes right on regardless of good years or bad. Previous good records are outclassed this year, though details are not available for this report. In many charges the Ladies' Aid has been the mighty force that has prevented a break in the lines, and a possible disastrous retreat all along. When the men are as well organized and as faithful as the women the Kingdom will come and the will of God be done in a much more gratifying manner than at present.

Our missionary work at Coalton, carried on under the leadership of Miss Calvert (all indebtedness on this church is now paid); and at Schram City, directed this year by Mrs. Rainey, is continuing to build for the future, though not in a spectacular manner. Miss VanWinkle, the Women's Home Missionary Society worker at Langley, near Taylorville, is doing a good work, having erected a house of worship this year.

Chapter III.

MATERIAL INTERESTS.

Building and Improvements.—October 26 a completely rebuilt and enlarged church costing $10,500 was dedicated at Elkhart. This plant is well adapted to modern church activities. November 2, the Nokomis church, remodeled and improved at a cost of $6,000 was reopened. Both church and parsonage are like new. A beautiful new brick church, modern in every particular, located on the most commanding corner in Rochester, was dedicated November 30, the total cost being near $25,000. Early in the year Douglas Avenue formally opened its new community house. This gives that loyal people one of the most serviceable plants in the city. The cost of the building was about $18,500. April 5, one of the most beautiful, substantial, and serviceable church buildings in the Conference was dedicated at Blue Mound. Owing to careful supervision the cost was kept down to $53,000, but the plant is worth not less than $60,000. July 19 was dedication day at Riverton. These forward-looking people purchased a beautiful 7-acre grove in which they placed an up-to-date church, overlooking the new hard road. Though it cost only $28,500, it is well worth $35,000. It is a thing of beauty and rightly used will be a joy forever. We should not pass the dedications without a word of appreciation of the services of Dr. W. J. Davidson who dedicated Elkhart, Rochester, Blue Mound, and Riverton. With him at the wheel the drive for funds is a joy ride for all. Everybody says he is as good as the best.

Other churches making more or less extensive improvements through the year are as follows: Chestnut, $1,000; Dawson, $800; Edinburg, $1,500; Grove City, $650; Illiopolis, $975; Morrisonville, $2,000; Mt. Pulaski, $1,000; Pana, $5,000; Kumler, $400; First Springfield, $1,000. Millersville will dedicate a church worth $6,000 within a few weeks. Laurel will have a beautiful $125,000 plant ready for dedication before January; Asbury will soon complete a thoroughly modern brick parsonage worth $8,000, into which they hope their new pastor, L. G. Adams, may be permitted to move. Stonington is thoroughly modernizing the parsonage at a cost of about $2,200.

In every case mentioned above, as well as in others of lesser proportion, pastor and people are to be commended. Space and time alone prevent special mention.

A summary of material improvements reveals the following:

Various building enterprises amounting to $298,358 have been carried on this year.

Paid on building and debts, $145,589.

Present indebtedness is approximately $169,000.

Ministerial Support.—Either at the beginning or close of the year fifteen (15) charges have increased their pastors' salaries. During the same period only two have decreased. "NO DEFICITS" is our district motto. Last year was the first for more than fifty (50), as far back as records were examined, in which there was not a deficit. We are hoping that, when all reports are in, this may be the second; and, that then our people may have the habit established for all time to come.

Chapter IV.

Partly because it deserves a large place, and partly because we must almost be changed into another man, a sort of weeping prophet as it were, we give WORLD SERVICE a separate paragraph.

This has been a year of bountiful blessings and abounding prosperity for most of our people. The Father has poured out His mercies and not for years has mother earth given such an abundant harvest. The indulgence of the people called Methodists, even in many cases, to the extent of a profusion of luxuries, testifies to their prosperity. Their spirits are more optimistic, cheerful, hopeful; but alas, when we turn to World Service, many who bear the name of Him who came not to be ministered unto but to minister, and to give His life, need once more to hear, "When thou hast eaten and be full, beware lest thou forget the Lord"; for verily, it seems that many have well nigh had "the idea of God fattened out of them."

Chronicles must be true, and to be so we must report the dark as well as the bright side; though we want to hang our heads in shame when we contemplate the meager response to the call of a needy world. But for the consciousness of having been faithful in season and out of season, and knowing how unceasingly the pastors have toiled early and late, we fain would make no report at all. From all indications at the time of writing this report the district total for World Service will be approximately $23,500 less than last year, which was all too low. Other benevolent causes seem not to have suffered so seriously. In some cases these provided an excuse for not giving to World Service.

We hope and pray that more light, clearer vision, and deeper consecration may come before it is too late; and that an apparent attitude of "soul take thine ease, eat, drink, be merry" may not actually settle down upon our people, so that it becomes necessary for God once more to say, "Thou foolish one, this night is thy soul required of thee, and these things which thou hast prepared, whose shall they be?" (L. 12-19.)

Epilogue.

We would not, however, leave the impression of discouragement or pessimism. Tho men should fail, "Yet Thou, O Jehovah, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not." (Jer. 14:9.) In the joy of service; in the assurance of hope, we move forward with Him who still says, "I am God Almighty."

We fain would mention one by one, to voice even though feebly our appreciation, those with whom we have labored, whose joys and sorrows we have shared, and whose generous hospitality we have enjoyed. But, "What shall I more say? For time will fail me." Now, the rest of the doings, first and last, of the year in Springfield District, of all the faithful who endured hardness as good soldiers, are they not written in the book of the King of Kings to abide forever and ever? May His blessing rest upon the workman and his work.

(B) STANDING COMMITTEES AND BOARDS.

BENEVOLENCES.

Because of the great human needs that at home and abroad, face us today and that can only be answered by the church of Jesus Christ; and because again this year in the Illinois Conference, we are giving less than last year to the benevolences of our church, we feel that each person must give this whole matter the most careful and most prayerful consideration.

The church has learned to beautifully pray, "Thy Kingdom come", but it must learn also to diligently work and generously give that the Kingdom might be realized.

In order to bring about a more Christian relation to the Benevolences of the church, we recommend:

First: That each church put on a thorough going missionary program of education in the church, Sunday School, and Epworth League.

Second: That the last person in each church be informed about the needs in the world and about the Benevolent work in our church, by literature, addresses, study classes, pictures, and by every good means possible.

Third: That Stewardship in its full meaning—life, prayer, property—be taught to all our people by precept and example.

Fourth: That we be careful lest our people get the idea that we are putting the emphasis on money rather than on folk.

Fifth: That each pastor do his best to get the membership of his church to put the benevolences of their own church first in their giving.

Paul said no more beautiful thing than when he called the church, "The body of Christ." The church in this generation must be—The eyes of Christ to see human need everywhere—The ears of Christ to hear the cry of distress far and near—The heart of Christ to have compassion on the multitude, and the hands of Christ to touch broken hearts, and to heal the sick, the voice of Christ to bring the good news of salvation to all mankind.

May we in the Illinois Conference by our sincere prayers; our high motives and honest effort make Paul's idea of the church—"The body of Christ"—real and beautifully human in this conference year of 1925-26.

Respectfully submitted,

F. E. NEUMEYER, Chairman.

HOWARD LEACH, Secretary.

CHADDOCK BOYS SCHOOL.

Chaddock Boys School is the Methodist Church saying again, "Suffer the children to come unto me," and fulfilling the promise, "I will be a Father to the fatherless."

The year just closing seventy boys have shared the privileges of the home and school at Chaddock. More than sixty of the number were from broken homes. They came to us from ten states of the Union, from China and South America.

To train the minds, hands and hearts of seventy boys demands time, talent, effort and money. To establish a good place to do this work, keep it in repair and carry one for one year both the home and school life of these lads cost about forty thousand dollars.

The State Board of Examiners reviewed our faculty, equipment and quality of work and gave us a certificate of full credit through the tenth grade.

On our faculty this year are representatives from Northwestern University, Illinois State University, University of Michigan, Illinois Wesleyan, Missouri State Teachers College, Mount Union College and Chicago Training School.

Chaddock is conducted on the basis of work done in the name and for the sake of Jesus Christ must be of the very best quality. The progress of the boys as they go on working their way through colleges and universities shows what it means to give them a good foundation.

The financial side of our work furnishes a most acute problem. Less than one-third of the whole number of boys last year paid expenses in full. Boys dependent upon widowed mothers, or orphan boys are received in large numbers, most of them without funds.

We have yet very little productive endowment. Our regular source of income is the open pulpits of the Illinois Conference. We are most grateful for the fine response of the churches that are acquainted with the work.

Deep sorrow fell upon Chaddock Boys School through the loss of our beloved founder and leader, the Rev. William T. Beadles. From the hour the thought of creating a school for boys crystallized in his mind until during the last days in California, when more than once he tenderly, lovingly and confidently referred to his satisfaction in the growth and development of the School, his interest and untiring efforts for its success never lagged. His delight in the boys themselves, his sympathetic, prayerful co-operation everywhere and at all times kindled the hearts, minds and efforts of others to like zeal.

We rejoice that Mr. Beadles was privileged for years to enjoy the William T. Beadles Hall erected and named to the memory of his great part as founder and bulwark of this School. Many times through the years when bringing his out-of-town guests to the School he would take them through the Hall and say, 'I had rather be remembered through this little 'house by the side of the road' where the lads from the broken homes find home again than by the most costly marble shaft that could be erected.'

The death angel again moved into our circle of staunch friends and helpers when Dr. S. H. Whitlock was called away. For years he spent a week in the beginning of the school year as well as commencement week with us, counselling the boys and pointing them to his Lord and Master.

While we bow in submission to the inevitable we implore Divine guidance and with hearts heavy with loneliness and grief, covet the optimistic faith that made both Dr. Whitlock and Dr. Beadles enthusiastic for Chaddock through the years.

The Rev. Wm. G. Pulliam joins the force at Chaddock as Associate Superintendent and gives full time service this year.

With abiding faith in our task and in Him who pointed to a child as the greatest person in His Kingdom we face the new year.

Respectfully submitted,

EVA C. FRIELDS, Superintendent.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

For the development of the highest type of Christian life and experience, good literature is of vast importance. We believe that no better class of literature is to be found than that published by our Book Concern.

Every minister should be a subscriber to and a reader of the Methodist Review. The editor should be highly commended for the splendid thought provoking articles which have recently appeared.

We urge that good literature day be observed this year and that the goal be "A Methodist paper in every Methodist home." We believe that the Northwestern Christian Advocate and the Epworth Herald were never producing better high class literature than at present. We are delighted with the fine sections in our church papers, edited by our Contributing Editor, Halford E. Luccock.

Many of the smaller charges are not using our Sunday School publications. We deplore this fact and urge that every pastor and Sunday School Board be impressed with the importance of the use of our publications.

H. A. LITHERLAND, Chairman.

A. R. WASSELL, Secretary.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS COMMITTEE.

(a) We recommend that the request of:

1. A. S. Flanigan, W. W. Theobald, C. S. McCollom, E. K. Crews, H. R. Wardell, Harry Willard and J. F. McAnally to have their relations changed from effective to retired on account of disability, be granted.

2. C. E. Parsons, Wiley Johnson, G. E. Scrimger, A. A. White to have their relations changed from effective to retired on account of age, be granted.

3. H. S. Jackson, Fred Reed, Marrill Faulk, C. E. Hogue, S. M. Spurgeon, W. J. Weber that their relations be changed from effective to supernumerary.

4. S. W. Beggs, R. F. McDaniel that their relations be changed from supernumerary to effective.

5. J. L. Settles, J. L. Hardesty, C. H. Davis, Peter Kittel, J. O. Lehman, J. M. Judy, A. J. Patrick, C. L. Bell that they be continued in the supernumerary relation, be granted.

6. J. D. Barnhart be located at his own request.

7. C. L. Stokes and F. J. Talbot that they be readmitted on a certificate of location from this Conference, be not granted.

8. That the relation of T. L. Stotler be continued supernumerary and has case be referred to the Superintendent of the Springfield District for investigation under Parakraph 265-4.

9. G. V. Metzel that he be granted a year's leave of absence in the effective relation under Paragraph 186, be granted.

C. F. BUKER, Chairman.

E. J. CAMPBELL, Secretary.

(b) Supplementary Report.

We recommend that:

J. S. Bicknell be reclassified and placed in Class 2.

C. F. BUKER, Chairman.

E. J. CAMPBELL, Secretary.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

Your Committee on Domestic Missions recommends:

First, as a goal, that the minimum salary in the Illinois Conference be $1,500 and that no Domestic Missionary grants be bestowed upon any charge paying a cash salary exceeding $1,500.

Second, that as the church in the past has received its leadership largely from the rural districts and as the church is now laying stress on training men especially for this field, and as many churches in large areas of farming communities are being deserted, the committee would suggest if possible larger contributions be made to the Domestic Missionary Society that our District Superintendents may have the means with which to redeem this valuable territory to the Kingdom of God.

J. S. THARP, Chairman.

EDW. E. MEHL, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD.

The Conference Deaconess Board of the Illinois Conference met in regular session at the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Beardstown, Illinois, Thursday, September 17th, 1925, with the following members present: E. L. Fletcher, W. G. Pulliam, Mrs. Eva C. Frieleds, Miss Bertha Beadles, C. R. Morrison, Miss Corrine Calvert and Geo. L. Losh.

The meeting was called to order by the president and prayer was offered by Miss Calvert. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The reports of the Deaconesses were read and filed. Mrs. Fields reported for Chaddock Boys School. (See report.) The treasurer's report was read and filed. (See report.)

The character of the deaconesses was passed upon by the Board.

The certificate of transfer of Miss Ethel Hancock was received and approved. The board recommends that Miss Mabel Millard be granted another leave of absence for the coming year, and that Miss Anna L. Logan be continued in the retired relation. The following Board of Trustees for Chaddock Boys School was nominated and approved:

Board of Trustees—Chaddock Boys School.

Elected 1925—Rev. M. N. English, Rev. Parker Shields, H. H. Brown, J. R. Pearce, Bertha A. Beadles, John Kissack, Rev. G. L. Losa, S. H. Thompson.

Elected 1924—Rev. F. A. McCarty, H. B. Dines, J. F. Chappell, D. L. Musselman, Mrs. Idella Hewes, Rev. W. G. Pulliam, Geo. Cacheux, Rev. E. S. Combs.

Elected 1923—Rev. C. M. Duncan, Rev. A. K. Byrns, George H. Wilson, R. W. Halbach, W. J. Singleton, J. L. Thomas, Harold Knapheide, J. S. Hoyt.

The present officers of the board were re-elected for the ensuing year. Dr. J. C. Nate was nominated to take the place of A. C. Piersel. E. A. Hedges was also added to the Board. The Board wishes to recommend to the Conference the same program of support accorded Chaddock in past years, namely, the opening of pulpits of the Conference to Chaddock for presentation of her work.

We wish to heartily commend the pastors for their hearty co-operation and solicit their continued sympathy for the work of this great school.

The meeting adjourned to meet again at the call of the president.

E. A. HEDGES.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

The Committee on Education is happy to report this year the splendid services rendered by all our educational institutions. We find an ever increasing throng of young people crowding our college halls, almost embarrassing our schools by their very numbers, and we would therefore congratulate each institution for the effective way in which this challenge of Christian education has been met.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

The college year 1924-25 was the most significant in some respects that Wesleyan University has known. Registration in the College of Liberal Arts Numbered 594, the School of Music 557, in the College of Law 105, a total eliminating all duplications of 1,220.

We ask the co-operation of our pastors in urging their young people to remain in Wesleyan the full four years. Those students who expect to enter the professions of engineering, medicine, law or business, usually leave us at the end of their second year, although a few remain for their full four years. It therefore works no special good to students, it certainly works harm to the Wesleyan when our friends announce to the young people that the Wesleyan is a good place to take the first two years of the college course. It is a good place to take four years of college work. Advice to spend two years at Wesleyan is indirect advice to prevent Wesleyan from having full fledged alumni.

The religious spirit of Wesleyan last year was most gratifying. The chapel services and special meetings for the deepening of the spiritual life and for presenting the world challenge to the students were impressive and productive. The campus tone throughout the year was wholesome and helpful. Ten per cent of the liberal arts students expect to enter full time Christian service at home or abroad.

We congratulate the University on the successful celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary in that series of special events distributed throughout the year. Founders' Day with Bishop Ernest L. Waldorf as the speaker and the commencement season climaxed by the great address of Bishop Edwin H. Hughes were especially notable.

The tide is now flowing toward the Wesleyan—the tide of youth and the confidence it reveals. There are tasks and responsibilities lying ahead that will require great wisdom and sacrifice. We earnestly urge that the Conference give increasing support to this institution, thus making possible its invaluable work of Christian education.

The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois.

The Wesley Foundation idea has become an established principle in our church. It is growing in favor not only at home but abroad, where our missionary leaders are developing Wesley Foundations adjacent to the great state institutions of these foreign lands. We rejoice in our work in Urbana, therefore the more so because it has been a pioneer in this important field.

This year in our Foundation at the University of Illinois has been a good one. Over two thousand seven hundred Methodist students have been in attendance. Of this number approximately nine hundred were from the Illinois Conference. The present reports from the Registrar's office indicate that there will be a large increase in attendance next year. There has been a very fine response from the students. The interest in religion and in the church is increasing in the student life. One evidence of this is the way in which so many of our students, when they leave the University identify themselves actively with the church in the community in which they are living. In addition to this there is a fine interest in the specialized callings of the church, such as the ministry, social service work, etc.

The Wesley Foundation is the one great means of touching our students at the University for Christ. Because of the ever increasing opportunity to minister to them we bespeak for the Foundation the whole hearted co-operation of the entire Conference. In particular we recognize that the new Trinity Church is an immediate urgent and imperative need.

The Illinois Woman's College.

The Illinois Woman's College starts out on a new era of her history. President Joseph R. Harker after an administration covering over a third of a century resigned the Presidency that the task might be committed to younger hands. Dr. Harker stepped out of the coal mines to become a teacher fifty-three years ago. From this most humble beginning he has become one of the outstanding college Presidents of America. He took the Woman's College a small school for girls scarcely more than a high school with property worth $75,000. He has left it a class A college with over three hundred students and far over one million dollars of assets. The story of this achievement reads like a romance. Dr. and Mrs. Harker after a winters vacation will locate in Jacksonville near the college and will retain a helpful relation to it.

Dr. Clarence P. McClelland, formerly president of Drew Seminary for girls at Carmel, New York, has been selected as Dr. Harker's successor and has already entered upon his duties. The Illinois Conference gives him a cordial welcome and bespeaks for him and the Woman's College a glorious future.

Distribution of Moneys.

We would respectfully recommend that the Board of Education in its distribution of moneys to the various institutions of our Conference, maintain the same ratio as in the past year, as follows: To the Board of Education, 20 per cent; to Illinois Wesleyan, 35 per cent; to Illinois Woman's College, 35 per cent; to Wesley Foundation, 10 per cent.

A Field Day for Christian Education.

We earnestly believe that the cause of Christian education should be assigned a definite place in the annual promotion and publicity work of our churches. The need of such recognition among our people is intensified in these present years by the increasing expenses of every college for sustentation, and actual or threatened deficits in their present lack of current funds.

We therefore recommend that every charge observe a special field day for Christian education upon some selected Sunday during the usual academic year. We recommend that our institutions confer with the Board of District Superintendents as to the best time for such a day in the several districts; that suitable literature for the day be provided by our colleges; and that a feature of the day's observance be a sustentation offering on behalf of our three educational institutions.

Theological Schools.

We commend sympathetic attention to our theological schools: Boston University, Drew Theological Seminary, Garrett Biblical Institute, and Iliff School of Theology. If the church is to speak a commanding word for these times of social unrest and religious conflict, it must have men who know God and their own day and the meanings of the Christian faith. We are dependent upon these schools to furnish us these men and we must require our young men to attend these schools. We also recommend the work of the Chicago Training School, believing it is doing a valuable service among many of our young people in preparing them for full or part time Christian work.

We are glad to have with us as our guest in 1925 Dr. H. F. Rall of Garrett Biblical Institute and Dr. Wm. M. Gilbert of Drew Theological Seminary.

REPORT OF THE BUSINESS COMMITTEE OF THE BI-CONFERENCE MOVEMENT TO THE CO-OPERATING CONFERENCE.

In presenting this, the final report of the organizations created to conduct the Bi-Conference Campaign of 1922 and 1923, we are asking the Co-operating Conferences to approve a plan of reorganization which will virtually discharge these bodies and commit the work of collecting pledges and completing this movement to a small Continuation Committee, composed of the Heads of these Institutions.

The Bi-Conference Movement came about in this way: On account of the World War and the Centenary Movement, the various Institutions of the Central Illinois and Illinois Conferences found it difficult to present their needs. The summer of 1921 found these Institutions planning to conduct individual campaigns. All parties agreed it would be unfortunate to have so many concurrent appeals. The Illinois Conference, at its session of 1921, appointed a committee of four to meet a like committee from the Central Campaign Committee, representing the two Conferences. The purpose of this General Committee was to conduct a joint campaign for five and three-quarter millions of dollars for the Educational Institutions and Conference Claimants organizations of the two Conferences.

The outcome was the organization of the Commission of Seventy-Six. This Commission created an Executive Council of twenty-one and a Business Committee of Five. These bodies set to work and the year was largely given to planning and publicity.

The two Conferences at their sessions of 1922 reapproved the general plan, but set the goal for the immediate campaign at $1,250,000.00. The Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church was invited to co-operate through its Department of Finance, and Dr. J. W. Hancher was placed in active charge of the campaign. D. L. Musselman was elected Treasurer.

The intensive campaign was put on in the spring and summer of 1923, and had the widespread and enthusiastic co-operation of the Preachers and Laymen of the Conference. It closed at midnight, July 3, 1923, having reached the goal. A Commission of Six was then created, whose duty it should be to appraise and distribute the subscriptions. They distributed the subscriptions among the institutions as follows: (See statistical sheet.)

The Business Committee held its final meeting at Springfield, March 6, 1925, and drafted resolutions, the object of which was to pass over all the functions of the Bi-Conference bodies to a small Continuation Committee and discharge these bodies. These resolutions were adopted by the Executive Council at its final meeting at Bloomington, Illinois, April 14, 1925, and are herewith presented to the Annual Conference for final adoption.

Resolutions drafted by the Business Committee and adopted by the Executive Council:

RESOLVED, That whereas the Bi-Conference Movement (known also as the Illinois Bi-Conference Movement), which was conducted in the Central Illinois and Illinois Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the State of Illinois, during the year 1923, has come to a successful conclusion by reason of having secured pledges in excess of $1,250,000.00, the amount which constituted the askings of this Movement; and

FURTHER RESOLVED, That whereas said Bi-Conference Movement was brought into existence pursuant to direction and action of the above named Central Illinois and Illinois Conferences and was conducted under the direction of the Bi-Conference Commission (known also as Committee of 76) acting by its sub-committees and agents, respectively designated as Executive Committee, Business Committee and Committee of Distribution (also known as Committee of Six); and

FURTHER RESOLVED, That whereas all the above named bodies, associations, committees, and commissions have done and performed certain work in and about the above named Bi-Conference Movement, and have, from time to time, taken certain actions and made certain resolutions respecting the securing of pledges and distribution thereof, to the respective Institutions affiliated with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and named on the back of each of said pledges so secured, namely:

1. Illinois Wesleyan University.
2. Illinois Woman's College.
3. The Wesleyan Foundation.
4. Conference Claimants, Central Illinois Conference.
5. Conference Claimants, Illinois Conference.
6. Chaddock Boys' School.

and

FURTHER RESOLVED, That whereas all of the pledges secured in said Bi-Conference Movement were made payable to D. L. Musselman, Treasurer, and

FURTHER RESOLVED, That whereas the great majority of said above mentioned pledges have been all located and distributed by the above named Committee of Distribution to the respective above named interests as the actual beneficiaries and said pledges are now in the custody respectively of the above named Institutions according to the report of distribution heretofore rendered by said Committee of Distribution; and

WHEREAS, There are certain pledges in which one or more of the above named Institutions are jointly interested and which pledges are now in the custody and possession of the above named D. L. Musselman; and FURTHER RESOLVED, That whereas it is the desire of all the parties interested in the above named Bi-Conference Movement to the taking of all action necessary for the ultimate lawful collection and realization of all said pledges.

NOW THEREFORE, FURTHER RESOLVED, That all the actions, reports, doings and undertakings of the above named Bi-Conference Commission, Executive Committee, Business Committee, and Committee of Distribution be approved by the above named Central Illinois Conference and Illinois Conference.

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the above named D. L. Musselman, or his successor or successors in office, designated in the above described pledges as Treasurer of the Bi-Conference Movement, be authorized and directed to execute such legal assignments of pledges to carry out and perfect the distribution heretofore made by the above named Committee of Distribution, hereby ratifying and confirming all assignments heretofore made by D. L. Musselman.

FURTHER RESOLVED, That there be created a committee as a constituent part of said Bi-Conference Movement to be known as the Bi-Conference Continuation Committee and to be composed of the following persons:

The President of Illinois Wesleyan University, the President of Illinois Woman's College, the Director of the Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois, Field Secretary of Conference Claimants Society of Central Illinois Conference, the Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference, Superintendent of Chaddock Boys' School, together with the Treasurer of the Bi-Conference Movement, which said last named Committee shall have full power and things that may be necessary or incidental to the affairs of the Bi-Conference Movement, including the selection, appointment, and election of a successor or successors to D. L. Musselman, as Treasurer of said "Bi-Conference Movement."

Rev. W. E. Shaw, of Peoria, Chairman Business Committee, and F. A. McCarty, of Bloomington, Secretary, were instructed to report these recommendations to the Central Illinois and Illinois Conferences, respectively, at their coming sessions.

W. E. SHAW, Chairman Bus. Com.
F. A. McCARTY, Secretary Bus. Com.

Services of D. L. Musselman.

We deeply appreciate the delicate situation involved in the appraisal and distribution of the Bi-Conference pledges, especially as it related itself to the Treasurer, Mr. D. L. Musselman, also the difficulties of collecting and editing the minutes of the Commission of Seventy-six, the Executive Council, the Business Committee, and the Commission of six; therefore, be it Resolved, That we, the members of Illinois Conference, express to Mr. Musselman our sincere thanks for his patience, his uniform courtesy, and painstaking care throughout the entire procedure, and for his labor of love in collecting and presenting to the Institutions and Conferences the minutes of all these bodies.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

In facing the ever increasing difficulties which attend the present day work of the church, we are conscious of an equally increasing conviction that the solution to our problems lies in a movement that shall restore the lost glory of Methodism's Evangelistic fervor. This seems, to your Committee on Evangelism, to be the present day, first and greatest commandment. Therefore, we urge in all earnestness:

First: That as pastors we shall stress in our own lives, those activities of prayer, personal reconsecration, which shall bring more of the power and presence of God into our ministry, not that we shall be less able executives, but that we shall be more able prophets and preachers and winners of souls.

Second: That our District Superintendents shall in all District and group meetings and in the Quarterly Conferences make foremost the call to a new spiritual seeking and evangelism.

Third: That the pastors use every practical means of Evangelism in the Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues, Church Training Nights and in special personal evangelism, and revival meeting campaigns in order to bring into the church new spiritual life, power and vision without which we can never accomplish the full tasks of the Kingdom of God on earth.

Fourth: That we express our hearty approval and appreciation of the four o'clock Inspirational addresses, given in this conference by Dr. Day, and we urge this feature be made a regular part of our conference programs.

O. B. HESS, Chairman.

ALLEN S. WEISS, Secretary.

HOSPITALS AND PHILANTHROPIES.

We view with growing pleasure the widespread interest the church is taking in the care of suffering people everywhere.

In this, His church is following in His steps, for when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion upon them and He healed their sick. The Illinois Conference in the past has fostered and helped its institutions and we doubt not they will continue to do so.

Special mention should be made of the fine Old Peoples' Home at Quincy, which has come to us through the merging of the St. Louis German Conference with the Illinois Conference.

At present there are 55 old people of the Methodist Church, 36 old ladies and 19 men.

During the 36 years of its existence it has cared for 206 persons; 151 have passed to their home on high.

What beneficent work can be dearer to the heart of the Master than the providing of homes for helpless dependent children, the Baby Fold at Norman and Cunningham Home at Urbana and the aged saints at the Old People's Home at Quincy, and Asylums for sick at the hospitals at Mattoon and Wesley Memorial Hospital at Chicago.

All these are worthy of our beneficence and graciously commended as special objects of philanthropy of our generous Christian people.

Resolved, that we give a special hearing in each of our churches at least to one of these institutions each year and an offering be taken for these, our wards.

GEORGE F. WETZEL, Chairman.
W. C. HARMS, Secretary.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

Inasmuch as the public dance halls or pavilions erected along the public roads just outside of the cities, towns or villages have proven to be so demoralizing to the morals of our young people and the domestic relations of the home life, be it, therefore,

Resolved,

First: That we commend Mrs. Bohrer for the law which she presented to, and was instrumental in getting passed by the legislative bodies of the State of Illinois, by which power is given to the Board of Supervisors in each county in the State to grant or reject a license for the operation of a public hall in the county outside of the cities, towns or villages.

Second: That we heartily commend and approve the action of the various Boards of Supervisors throughout the Illinois Conference wherever they have voted on an application, or applications for a license for a public dance hall and refused to grant the same.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOL AND EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The Sunday School and League are team-mates in the common task of training and educating for Christian living and leadership. The title given this committee supports this assumption. The Sunday School is not merely a filling station and the Epworth League an unloading station. Each must supply both the inspirational and the expressional.

With this in view we recommend:

1. A closer co-operation of Sunday School and League in the Week Day School of Religious Education. Feeling that the trained mind cannot supplant the trained heart and that the public school system, by reason of the separation of church and state, does not make education sufficiently Christian, we therefore heartily endorse and vigorously recommend a thorough investigation of the Week Day School of Religious Education. We believe that the public school graduate who can face the world with Bible Study as an integral part of his daily learning will meet it more sanely. We further believe that this rapidly increasing form of education will inevitably result in the rearing of a breed of citizenship of which America and the world need not be ashamed.

2. A more comprehensive investigation of the possibilities of the Daily Vacation Bible School. In many instances this may be the beginning of the Week Day School of Religious Education.

3. That a trial be made of the Church Night Plan with its various helpful study classes.

4. That the District Superintendents co-operate with the pastors, Sunday School Superintendents, and League Presidents in the establishment and maintenance of the Junior League. We believe this to be a real producer of Spiritual leaders.

5. That Young People's Classes (ages 13-24) should be thoroughly organized for effective expressional service, particularly where the League does not function. Much the same type of work which the League does can be undertaken. Some Districts have made this a part of the District League work and have a Superintendent of organized Sunday School classes.

6. That as far as possible our own Book Concern literature be used in our Sabbath Schools; not because it is Methodist, but because the Methodists turn out the best Sunday School literature.

7. That even greater interest be taken in the Epworth League Institute. Where there is no League the pastor, Sunday School Superintendent and teachers should feel it a real duty to secure the attendance of as many young people as possible. This year we had a record breaking attendance of 595. There should be more. The Institute is the real fountain of spiritual youth.

We wish to express our deep gratitude to the City of Jacksonville for the gracious hospitality and financial support given to the Institute.

The following officers elected at the Institute are submitted for Conference approval:

President, G. L. Losh; First Vice President and Dean, Harris G. Beck; Second Vice President and Local Manager (to be elected later when the location of next year's Institute is determined); Third Vice President and Treasurer, T. B. Lugg; Fourth Vice President and Recreational Director, J. D. Butler; Secretary and Registrar, A. A. Heinlein.

The following Institute Commission is submitted for approval:

Ministers—E. V. Young, C. C. Nordling, C. R. Booth, H. G. Beck, J. D. Butler, W. G. Pulliam, J. W. Starr, G. L. Losh, H. A. Keck, A. R. Grummon, T. B. Lugg, A. A. Heinlein, J. H. Singleton, C. H. Thrall, Harry Cochran.

Laymen—T. V. Hopper, R. M. Utterback, Carl Shaw, N. L. Eddy, W. H. Gronemeier, J. E. Merritt, Dr. I. H. Neece.

A. A. HEINLEIN, Chairman.

CLARENCE C. NORDLING, Secretary.

BOARD OF STEWARDS.

1. WHEREAS, we believe it to be fundamental to the success of any pension system that its funds shall be administered in justice and equity; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, First, That for the sake of expedience the Board of Stewards be authorized to pay annuity at the rate of $24.00;

RESOLVED, Second, that from the cash allowance of any claimant whose years of service upon which his claim is based are not previously paid to the Preachers Aid Society, there shall be deducted the sum of nine dollars per year and for each widow the sum of six dollars per year for each year for which dues had not been paid, until the sum of forty-five dollars for each delinquent year has been fully paid. These deductions are to be indicated in a separate column in the report of the Board of Stewards.

RESOLVED, Third, that the District Superintendent be requested to report to the Committee on Conference Relations, at the opening of the Conference session, all cases where members are coupling business pursuits for compensation with pastoral work to such an extent that only part of their time is devoted to the work of the church to which they have been assigned. This committee is hereby directed, after proper consideration, to recommend to the Conference what relation, if any, such members shall sustain to this Conference.

RESOLVED, Fourth, that the claims of all members of the Conference upon the annuity funds of the church for service rendered outside of the regularly constituted organizations of the church, be presented to the Conference by the Board of Stewards, with the recommendation that the claim for these years of service be disallowed for the Conference years 1925-26 on the ground of expediency.

RESOLVED, Fifth, that all ministers who are received into the Conference, whether from probation or transfer, or in any other way, shall be required to file with the secretary of the Conference and Secretary of the Board of Stewards a complete pastoral record of all items which may affect the annuity rights of the claimant and that no claim shall be allowed until such record has been filed.

When a minister is transferred out of the Conference the Secretary of the Conference shall forward to the Secretary of the Conference to which the brother has been transferred his complete record.

A claimant on the funds of the Annual Conference may draw his first quarterly benefit October first, following the session of the Conference at which he becomes a claimant. But such prospective claimant should notify the Secretary of the Board of Stewards not later than August first, preceding the Annual Conference session.

That with every member of the Illinois Conference it is a matter of good faith—that he become an active member of and pay his annual dues to the Preachers Aid Society in the benefit of whose funds he is sure to share.

That every member of the Conference appointed to service other than that of pastor or District Superintendent, shall file with the Statistical Secretary of the Conference the name of the position held and the amount of salary or income received, and the Statistical Secretary is hereby instructed to include these reports in the statistics of the Conference. All those who do not comply with the foregoing are automatically referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

That all who handle Conference Claimants Funds shall furnish bonds in such amount as the Conference may decide.

That the Conference year of the Board of Stewards begin and end with the beginning of the Conference session, and that the accounts of the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards be audited annually.

That the income on invested funds remain in the hands of the Treasurer of the Preachers' Aid Society until the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards shall need the same in order to meet the claims due from quarter to quarter, and that upon request of the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards the Treasurer of the Preachers' Aid Society shall remit to the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards in the amount apportioned for the coming year.

That for the Conference year 1925-26 each pastoral charge be apportioned an amount equal to 10 per cent of the pastor's cash claim for the Conference Claimant's of the Illinois Conference.

R. Y. WILLIAMS, President.

W. G. LLOYD, Treasurer.

A. B. PECK, Secretary.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference met in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Beardstown, Illinois, Tuesday, September 15, 1925.

The meeting was called to order by F. B. Madden, prayer was offered by C. Galeener.

On motion the Trustees of the Washington Church on the Martinsville Circuit were authorized to sell the church and the money be turned to the Trustees of the Conference.

On motion the Trustees of the Todds Point Church were authorized to sell the church, the proceeds to be applied to the St. Mary's parsonage.

The Trustees of the Prairie Chapel Oconee charge were authorized to sell the church and apply the money on the parsonage at Oconee.

The Trustees of Mt. Carmel Church, Shelbyville Circuit, were authorized to sell the church, the proceeds to be available for use on the Shelbyville Circuit.

F. B. Madden was elected Vice President.

W. F. M. S. AND W. H. M. S.

We rejoice in the continued prosperity and growth of the Woman's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary Societies as shown in their splendid increase, both in membership and offerings.

We commend the magnificent work they are doing in carrying the Gospel to the needy millions in both home and foreign fields.

We pledge them our hearty co-operation; we urge the organization of one or both of these societies in every church; and we express it as our conviction that every Methodist woman should belong to one or both of them.

(C) SPECIAL COMMITTEES AND RESOLUTIONS

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE OF ILLINOIS.

Whereas: The desperate fight for national supremacy is still on between the drys and the wets, and we must fight to a finish, or lose all we have gained up to date and have it all to do over again; and

Whereas: The wets fear and hate Anti-Saloon League as they do nothing else, and say the only way they can kill prohibition is to kill the Anti-Saloon League, and the only way they can kill that foe is to get the people to cease giving their means to carry on its work; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we will be loyal to that official agency of the federated churches in opening our pulpits to its representatives at favorable times to furnish the means to carry on its work and secure the election of dry officials, especially members of our Legislature and the National Congress and all law enforcement officers.

By this and in all other ways in our power we will wage the battle till Prohibition becomes the settled policy of our land, the status for the whole wide world.

We reassure the State Superintendent, Major Frank B. Ebert, of our continued loyalty.

We recommend as our Director on the Board of Trustees of the State League, T. N. Ewing and H. W. McPherson, Ministers; Thomas E. Lyon, Springfield; Charles W. Graves, Champaign, and Frank M. Rice, Bloomington, Laymen.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

Your Committee has received from the Secretary of the Conference, three items, and recommends that they be separately considered by the Conference as follows:

1. The Resolutions of the General Conference concerning the Plan of Unification of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The proposed changes in the Constitution, involved by the Plan of Unification are to be found printed as Chapter VI, of the Appendix to the Discipline of 1924, paragraph 613 and 613A. The further Resolutions calling for the vote of the Annual Conferences meeting during the year 1925 are found in the several sections of paragraph 578 of Chapter IV of the Appendix to the Discipline, being the chapter upon "General Conference Reports and Resolutions."

Your Committee accordingly herewith presents this proposed Plan of Unification with the recommendation that the Illinois Annual Conference concur in the same.

2. The Resolutions of the General Conference concerning the Admission of Laymen to the Annual Conference.

The proposed changes in the Constitution are to be found in paragraph 614 of Chapter VI of the Appendix to the Discipline of 1924. It is provided therein that Division III, Chapter I, Art. III of the Constitution of the Methodist Episcopal Church be amended by adding the words, "Laymen shall be admitted to the Annual Conferences on such conditions and under such regulations as the General Conference shall from time to time determine."

Your Committee understands that the very simple terms of this proposal are intended to leave all determinations of details of the plan to the General Conference, and thus permit anyone who is not opposed to the principles of Lay representation in the Annual Conferences to vote for the Amendment.

Your Committee accordingly herewith presents this proposed amendment, with the recommendation that the Illinois Annual Conference concur in the same.

3. The third item before us is in the form of a communication from certain members of the Kansas and other Annual Conferences. It presents the proposed Amendment to the Constitution, admitting Laymen to membership in the Annual Conferences together with a number of matters of detail as to the exact plan of said admission, and requests a vote of the Illinois Conference upon the same.

In view of the seeming purpose of the General Conference to have action at this time only upon the general principle involved, and in view of the large amount of business before us as a Conference, your committee recommends that no action be taken by us at this time upon the above stated communication from members of the Kansas and other Conferences.

CENTENNIAL EDITION.

Whereas, the Centennial Edition of the Journal and Year Book of the Illinois Conference is a pictorial volume containing much historical data of great value; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the thanks of the Conference are hereby expressed to the publishers, the editors, and especially to the Rev. Royal W. Ennis, Ph. D., by whose laborious research the invaluable "Historical Appendix" was compiled.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

We, the members of the Committee on Conference Claimants and Preachers' Aid Society, wish to rejoice at the advance that has been made in the building up of an endowment fund, for the support of the retired ministers, widows of deceased preachers and their orphan children and urge that each preacher be on the lookout for people who can make gifts, buy annuity bonds and make bequests to this worthy cause and send the names of such to Rev. H. C. Gibbs, Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society.

J. T. STRETTON, Chairman.
ALFRED E. COLE, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LAKE SITE.

In the effort to secure a suitable site for an Assembly Ground on Lake Decatur, much time has been given to investigation by certain members of the committee. The commission has been called together three different times. An option was held on a choice site for three months and was then released. Another proposition is under consideration relative to a site wellnigh as desirable.

We ask for the appointment of the following committee to consider plans and locations looking toward the securing of a desirable site:

A. M. Wells, Chairman; W. A. Dowson, J. C. Nate, F. M. Camp, J. F. Mattes.

CHESTEN SMITH, Chairman.

PUBLICATION OF THE MINUTES.

The Committee on the Publication of the Minutes reports the following:

A contract has been let to the Illinois State Register of Springfield, Illinois, for the publication of the minimum of 4,000 copies of the Illinois Conference Journal and Year Book of 228 pages each at a cost of $1,135.00. Any change from the original to cost 10c per line. Any cuts to be made at additional cost. The postage is included.

The Illinois State Register submits the following bids for additional copies: 4,500 copies at $1,215.00; 5,000 copies at $1,275.00.

The Committee on Publication submits the following recommendations:

1. That each pastor, district superintendent, and preacher in detached service, be required to pay into the Minute Fund an amount equal to one-fifth of one per cent of his salary to defray the cost of this publication, and that this quota be paid before the close of this Conference session.

2. That the collectors named by the District Superintendents be authorized to begin the collection of this fund at once, and that the collectors be given the privilege of the floor on Saturday morning to call the names of the ministers who have not at that time complied with these resolutions.

3. That the price to be marked on the Minutes be 35c.

4. That the Secretary of the Conference be elected the Editor of the Minutes, that the pastor of the Douglas Avenue Church, Springfield, be elected Treasurer of the Conference Minute Fund, and that he be required to furnish the publishers a mailing list and the quota of Minutes to be sent to each Minister.

5. That the pastors of the Douglas Avenue and Laurel Methodist Churches of Springfield, the District Superintendent of the Springfield District and the Secretary of the Conference be constituted the Committee for the Publication of the Minutes.

MERGER OF FUNDS.

We, the members of the Board of Superintendents of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, beg to report to the Preachers' Aid Society that, so far as we can see, there is no legal obstacle in the way of merging the funds of the Commission on Conference Claimants for the Endowment Fund, with the funds of the Preachers' Aid Society, for administrative purposes, since the action of the Conference of 1916 provides for the merging of such funds when they shall amount to $500,000.00; and, since the report of the Treasurer is to the effect that the funds do amount to this sum, we recommend that the funds of the Commission be merged with the funds of the Preachers' Aid Society.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMISSION ON CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' CAMPAIGN FOR ENDOWMENT FUNDS FOR THE CONFERENCE YEAR 1925-26.

First—That the Conference Claimants' Commission with the powers conferred by the Conference of 1916, and reaffirmed by each Annual Conference since, be and is hereby continued and that the members of this Commission for the ensuing year, 1925-26, be: Rev. A. M. Wells, Rev. W. D. Fairchild, Rev. C. F. Buker, Rev. T. N. Ewing, Rev. H. W. McPherson, Mr. Geo. S. Connard, Mr. Lloyd W. Snerly, Mr. J. S. McClellan.

Second—That the Commission shall provide for all necessary expenses incident to the most efficient prosecution of the work.

Third—That we recommend that Henry C. Gibbs be appointed as the Field Secretary to work under the direction of the Commission and be ex-officio member of the Commission.

RESOLUTION REGARDING DR. JAMES.

Whereas, the death of Edmund J. James, President Emeritus of the University of Illinois, has taken from us one of our most loyal and devoted laymen, a true Christian, a far visioned educational statesman, a wise counsellor and helper in all good causes; and

Whereas, Dr. James was vitally related to the Illinois Conference through the services of his honored father, as well as his own for many years; and

Whereas, Dr. James was especially helpful to our Educational Institutions—Illinois Wesleyan University, Illinois Woman's College, and The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois—showing his deep and lasting interest and belief in them both by his support of them during his life and by remembering them in his will; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we hereby express our feeling of great sorrow and deep loss that has come to us in the death of President James; and

Resolved, That we hereby record our lasting appreciation of this great Christian layman and his distinguished service to the church and state; and

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Minutes of the Illinois Annual Conference and that copies be sent to members of Dr. James' family.

(Signed) JAMES C. BAKER,
JOSEPH C. NATE,
WM. J. DAVIDSON.

RESOLUTION REGARDING DR. HARKER.

Dr. Joseph R. Harker, the retiring President of the Illinois Woman's College, has been for the past thirty-two years so closely associated with the life of the Illinois Conference, that he seems to be one of our members. Few men have been more influential and helpful in the work of the Conference. To have maintained this unusual and delicate relationship, through this long term of years, and always exercised in a constructive and helpful way, merits our hearty commendation. We want this cordial relationship to continue.

When Dr. Harker became president of Illinois Woman's College in 1893, the institution had assets amounting to $75,000 in buildings, grounds and equipment, with no endowment. Under his wise leadership and sacrificial devotion, this negligible amount has steadily grown until on May sixteenth of the present year it totaled the great sum of $1,296,283.30—an amount more than seventeen times as large as the original. The endowment has grown from nothing to the sum of $554,492.96. The value of buildings, grounds and equipment has increased from $75,000 to $578,554.76. The outstanding subscriptions total $163,235.58. The campus has been enlarged to two and a half times its original size. The character of the school has grown from that of an elementary academy to that of a college of first rank with membership in the accepted list of the Association of American Universities. The procedure in administration of financial affairs has been raised to the plane of exact and recognized business standards.

While we point with pride and appreciation to the material growth of the College, we recognize that other values have been created that far transcend these tangible things. No mathematical statement can convey any idea of the priceless treasures deposited in the minds and hearts of thousands of women once students of the College but now scattered over all the earth. Since Dr. Harker became president of Illinois Woman's College, in 1893, eight hundred forty-eight young women have graduated from the institution. For the thirty-two years of his incumbency, the total attendance has been five thousand five hundred. Under his leadership and the tuition of a devoted faculty, the hearts and minds of these thousands have been fashioned according to the instruction of the Great Teacher. The religious atmosphere permeating the halls of the College, while being unobtrusive, has been pervasive, positive, and appealing. Those attending the annual service in observance of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, have felt the very atmosphere of the place surcharged with spiritual power and the young women have gone out into life with the visions of Christian idealism. The retiring president has ever held aloft the ideal of a life of sacrifice, and service, and love in Jesus Christ.

The work inside the College has been supplemented in a marked way by a work outside the College. Dr. Harker has travelled the length and breadth of America in untiring effort to promote the interest of this institution. Wherever he has gone, friends of the College have sprung up. The students and alumnae, together with his host of other friends, constitute the principal future asset of Illinois Woman's College. These great riches of friendship Dr. Harker has accumulated and this great heritage he now leaves.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

Your Committee on Resolutions desires to present to you the following brief report:

The 101st session of the Illinois Annual Conference, now nearing the hour of adjournment has been attended with unusual interest and inspiration, for which we are greatly indebted to the following individuals and agencies who have contributed to the limit of their ability to our comfort, happiness and profit.

The Rev. Chas. B. Boyd, who inherited the task, but has been none the less faithful and efficient in his leadership as our host than he had himself been privileged to extend the invitation and his splendid church has supported and assisted him unanimously.

The splendid Chamber of Commerce and the good citizenship of their fine city have proved to us no less hospitable than if they had been Methodist Episcopalians to the last man and woman.

We rejoice to witness the real fraternity with which the ministers and members of other denominations have recognized the import of our visit and have welcomed us.

It is of course understood, but we beg the pleasure of even again expressing our unpayable debt of gratitude to our secretary and his assistants, our treasurer and statistician and his co-workers, and our faithful and accurate auditors.

Brother J. A. Betcher has again pleased us and inspired us with his leadership in song.

We desire to express our gratitude to the organist of this church for her splendid services, and to the local press for the large space given to the proceedings of the Conference.

The telephone and telegraph management and the U. S. post office have greatly facilitated our work by promptly delivering and transmitting our messages by wire and post.

We have been benefited and inspired by the service of our official visitors and especially the addresses of Dr. Shannon and Dr. Day.

We desire to commend the President of our Country and those whom he has called to his assistance in the enforcement of Constitutional Prohibition of the liquor traffic and to declare our unfailing allegiance to their cause and our determined and persistent opposition to all men and measures having as their purpose the reinstatement of this demoniacal traffic.

Bishop Hughes, we wish we might assure you with emphasis that our expression of pleasure because of your presence and presidency of our Conference is not a mere formality. You have instructed us, you have inspired us, you have cheered us, you have increased our faith, zeal and courage and have greatly lightened our task for the ensuing year and we pledge to you the best that we possess in every way. God keep you and bring you back to us again and yet again.

Resolution From Board of District Superintendents.

We desire to express our very great appreciation of the coming of our Resident Bishop, Edwin H. Hughes, D.D., for his first presidency of the Illinois Annual Conference, who has shown every kindness, courtesy, and ability in the leadership of our Conference interests and in his relation to all personal items.

We further desire to make request to the Board of Bishops that Bishop Hughes be assigned to the Illinois Conference for the sessions of the Quadrennial.

Respectfully submitted,

W. E. EVANS, Chairman.

AMOS ALLEN LUCE, Secretary.

SELECT NUMBER.

To the One Hundred and Second Session of the Illinois Conference:

In the case of S. T. Weaver, a member of the Illinois Conference, against whom the charge of Fraudulent Dealings has been made, the Select Number finds that the testimony proves him guilty of high imprudence and unministerial conduct and it is, therefore, the judgment of the Select Number that he, S. T. Weaver, be deprived of his ministerial office and credentials.

(Signed) CHESTEEN SMITH,
Chairman of Select Number.
J. FRED MELVIN,
Secretary for Select Number.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF SENIOR EFFECTIVE ELDERS APPOINTED BY BISHOP EDWIN H. HUGHES TO INVESTIGATE COM-PLAINTS BROUGHT AGAINST REV. A. S. CHAPMAN
BY REV. T. L. STOTLER.

We, the undersigned, after having carefully considered the evidence offered in an attempt to substantiate the complaints presented by Rev. T. L. Stotler against Rev. A. S. Chapman, Superintendent of Jacksonville District, Illinois Conference, do hereby state that the assertions made by the complainant, the documents presented, and the testimony given by his witnesses, did not sustain the complaints.

The complaints were in substance as follows: (1) Spreading false and malicious reports. (2) Attempted bribery. (3) Writing slanderous and untrue statements to his (Stotler's) Official Board. (4) Tyrannical persecution.

The derogatory epithets and statements indiscriminately employed by the complainant, in description of the whole conference and the committees which dealt with his case, have been carried over and incorporated in substance, in the complaints against the accused. In the judgment of the committee, the evidence in the defense made by Rev. A. S. Chapman, fully exonerates him. Hence, it is our decision that there are no grounds for further action.

(Signed) EDWIN L. TOBIE,
W. W. THEOBALD,
J. A. BIDDLE,
Committee.

TITLE TO PROPERTY.

Resolved, That we ask the General Assembly of the State of Illinois to grant a clear title to real estate held by educational, charitable or religious institutions for a period of fifty years, by reason of such continued possession.

Resolved, That the trustees of this conference be appointed to present this prayer to said General Assembly.

Plan of Conference Examinations

BOARD OF EXAMINERS

Chairman—C. D. Robertson.

Registrar—R. L. Steed.

Examiners—J. A. Biddle, H. G. Beck, A. L. Caseley, J. E. Evans, A. R. Grummon, C. W. Hamand, A. A. Heinlein, C. F. Juvinal, H. A. Keck, T. B. Lugg, F. A. McCarty, D. F. Nelson, A. C. Piersel, W. G. Pulliam, E. L. Tobie, J. W. Starr.

RULES OF THE BOARD

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners by the chairman. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall conduct the examinations in the Courses of Study, and make recommendations to the Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study or to appear for examination, shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time for examination. And in case of such failure to pass, the Registrar shall report the fact to the student and to the Chairman of the Board.

4. Examiners shall report grades on all papers to the Registrar within two weeks after the examinations are held.

5. The examination questions shall conform to the requirements of the Commission on Conference Courses of Study and the markings upon both examinations and collateral reading shall be upon the scale and according to the method established by the Commission, and no mark below 70 per cent shall pass.

6. All credits from schools shall be sent to the Chairman, who shall decide upon the acceptability of them. All grades other than those given by the Board of Examiners shall be marked as "P," indicating a passing grade, which does not affect the general average of the student.

7. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each student, including candidates for admission trial, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, and other expense incidental to the work of the Board.

8. It shall be the duty of the Chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of the candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the Board of Examiners. And it shall be the duty of the Board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable, concerning the candidates, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the Chairman to make similar investigations and of the Board to make similar recommendations in the case of applicants for admission from another church. District Superintendents are requested to report to the Chairman the names of all candidates for admission on trial or into full connection, for admission from other churches, and of all candidates for orders, in time to allow such investigation on the part of the Chairman.

9. The annual meeting of the Board of Examiners, in accordance with the Discipline, shall be held at 4 p. m. of the day preceding the session of the Annual Conference.

10. "Honorable Mention," with public recognition, will be conferred at each annual conference session upon the five students having the highest averages in their respective classes. But no one is eligible to this honor who has not done at least 50 per cent of his work under this Board, or whose standing in the course of study is irregular.

11. All examination papers shall be sent to the examiners by registered mail, and the receipts for the same brought to the seat of the annual conference.

12. A deduction will be made in the grades of all papers in which the spelling, grammar or general appearance is faulty.

13. Papers on Methodist Review must conform to the specified length of 200 words. Otherwise the grade will be made less.

COURSES OF STUDY.

Assignment of Studies for 1925-6

Where a subject is assigned to two men, the first-named is the instructor in that subject at The Itinerants' School, and conducts the actual examination in accordance with the resolution of co-operation with Central Illinois Conference. All work, including Written Work, inquiries and Examinations must be sent to the men having charge of the respective subjects at the Itinerants' School.

The addresses of the Exchange Examiners may be obtained from the Chairman.

Committee on Itinerant's School

C. D. Robertson, A. C. Piersel, E. L. Tobie.

Plan of Organization of the Itinerants' School of the Illinois and Central Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Government.

The organization and government of the School shall be vested in a joint committee consisting of three numbers from each conference. One of these three shall be the Chairman of the Board of Examiners; the other two shall be elected by the Board of Examiners.

The two elected by the Examiners shall hold office for one year and may be re-elected.

The Joint Committee shall have power to organize and conduct the School, provide the faculty and special lecturers, and take general oversight of the work of the School.

The Joint Committee shall work with the counsel and help of the Commission on Courses of Study as far as is practicable.

The Joint Committee shall be the final authority in questions of policy.

Faculty.

The faculty shall be chosen from the Examiners of the two Conferences.

Session.

The sessions of the School shall be held annually as soon after the commencement season as is practicable.

The sessions shall be held at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington.

Attendance Required.

All students in the Conference Course of Study shall be required to attend the School unless previously excused by the Chairman of their respective Boards of Examiners.

Finance.

The expense of the School shall be met by apportioning to the churches a minimum of Fifty Dollars ($50) for each district, or such larger sum as the conferences shall fix upon from year to year.

The District Superintendents are asked to provide for the collection of the amount designated before June 1.

Examinations.

All examinations except those required by the Discipline to be given at Conference, shall be held the last day of School.

Written Work.

No student shall be admitted to the examination in any subject unless his required Written Work in that subject is done.

Review by Conferences.

The work of the School shall be subject to review and approval by the two Conferences.

Continuance.

This plan of organization shall continue from year to year unless modified or abrogated by the Conferences.

Report of Summer School of Theology Held Under the Direction of the Commission on Courses of Study.

Report for the session of 1925, held at Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, Ill., June 22 to July 3, 1925.

Enrollment:

Students in Conference Course of Study.....	28
Students in Local Preachers' Course.....	..
Post-graduates students
Number of lecturers and other instructors.....	12
Total attendance	40

Students are given no financial aid other than railroad fare at clergy rates.

Faculty and administrative officers serve without remuneration.

Attendance of students is required, and all examinations are given at the close of the School except such as are required by the Discipline to be given at Conference and a few specials allowed by the Chairman. Written work must be done before the student is eligible to examination.

The session this year was the best yet held in point of attendance, and the spirit of scholarly research was most pronounced. The young men are finding to a greater and greater degree the value of personal contact with older men who can give them not only the inspiration they need in their studies but the wise counsel which can be derived only from experience. The spirit of earnestness was most marked this year, and the devotional atmosphere was beautifully apparent. Spiritual values are stressed in all the work of the School, and faculty and students alike find these two weeks of fellowship, study and play together a most beneficial influence.

C. D. ROBERTSON,
Dean Itinerants' School.

Memoirs

W. T. BEADLES, D. D.

The state of Virginia has been called the "Mother of Presidents" but also she has given to Methodism many most efficient ministers. In this state on March 25th, 1846, was born the youngest of eleven children, a boy whom his parents named William Thomas Beadles. He came of sturdy stock, four of the family living to over eighty and two to past ninety years of age. Though he lived a most strenuous life, W. T. Beadles did not cease his labors until called to the life beyond, December 13th, 1924, from the home of his daughter in Pasadena, California.

When only two years of age he was brought by his parents to Illinois and grew to young manhood in Cass County. His youth was marked with the poverty of hardships of the early days preceding and during the Civil War. The country was new and living conditions crude, and upon the boy fell the responsibility of the home and the care of his mother and sisters. He farmed, worked out for the neighbors, engaged in carpentry, taught school, clerked in a store and when the railroad was built he became the agent at the station of Little Indian. Meanwhile having been converted in 1860 while attending a service in the old Zion Church then on the Jacksonville Circuit, he felt the call to Christian service and became Superintendent of the Sunday School. Finally after long struggles he resigned his position in the store and as agent of the railroad and began to study for ministry under the direction of Rev. N. R. Whitehead, then pastor at Virginia, Ill. On September 16th, 1874, he went to Mattoon where the Illinois Conference met under the presidency of Bishop R. S. Foster. Eighteen young men were up for admission but only eleven were received on trial, among them being W. T. Beadles, who was appointed to the Ivesdale Circuit, since which time his continuous service to the Kingdom has embraced the following activities, Cisco, Charleston Ct., San Jose, Potomac, Rossville, Gibson City, Paris, Quincy District, Paxton, Macon, Financial Sec. Chaddock Boys' School, Potomac, and Chaplain of the Soldiers' Home, Quincy. After his appointment to Cisco in 1875 he was married to Lucy A. Malone, and three children survive this union, Bertha A. of Quincy, Ill., Dr. R. O. Beadles of Ashland, Ill., and Lucius A. Beadles, of Los Angeles, California. The death angel came to the parsonage home in San Jose and being left alone with three motherless children he married Julia M. Crites of San Jose, Illinois, in 1883, one daughter, Mrs. Roscoe Townsend of Pasadena, California, survives this union.

William T. Beadles ministry was always marked with a deep and abiding evangelistic note. He never spared himself and gave his best efforts to the building of churches and parsonages, but his deeper passion was the real building of the church in the souls and lives of men. Hundreds have been converted under his ministry and brought into the church. On the early circuits he served it was no uncommon thing for him to spend twenty weeks during the winter in continuous revival campaigns, like a flaming torch of holy fire he went from one school house to another or from one little country church to another, starting the fires of holy living in the hearts of men. Perhaps his most outstanding work was during his administration of the Quincy District when he saved Chaddock to Methodism. When others were discouraged and ready to give up, W. T. Beadles said: "No! Chaddock shall not be lost to the Church, it represents too much in sacrifice and in the devoted lives of our people." With untiring faith he labored and inspired others till the old dying college was reborn in the new and vigorous Boys' School which stands today as a monument of his faith and works. His last great work was at the Soldiers' Home in Quincy, as Chaplain. He came to this position with the same earnest spirit which had always lead him forward. These elderly people needed just such a message as he so well knew how to give. They loved him as a friend, pastor and father. He visited the sick, closed the eyes of the dying and inspired the living.

It was always his ambition to compete fifty years of continuous service in the Illinois Conference. At the Conference of 1924 he realized this honorable ambition and preached his fiftieth anniversary sermon and asked for the retired relation. Apparently still vigorous in body and clear in mind he looked to years of continued service and usefulness. He requested a short vacation from his duties at the Soldiers' Home that he might visit in California. With his wife and daughter Bertha, he left Quincy with the glad anticipation of a brief visit on the sunny Pacific slope, but it was to be a trip to the eternal sunshine of Heaven, for on the way he was stricken and only the worn body came back to his beloved Chaddock where the boys acted as guard of honor and bore it to its last resting place in Graceland cemetery, Quincy, Illinois. The services were first held in the chapel at the Soldiers' Home, then the body was taken to Vermont St. M. E. Church where his old friends, Dr. S. H. Whitlock and Dr. G. E. Scrimger spoke words of hope and comfort. Dr. Whitlock closed with the sentence, "Good night, brother, I will meet you in the morning." Though the day was bitter cold and stormy, crowds attended every service and gathered about the grave, looking for the resurrection and the life to come through our Lord Jesus Christ.

W. H. NEIL.

The Reverend William Henry Neil, 6117 Evans Avenue, Chicago, died on March 15th at Oblong, Illinois. While preaching to former parishioners, he was stricken with apoplexy, and ten minutes afterwards passed on to his reward.

He was born near Carlyle, Clinton County, Illinois, July 26, 1867. His parents were R. W. Neil and Martha Blackburn of Jacksonville, Illinois, so that Brother Neil was cousin to Miss Kate Blackburn, formerly of the Bulgaria Mission. His Grandfather Neil served in the ministry of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in England and was among the last ministers of that body to be ordained by John Wesley. Mr. Neil was converted at sixteen years of age and in the same meeting accepted the call to preach.

Mr. Neil was graduated from McKendree College, Lebanon, Illinois, and in 1892 he entered the Southern Illinois Conference, being appointed pastor at Waterloo, Illinois, where he served for three years. He was ordained Deacon and received into full membership in the Southern Illinois Conference in 1894 and was ordained elder in 1897. He served the following pastorates: Waterloo, Illinois, 1892-95; Marissa, 1896-97; Coulterville and Tilden, 1898-99; Eldorado, 1900-01; Oblong, 1902-03; Carlyle, 1904-05. He was transferred to the Northwest Kansas Conference and served pastorates as follows: Jewell City, 1906-07; Osborne, 1908-10; Muskogee, Oklahoma, 1911-12. He served also in the Iowa Conference as pastor at Albia, 1913-14, and at Keokuk, 1915-17.

Doctor Neil's ministry in all these places was characterized by evangelistic passion. Revivals followed his ministry in these several pastorates and in various places church buildings were erected. Even after he had turned aside from the pastorate to serve the church in other relations his passion for spiritual things was still shown in unremitting activity as a personal worker and in his constant efforts to turn young lives into definite lines of Christian service. Not less than 43 ministers, missionaries, and Christian workers in other fields were directed into these lines of Christian service through his efforts.

Doctor Neil accepted work with the Educational Jubilee in 1918 and was transferred to membership in the Northeast Ohio Conference. For a time he served as Financial Secretary of Mt. Union College. In 1919 he entered the employ of the Joint Centenary Committee. With the establishment of the Committee on Conservation and Advance in 1920, he became one of its field representatives and continued with the World Service Commission until Fall, 1924. At the time of his death, March, 1925, he was entering happily upon what it was expected would be a notably useful term of service with the Board of Hospitals and Homes and Deaconess Work.

Mr. Neil was married at Huey, Illinois, November 15, 1888, to Miss Agnes Linhoff. Three children mourn his loss—Mrs. Martha Belle Kennedy, Wichita, Kansas, Jean R. Neil, Minneapolis, Minnesota; and Warren L. Neil, Chicago. He also leaves a brother, Professor C. Edmund Neil of Boston University.

Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday, March 18, Dr. W. R. Wedderspoon, St. James Church, officiating. Dr. N. E. Davis and Dr. R. J. Wade, Chicago, corresponding secretary of the World Service Commission, spoke of their intimate knowledge of Dr. Neil through six years of association with him. Reverend C. M. Barton, Chicago, made the closing prayer and six ministers connected with the World Service Commission acted as pallbearers.

Interment was at Oakwood Cemetery, Chicago, March 18.

THE REV. J. R. REASONER.

John Rogers Reasoner was born at West Union, Ohio, on March 2, 1835, and died at his home in Urbana, Ill., on January 12, 1925. He was the son of Aaron and Nancy Connell Reasoner, both of whom had strong characters and from whom he inherited his intellect and his characteristic energy.

He first occupied a pulpit in 1863, but he was then living along the border in Kentucky, and his work was interrupted from time to time by the bitter sectional feuds. He was a staunch unionist, and did not hesitate to express his feelings on proper occasions. He became a worker in the sanitary commission, the forerunner of our present day Red Cross. Later he accepted a commission as chaplain in one of the Kentucky regiments.

He succeeded Stephen G. Merrill (later a bishop in the church), in the pastorate at Maysville, Ky. He also served at Brooklyn and California in the same state. About this time he dropped out of the ministry temporarily and went into business as an architect and builder. This experience which lasted for two years was of the greatest value to him and to the church in later years. Upon his return to the ministry, he served at West View, Dresden and Homer, Ohio, in succession. He then transferred to the Iowa Conference and served successively at New London, Eddyville, and Lexington with one year off as financial agent, Iowa Wesleyan University at Mt. Pleasant. He again transferred to the Illinois Conference in 1879 and served at the following places in this conference: Morrisonville, Newman, Georgetown, Cerro Gordo, Macon, Tolono, Philo, Fisher, Ogden, Seymour, Fithian and Savoy. In many of his pastorates he gave his abilities freely in building and renovation of churches and parsonages. When he built these churches and parsonages it was not as a supervisor only but as an architect, a superintendent, a bricklayer, a carpenter, a plasterer, an expert on stucco work and a frescoer.

He retired from the active ministry in 1901, and settled in Urbana, and began new pursuits and interests. Without a college education he had acquired a wide knowledge of history, ancient and modern, of the sciences, and both Greek and Hebrew. He had an intense interest in horticulture, and following a long period of research investigation, he developed two strawberries which have become nationally popular and added much to the wealth of the country. With characteristic modesty he named these berries after two of his best friends—Senator H. M. Dunlap and Professor T. J. Burrill.

He was a member prominent in the Masonic fraternity and G. A. R., and served as vice-president of the Illinois Horticultural Society. He is survived by his wife, Katherine Malone Reasoner, his children, Fannie Reasoner Adams, of Morning Sun, Iowa; Major Matt A. Reasoner, United States Army, of New York City, and Clara Reasoner Barry of St. Louis, Mo., and one sister, Mrs. Sarah Connell of Elwood, Ind.

HIRAM A. SHERMAN.

Hiram Alonzo, only child of Hiram A. and Clara A. Bradley Sherman, was born at Newton, Mass., December 11th, 1858, and died at Jacksonville, Ill., May 28th, 1925. Of Puritan stock he was in the direct line of descent from Miles Standish and John Alden and related to General John A. Sherman. He attended the public schools of his native town; "Chauncy Hall" a private classical school in Boston, and Amherst College.

It was the desire of his parents that he should enter the ministry, but he preferred a business career. Later the call to preach prevailed and he fitted himself for the ministry. In 1902 he joined the Maine Conference, of which he was a member for thirteen years, and was stationed at Portland, Monmouth, Eastport, Brewer and Dexter. In 1915 he transferred to the Illinois Conference and served these charges: West Jacksonville Circuit, Ridge Farm, Owaneco, and Franklin. During his fourth year at Franklin, his health began to fail and he was granted the retired relation at the 1924 Conference. He then moved into his own home at Jacksonville, hoping to regain his health; but after an illness of eight months the Lord called him to the heavenly home.

The funeral services were held in Franklin Methodist Church as he had requested and were conducted by his District Superintendent, Rev. A. S. Chapman, assisted by Revs. F. B. Madden and H. C. Gibbs. The body was taken to Newton, Mass., where brief services were conducted by Revs. Frederick Palladin and W. R. Leslie, and where the remains were interred.

Brother Sherman was the father of two children by his first wife. They are, James Webster and Ruth Augusta, who with their step-mother, Mrs. Ella Winchester Sawyer Sherman, daughter of Joshua Waterhouse Sawyer of Newton, survive the father and husband.

Mr. Sherman was dowered with a powerful physique, a genial disposition and an energetic spirit. He was a faithful pastor and a conscientious gospel preacher.

DR. E. M. SMITH.

Edgar M. Smith was born at Livermore, Me., 79 years ago. His boyhood education was gained at the schools of the vicinity and his spare hours were spent on the farm where he remained until about seventeen years of age, when he entered the Connecticut Wesleyan College at Middleton, from which he graduated in 1871. The two years following were spent by Dr. Smith at the institution, from which he graduated, as a first honor man, as an instructor in mathematics. He then resigned and took up the pulpit, preaching in the M. E. churches in Providence and New Port, R. I., remaining three years in each. He then traveled a year in Europe and on returning became a member of the Central New York conference. He went back to his first ambition, that of college work, and for the eleven years following was president of the Maine Wesleyan Seminary and female college at Kent's Hill, Maine.

The succeeding five years were spent by Dr. Smith as president at the Montpelier, Vt., college. He then came west placing himself in Illinois where he came in response to an urgent request to take hold of the Methodist Wesleyan college here, and was made president in the year 1898, which position he held till 1905. During his presidency of the local university he enjoyed the honor of being of one of the University senate, a body of sixteen who composed the highest educational tribunal of the Methodist educational institutions in the country.

Dr. Smith's whole life was devoted to two great fields, those of religion and education. In these lines he labored and labored successfully. He always inspired his listeners with the deepseated feeling that he spoke truthfully and with much conviction.

For a short time after leaving Bloomington, Dr. Smith returned to the pastorate and filled different charges in central Illinois. For the past eight years he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Roy Church at Memphis, Tenn., where he died on November 10, 1924.

He is survived by the widow, a son, B. H. Smith, of Indianapolis and his daughter, Mrs. Church.

WILLIAM ALBERT SMITH.

Dr. W. A. Smith was born at Mt. Blanchard, Ohio, December 17, 1848, and died at his home, 1015 West Governor Street, Springfield, Illinois, at 5:35 Monday morning, March 23, 1925, at the age of 76.

In 1856 he came with his parents to Illinois and settled near Clinton. He was the oldest son and the second child in a family of eight children. In March, 1868, the father died and the burden of caring for and educating this large family fell largely upon the shoulders of this man not yet twenty years of age.

He was educated in the public schools and in the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington.

W. A. Smith was converted February 6th, 1866, at Rucker Chapel, near Clinton, in a revival conducted by Rev. J. C. Rucker and was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference, University Charge, afterwards Grace Church, Bloomington, in May, 1870, and ordained Local Deacon by Bishop Ames at the Conference session in Springfield in the fall of 1875.

He entered Illinois Wesleyan University in 1869 and was graduated with the highest honors as Valedictorian of his class, receiving the degree of A. B. in 1875. His Master's degree was given him in 1878 and the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1900. He was also elected a member of the general Conference the same year.

Dr. Smith entered the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Paris, Illinois, in the fall of 1876, being assigned to Iliopolis for his first charge. Succeeding charges were Taylorville, Carlinville, North Street, Danville, changed to First Church, when the new church built under his pastorate was dedicated in September, 1888, Grace Church, Bloomington; Centenary Church, Jacksonville; First Church, Champain; Mattoon, Hoopston, Lincoln and Virden.

In all these charges he conducted a revival each year and nearly always acted as his own evangelist. Over two thousand conversions and hundreds of revived and reconsecrated lives under his pastorate, bear witness that he fearlessly and effectively preached the gospel of the Risen Lord with convicting and saving power.

In 1896 Dr. Smith was chosen Presiding Elder for the Springfield District and served the full term of six years. During that time he organized Douglas Avenue Church from a mere mission and began Laurel Church by starting a mission Sunday School, then raising the funds to buy the lot and erect the first church building which he dedicated free from debt.

Following his ministry, he was for two years field secretary for the Illinois Wesleyan University, then six years as a field secretary for the Anti-Saloon League of Illinois, making addresses every Sunday in the Protestant pulpits in this state.

He was a member of the convention which organized the Anti-Saloon League of this State, was one of its early members and officials and member of the Headquarters committee longer than any other member in its history and had just finished writing the official history of the Anti-Saloon League of Illinois.

He was a member of the Board of Managers of the Temperance Society of the M. E. Church for one quadrennium and their Secretary for three years. For many years he was one of the "Conference Board of Examiners" and Chairman of the Board of Conference Trustees.

Dr. Smith was always deeply and vitally interested in the educational schools of Methodism and for forty years has served as a member of the Board of Trustees and official visitor of the Illinois Wesleyan University, and at the time of his death was perfecting plans for a great reunion—the 50th anniversary of his class to be held at Bloomington in June.

The immediate cause of his death was over-exertion in the preparation of a sermon preached in First Church, Springfield, March 8th, on "The Ministry of Service as Exemplified by the Lives and Labors of the Pioneer Preachers of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church," and three sermons preached for the Anti-Saloon League on March 15th.

For the past eight years he has held what is known as a "Retired Relation" to his conference, yet he has been constantly engaged in lines of religious and civic activities.

His was a "dynamo career", The Master's service first" was exemplified in his life as he performed faithfully and well the duties that came to him. Truly, he was "a workman that needeth not to be ashamed." After a brief illness he passed peacefully to rest and reward.

Dr. Smith is survived by his wife Julia Milmine, to whom he was married September 6th, 1877; two daughters, Mrs. Lela M. Lyon of Springfield, Mrs. Mildred Gullett of Lincoln, ten grand-children, and two brothers and three sisters residing at Clinton.

The funeral services was held in Douglas Ave. M. E. Church in Springfield, at 9:30 a. m., March 25th, with a large attendance of ministers and friends. Dr. H. W. McPherson, District Superintendent, was in charge, assisted by Dr. W. J. Davidson, President of Illinois Wesleyan University, Col. F. B. Ebbert of Chicago, State Supt. of the Anti-Saloon League, Reverends Buker, Havinghurst, Scrimger, Galeener, McDaniel and T. B. Lugg.

Amid a profusion of floral tributes from many friends, he was laid to rest in the family lot in Woodlawn Cemetery at Clinton, Illinois. The burial service was in charge of Rev. T. H. Tull, assisted by neighboring pastors.

"Servant of God, 'well done' Thy glorious warfare's past,
The battle's fought, the race is won, and thou art crowned at last."

CHARLES WEHRMAN.

Charles Wehrman was born at Truxton, Mo., May 13, 1851. He was the youngest of a family of six boys, the brothers preceding him in death.

He spent his boyhood days in that vicinity; was converted when about twelve years of age. When nineteen years old he entered Central Wesleyan College at Warrenton, Mo., where he graduated in both the classical and theological courses. He later received his D. D., and Ph. D. degrees from Illinois Wesleyan at Bloomington, Ill.

After completing his college work at Warrenton, he entered the ministry being stationed at the following places: Received on trial St. Louis German Conference, Farmington, Mo., Jefferson City, Hopewell and St. Charles. In the Illinois Conference—Chester, Pittsfield, Franklin, Littleton, Butler, Easton, Golden, Sadorus, Seymour, Fairmount, Ogden, Chatham, Loami, Tower Hill. He retired at Chatham in the fall of 1918.

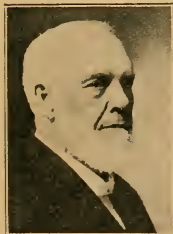

During his ministry he built churches at Littleton, Sadorus and Ivesdale, Jamaica on the Fairmount charge and Chatham.

After leaving his work at Chester he took a leave of absence during the year 1886 and he, with a party of friends, spent several months touring Europe and the Holy Land.

In the year 1880 he was married to Anna Vollrath at Marine, Ill., who died in 1894. To this union were born four children, Mrs. Julius Huegely, Nashville, Ill.; Mrs. Meta Chambers, Champaign, Ill., and Carl Wehrman, Nashville, Ill. On December 22, 1898, he was married to Mary B. Whray of Golden, Ill. To this union two children were born, one dying in infancy and Frances E. living at home. His wife, five children and five grandchildren survive him.

Funeral services were held at Chatham M. E. Church with interment at Edwardsville, Ill.

DR. S. H. WHITLOCK.

In the death of the Rev. Stephen Howe Whitlock, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mabel White, in Danville, Ill., August 10, the Illinois Conference lost its oldest and one of its most highly esteemed members. Dr. Whitlock had been failing in health for some time, and the end came after many weeks of weakness, so that it was not unexpected. He retained his faculties up to the very last, and his going was like falling into sleep.

Dr. Whitlock was born in Dayton County, Ohio, near the city of Cincinnati, April 27, 1836. He was the son of Elias and Mary Whitlock, pioneer settlers of that section. He was converted early in life, and united with the Methodist Church, and as he grew to manhood was licensed as a local preacher, beginning his ministerial work in that capacity at Piqua, O.

On January 26, 1860, at Piqua, O., he was united in marriage to Miss Maria Jane Horton, who journeyed with him throughout his ministerial career and was a lovable wife and devoted mother and a great help to him in his ministry. Mrs. Whitlock departed this life August 25, 1906.

Dr. Whitlock's services as a minister in the Illinois Conference began fifty-six years ago at Lincoln, Ill., being received on probation in the conference by Bishop Edward Thompson, and appointed to his first charge at Nokomis.

His long career in the conference continued, after three years at Nokomis, as follows: 1871, Maroa; 1872, LeRoy Circuit; 1873, LeRoy; 1874-76, Potomac; 1877-78, Ridgefarm; 1879-81, Homer; 1882-84, Macon; 1885-90, Quincy District; 1891-92, Clinton; 1893-96, Danville, Kimber Church; 1897-1902, Mattoon District; 1903-08, Danville District.

In 1909, at his own request, Dr. Whitlock was given the retired relation in the conference, and, while holding no regular charge since that date, he was in constant demand as a supply preacher, serving practically all of the leading churches in the conference repeatedly in a most acceptable manner. He was a regular attendant upon the sessions of the conference, and was present at practically all of the important meetings of any sort to which he was able to go. His presence always brought inspiration and comfort to those who were in sorrow, and his ministry and preaching seemed to grow in spiritual power up to the very last.

Dr. Whitlock was a member of a most remarkable family, of which four brothers were ministers: John W. Whitlock and Arthur W. Whitlock, well known preachers in Illinois; E. D. Whitlock, prominent in the Ohio conference, and W. F. Whitlock, professor of Latin in the Ohio Wesleyan University. Dr. Whitlock and two of his brothers were delegates to the General Conference held in Omaha, and also to the General Conference held in Chicago eight years later.

The deceased is survived by two sons and two daughters; Mrs. Mabel White of Danville, Ill.; Mrs. Venora Butler of Hartford, Conn.; Ward B. Whitlock, connected with the State Auditor's office at Springfield, and Dr. Merle H. Whitlock of Peoria.

The funeral service was held in St. James Methodist Church, Danville, the afternoon of August 13, Dr. Merle N. English of Oak Park delivering the principal address. A large company of ministers and laymen from various parts of the conference were in attendance at the services. The burial was in Homer, Ill., at the side of his departed wife.

WALTER ELLIOTT ROSE.

Walter Elliott Rose was born near Littleton, Schuyler County, Illinois, on January 28th, 1847.

He was married to Miss Angeline Anderson of Brookfield, Mo., January 28th, 1869. She passed away February 3rd, 1922.

Walter E. Rose was licensed to preach at a quarterly conference of the United Brethren Church, December 3rd, 1883, joined the annual conference of said church and was ordained an Elder at its regular session in 1883 at Alexis, Ill., Bishop Dixon presiding.

In 1892, Rev. Rose severed his relation with the United Brethren Church and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. At the session of the annual conference held at Shelbyville, Ill., in September, 1892, he was sent to Bowen, Ill., as a supply for one year, then to Lorain for one year. At the annual conference held at Champaign in 1894, he was admitted to membership on trial. He was pastor at Lorain for four years, Littleton three years, Paloma five years, Minier two years. For reasons of health he took a supernumerary relation and moved to Dodge City, Kansas, and served as supply at Jetmore, Kansas, one year, Bison for three years, Dodge City Circuit three years, Haviland one year, all in the bounds of the Southwest Kansas Conference.

In 1912 his conference in Illinois gave him the retired relation.

MRS. G. A. FRAZIER.

Mrs. Mary Margaret Hanson Frazier, daughter of James M. and Margaret L. Hanson, was born at Hansonville, Va., December 25, 1839, and died at her home in Villa Grove, Illinois, August 12th, 1925, aged 85 years, 7 months and 17 days.

December 25th, 1861, she was married to J. W. Gilmer of Hansonville. To this union two sons were born, James L., who died March 10th, 1915, and Dr. Clinton H. Gilmer of Villa Grove. The husband died in December, 1865. December 19th, 1871, she married Rev. G. A. Frazier, a member of the Holsten Conference, M. E. Church South, and shared his experiences in the ministry of that church nineteen years. To their union was born three children, William J., who died May 20th, 1914; George A. and Mrs. Mamie Richman of Villa Grove.

In 1885 she came with the family to Illinois. They lived on the farm two miles northeast of Villa Grove until 1909, when on account of her failing health they moved to Villa Grove. Her husband joined the Illinois Conference M. E. Church, of which he is still a member. Mrs. Frazier was converted at the age of 16 and united with the Methodist Church. She was always faithful to her religious life. She dearly loved her home and her family. Her home was noted for its generous hospitality. She was a beautiful woman and very rich in those qualities of heart that endeared her to family, friends and acquaintances.

Besides her husband and children named above, she is survived by three brothers and one sister; Frank and John Hanson of Hansonville, Va.; Walter P. Hanson of Villa Grove and Mrs. Scott Gilmer of Kingsport, Tenn. She is also survived by seven grandchildren.

The funeral services were conducted at 2:00 o'clock Friday afternoon from the Methodist Church which she had so long loved, conducted by her pastor, W. G. Lloyd, assisted by two former pastors, J. T. Stretton and A. C. Adams. She was tenderly laid to rest in the Villa Grove Cemetery.

MRS. L. M. GAY.

Conference week has always been the time of uncertainty and expectation in the home of the Methodist minister. So it was with Mrs. L. M. Gay. She spent Conference week of 1924 in preparation for a great move and on Saturday morning of that week, September 13th, she received her appointment for her final move to her eternal home. She was born in Shelbyville, Illinois, March 4, 1845, and in 1862 was married to the Rev. David Gay. She entered into the life of an itinerant Methodist minister with loyalty and earnest zeal, doing her full duty not only in the parsonage home but in the many activities of the charge and meeting the numerous demands which always come to the wife of a minister.

Rev. Gay filled a number of charges in the Illinois Conference, being Superintendent of the Mattoon District and also Pastor of Vermont Street Quincy. Here he held one of his most successful pastorates, having a great revival and greatly strengthening the church. Her husband died in St. Louis in 1908 and Mrs. Gay for years made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Edward Orr, of Quincy, Ill. Until advanced age prevented her, she took an active part in all the churches activities. She was a member of the W. C. T. U. and of the Alpha Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle. Though greatly afflicted with deafness in her later days she was faithful in her attendance at the church services and most loyal to her pastor and church. She was greatly beloved by the people of the community and her very presence seemed a benediction. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. W. E. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Edward Orr, of Quincy, Ill., and one son, Arthur Gay, of Quincy, a son, John, having died several years ago. Seven grandchildren and five great grandchildren survive.

Services were held in Quincy by Rev. J. E. Tuschoff of the Union M. E. Church and loving hands bore the remains to St. Louis, where they rest by the side of the husband and son. It can truly be said of her, "She hath done what she could."

MRS. CHARLES WILMER JACOBS.

Sarah Marguerite Rice was the daughter of John W. and Margaret Strange Rice, being born at Newton Stewart, Indiana, November 3, 1852. She had no sisters and her only brother died in infancy. Her mother's people, the Stranges, were Methodists for generations, several generations, several ministers being of their number. Her father died of cholera on his boat laden with merchandise near New Orleans before her birth. Among the treasures of her possession was the sweet and trustful letter that her mother wrote father Strange telling him of the young husband's death and of her own critical future. At the age of six years with her mother and stepfather, Dr. John E. V. Radcliffe, she removed to Terre Haute, Ind., where near seventeen years of age she married Charles Wilmer Jacobs, a young graduate of the Indiana University. Mr. Jacobs was a school teacher for several years before and after their marriage, teaching in Kansas, Edgar County, for six years and in the summer sessions of the normal schools then functioning at Paris and Mattoon. In 1881 he became a member of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. During the years that he was the successful pastor-preacher of the Methodist Churches at Alexander, Roodhouse, Mechanicsburg, Hillsboro, Greenfield, Saybrook, Casey, Grove City, Bellflower and Oakland, she was his energetic and accomplished helpmate looking after the Junior Leagues and the musical interests of his appointments. From a young girl to the last five years she studied and taught music. Like her talented husband whom many in the connection will recall as the editor of the sainted Lizzie Johnson's manuscript, "From the Pillow to the Throne," Mrs. Jacobs was gifted in the literary expression of choice and profound thoughts, delighting in writing such articles for the study clubs in which she was a valued member. Portrait painting was another of her personal accomplishments. Since early womanhood Mrs. Jacobs was an active member of the Order of the Eastern Star and since 1910 had been a member of Areta Chapter, No. 70, of the Star. In Kedar Rebekah, No. 153, she had occupied highest honor.

When in Roodhouse she and her husband welcomed a little seven year old girl, Elma Richmond, whose own mother had passed away several months before, leaving the father with six children. They could have conferred no greater benefit upon themselves, for as Elma Jacobs, the surviving child, has achieved a daughterhood real and worthy of an offspring of the manse. Since Brother Jacobs' death, Mrs. Jacobs and Elma have lived in Casey, Ill., where save for two years at Oakland and Bellflower the family has resided since 1900.

Services in her memory took place at the First Church, Casey, December 29th, 1924, she having passed away on the 26th. Her pastor, Arthur A. Heinlein, preached the sermon, being assisted in the service by Pastors Batty and Baldridge of Martinsville. The interment was in Casey Cemetery.

MRS. CAROLINE W. MARTIN.

Mrs. Caroline W. Martin, wife of the late Rev. John B. Martin, was born November 26, 1846, in Baden, Germany, and fell asleep January 2nd, 1925, aged seventy-eight years. She came to America in 1866 with relatives who settled at Alexander, Ill., where she met and married her husband in 1872. Her noble christian life was known and felt by all who knew her. She was a leader in the Sunday School, Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, sharing all the duties of the church with her husband. She was an untiring witness for her Lord and Master and in the resurrection day there will be many stars in her crown of rejoicing. She is survived by four sons and three daughters, namely: Charles A. Martin, Vermilion, Ill.; Dr. F. A. Martin, Pana, Ill.; Dr. John W. Martin, Paris, Ill., and Rev. Joshua B. Martin, Pastor, First M. E. Church, Elgin, Ill.; Mrs. Lucy Foor, Tower Hill, Ill.; Mrs. Sarda Carson, Belleflower, Ill.; Miss Caroline Martin, who lived with her mother since her husband's death, the mother being an invalid for several years and confined to her bed for nearly three years.

The charges in the Illinois Conference served by these faithful workers were: Manchester, Chandlerville, Grandview, Bethany, Windsor, Vermilion, Tower Hill, Belleflower, Potomac, Pawnee, Blue Mound, Humbolt, Gifford, Dewey, Minier, Garrett, LaPlace, Girard, Tolono, Ogden, Astoria, where Brother Martin died in 1919. After his death, she and her daughter moved to Tower Hill and there they have resided ever since.

The church in which the funeral services were held was built when her husband was pastor thirty-three years before. The services were conducted on January 5th, 1925, by Rev. A. M. Wells, District Superintendent, assisted by Rev. A. S. Flanagan, Rev. H. C. Gibbs, Rev. Jasper Miller, Rev. J. C. Nate, Rev. C. R. Booth and Rev. Harry Ingraham, her pastor.

MRS. MARGARET S. ORR.

Mrs. Margaret S. Orr, a former resident of Buffalo, Ill., died Thursday, May 14th, 1925, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Seaman, of Fairfield, Ill.

Margaret S. Gamble was born in Molan County, Pa., April 14, 1835, being ninety years and one month of age the day of her death. When a small child her parents moved to Fairview County, Ohio. Later the family moved to Piatt County, Ill. In December of 1855 she was united in marriage with A. T. Orr, a Methodist minister of Illinois Conference. Mr. Orr, during his long ministry, held many pastorates, among them being Mattoon and Shelbyville.

Five children were born to Rev. and Mrs. Orr, only one, a daughter, Mrs. J. L. Seaman, surviving. Two children died in infancy. A son, John T. Orr, died at St. Louis in August, 1922. Another son, T. E. Orr, died in Buffalo in July, 1923. Mrs. Orr is survived by six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Rev. and Mrs. Orr came to Buffalo in the fall of 1893, with their son, T. E. Orr, who came here as principal of the Buffalo School, afterward becoming cashier of the Buffalo Bank. In 1896 Rev. Mr. Orr died and was buried at Barry, Ill. Mrs. Orr is well known in the Illinois Conference, having attended the sessions with her husband and frequently since her husband's death.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, May 16th, at the residence of Mrs. Seaman at Fairfield and at the M. E. Church at Barry, where she was buried beside her husband in the cemetery at Barry.

ELLA FRUZANA HOWARD.

Ella Fruzana Howard was summoned suddenly August 24th, 1925, at her home in Shelbyville, Ill. Of her it can be said with emphasis: "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. Yea, saith the spirit for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

Mrs. Howard was born in Shelbyville, April 19th, 1858. Here she spent her girlhood days and she developed into a strong refined christian woman. She was married to Rev. William R. Howard, an honored member of the Illinois Conference, July 12, 1881. To this union one child was born, dying in infancy. After faithfully working together with her husband in the many charges to which he was appointed, they retired from the public ministry and moved to Shelbyville, Ill., in 1904, to spend the declining years of their lives. Here Rev. Howard departed this life in 1908, after having been for more than half a century a worker in the Master's cause. His widow is survived by several nieces, three of whom reside in Shelbyville, namely: Miss Nieda Bivins, Mrs. Arch Tallman and Mrs. Mable Roberts; also four step-children, Herbert Howard of Heyworth, Ill.; Gertrude Howard of Natchez, Miss.; Mrs. George T. Stanley of Winnemucka, Nev., and Mrs. J. W. Witt of Linden, Wash.

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Howard continued to interest herself in the affairs of the church and Conference. During the Bi-Conference movement of the Illinois Conference she made a gift of $500.00 out of her limited possessions to the retired ministers fund of the Conference.

Funeral services were held at her residence in Shelbyville, Ill., conducted by Rev. E. V. Young and Rev. F. B. Madden, and her body was laid to rest at Oak Ridge Cemetery beside her husband.

MRS. M. P. WILKIN.

Jennie A. Greer was born in the north of Ireland and was brought to the United States in infancy, more than eighty years ago. The youngest of a family of ten, all living to maturity, she was the last to answer the call.

Her parents settled on a farm east of Olney, Ill. Miss Greer graduated from Oxford, O., before Miami University admitted women as students. For some years she was a teacher in the schools at Olney and Vandalia. Fifty-three years ago, October 25, 1871, she was married to M. P. Wilkin. Since that time they served in the ministry of the Methodist Church, she organizing missionary societies, working in the W. C. T. U. and Chautauqua Circles, and leaving an impress for good on many boys and girls taught in

Sunday School.

All her life she was a student, reading many books, especially Shakespeare and the great English authors. In later years she read much in Chautauqua Circles and Mission Courses, many times helping to put life into these movements when they were stagnant. She was well informed on current history, both in the church and general politics.

After almost five years of patient suffering, she passed gently and peacefully to her reward Tuesday evening, February 24. Funeral services were held at Trinity Church, Urbana, Ill., on February 26. Dr. A. K. Byrns had charge of the services, and the address was given by Dr. T. N. Ewing. The body was taken to Chicago for cremation and her ashes rest in the family lot at Olney, Ill.

MRS. T. B. WRIGHT.

Lily Caroline McCoy, youngest child and daughter of Milton D. and Malcina McCoy, was born one-half mile north of Rochester, on May 9th, 1866. She was educated in the Rochester Schools. From early childhood she was an earnest Christian and ardent worker in the Rochester M. E. Church.

On July 8th, 1897, she was married to the late Rev. Thos. B. Wright, who was at that time pastor of the Rochester Methodist Church. To this union was born one daughter, Helen Eloise, who in 1919 was married to R. Rex Good, of Coldwater, Mich. Besides being a true helpmate and faithful companion to her husband and a loving mother to her own daughter, she was a true mother to her step-daughter, Mary Wright Pease, wife of Kingsley E. Pease, who in 1903 gave her life to the cause of Christ in Singapore, Malaysia, where she and her husband had gone as missionaries in 1901. Mrs. Wright until her death was an active worker in all church activities and was always interested in any work which would in any way better the world in which we live. She was for a number of years president of the local W. F. M. S. and a member of the W. C. T. U.

On Sunday, December 28th, 1924, the Lord saw fit to call her to himself. After four weeks of suffering she closed her eyes and quietly slept away, to awaken in the presence of our Heavenly Father. Mrs. Wright's death occurred on the same day of the week, the same hour of the day and in the same room of the house where fifteen weeks before Rev. Wright passed away, both departing this life at 10:45 p. m. on Sunday.

Funeral services were held in the Rochester M. E. Church on Tuesday, December 30th, 1924, the Rev. H. W. McPherson, Superintendent of Springfield District, officiating, assisted by Rev. H. C. Munch, Rochester pastor. Interment was made beside her husband in Rochester Cemetery.

Mrs. Wright leaves to mourn her going, her daughter, Helen Wright Good; two grand-daughters; one sister, Mrs. Mary Poffenberger, of Rochester, and two brothers, S. J. McCoy, of Rochester, and J. K. McCoy, of San Antonio, Texas.

She is deeply mourned; but while the people mourn her going, each feels they have lost a true example of an earnest Christian life.

MRS. MARY ROSE.

Mary Jane Williamson was born June 28, 1853, near Virginia, where she lived with her parents until the time of her marriage to the Rev. Marion Rose, December 30, 1880. They went immediately to Indiana to make their home, where Mr. Rose was a member of the Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. They continued their labor of love in this Conference until 1886 when they were transferred to the Illinois Conference, where they gave themselves unrelentingly to the work of their Master until 1895, when Brother Rose was compelled to take a superannuated relation because of poor health. He and his family went to Texas with the hope that he would regain his health, but after spending the winter there, they returned to Virginia, where Mrs. Rose has lived until the time of her death, which occurred on Thursday, Feb. 5, at 6:45 a. m., after a brief illness.

The Lord blessed this union with two daughters, one having passed on in infancy, the other, Miss Ethel, who survives her mother.

Besides her daughter Ethel, she is survived by two brothers and three sisters, J. H. Williamson of Rockford, Mich., John, Sarah and Emma Williamson, and Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton, all of Virginia, with many other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Rose had passed just a little beyond the three score and ten years, her age being at the time of her death 71 years, 7 months and 6 days. We mention the days, because she learned early in life the importance of numbering her days and applying her heart and wisdom.

Mrs. Rose was converted when she was a young girl while attending school at Jacksonville. She had been a life long member of the Methodist Church, being faithful to all the interests of the church to the very last days of her life. Now we may say, "She is not for God has taken her unto Himself."

And her works will follow her.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, Feb. 7, 1925, the Rev. Ellison officiating. Interment was in Walnut Ridge.

MRS. ELIZABETH GOLLOGHER.

Elizabeth Rebecca Young was born in Taylorville, Illinois, August 18, 1841. Her mother having died when she was yet a child, Elizabeth lived with her father until she married Mr. Gollogher, on May 22, 1862.

The two served a number of pastoral charges in the Illinois Conference. After retiring, the Rev. Mr. Gollogher and wife purchased a home in Stewardson where, since his death a few years ago, Mrs. Gollogher continued to live until death called her away on March 22, 1925, at the age of 83 years and 7 months.

Both she and her husband took more than ordinary interest in Foreign Missions. Practically all their accumulations were left to the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Funeral rites were conducted in the Stewardson M. E. Church by her pastor, the Rev. W. G. Montgomery, after which she was laid away to sleep her last sleep by the side of her devoted husband and comrade in the ministry.

MRS. I. M. JOHNSON.

Mrs. Mary Jane Johnson was born March 8, 1849, near Pulaski, Illinois. Her parents were George and Louisa Gordon. She died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth E. Cannon, in Augusta, Ill., August 7, 1925, at the age of 76 years, 5 months, 9 days. Mrs. Johnson lived her life in the western part of Illinois. She attended the country schools and the services of the Methodist Episcopal Church as a girl. She was converted at the age of 15 under the ministry of Rev. Curtis Powell. Always thereafter she lived the life of a child of God. She was a consistent Christian, and loved the house, the people and the service of God.

On September 24, 1891, she was united in marriage to Rev. I. M. Johnson of the Methodist Episcopal Church. No children were born to this union. Her husband died August 8, 1897. Since his death she has made her home in La Prairie. About 25 years ago she met with an accident; and since that time has suffered much. During the past year this suffering has increased. The last few weeks of her life were spent at the home of her sister where all that was possible was done to relieve the intense pain.

Three sisters survive: Mrs. Elizabeth S. Cannon, Augusta, Ill.; Mrs. Adelia S. Lemon, Olathe, Kansas, and Mrs. Eliza S. Walker, Deland, Illinois. Other members of the immediate family are not living. The funeral service was held August 19, 1925, at 2:00 p. m. at the Methodist Episcopal Church in Augusta and burial was made in Pulaski Cemetery.

DECLARATION OF MERGER.

The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1924 having passed the following Enabling Act:

“The St. Louis German Conference, during the next Quadrennium, may merge with the contiguous English Conferences whenever it may deem it wise to do so.”

And the St. Louis German Conference having voted in favor of merging with the said contiguous English Conferences, making the only remaining conditions of the final act of merger the affixing to this Declaration of the signatures of the Presiding Bishops of the St. Louis and St. Louis German Conferences for the sessions of 1925.

Now, therefore, we Ernest Lynn Waldorf and Edwin Holt Hughes, do declare by this signed document that said merger is now effected; that the Church and Parsonage properties involved by this merger shall be transferred into the English Conferences within which the Charges fall; and that the members of the St. Louis German Conference are now transferred to the various English Conferences in harmony with the agreements as made by the various Commissions appointed to plan for this merger.

Upon this act of merging these Conferences and upon all the work of Christ affected thereby, the blessing of God Almighty is reverently invoked.

ERNEST LYNN WALDORF,

President of the St. Louis German Conference;

EDWIN HOLT HUGHES,

President of the St. Louis Conference;

St. Louis, Missouri, Sept. 13, 1925.

Conference Rules

"1. The Conference shall meet at 8:15 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12 o'clock, noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

"2. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"3. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"4. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"5. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"6. No effective member of the Conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"7. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"8. All written motions, reports and communications to the Conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the Conference.

"9. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"10. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"11. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"12. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"13. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and, if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"14. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"15. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1) when a member has the floor, (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided, (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question, (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending, (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

"16. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"17. The mover of any question or resolution, that shall in any way place a financial obligation on the Conference or any member of the Conference or any church in the territory of the Conference, shall introduce the same before the Conference at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote on the same, and he shall post a duplicate typewritten copy of the same in a conspicuous place at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the Conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but, on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the Conference, and if the call be sustained by _____ members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than _____, may have their votes recorded by name.

"21. The District Superintendents shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the Conference in advance of the Conference Session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"22. Vacancies in the Conference Board of Trustees, the Conference Board of Stewards and the Conference Deaconess Board shall be filled by election of the Conference on nomination by the District Superintendents.

"23. All requests for special appointment shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

"24. The report of the committee on education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday of each session of the Conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time,

"25. The Statistical Secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the Conference Session immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"26. Each member in effective relation, and each supply, shall contribute a sum equal to the amount of 1-10 of 1 per cent of his cash salary to be applied as necessity may require to the purpose of securing expert accountants, or stenographers, or assistants, and for Secretarial Expenses.

"27. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the Conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

"28. These rules shall not be suspended except by a majority of all the members of the Conference."

XVII.
MINUTES OF THE
EIGHTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING
LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION ILLINOIS CONFERENCE
METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

September 18 and 19, 1925, Congregational Church,
Beardstown, Illinois.

Friday, September 18.

After joint devotions with the ministers led by Bishop Hughes, at the First Methodist Church, the Laymen's Association was called to order by President D. L. Musselman.

A count of delegates who were seated by districts showed the following: Bloomington 25, Champaign 16, Decatur 18, Jacksonville 35, Mattoon 23, Quincy 46, Springfield 56—a total of 209.

Walter Buck, County Superintendent of Schools, welcomed the delegates and Judge H. R. Snively responded. The vice presidents, all seven of whom were present, made short reports from their districts.

President Musselman commended the vice presidents for their activity as shown by district meetings, expressed appreciation of the fine attendance at this meeting, mentioned the importance of the work of laymen, dwelt on the value of genuine religion expressed by works. Laymen should allow no excuse for failure in the World Service. The future security of America depends upon Christianizing Asia and Africa, and the welfare of the world is involved in the growth of true religion.

The following committees were appointed: On resolutions, S. E. Dillavou, B. F. Kagey, E. P. Frederick; on nominations, J. E. McClure, I. B. Blackstock, I. E. Merritt; on audit, C. C. Grimmett, Mrs. H. A. Coleman, Mrs. Carrie Powell.

The secretary reported that the executive committee had held two formal meetings and several conferences. During the year the secretary sent about 2500 pieces of mail to the membership. To a circular requesting suggestions on subjects, speakers and other things, about 100 replies were received and were used as the basis of the annual program. Material not used this year may be useful for later programs.

Itemized statement in treasurers book show total receipts of $399.05 and total expenditures of $169.80, leaving a balance of $229.25. The report was referred to auditing committee.

Miss Kenzia Munson, returned missionary from India reported greater opportunity for effective work than ever before and plead that America rise to meet the call.

Judge John J. Reeves gave the annual association address on "Personal Evangelism." An evangelist is one who carries good tidings. If we are to assist in evangelizing the communities in which we live, it is indispensable that our lives shall be such as to speak for themselves. The life we live is of much more importance than the doctrine we preach. There is a tendency to make the living of a Christian life a hardship, rather than a pleasure. Too many people go through life with doubts touching their religious experience. Job said, "I know that my Redeemer liveth." We may know it as completely as Job. There is no excuse for mere belief, hope or expectation. We may know.

In discussion Dr. L. Roy Branom said this question is as old as the story of "The Christ" and always new. All of Christ's work was done by personal contact. He talked to the woman at the well and she listened. He talked to fishermen and they became fishers of men. He is our great example and leads us out into a field of service by life, word and deed.

Both speakers showed an earnestness and appreciation of things spiritual which would be a credit even to men whose life calling is in the ministry.

The question of admission of laymen to membership in annual conferences was discussed by E. C. Page, George H. Wilson, W. E. White, H. R. Snively, A. R. Crook, I. E. Merritt; those favoring it saying other churches admitted laymen, the general and other conferences in Methodism did, laymen deserved a larger influence in the church, could add business experience, etc.; those opposing saying laymen already have ample opportunity to make themselves felt. Ministers deserve the right of a professional organization as is now customary in other walks of life; laymen might harm rather than help; the plan might destroy the Laymen's Association; two coordinate bodies would be superior to one oversized gathering.

Upon adjournment, the Special Electoral Conference was called to order by C. C. Grimmett, Secretary of Electoral Conference of 1923. Judge H. R. Snively was chosen chairman. A. R. Crook was appointed to assist Secretary Grimmett. Upon motion of I. E. Merritt, roll call was dispensed with and only the special delegates elected in 1925 were declared to have the right to vote.

On the question of union of M. E. Churches north and south, the vote stood 135 for and 4 against union. On the admission of laymen to the annual conferences 128 voted in favor and 11 against. Both motions were declared carried.

The afternoon devotions were led by T. V. Hopper and Mrs. F. N. Wells. Rev. Dr. J. L. Anderson spoke concerning the work of the Chicago Wesley Memorial Hospital.

R. A. Gabbert, B. W. Honnold and E. P. Frederick spoke in favor of retaining the country church—the spiritual home and place of Christian activity of many a region. The country churches were started and continued by the sacrifices of our forefathers. Our spiritual welfare depends upon them. They keep up morals and are the center of social life in our neighborhood.

Fifty per cent of the country folk would not unite with the town churches. Many who did unite would not feel at home.

Rev. Dr. M. A. Dawber of Philadelphia, Superintendent of Rural Churches plead for the strengthening of the county church—and absolute necessity and needing a new kind of leadership.

Rev. Dr. B. M. Powell, Field Representative Board of Pension and Relief, described a very business like plan in which the minister pays annually $2\frac{1}{2}\%$ of his salary and the church 8%. Pensions now are inadequate. The contribution reserve plan will improve the situation.

U. S. Congressman Richard Yates gave an inspiring address on "Respect for Law, drawing illustrations from the inexorable laws of planetary systems, the laws of the national government and the Divine law. He lifted the audience to a high plane and I. E. Merritt in his discussion following briefly emphasized the subject in an effective manner.

Dr. I. N. Neece gave practical suggestions as to what the church should do for the young people. Destiny of the nation is determined by ideals of young people. The home must supply vital elements in character building. Adults are responsible for character forming contacts. Church must not be run by the middle aged. Mind of youth must be recaptured. Tie up by work in Sunday School, etc.

The work of educational institutions within the conference was next presented. Mrs. Pfitzenmeyer bespeaking the prayers and gifts of our membership, told of the 76 children now cared for in Cunningham Home by about a dozen helpers; and of the need of new buildings. The home has been doing fine work for 30 years.

Mrs. Frields told of Chaddock Boys School.

Dr. McClelland, newly elected president of Illinois Woman's College after paying a tribute to President Emeritus Harker, said that the college has just opened with unprecedented enrollment; spoke of its high standards in scholarship and Christian life; and stated its chief needs totalling a million and a half for buildings and endowment.

Dr. Davidson said Illinois Wesleyan is doing an A Class piece of work in education and is needing the prayerful and financial cooperation of every Methodist man and woman in this conference. We earnestly hope our pastors and laymen will put the Wesleyan into their annual giving. No greater investment can any man make than in the Christian education of our youth.

Dr. Baker, in speaking of the Wesley Foundation said that all Methodists suffered a loss by the death of Dr. James, former president of the State University, a great hearted Christian and lover of the church. The Wesley Foundation idea is being adopted in foreign countries. Last year there were 2700 Methodist students at Urbana—four times as many as there were eight years ago. Interest in religion and the church is increasing in student life and is continued after the students leave the University.

Rev. Mr. Powers told how the Chicago Training School has made to Methodism a contribution of 40 institutions and 5000 trained workers for home and foreign service and is now fitting both young men and women for the ministry.

Saturday, September 19.

The Saturday morning program was delayed since laymen were reluctant to break the spell which Bishop Hughes cast over them at the devotional hour in the Methodist church and continued till nearly ten o'clock. However because of the promptness of the lay speakers the Laymen's program proceeded smoothly after it had started.

C. C. Grimmett lead the devotions. W. A. Joy conducted Memorial Service for W. S. Bullard of Mechanicsburg and C. P. Van Dorn of Loami, the only two members of the association who had passed away during the year. H. S. Wiley paid a tribute to Brother Bullard and B. F. Kagey to Brother Van Dorn.

Dr. C. W. East was requested by the president to tell of his work with crippled children throughout the state.

U. S. Marshal J. E. McClure, in speaking on the attitude of the church to the changing thought of the times pointed out changes in every walk of life in the last few years and which are reflected in changed Sabbath observances, church attendance, and in attacks on the Bible. The church should be a community center, should furnish young people fine entertainment. Induction into membership should be made more impressive. Religion and the Bible need no defense.

Dr. C. W. East said the attitude of the church should be: 1st. Fearless. A robust Christianity is steadfast "always abounding in the work of the Lord." 2nd. Fair. Don't use the word science as a synonym of infidelity. Prove all things; hold fast that which is good. 3rd. Evangelical. Man may and must be born again. 4th. Serviceable. "He hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor, to bind up the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

Dr. Charles P. White described the successful plan of church organization developed at Kewanee. Official Board was made large enough so that no member is assigned more than one duty. Luncheons and entertainments assist in securing large attendance. Church is divided into districts; one steward to each, responsible for actual and projective members. A secretary keeps record of all activities. For further details write Dr. White.

George Risto commended the plan, related experiences in the effective church in which he has been a member and rejoiced that the German Methodist church is uniting with the larger Methodist Episcopal.

The music throughout the meeting was inspiring. The congregational singing was good. Brothers Wiley and Johnson did their part. The singing of the Chaddock Boys School Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Ingram and Miss Wetzel was excellent and appealing. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mills delighted the audience with their singing.

The committee on resolutions presented the following, which upon motion of Brother Grimmert were unanimously adopted:

First—We hereby express our thanks to Almighty God for the preservation of our lives, and for the very great privilege of being permitted to gather with our friends in this our Eighteenth Annual Meeting of the Laymen's Association of the Illinois Conference for the purpose of renewing our acquaintance with those whose purpose in life is to consider all things that count for the Kingdom. Second—We hereby affirm our faith in our God and church and reconsecrate our lives to His service and pledge our loyalty to the church and its great program. Third—We appreciate the presence of Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes of the Chicago Area in his second visit to our Conference; and rejoice in the love and inspiration we have received from his presence and his masterful leadership. We pledge to him our loyalty and support. Fourth—We pledge our loyalty to our Laymen's Association, organized at Bloomington in 1907, and call the attention of all District Superintendents, ministers, and laymen to our Constitution (Page 158 Conference Minutes, 1907). We also admonish our members to attend next year—the last meeting in this present quadriennium. Fifth—We insist that each church use its privilege to elect annually at the Third Quarterly Conference, one delegate to attend our Laymen's Association. Sixth—We express our appreciation of the excellent services rendered by our president, secretary-treasurer, the seven vice presidents, the executive committee and local committee, and thank the officers for the excellent and inspiring program they have prepared. Seventh—We extend our gratitude to the good people of Beardstown and the officers and members of the Congregational Church for the royal hospitality offered us. Eighth—We hold sacred the precious memory of those who have been called by death since our last meeting. They have not lived in vain. May their faithful lives be emulated by all of us. Ninth—We recommend that each local church give careful attention to church affairs especially financial affairs. We go on record as favoring the four settlement days designated by our discipline, Sept. 1, Dec. 1, March 1 and June 1. We recommend the practice of Christian stewardship and tithing which we find practiced in the Old Testament and indorsed by the Savior in the New. Tenth—We heartily rejoice and approve the plan of union between the two Methodist bodies of the world and await with our prayers the completion of this great work. We also look forward with pleasant anticipation to the time when the Laymen can sit in the Annual Conference, being then members of the Annual Conference and deliberating as one body. Eleventh—We greatly appreciate the coming to our Conference of the members of the St. Louis Conference. We extend to them a hearty welcome. Twelfth—We rejoice in the work accomplished by our Missionary Societies and pledge our support for our world service program. Thirteenth—We record our conviction that the greatest challenge to the church today is the proper attitude toward the training of the youth. We recognize the wise judgment of those who established in our Conference the Illinois Wesleyan University, the Illinois Woman's College and the Wesley Foundation. We strongly urge that the laymen of this great Conference include in their annual giving a fund for the maintenance and support of these worthy institutions. Fourteenth—We urge that our adult members lend their presence and support to the Sunday School. Fifteenth—We especially urge the observance of all our country's laws and especially recommend the enforcement of the Volstead Act. Sixteenth—Finally, Brethren, realizing that our greatest need is a continual revival in our hearts, we call all Methodism to its knees and recommend that every Methodist home maintain a family altar, in that God may be continually praised and have the first place in our minds, lives, and hearts.

In Christian love and fellowship we recommend the adoption of these resolutions.

The auditing committee report, as follows, was adopted: Your committee has this 19th day of September, 1925, audited the books of the Secretary-Treasurer and found them to be correct and in good form both as to detail and accuracy.

Report of the committee on nominations (after opportunity was given for nominations from the floor) as follows, was adopted, upon motion of Brother McClure: For President, D. L. Musselman; for Secretary-Treasurer, A. R. Crook; for Vice-Presidents, W. F. Engle, C. W. Groves, Isaac L. Long, Thomas V. Hopper, Judge H. R. Snively, C. W. Caughlan, H. W. Wiley, for their respective districts. For Executive Committee, D. L. Musselman, A. R. Crook, C. C. Grimmett, I. B. Blackstock, Mrs. F. M. Wells.

On motion of Brother Kagey, the secretary was instructed to have the minutes printed in the Conference Journal and upon motion of Brother Groves the Executive Committee was authorized to bring out a booklet containing the constitution and proceedings of the organization, etc.

Brother Kagey proposed for next year an amendment to the constitution providing for one extra member on the executive committee.

The secretary suggested that several other minor amendments which will be stated before the meeting, be considered at that time.

On motion of Brother Groves the secretary-treasurer was instructed to forward $100.00 to the World Service treasury. Brother Blackstock suggested sending a check to janitor of church where our meeting is held; and a message of regret to Judge Love who is ill.

Brother Snavely reported that Mattoon had been chosen for the seat of the next conference and invited the Laymen's Association to meet there.

Adjourned.

A. R. CROOK, Secretary-Treasurer. •

LAY ELECTORAL CONFERENCE.

By virtue of our office as chairman and secretary of the Lay Electoral Conference of the Illinois Conference of 1925, we hereby submit the following facts and figures to be the result of the vote taken on the proposed changes in Constitution:

First, 613; "Plan of Unification of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church South," 139 voting with 135 for union and 4 against union.

Second, 614; "Laymen in Annual Conference," 139 voting, with 128 for their admission and 11 against.

H. R. SNAVELY, Chairman.

C. C. GRIMMETT, Secretary.

Daily Proceedings

JOURNAL OF THE SESSION

FIRST DAY.

Mattoon, Ill., Wednesday, September 15, 1926.

The One Hundred Third Session of the Illinois Annual Conference was called to order in the First Methodist Episcopal Church at 8:30 a. m. by Bishop W. P. Thirkield.

The Service of Worship consisted of Hymn 78; the Apostles Creed; Prayer by Dr. Joseph R. Harker; Hymn 560; the Ten Commandments and responses; the Gloria Patri; reading by the Bishop of part of the Fourth Chapter of Philippians beginning, "Rejoice in the Lord alway, and again I say rejoice;" Hymn 207; paragraphs 140-141 of the Discipline, being Wesley's advices on deportment at Conference, read by the Bishop; Hymn of consecration, "Breathe on me, Breath of God;" administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper by the Bishop assisted by the District Superintendents and the pastor of the Church; address by the Bishop on, "The Annual Conference a Mount of Vision."

Memorial Service—Question Seventeen, "Who have Died?" was asked, and the Secretary of the last Conference read the names of those who had died during the past year.

Ministers: J. B. Colwell, E. K. Crews, C. H. Davis, S. A. Goldsmith, C. P. Hard, J. A. Lucas, J. W. Miller, H. J. Pamwitt, W. N. Rutledge, Henry Schutz, J. S. Smith, W. W. Theobald, J. W. Van Cleve, L. F. Walden, M. P. Wilkin.

Minister's wives: Mrs. M. G. Coleman, Mrs. J. W. Eckman, Mrs. Joseph Foxworthy, Mrs. M. E. Hobart, Mrs. J. M. Judy, Mrs. J. B. Martin, Mrs. A. A. White.

The chairman of the service was Christie Galeener. After singing Hymn 430, A. L. Caseley gave the Memorial Address based upon parts of the last chapter of Second Timothy. The Service was closed by singing, "There's a Land that is Fairer than Day."

Roll Call—The roll was called by the Secretary of the last Conference and 220 members and 14 probationers responded.

Organization—On motion of F. B. Madden, C. H. Young was elected Secretary with the privilege of naming his assistants. C.

W. Hamand, J. E. Evans, J. Fred Melvin, and R. L. Steed, Registrar, were so named.

On motion, O. H. Meyers was elected Statistician, H. H. Waltmire Treasurer, E. A. Hedges, Auditor, and they named their assistants. (See Lists.)

Bar of the Conference—The entire auditorium below the balcony was fixed as the bar of the Conference.

Publication of Minutes—T. B. Lugg presented a report from the Committee on Publication of the Minutes, which on motion of A. S. Chapman was referred to a committee of one from each district as follows: Springfield, T. B. Lugg; Jacksonville, E. L. Tobie; Decatur, Wilbert Dowson; Quincy, E. L. Pletcher; Champaign-Danville, A. H. Flagg; Bloomington, E. V. Young; Mattoon, W. D. Fairchild.

Official Program—The printed program was adopted as the official program of the Conference except that the hour of closing the morning session was changed from 12:15 to 12:30.

Introductions—The pastor of the Church introduced the following ministers of the Churches of the city: Rev. Horace Batchelor, Presbyterian; Rev. John Codd, Central Church; Rev. J. M. Lively, Baptist; Rev. J. F. McMahon, Christian; Rev. J. E. Bell, Assembly of God; Rev. J. L. Belknap, Union Congregational.

C. D. Kiger, representing the Association of Commerce, was introduced and gave an address of welcome to which the Bishop made felicitous response.

Special Committee on World Service—On motion of W. D. Fairchild, a special committee of seven was added to the list of standing committees. (See List.)

Question Fifteen—"Was the Character of each Preacher Examined?" was asked. F. A. Havighurst, Superintendent of Bloomington District, and A. K. Byrns, Superintendent of Champaign-Danville District, were called, their characters were passed and they read their reports.

Inspirational Hour—Dr. Joseph M. M. Gray of Scranton, Pa., was introduced by the Bishop and delivered a scholarly and assuring address, using as his theme, "Christ in History."

Adjournment—Announcements were made, Hymn 128 was sung, and, after silent prayer, the Bishop pronounced the Benediction and the Conference adjourned.

FIRST DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

Wednesday, September 15, 1926.

Conference reassembled at 2:00 o'clock. After singing Hymn 375, "Jesus, Thine all Victorious Love," the Conference was led in prayer by C. R. Morrison.

Bonds of Treasurers—On motion of A. M. Wells, the Treasurer of the Conference, Treasurer of the Board of Stewards, and Treasurer of the Conference Board of Trustees were to secure bonds and deposit them with the Secretary of the Conference.

Question Twenty-six—"Who are the Retired Preachers?" was asked. The names of the retired preachers were called, and those present greeted the Conference.

Question Fifteen Resumed—A. M. Wells, Superintendent of Decatur District, and A. S. Chapman, Superintendent of Jacksonville District, were called, their characters were passed and they read their reports.

Change of Relation—On motion of W. D. Fairchild, all members seeking change of relationship were to be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

Adjournment—After announcements, singing of the Gloria Patri by the Conference, and Benediction by M. G. Coleman, the Conference adjourned.

SECOND DAY.

Thursday, September 16, 1926.

The second morning session of the Conference began at 8:30. Hymns, 409, "Fight the Good Fight with all Thy Might," 385, "Soldiers of the Cross Arise," 32, "When Morning Gilds the Sky," were sung. The Bishop led in prayer, and delivered the devotional address, using as his subject, "The Preacher and the Hymnal." The Conference then joined in singing Hymn 179, "Crown Him with Many Crowns."

Reading of the Minutes—The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

Rate of Annuity—On motion, the Board of Stewards were authorized to proceed according to the report of last year found on pages 84 and 85 of the Conference Journal and Year Book of 1925.

Reports

(A) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT.

Freeman A. Havighurst, Superintendent.

Bishop Thirkield and Members of the Illinois Annual Conference:

In accordance with an agreement reached by my colleagues for the sake of economy of Conference time and Conference Year Book space I omit prologue and epilogue and all choice sermon extracts and come at once to the record of the year—the things we have achieved and alas the things we have failed to achieve. But how can I condense the record of forty-three faithful pastors into fifteen hundred words. They all deserve encomiums of praise but in so brief a story of the year only here and there can even the name of a pastor be mentioned.

The Ministry.

The Conference year opened with all appointments filled. While some of the pastors have for a brief period been incapacitated by ill health, all have been able to pursue the work of their charges throughout the year. Brother E. J. Williams of Seymour who was compelled to undergo several surgical operations and who heroically stuck to his task now finds it necessary to ask for the retired relation. Brother M. S. Bumpus of Weldon because of impaired health will ask for the supernumerary relation. During the year Brother John Wesley Miller, in his many years of retirement ever sweet spirited, optimistic and loyal, weakened in body but undaunted in spirit to the end, passed to his eternal reward.

Likewise Mrs. A. A. White, for several years an invalid but in her husband's active ministry a most efficient co-worker, was released of her earthly sufferings and went to the Heavenly Home. Rev. J. A. Lucas after a worthy record in the pastorate and many years of service at the head of the Odd Fellows Home at Lincoln finished his life of high usefulness just at the close of the Conference year. I have also to chronicle the sad bereavement of Reverend and Mrs. S. N. Madden of Bondville in the death of their son Paul, who gave promise of a life of high usefulness. It is my privilege also to tell of the joy in three parsonage homes in the arrival of fine promising babies—in the families of M. J. Hall, W. B. Theobald, and Lloyd Moffett.

Things Financial.

Last year's record of No Deficits in ministerial support will not be duplicated this year. However on the two charges which report a deficiency there are exceptional circumstances which partly excuse their failure. In spite of the unfavorable agricultural conditions the following charges have during the year voted salary advances: Emden $300, San Jose Salem $250, San Jose First $100, Farmer City $350, Mahomet $200, Hopedale $100, Heyworth $150, Saybrook $400—a total of $1,850. Unfortunately three charges have felt compelled to reduce the salary: Weldon $400, Seymour $300 and Downs $180.

As to World Service, after what seemed to be a most thorough campaign of education in the May Roll Call I thought I had reason to predict an increase. But when the reports came in such hopes were disappointed and moreover the estimates then made by the pastors are not being sustained by actual collections. The total report is nearly $22,000. Bloomington District last year ranked first in World Service receipts and the year before, second. It looks now as though two or three of the districts would outrank us this year. In general I may say if the larger and stronger churches did as well as the smaller churches, this year's report would be changed from defeat to victory. In seven out of eight of the largest churches there is a total loss of $4,500. It was impossible for the smaller churches to overcome that loss. Upon the whole I feel, however, that the pastors have worked earnestly and faithfully for the World Service cause. The following pastors deserve especial honorable mention for their successful efforts in behalf of World Service: R. J. Wroughton, R. L. Ragan, E. C. Swaney, J. B. Wunderlich—the last named practically succeeding in securing subscriptions from every wage earner in his charge. In this connection it is significant that the women of the W. F. M. S. and W. H. M. S. of the district with their usual persistence, intelligence and loyalty are reporting offerings approximately as large as last year.

Spiritual Victories.

We strive to keep the first and chief emphasis on the spiritual life. Every activity in the church should have its relation to the spiritual life as its final purpose. About half of the pastors report holding revival meetings for a total period of sixty-six weeks. Almost as many pastors report some method of personal evangelism with about an equal number of decisions. The total number of decisions for the Christian life is 756. The total number of accessions to the church is 1,145 and a net gain of 729. The largest number of additions are reported by T. H. Tull, 100; R. L. Ragan, 98; F. A. McCarty, 98; E. H. Sauer, 75; W. E. Keenan, 68; E. V. Young, 67; Ray Grummon, 67.

In this connection it may be of interest to report that only 19 out of the 43 churches are holding prayer meetings. Clinton and Bloomington Park have the largest attendance—about 45. I cannot but believe that more time spent on thoughtful preparation by the pastor for the prayer meeting would result in making this meeting both more attractive and more useful in stimulating the spiritual life of our churches. Church night, with special attention given to the devotional period, and if continued through a longer period of weeks may prove a helpful modern substitute for the prayer meeting.

Only thirty-two out of the forty-three pastors report their pastoral calls—a total of 16,500 or an average of 515. This is a satisfactory record and such work, if care and thought is given to the character of the call cannot but yield rich spiritual fruitage.

Bloomington Methodism.

Much is expected of Bloomington Methodism both because of its great traditions and because it is the seat of Illinois Wesleyan University. To fulfill these expectations is no easy task. There is not as much wealth in Bloomington as in several other rapidly growing industrial cities of Central Illinois, whereas the combined demand made both by church and college constitutes a heavier burden. However this year Bloomington Methodism faced its task with commendable spirit. At a Group Quarterly Conference held in February the Bloomington churches squarely confronted their responsibility. Other conferences followed and the outcome has been two church building movements. First Church after many years of hesitation has finally voted to enter upon a new church building enterprise. The first subscriptions of $30,000 have already been secured but soon after the opening of the new conference year a thorough canvass will be undertaken for an amount commensurate with their opportunity and responsibility. Park Church also decided to go forward with its long contemplated building project. In May I assigned Rev. A. A. White to co-operate with the pastor, Rev. W. E. Keenan, and in three months these two men alone increased the building fund from $14,000 to $36,000. All but $4,000 was subscribed by members of Park Church. When $10,000 is paid in, the contracts will be let for the completion of their church building. There are those at Grace Church too who dream of a new churchedifice to be built on the border of the college campus. It may also be said to its credit that Grace Church alone of the larger churches this year advanced its World Service offerings.

The Illinois Wesleyan has had another great year and there is every promise to continue growth. But its growth is its embarrassment. Its financial needs are great and a way must be found to meet these needs. Pastors can render no greater Christian service than by making friends for the Wesleyan among their men and women of financial ability.

Other Building Projects and Improvements.

There are other major building projects in Bloomington District. On June 20th the new church at Lincoln was dedicated with a week of interesting dedicatory services following. Bishop Hughes rendered his usual high quality of service. Dr. Davidson handled the finances. Four persons gave a total of $80,000 to this great church structure. By many this new sanctuary of worship is regarded as the most beautiful and dignified church structure in the Illinois Conference. The total cost is $175,000. Brother Grummon and his people are happy in their new church and look forward to a greater future. At Clinton $53,000 has been subscribed to a new church edifice. Pastor T. H. Tull is greatly beloved by his people and while a great problem is ahead of them he has a good chance of leading his people to a victorious consummation of their great building program. Brother H. L. Thrall at Mansfield is likewise in the midst of a canvass for funds for a new church. Nearly $20,000 is now in sight. Their purpose is to build a structure costing about $40,000. There are still other building projects but they are not sufficiently matured to justify being reported. Improvements on church and parsonage to the extent of $17,000 have been made during the year, those aggregating more than $1,000 being at DeLand, $1,197; Fisher, $2,000; San Jose Salem, $1,490; San Jose First, $1,090; McLean, $2,300; LeRoy, $2,794. A total of $109,473 has been paid on building operations during the year. The Ladies Aid Societies contributed more than $13,000 of this amount, besides contributing more than $6,000 to local budgets.

Religious Education.

The Sunday Schools with a total average attendance of 5,257 show a small gain over last year. Ten Sunday Schools have held Daily Vacation Bible Schools, precisely the same number as last year. Four have held Community Training Schools, the most notable being in Clinton with sixty-one enrolled. The Epworth League has had an exceptionally good year. Three Group rallies in the fall had an attendance of 584, the annual convention at Farmer City 350, and the Booth Festival at Lincoln 250. The League contributions at the Booth Festival were valued at $1,100. Bloomington District sent the largest number of delegates to the Institute. There is a slight gain in the attendance at the devotional meetings and the number of study classes, forty-eight, is a large gain. Church night was observed by seventeen churches, two more than last year. There were thirty-eight study classes, a gain of seven. In many places there is a fine interest in Church night. We should have more of them and strive to improve their quality. In the matter of church papers, according to the Northwestern, Bloomington District together with Decatur District has the distinction of having the highest number of Advocate subscriptions among all the districts of the area. The total number of all the Advocates taken is 581, and this is entirely too small.

This is an imperfect chronicle of the year's work on the Bloomington District. It is a story of both success and failure. But as we have labored together I believe all of us have tried to be faithful and may have the assurance of our Heavenly Father's approval. May both successes and failures inspire us to a new year of better service. May we pray for wisdom and grace to measure up more fully to the high demands of our Great Calling.

CHAMPAIGN-DANVILLE DISTRICT.

A. K. Byrns, Superintendent.

Bishop Thirkield and Brethren:

While sickness has entered some of the parsonage homes of the Champaign-Danville District no deaths have occurred.

However among the deceased for the year in the retired ranks will appear three names of most honored men who resided in this District, L. F. Walden, M. P. Wilkin, and W. N. Rutledge.

Church Membership.

A total of 522 have been received from preparatory membership, 452 by certificates, and 76 from other denominations, making a total received of 1,050. The losses have been, by death 130, by letters granted 259, to other denominations 40, making a total of 429. This leaves a total net gain in church membership of 621, which is 4 per cent increase for the year.

Sunday Schools.

In spite of the unusual conditions which have made it most difficult to keep up Sunday School attendance, the average for the year will show a small increase of about 1 per cent over last year. Over 1,200 were enrolled in our Daily Vacation Bible schools and week day religious instruction classes. This surpasses any previous year and is considered by the District Superintendent as a most significant showing. Miss Marie Marvel, our director of religious education of rural churches, has rendered excellent service in this field.

Church Training Nights were held in many of the churches with a varied program including well organized study classes. Every where this form of community service has been well planned it has proven both popular and profitable.

Epworth League.

We have about 2,000 young people in our Epworth Leagues, from which are constantly going a stream of worthy lay workers into the local churches and recruits into the various fields of life service. 450 have been enrolled in training classes.

Rantoul received the banner offered by the Institution for the individual League having the largest number in attendance and classes, and the Champaign-Danville District, in spite of the fact that the average distance for our people to travel to Old Salem where the Institute was held was more than that of any other District in the Conference, took second place in the number of registered delegates.

W. F. M. S. and W. H. M. S.

The faithful ladies of these two great organizations have continued their labors of love and enlightenment, gleaning patiently the funds with which to meet their responsibility. The total figure in both societies, we think, will show a small increase in giving over last year.

World Service.

I doubt if ever there has been a more sincere and systematic effort made by pastors to overcome prejudice and indifference and secure an "Advance in every charge" than during this year. Something over half of the charges report an advance. Exact figures have been difficult to secure in time for this report, as many were gleaning for the last dollar. Irrespective of the amount of money secured I am most happy to report a better spirit and attitude on the part of most of our people toward the benevolent enterprises of the church, which is a real victory for World Service.

Material Improvements.

In this respect the year is outstanding indeed. Immediately following the Conference last year, the minister and family of East Lynn moved into an almost new commodious house which the church bought for a parsonage at approximately $5,000.

In January a campaign was put on by Urbana under the enthusiastic leadership of the pastor for a new First Church which resulted in subscriptions amounting to $173,000. The Quarterly Conference held May 20th voted to let the contract for a new Bedford stone church and parish house. The cost when completed will probably not be less than $225,000. The corner stone will be laid September 26th.

On February 14th, McKinley Danville dedicated the new addition to their church which cost about $5,000. The good people of that community on that day subscribed $3,000, which represents real sacrificial giving.

May 23rd will forever be an outstanding date for the people of Lincoln Church, Danville, as on that day was dedicated their beautiful and commodious church and parish house with gymnasium and every modern equipment. The cost was $103,000. It is a marvelous achievement of faith and sacrifice on the part of the pastor and people.

The pastor of St. James Church, Danville, after long weeks of continued and patient solicitation brought the subscription for their new church to over $200,000. This was the mark which had been set as the one necessary to reach before beginning the new building. Therefore, on the 21st of May, after much careful consideration, the Quarterly Conference of that great church voted unanimously to proceed at once to let a contract for a new church and parish house to be constructed of Bedford stone. The corner stone was laid August 22nd. Dr. H. W. McPherson, District Superintendent of the Springfield District, under whose pastorate the first $125,000 in subscriptions were secured, delivered the address of the occasion. The walls of this structure are already taking on such grace and beauty as bring forth most enthusiastic expressions of admiration. The final cost will probably exceed $300,000.

In connection with the campaign for a New Trinity Church at the Wesley Foundation, the students and local congregation of Trinity subscribed over $80,000.

When the sum total of these subscriptions for church buildings in this district are figured they represent more than a half million dollars. The figures are $561,000. In addition to these money considerations, $18,000 were paid on the First Church Campaign Parish House indebtedness, $2,500 expended in decorating and improving the Hoopeston church and many other outlays of money for improvements too numerous to mention.

The Cunningham Children's Home.

This real home for orphan children has had a good year under the efficient direction of Miss Ara Vaught. An average of seventy-nine children have been in the home throughout the year. These children have had the best possible care and wholesome food, and yet at an amazingly small outlay of money. The actual cash paid for food has been but $38.67 per child for the year. The total cost of operating this home and school has been $21,350. The buildings of the home are valued at $83,000, real estate holdings $82,000, endowment $13,890, and new building fund $12,700. Total assets $191,590. No institution of the church is doing a finer piece of Christian service than is Cunningham Home. Some new buildings and improvements are the pressing need of the hour, and plans are developing to securing funds for the same.

The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois.

Over 2,600 Methodist students were in attendance at the University of Illinois last year and the Wesley Foundation was at the task of cultivating their spiritual and religious lives and developing in them a greater love for and efficiency in work for the Kingdom.

At the beginning of the year, for health reasons Rev. George V. Metzel found it necessary to discontinue as student director. Rev. J. Paul Williams filled the position for the past year and did excellent work. Rev.

Wilbur D. Grose, son of our Bishop Grose, has now been secured to take this important place for the ensuing year. He comes to this task with the very best qualifications of mind and heart and with such a conviction of the opportunity we are sure he will succeed, and the institution is to be most heartily congratulated.

The ever increasing throng of our Methodist youth which are coming to this university offers a challenge to the church which is unsurpassed anywhere. Ten or twelve years ago when the university had less than 5,000 students and the Methodist students numbered less than 1,000, Trinity Church was crowded to the doors. The past year the student body numbered more than 12,000 and the Methodist students more than 2,600, but Trinity Church has no more seating capacity. It is very conservatively estimated that at least from 400 to 500 of our Methodist students are not in church Sabbath by Sabbath who would be if adequate provision was made for them. It is no wonder that the Trustees and Corporation Members in their annual meeting last fall decided it would be nothing short of tragic to wait longer to launch plans for the securing of funds for the erection of a New Trinity. I am glad to report that a creditable beginning has been made in that direction, and we trust every member of this Conference will give his hearty encouragement to it.

In conclusion I wish to thank my Brothers in the ministry, the faithful and efficient pastors of this district, their home companions and parsonage family helpers, and the host of laymen who have supported the work with their money, prayers and labor. And to Our Gracious, Patient Loving Guide and Master—be praise and thanksgiving for ever and ever.

DECATUR DISTRICT.

A. M. Wells, Superintendent.

Bishop Thirkield and Members of the Illinois Annual Conference:

A brief statement of facts and figures such as may appear in these District reports may not command a thrilling interest until we can appreciate the measure of love and devotion, service and sacrifice that is revealed in the record thus presented.

A year ago forty-three men turned away from the place of our annual gathering upon the reading of their places of assignment for the coming year and took up the task in the forty-three stations and circuits in the Decatur District and these forty-three men have continued serving in the places to which they were appointed with one exception. In April Rev. J. T. Stretton, for health reasons, was transferred to the St. John's River Conference and Reverend Winfred H. Johnson was transferred from the Colorado Conference and appointed to the Cleveland Ave. Church, Decatur, where he has gained the esteem and the affection of that devoted church.

We rejoice that no parsonage home has been invaded by death. However, death has taken away three of our honored and esteemed retired men. All three of these men were retired by Conference action one year ago. In November Reverend E. K. Crews suddenly "was not" for he "looked for the city with foundations," and in April Reverend H. J. Pannwitt was crowned, and in June Reverend W. W. Theobald was "caught up to Glory." Late in June Rev. Jos. W. VanCleve died after a long continued illness. His funeral was held in the temple, which he himself had built, Grace Church, Decatur, and he was laid to rest in Fairlawn Cemetery, in the midst of the scenes of his great labors where he served a full term as District Superintendent and a long and successful pastorate at Grace Church where the memory of his achievements is held in loving remembrance. These men honored the ministry by holy living and devoted service. Their memory is blessed.

Three other times death came into the District. In December Mrs.

J. W. Eckman, a woman of dignity and yet possessing a beautiful graciousness, was called. In the same month Mrs. J. B. Martin, a woman with a gentle spirit and a flaming missionary passion, went to be with God. In the month of February, after a long illness and several recent hospital experiences Mrs. J. M. Judy yielded herself to the overtures of death and went to her heavenly home.

The following births are recorded: To Rev. and Mrs. Harold W. Hartman, a son; to Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Berry, a daughter; to Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Jordon, a daughter; to Rev. and Mrs. B. H. Pinkston, a daughter. Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Oborn during the year did a beautiful thing in adopting an infant son, and Dr. and Mrs. Fred Ingvaldstad likewise an infant daughter.

Three young ministers, namely: Rev. W. C. Eddy, Rev. James Wilson and Rev. Winfred H. Johnson enlarged their happiness in marriage.

This record of personal relationships would not be completed without stating that the continued ill health of R. Y. Williams leads him to seek the retired relation. The same is true of the Rev. Cye Park.

We do not report the building of any new churches during the year but many substantial and needed improvements and repairs have been made. Grace Church, Decatur, has been thoroughly renovated and decorated. Sullivan has beautified their church with all walls re-decorated; Stewardson has re-decorated the interior and added a new roof. Monticello and Macon have each installed new heating plants. Extensive repairing has been done at First Church, Decatur. Many other churches and parsonages have been bettered by repairs and improvements. These repair expenses will amount to more than $15,000.00. The payments on debts will amount to about $25,000.00.

The Women's organizations have given a good account of themselves. The Ladies Aid Societies have expended around $25,000. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society reports $10,320.00 and the Woman's Home Missionary Society has raised nearly $8,000.

The Evangelistic results, while not as large as they ought to be, yet we report more than eight hundred conversions and thirteen hundred have been added to the full membership of the church.

Pre-Conference reports in the matter of World Service would indicate that the District will show an advance although it may not be large. Upon the instruction to report only what was in hand and definitely in sight the statements from the pastors forecast the above conclusion. The report made by the World Service treasurer on August 31 reveals the fact that the receipts in cash to that date for the year exceeded the record of the previous year by $4,349.00. I am trusting that the final report will make at least as good a showing.

During the past year, or the year now closing, twelve Charges advances the salaries paid to the pastor an aggregate of $2,300, and four Charges decreased a total of $825.00. For the coming year seven Charges have increased the pastoral salary $1,850.00 and four have decreased $850.00.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

Arthur S. Chapman, Superintendent.

Bishop and Brethren:

A District Superintendent's report differs from the average sermon in that the preacher of the longest sermons will not tolerate a long report. I shall, therefore, omit many of the doings of the year.

Save Paul Wilson, who has served as student pastor of the Bath-Kilbourn charge, and Supt. A. J. Henderson who has supplied part of the year at Forest City, our workers are those announced a year ago by Bishop E. H. Hughes. And we give thanksgiving to God that there has been no death or even serious sickness in any of our parsonage homes.

While we attempt in the Jacksonville District to put on an all around program, each year we try to study and emphasize some special phase of the work of the Kingdom. This year we have been studying as best we could the matter of evangelism, and have tried to lead the brethren in evangelistic endeavor.

Our fall meeting was given over to a study of various phases of evangelism, and we were permitted to have our resident Bishop, E. H. Hughes, at the closing session of our meeting, delivering a stirring address on the cause of our present evangelistic failure from the text, "I was afraid." We have in all our quarterly conferences tried to get both pastors and officials to face the facts. A study of the minutes reveal some startling situations. Take the matter of workers, and we have a force of which any conference has a right to be proud, for we have a resident Bishop to guide and inspire us, we have seven District Superintendents, we have about three hundred and twenty-five pastors, we have ten thousand Church officials, and an active membership of 101,556. Going back to the minutes of 1920, or for five years, we had one Bishop, the same number of District Superintendents and pastors, and an active membership of 96,966, so that in the five year period we have gained but 4,590 or less than one percent a year. But while we had but 5,809 members on the non-resident list in 1920, in 1925 we have lifted the number to 9,117, or an increase of 65 per cent for the five year period.

In our last quarterly bulletin we made a study of the Jacksonville District by charges, which after taking advantage of the Easter ingathering, we found that since 1920 fifteen charges have suffered a net loss of 611, and five have been rearranged in such a manner we can get no comparative figures regarding the matter. And it would be interesting to study, were it possible, the individual churches on these charges to find how many of the eighty-eight churches of the District have lost and gained during the period. But we have learned enough to warrant the District Superintendent, pastors, and membership to face the matter of soul saving in a most whole-hearted way. And that the District Superintendent might not be accused of asking his men to do things he is not willing to do himself, he gave four weeks of the winter to preaching in different types of charges. And in the spring, a committee outlined a program of summer evangelism in which a large tent was used constantly from June 10 to September 5, not less than twenty of the pastors assisting in some way in these meetings. The result is that we have some almost abandoned churches put back on their feet, scores of souls have made definite decision for Christ, and the pastors and officials have an interest in soul saving they have not had for several years.

World Service.

That the Methodist Church has taken backward steps in the matter of World Service giving is well known to all of us. But in the Jacksonville District we again faced the facts and found that of the forty-four charges, seventeen gave as much or more in 1925 than in 1924, while twenty-seven gave less during the same period than the year before. In each quarterly conference the matter was gone into, with the result that nearly every quarterly conference fixed its goal the same or in advance of what the charge gave in 1925. And while it will be left to the statisticial to tell the final achievement, pastors and churches have worked together so earnestly it would appear that all but about five of the charges have held the line, and we believe Jacksonville District will show a healthy increase over last year's giving for this cause.

Material Improvements.

While we do not report the total of improvements that will be reported by some of the other Districts, yet we believe the property of the Jacksonville District will compare favorably with the property in any of the other Districts as far as the size of the charges go. The greatest victory occurred at Auburn. On August 22, 1925, the church building caught fire and burned to the ground. The building was insured to the extent of three thousand dollars, while recent improvements left a debt of eight hundred dollars, so that there was but two thousand two hundred dollars with which to begin rebuilding. But never was the congregation discouraged. Under the inspiring leadership of their pastor, Rev. C. W. Hamand, they began at once a campaign to secure funds to rebuild their building. Plans were drawn, contracts were let, and on August 22, 1926, a new building was dedicated to the worship of Almighty God at a cost of $34,000, one-half of which has been paid into the treasurer; and the other payments have been so subscribed that it is hoped to hold in 1930 the one hundredth anniversary of the organization of the Auburn Class, with the building free from debt.

Another remarkable piece of work is that taking place at Rockbridge. During the year the old parsonage has been sold and a new one procured which adequately meets the need of the pastor and his family there. But not satisfied with that, they have begun a church building enterprise, which will cost between $16,000 and $18,000 and it is their hope to dedicate the building about January 1, 1927, with everything subscribed before the day of dedication. Brother George Hayes has served as pastor there during the year.

Early in the year Carrollton formally reopened their building which has been under reconstruction for over two years. The work began under the pastorate of Brother Chris Galeener, and was completed under the leadership of Brother J. R. Ford. About $12,000 had been expended in the repairs, but the finances had been so handled that Dr. W. J. Davidson was for once in his life permitted to be at a rededication without being asked to raise money. Consequently after he had preached an inspiring sermon, the building was rededicated to the worship of Almighty God, free from debt, better adapted to serve this fine people than in the generation that has passed.

Other improvements have taken place in the District, notably at Palmyra where $1,400 was expended in repairs and redecoration; Murrayville where the same type of work was done at a cost of about $1,000. Wesley on the Curran work is putting in a basement which would have been completed before conference had the weather permitted. This will cost when completed about $1,000. The building will be reopened on Sunday, October 10th.

At Centenary Church the appreciative women of the Church have painted the parsonage outside, and painted and papered within and laid hardwood floors down stairs, which with other improvements have cost in the neighborhood of $1,000. And under the leadership of the pastor, E. L. Tobie, the last of an accumulated debt which two years ago amounted to $4,500 has been entirely wiped out.

Manchester also under the leadership of Brother Roberts has repainted and redecorated their place of worship at an expense of about $1,000.

Time forbids my telling of the other improvements, which while not large yet add greatly to the convenience of parsonages and church building at a complete cost of about $5,000.

Illinois Woman's College.

A year ago, with keenest regret we announced the retirement of Dr. Joseph Harker from the presidency of the Illinois Woman's College, and noted the thirty-two years of remarkable achievement of the Institution under his administration; and at the same time we announced the coming of the new president, Dr. Clarence P. McClelland. We recognized him as an educator, a brother, and as one who had achieved elsewhere. But he was an eastern man, trained in eastern colleges, and a stranger, having been among us but two weeks when conference met last year. But a year has revealed him to a man of vision, tactful, and full of initiative energy. The commencement time was one of the most remarkable many of us have ever witnessed. The inauguration of Dr. McClelland was attended by hundreds, while his address was one of the cleanest cut educational addresses we have ever heard. And the whole commencement season was permeated by joy and victory.

It has been the marvel of many that while other colleges have been floundering in recent years, that the Illinois Woman's College has been able to close each year without a deficit. And all wondered if the record could be maintained under the new administration. But we were all glad to learn that not only had the year closed without a deficit, but that one hundred and eight thousand dollars had been added to the productive endowment, an annuity gift of $30,000 was received while there were smaller gifts during the year totaling $30,000, and though Senator James McMurry was absent from commencement this year for the first time in many years, yet he celebrated his return from a world tour by offering a conditional gift of $125,000 for a new Science Building available when a like sum has been secured. But knowing the need for the building, and having the utmost confidence in the Woman's College to meet conditional gifts, he has made his gift available for immediate use, and in a short time the new Science Hall will have been begun. And not only these manifestations of progress do we have, but during the year the property known as the Hairgrove place has been secured at a cost of $25,000 and has been completely remodeled and converted into a girls' dormitory to be known as "Senior House." Dr. McClelland with his charming wife and delightful children have been enthusiastically welcomed into the educational, social, and religious life of the city of Jacksonville.

The year has passed quickly away, and the District Superintendent desires to thank Almighty God and the faithful officers and pastors for the degree of success he is able herein to record.

MATTOON DISTRICT.

E. G. Sandmeyer, Superintendent.

Bishop Thirkield and Brethren of the Conference:

In the name of forty-three pastors and fifteen thousand members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, we welcome you and the laymen of the Illinois Annual Conference to the Mattoon District. This is the third time in the history of the Illinois Conference that the session has been held in the City of Mattoon, and the tenth time in what now constitutes the Mattoon District. We esteem it an honor to have you in our midst, and assure you that everything possible has been done by your host, the Rev. Harris G. Beck, to make your stay among us both pleasant and profitable.

During Passion Week of this year Bishop Thirkield was the guest of this church and he greatly enriched this city and the people with his inspiring and uplifting message. His ministry of that week has bestowed a lasting benediction upon us and set a new standard of Worship and Service which is already bearing abundant fruit.

Pastoral Changes.

Four charges were left without appointment last year. Weber Roahrig of the Indiana Conference was secured for Lerna, J. R. McBride for Longview, Ralph Harris for Ridgefarm, and Miss Verna Wakefield served the latter part of the year at Broadlands. Oscar Stewart was transferred to Vermilion, W. H. Stephens to Edgar, and R. P. Geyer to Humbolt.

We are happy to report that the Death Angel has not visited any of the parsonage homes of the Mattoon District during the past two years. We have, however, had our full share of more or less severe illness. Mrs. W. D. McIntosh of Neoga has been ill for some time. Last year the attending physician recommended that she be relieved of parsonage duties, but a deep interest in the work made her reluctant to sever relations with a task so near to her heart. The year has not brought the relief that was hoped for, and her present condition makes a change of relationship necessary. Brother McIntosh therefore asks for a year's Leave of Absence under Paragraph 186. Early in the year Brother George E. Baldrige of the Martinsville Circuit was stricken with typhoid fever, and for three months was obliged to be relieved from his work; at almost the same time Mrs. Baldrige was stricken which necessitated a period of rest for her. Both, however, are now fully recovered. The daughter of Brother and Sister R. W. Ennis of Arcola has had a trying hospital experience, and although she is somewhat improved at this time, her condition is not all that could be wished for. Mrs. S. N. Wakefield and Mrs. R. P. Geyer have both had severe sieges of illness, but they are greatly improved at this time. Other cases of a more or less minor nature might be recorded but for limited time and space.

During the year the work of the District has gone steadily on. For the most part pastors have held to the tasks in hand, and in most instances have found a hearty co-operation on the part of the laymen. Unusual weather conditions during the winter and spring months has made country work especially difficult. In some of the churches in the open country where road improvements are lacking, it was all but impossible to hold services during January, February and March. As a consequence these churches have suffered greatly and brought some of them to the end of the year with discouragement and some doubt as to the future. However, all but two of these are holding steady for another year.

Evangelism.

In the field of evangelism some very fine meetings were held with notably good results. In some instances "The Old Time Revival," as at Allerton, Brocton, Edgar, Grandview, Lerna, and other places brought outstanding victories, but the Guy Black plan of personal evangelism seems to be the more far-reaching and fruitful of larger results. It is our judgment that both methods should be used to an even fuller extent.

A total of 116 weeks of revival meetings were held, resulting in 624 conversions. 670 were added to the full membership of the church by confession, and 354 by letter, making a total of 978 received this year. The total membership now on the District is more than 15,000. The non-resident inactive list claims more than one thousand, and in but rare instances do these ever support the home church.

Pastoral Labors.

Forty pastors reporting indicate that a total of 15,906 pastoral calls have been made; they performed 248 marriage ceremonies, conducted 398 funerals, preached a total of 3,852 sermons, baptized 218 adults and 212 children. In addition to these tasks they were responsible for keeping the church organizations in tact, planning Training Night Services, Vacation Bible Schools, directing Boy Scout organizations, and entering into a multitude of community enterprises. In all too many instances have pastors been required to "Serve Tables" which has robbed them of their efficiency for the tasks to which they have been specifically called of God. One of the outstanding needs of our church is a devoted and efficient lay leadership which will relieve the pastor of so-called secular duties, and release the pent-up Spiritual powers for the more specific duties of the Ministry.

Educational Work.

In the Department of Religious Education some encouraging progress has been made.

(1) The Sunday School—Our Sunday Schools have an enrollment, including Officers and Teachers, Home Department and Cradle Roll, of more than 15,000, a slight increase over last year. The average attendance, however, is but little better than 50 per cent of the entire enrollment. The difficulty in keeping up the attendance in the open country is keeping our averages low. In the town schools the averages are far in excess of the general average.

The greatest need of our Sunday Schools is "Trained Teachers," as indicated by the reports of the Sunday School Superintendents, and yet only fifteen of our seventy-five Sunday Schools have had Teacher Training Classes during the year. Here too there seems to be a lack of leadership to carry on this important work.

We are glad to report that more and more the officers and teachers of our Sunday Schools are coming to realize the value of the Literature published by our own church, and are using it in a greater number of schools.

(2) Epworth League and Young People's Work—We have thirty-three Epworth League organizations, and six Junior and Intermediate Leagues. Not as many as we would like, but in an increased number of instances these organizations are giving a good account of themselves, and are making valuable contributions to the life of the church.

In harmony with the general program of the church the Young People's Department of our Sunday Schools are co-operating with our Epworth Leagues, and during the year a unified program has been carried out. Nearly three hundred young people attended the Young People's Convention held at Charleston, and although the Mattoon District is farthest away from Petersburg, 62 of our young people attended the Institute at Old Salem.

(3) Church Training Night and Vacation Bible Schools have been held in some of our churches. Ten churches conducted Training Night Services for a total of eighty-five weeks, with an average attendance of seventy-four. Outstanding among them was the Training Night Program of the Mattoon Church, which for fifteen weeks conducted fourteen study classes, with an average attendance of 364.

Seven churches held Vacation Bible Schools for a total of twenty-seven weeks, four of these being union efforts. In the smaller towns the union effort seems to be the solution of the problem. In the smaller churches it is difficult to get teachers and workers who will volunteer to take responsibilities to carry on the work. The Mattoon church where they had a staff of paid workers, they had an enrollment of 195, and an average attendance of 169. The outstanding union effort seems to have been at Paris, under the leadership of our pastor, brother Presley P. Carson. The Protestant churches united in a fine spirit, with a paid staff of teachers, enlisting the interest of all denominations. We believe that the union effort offers vast opportunities, and should materially increase the number of such schools held next year.

Women's Work.

The women of the District continue to be an aggressive group:

(1) The Ladies Aid Society is a well organized group in practically every church in the District, and renders large and useful service for the maintenance and advancement of the local church. They raised this year a total of $14,277, and twenty-one of the societies paid more than $3,000 on Church Budgets. They have in many instances been the pioneer subscribers to local enterprises and improvements, their subscriptions always being taken at 100 per cent, and always paid in full. But for the heroic efforts of these good women, many of our smaller churches would find it all but impossible to carry on the work.

(2) The Thirty-eight Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies of the District have raised a total of $11,060 this year, and eight Woman's Home Missionary Societies have raised $4,500, being a little in excess of what was raised last year.

World Service.

Last year we faced a decrease in our World Service Contributions, which was a regret as well as a humiliation and embarrassment. To avoid another such defeat the District was early organized for an educational campaign, and for pastoral and lay co-operation. Pastors have used the literature furnished by the World Service Commission, the stereopticon, and other means to inform and inspire our people. The Every Member Canvass was put on in May, but not completed in every charge. The result will register an increase in the total amount contributed, and also an increase in the number of contributors, which is a most hopeful indication.

Church Finances.

An unusual number of churches seem to have had difficulty this year in properly caring for the local budget, which threatened for a time to result in some disastrous cuts in pastor's salaries. A bank failure in Hindsboro swept away "All earthly possessions" of some of our largest contributors and it appeared for a time that we would not be able to carry on there, but under the faithful and untiring labors of our pastor, Brother L. E. Baldwin, the entire deficit has been cared for, and enough pledged for the new year, not only to carry on, but to maintain the salary at the present figure.

In most cases where finance give great concern the underlying reason is not a lack of funds, but a lack of leadership and a failure to adequately plan for and complete the Ever Member Canvass, and then systematically follow up the work that has been done. All too often the finances are neglected during the year, which brings embarrassment at the end of the year, and the result is often a deficit. Where the Quarterly Settlement Day is strictly adhered to, and faithful efforts are made to meet the Settlement Day Requirements, there is little difficulty in meeting all financial obligations.

Material Improvements.

More or less parsonage improvements have been made at Arcola, Casey, Camargo, Charleston, Chrisman, Gays, Humbolt, Kansas, Lerna, Murdock, Neoga, Pesotum, Vermilion, and Westfield.

At Chrisman the church has been entirely redecorated at a cost of $1,000; at Jewett on the Greenup work the church is being completely remodeled and partially modernized; our church at Grandview has been redecorated and generally renovated; at Filsen on the Hindsboro work a new basement has been put under the church at a cost of $2,500, at Hume a new social and Sunday School room has been provided at a cost of $700; the Indianola church has been re-decorated, re-roofed, painted and generally repaired at a cost of $1,900; our church at Marshall has been re-frescoed at a total cost of $1,750; two churches on the Marshall Circuit have been re-roofed at a cost of $400; new church equipment in the Mattoon church has been secured at a cost of $1,000; Metcalf church has made repairs costing $400; Longview church is being completely rebuilt, and when finished will be a commodious and well proportioned building for the work of that community. The cost will be in the neighborhood of $10,000; new seating has been placed in the Fairland church, and a new lighting system has been installed in the Murdock church at a cost of $560; at Oakland $1,600 has been expended in redecorations and general repairs; a new light plant has been installed in the Cottonwood church on the Toledo work costing $250; the Tuscola church made extensive repairs, redecorated the church, and installed a new organ, the total cost being $9,000. The total cost of these improvements on the District is in excess of $25,000. At one or two points the people have in mind the construction of new church buildings, which we hope will materialize in the no far distant future.

Church Papers.

Less than 700 advocates are taken on the District, and the young people subscribe for 166 Epworth Heralds. We could wish that a much better showing could be made in this respect.

Memorial Methodist Hospital.

In this city is located the only Methodist Hospital within the bounds of the Illinois Conference. This institution has made steady progress since its establishment, and is rendering a service that is second to none. The total assets of the institution in lands, buildings, equipment, bonds and special funds, amount to $165,822.99. During the past year 985 patients were cared for, averaging twenty-nine patients per day. The free bed work done this year amounted to $3,500. The cash income of the hospital has been $34,579.45. Donations of cash, fruits, linens and other equipment amounted to $715. The average cost per day for caring for patients has been only $3.81. The expenditure of the hospital has been $40,313.78.

The Hospital needs $3,500 for immediate building improvements; $2,500 for equipment. It needs a new Nurse's Home. It should have a greater endowment to enable it to carry on the free work for the unfortunate poor. It also needs a Field Worker for publicity and for securing larger funds.

Tax Supported School.

The Eastern Illinois Teachers' College located at Charleston is not a church school, but an institution of the State of Illinois. To it scores of young people come every year to better prepare themselves for the fine and noble profession of teaching. During the past year 35 per cent of those in attendance during the winter months, and 43 per cent of those attending the summer term, were either members of the Methodist Episcopal church, or gave the Methodist church as their choice. When we realize that most of those who attend this Institution are planning to become teachers in our Schools and Colleges, and thus moulders of character, it seems that the church as an inescapable responsibility in providing Christian care and inspiration for those students while attending this school.

A very happy relation exists between the Teacher's College and our church at Charleston. The past year witnessed more than four hundred of these students attending and taking some active part in our Sunday School, Epworth League, and other church work. Our pastor, the Rev. C. E. Pettit, in the midst of a busy pastorate has managed to find time to minister to these students in a large and helpful way, but doing his best he has neither the time nor the equipment to cope with the ever growing challenge of this outstanding opportunity. For the present we solicit your prayerful interest in this institution, and hope that in the no far distant future this Conference will recognize this as a distinct opportunity for the investment of funds to care for our Methodist young people who attend, and provide for their Christian training and nurture.

A Closing Word.

Again we come to the close of the year conscious of the fact that many things have been left undone, and that other things have been imperfectly done, but we leave the seed that has been sown in the care of the Great Husbandman who alone can give the increase.

QUINCY DISTRICT.

E. S. Combs, Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

Greetings to you from the Quincy District. Six years ago at the annual session of the conference, Bishop Nicholson appointed the reader of this report to the Quincy District. I was a stranger and they took me in and for some reason kept me for six years. Why, I do not know. For six years we have toiled together, laymen and ministers for the good of the cause. Men have come and gone, some out to a greater and better world, others to carry on and on.

During these six years which have come and gone like a weavers shuttle, we have tried to weave into the fabric of the Kingdom's business, love, patience, faith, perseverance, efficiency and victory for the Kingdom. Organization, team work, program and continuity have been emphasized, taught and preached, at all times, in high and low places. The pastors and laymen have co-operated and followed the program to the best of their ability and vision, and as a result the district has been lifted to a place among the best districts of the conference and the best is yet to come. It will keep on growing. It has only begun its upward climb.

The Lord has been good to me, He has given me strength and health to keep constantly at the task. The work has been strenuous, exacting and demanding of all my resources, time, strength and spirit. There never was a stopping place. I have had no divided interests. All of my time and energy has been given to the district work. Our motto has been, "This one thing I do."

I pause to thank those who have labored and co-operated with me, during the past six years. The relation with pastors and laymen has been most cordial and happy. I am greatly indebted to the homes that have given me of their hospitality. May God bless them.

Parsonage Homes.

You may talk about your mansions and castles, wise and rich, but nowhere in the world do you find a more loyal hospitable folk than in our parsonage homes. They are always true to the American Flag and the Constitution, and the laws of the land. No higher ideals, no finer principles of ethics or morality. None live closer to God—none truer to church or schools. They are the golden threads in the fabric of our nation. The Lord be with you, is my prayer.

During the year, in December, death entered the parsonage at Kinderhook and Rev. J. W. Manuel, an honored local preacher of fine ideals and of evangelistic nature, passed on to his reward, after 40 years of service.

In May, Mrs. W. A. Hostetter, wife of Rev. W. A. Hostetter, pastor at Plainville, suddenly fell on death in the midst of her life. The word was spoken, "Come," and she was gone from her husband and two little children.

During the six years, death has touched our parsonage homes six times.

A granddaughter of Rev. W. T. Moore was taken in 1921; Rev. John Kettle passed away at New Salem in 1923; Rev. W. T. Beadles, honored veteran and chaplain passed away in 1925; Doris Meyers, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. O. H. Meyers passed from the home in Griggsville in 1925. Our hearts, like the heart of Jesus, are touched. "Jesus Wept."

Ministry.

There has been twenty-six conference men on the Quincy District this year and seventeen supplied, all toiling for the Kingdom. I would like to tell of each pastor and charge, but time and space will not permit. They all have wrought well, and stood as walls of granite for God and native land in a day when America needs brave and godly men. Men also of vision and inspiration, to stem the retreat to lower standards in church and state. O, Lord help us to keep our cross and flag afloat over a land of freedom and Christianity.

Gen. Grand said, "I am not so much afraid of the private as I am of the officers." Our success in America will be determined more by the ministry in the pulpit than in the halls of congress.

Good Literature.

From the beginning of Methodism, good literature and books have had their part. Over five hundred Advocates are taken and three hundred Epworth Heralds. The Woman's Home and Foreign Societies and the Sunday Schools also distribute a fine lot of religious and missionary literature.

Finance.

During the past six years we have tried to lift the Quincy District out of a financial dilemma. All the problems are not solved, but in four out of the six years, all ministerial support has been paid in full.

Formerly the district had the largest deficit, now we are in the 100 per cent class.

Building and Improvement.

During the six years eight new churches have been built at a cost of over $350,000. This year new churches were dedicated at Dodville and Columbus, each costing about $15,000. Six new parsonages have been built and two given to the respective societies of West Point and Meredosia. Paloma is at present building a new modern parsonage.

Sunday Schools.

There are ninety Sunday Schools, with a grand total enrollment of 14,000 members. These schools give over $2,500 to world service. Here is the greatest field for religious training and life service, yes, and evangelism, in the world. The church is not doing its best in this field. It must do more, if we are to hold our own with other churches and against the inroads of the world.

Epworth League.

There are over 1,000 Epworth Leaguers and Junior Leaguers in this district, and while the Epworth Leagues are not the power they formerly were, they accomplish much good. They have had a prosperous year, and had one of the best district meetings at Columbus in June that we have had in years.

Chaddock Boy's School.

This school continues to grow and produce results every year. Each year it makes new gains in efficiency buildings and endowments. This year they have finished the new dining hall and built a $12,000 residence for the Assistant Superintendent, Rev. Pulliam and family. The school year just opening points to one of the most successful years ever. There are 70 boys enrolled, with 20 teachers in the faculty.

Permit me, after six years of close observation of Chaddock Boy's School, as a District Superintendent, and a member of its board of trustees, that I have had the privilege of living near the campus of this school, and seeing the pupils daily and knowing the faculty and the work of the school, and as a result I have none but the highest words of commendation for the school.

It is worthy of the consideration of the laymen of the conference and of those who can give it large financial aid or endowment. The conference should be proud to have such a school within its bounds.

No finer work is being done for the American homes, churches and kingdom, than is being accomplished at this school by its faithful deaconesses and faculty.

In closing, I plead that the pastors and churches of the conference may give this school a hearing and opportunity, for it is worthy of the best you can give and do for it as a conference.

Old People's Home at Quincy.

Our Old People's Home at Quincy comes under supervision this conference year, from the St. Louis German Conference, is worth $200,000 and has no indebtedness. They have about 70 inmates. This Home is worthy of our best consideration, and we urge the pastors to open their pulpits to the presentation of the interests of this Home.

Missionary Societies.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has given a total of $7,770.80 this year, a gain of $809.31 over the last year. The membership this year 1,309, and last year 1,191. Gain of 118.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society gained 40 new members this year and the Queen Esthers gained 22. Their total offering for the year is $1,585.70.

World Service.

Soon after the last session of the annual conference plans were laid for an intensive campaign of education along missionary lines. All of the churches co-operated. The Vermont Street Church, Quincy, had a very fine program of education and as a result led in advance giving to World Service.

In May every pastor was urged to put on the Annual Roll Call going from house to house taking pledges, and where pastors followed the district program advance in giving was made, and if all the pledges are collected the district will show over $2,500 increase over last year.

Evangelism.

A number of good revivals have been held this year and over 600 conversions reported, but it has not been a year noted for great revivals.

The pastors have preached, exhorted, and plead with the unsaved, but our growth has been largely among the young people and children of the Sunday School. All of which bears out this fact, if we do not get the children into the church during the adolescent period, the world will get them.

The greatest and most lasting revival is the one a pastor holds during the pastorate of from 3 to 6 years.

I have observed that the professional evangelist is less in favor with the laymen than ever. We must return to the pastor evangelist.

About 600 have been received into church membership this year from all sources.

Churches.

There are 100 churches in the district and 50 charges. Some of these charges are manned by supplies, because they cannot pay for a conference man. The value of the churches and parsonages are estimated at $1,040,000.

The rural church is passing—families are moving from the farm. The auto and telephone are here. Improved highways are coming and many of the country churches are closing. We cannot tell what the final result will be.

Resume.

This report closes six years of strenuous work upon the Quincy District. We trust by the help of the Master and the men who have toiled with us, that the district is some better than when I was appointed to it.

My successor will never know what other superintendents have experienced on the Quincy District. Methods of travel and roads have transformed this district.

We now have two improved highways through the district equaling about 200 miles when completed. Several miles of gravel have been added during the past six years. Now it is possible to cover the district easier and do far more effective work.

Six years ago it was the lowest in rank of the seven. Now it has another place. Some of the best churches in the conference are found here and many of the best preachers. The Quincy District has furnished more ministers to the conference than any other district. It has produced and trained many of the very best preachers of the conference. If any contribution has been made, if any advance, if any greater consecration, if any greater spirit of giving created, may the glory go to the faithful pastors that have served with me and to the Lord who has reigned over us.

The demands on the superintendent are great. There are two ways of serving a district. First, the easy way, and second, the strenuous way. I leave it with the preachers and the laymen to say which I have travelled. I close, praying God's blessing upon all the churches and institutions in the district, wishing them all unbound success with love and charity for all and malice toward none.

"Lead on, O King Eternal,
We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning
Where'er thy face appears;
Thy cross is lifted o'er us;
We journey in its light;
The crown awaits the conquest;
Lead on, O God of might."

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT.

H. W. McPherson, Superintendent.

Bishop Thirkield and Brethren:

Appointments and Supplies.

At the close of conference last year all charges in the district were supplied except Buckhart. Within a few days J. P. Armand accepted a call to Kansas City to enter work in the Goodwill Industries of our church. This left Mt. Auburn open, to which L. D. Hopper was transferred from the Southern Illinois Conference in time to take up the work at the beginning of the year. N. H. Munch supplied Buckhart part of the year.

November 16 Brother J. S. Smith, who was very ill last conference, passed from a life of faithful service to his rich reward. He was greatly beloved by his brethren in the ministry and surely by the good people of Edinburg, his last charge. He will live forever in good influence on earth as well as in Heaven. H. Guy Campbell was transferred from the West Wisconsin Conference to Edinburg, February 1, and had done a most acceptable work in that field.

C. E. Pease resigned the work at Shiloh and Tovey in May. July 1 M. I. Johnson of Canada began supplying there. His works are already transforming that charge.

Aside from these irregularities all pastors have continued without serious interruption through the year. There have been some cases of serious illness, but only once in three years has death entered a parsonage in Springfield district.

Varied Activities.

In all of our doings we try to keep the major emphasis upon the spiritual. Evangelism has been stressed throughout the year. A total of 115 weeks of revivals, with 912 conversions, with 1,568 members received and a net gain of 703, is a brief summary of efforts and results along this line. We only wish much more could have been done. About half of the Sunday schools show an increase in attendance, some a slight loss, and several apparently standing still, with a total net gain of about 250 in average attendance for the district. Our district Epworth League put on a series of five fall rallies, with a total attendance of more than 550. These were great inspirational gatherings, stimulating the entire year's work. One of the best conventions in the history of the district was held in June in the new Laurel church. More than 400 were seated at banquet tables. As usual the district was well represented at the Institute.

Forty-two pastors report a total of 20,383 visits, an average of 485. It is refreshing, for both pastor and people, when a Methodist preacher takes seriously his vow to "visit from house to house." These pastors married 345 couples, and conducted 496 funerals during the year. Church night was observed 170 weeks, with an aggregate average attendance of 969. Daily Vacation Bible Schools were held 34 weeks, with an average attendance of 737.

Women's Work.

Knowing the loyalty of women to the kingdom of God one can report in advance on their work. The activities of the faithful women in missionary societies, ladies aids, etc., have kept pace with former years. In many cases, but for their efforts, churches would languish and die. The Aid societies in 43 charges report a total of $37,989 raised, or an average of almost $1,000. The exact figures are not at hand for the missionary societies, but they are up to the standard. God bless the women of our church in their consecrated services.

We have one woman worker in charge of Coalton and Kortkamp now. Since January 1 Miss Calvert has had a circuit, taking Kortkamp at that time. She has done her usual good work at Coalton, and has led in a remarkable way at Kortkamp, where a dwelling was purchased and converted into a suitable meeting house for the people of that community. The cost of the enterprise was about $700. Greater things are in store for both of these fields.

World Service.

The World Service situation is improving. The attitude of the people toward our total program is becoming more Christian. According to latest reports the district will show an advance of a few thousand dollars over last year, 24 charges reporting an increase, several holding steady, and only 8 decreasing. About one-fourth of the charges in the district have suffered great financial loss and depression, owing to the closing of coal mines, and many others are seriously crippled by floods and excessive rain. In the face of it all the people for the most part, are optimistic and seem to have a more sympathetic attitude toward world needs. This is largely due, no doubt, to the intensive program of field cultivation this year, under the direction of the Home Board. Five days of group meetings, with a most interesting and effective team, McConnell, Burt and Wahlberg, were held last Fall, reaching the entire district. The unusual feature was from February to the middle of May, when an entire round of quarterly conference visitation was made by leading officials of our church. Doctors Wade, Auman, Barton, Gornall, Szczepkowski, and Forsythe, in turn made the entire round of the district, speaking and answering questions at every quarterly conference. In addition 'Gil' Traveler spent about three weeks, filling special engagements in the district. At least 6,000 people heard these men. Fruit will be forthcoming for years as a result of this intensive program. We greatly appreciate this generous co-operation.

Material Improvements.

Among the larger movements, along the line of material advance for the year, are the following: Chestnut reopened, September 27, after repairing and decorating at a cost of $1,700. Millersville church, costing approximately $4,500, was dedicated November 8. Bethany was opened, after years of inactivity, November 22, having been remodeled at a cost of $900. Laurel dedicated one of the most serviceable plants in Springfield, worth $125,000, December 20. This marked the culmination of several years of most heroic effort, and the beginning of a larger service on the part of that rapidly growing church. Early in the year Asbury completed a modern brick parsonage, at a cost of $6,000. Just a few weeks ago Rochester purchased one of the best houses in the town for a parsonage, paying $6,000 for it. This was made possible by a gift of $5,000 from Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Miller. Stonington remodeled their parsonage, spending about $2,500. Edinburg parsonage was modernized at a cost of $2,000. Sunday, September 12, was cornerstone laying day for Mt. Auburn's beautiful new brick church, to cost approximately $25,000; and for the new $75,000 auditorium being built by Douglas Avenue; which, with their already adequate Sunday school quarters and new parish house, will give them one of the best equipped plants in the district. Kumler is moving the parsonage to a new site, building a parish house, and remodeling the church, at an estimate cost of $45,000. In all of these, as well as many smaller undertakings, pastors and people deserve great credit for their heroic leadership and co-operation, making possible building programs, completed or now in progress, for the year, amounting to at least $350,000. Time will fail me if I tell of Taylorville, Blue Mound, Owaneco, Elkhart, Nokomis First and Grace, Pana, Sharpsburg, Springfield First, Morrisonville, Illiopolis, Rosemond, Irving, Kenney, Hillsboro, and the rest, who through faith have paid debts, remodeled, decorated, and the like. Varily they have their reward.

A Concluding Word.

In the time allotted, no superintendent could cover every detail of the year's work, with its hardships, reverses, failures, and disappointments, as well as its joys and abounding successes, through which God's grace has sustained us; nor could one mention all who have wrought well in the service of the Master. There are services beyond computation and kindnesses without number, that would call forth words of commendations as he would fain make known his sincerest gratitude; for he indeed has a heart of stone, who is not unutterably grateful to pastors and their good wives, and generous laymen, whose hospitality he has so freely shared during the shifting scenes of the years as they have passed. We must leave unsaid many things that our heart would express, and close with the prayer; may God abundantly bless and richly reward the faithful, now and forever.

(B) STANDING COMMITTEES AND BOARDS.

BENEVOLENCES.

To the end that the Kingdom of God may come more speedily and in order to bring about more intelligent loyalty to the benevolent programme of the church, we recommend:

First: A complete program of Missionary education in Church, Sunday School, and Epworth League.

Second: That every channel of information be utilized to impress Benevolent needs by literature, addresses and study classes.

Third: That Stewardship in its full meaning-life, prayer and property, be taught to our people by precept and example.

Fourth: That the Benevolences of our own Church be given first place.

Fifth: That every pastor make every effort to see the last man and collect the last dollar at least a month before the Conference session. Much money was lost through delay in this matter this year.

May the Illinois Conference do its utmost to show an increase in its benevolent giving for the Conference year of 1926-27.

H. A. LITHERLAND, Chairman.

S. W. BEGGS, Secretary.

CHADDOCK BOYS SCHOOL.

Eighty boys enrolled at Chaddock Boys School during its twenty-seventh year now closing. Some who had been with us many years left and their places were quickly filled. As usual large numbers were turned away for lack of room.

The new dining hall, Osborne Hall, completed this year is the first unit sufficiently large to accommodate the two hundred boys for whom we are planning.

Chaddock needs one million dollars and needs it immediately. A new school building should be completed by 1930. Eight new cottages with a capacity for twenty boys each, must be added to our present cottage system to make it possible to care for the two hundred boys. Our endowment fund must continue to grow. We appreciate the co-operation of the ministers who are counselling their laity to remember Chaddock Boys School in wills, bequests, and the purchase of bonds.

A distinctive feature of Chaddock Boys School is that of its industrial work or self help. Winfield Scott Hall says, "Experience shows that the youth undergoes a more wholesome all-round development if he takes some active part in a productive employment than if he is allowed to devote all his energies to play." Many times do we remind the boys that others are not willing to do for them what they can do for themselves. This year the boys raised and sold one thousand dollars worth of vegetables, stored by cold pack and otherwise a supply almost equal to the amount sold for our own use for the winter, besides supplying our table through the season.

At Easter time when eggs were shipped in to the number of thirty-five hundred dozen the boys carefully handled and stored in water glass over three hundred gallons of these eggs. In August they filled all of our coal cellars unloading the coal from the freight cars and hauling it a distance of three miles, thereby saving about three hundred dollars on the price of the coal. Throughout the school year they have taken care of the furnaces, washed the dishes, cared for their rooms, and the school building, besides assisting with the dairy and field work. Through all these activities they learn lessons of thrift, co-operation and social adjustments as well as render the service needed for the hour.

Through the untiring and well directed efforts of our Associate Superintendent, the Rev. W. G. Pulliam, we are happy to report that while we go forward with our improvements, our indebtedness does not materially increase and our endowment fund grows.

Through the conference plan of the open pulpit for the support of needy boys, together with generous individual gifts of Epworth Leagues, Sabbath School classes and other organizations we cared for more than fifty needy boys the past year.

After carefully studying the situation the Trustees found the most practical way to provide residence for our Associate Superintendent and his family was to build on the campus. A comfortable but simple eight-room, brick structure, corresponding to the other buildings erected on the campus, was completed and ready for occupancy at the beginning of the new year. One half the cost of the building has already been provided by a special gift.

Before the middle of June ninety-nine boys had applied for admission.

School opened with our full quota, with boys being continually turned away.

Seven deaconesses are now numbered on the faculty and staff of Chad-dock. Two other splendid women work on the deaconess plan of allowance and residence.

We enter the new year with great faith in the friends of boys and in our Heavenly Father.

Respectfully submitted,

EVA C. FRIELDS, Superintendent.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

We affirm our confidence in the Methodist Book Concern and in our staff of Sunday School Literature Editors. We urge that every Sunday School Board within the bounds of our Conference use exclusively our Book Concern literature and supplies.

GUY W. HOLMES, Chairman.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS AND PREACHERS AID SOCIETY.

Whereas, a splendid advance has been made in the building up of an endowment fund for the support of the retired ministers, widows of deceased preachers and their orphan children, we urge that every minister manifest a greater interest and loyalty in this worthy enterprise by being on the alert for people who can make gifts, by annuity bonds, and make request to this cause, sending their names to Rev. H. C. Gibbs, secretary of the Preachers Aid Society.

It is recommended that great care be used in the investigation of the applications for claims upon the necessitation fund.

Furthermore, we believe that it would be helpful to all concerned if the report of the Preachers Aid Society and the Board of Stewards were mimeographed for distribution at the annual meeting of the Preachers Aid Society.

S. N. WAKEFIELD, Chairman.

J. R. FORD, Secretary.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

We recommend that:

1. George E. Burton to have his relation changed from effective to retired on account of age, be granted.
2. Gye Park, E. J. Williams, R. Y. Williams, Frank Harry to have their relation changed from effective to retired on account of disability, be granted.
3. M. S. Bumpus, Joseph M. Harrell to have their relations changed from effective to supernumerary, be granted.
4. J. L. Settles, Peter Kittel, C. L. Bell, M. C. Faulk, Theo. Kemp, H. S. Jackson, W. J. Weber, that they be continued in the supernumerary relation, be granted.
5. J. O. Lehman, J. L. Hardesty, A. J. Patrick, J. M. Judy to be continued in supernumerary relation for the sixth year, be granted.
6. H. C. Gardner, G. V. Metzel, S. M. Spurgeon that they be permitted to withdraw, at their own request, be granted.
7. C. E. Hogue that he be permitted to withdraw from the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, he having duly surrendered his parchments, be granted.
8. D. T. Miles that he be reclassified, be not granted.

9. L. G. Adams, W. D. McIntosh, D. L. Jeffers that they be granted a leave of absence in the effective relation under paragraph 186, be granted.
10. F. A. Enslow that he be made effective having relinquished all claim on the funds of the Conference, be granted.
11. H. M. Knight, G. Reed Smith that they be discontinued, be granted.
12. Fred Reed that he be made effective for purposes of transfer, be granted.
13. T. L. Stotler that he be permitted to withdraw under Question 22.

C. F. BUKER, Chairman.

E. J. CAMPBELL, Secretary.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

Your Committee on Domestic Missions recommends:

First, as a goal, that the minimum salary in the Illinois Conference be $1,500 and that no Domestic Missionary grants be bestowed upon any charge paying a cash salary exceeding $1,500.

Second, that as the church in the past has received its leadership largely from the rural districts, and as many churches in large areas of farming communities are being deserted, the committee would suggest if possible larger contributions be made to the Domestic Missionary Society that our District Superintendents may have the means with which to redeem this valuable territory to the Kingdom of God.

J. S. THARP, Chairman.

H. F. DELAP, Secretary.

CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD.

The Conference Deaconess Board of the Illinois Conference met in regular session at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Mattoon, Illinois, Thursday, September 16, 1926, with the following members present: E. L. Pletcher, W. G. Pulliam, Mrs. Eva C. Fields, Bertha Beadles, C. R. Morrison, J. C. Nate, E. A. Hedges, G. L. Losh.

The meeting was called to order by the President. Prayer was offered by Miss Beadles. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Mrs. Fields reported for Chaddock Boys School. The report of Mr. Singleton, treasurer of the Chaddock Board was read by Mrs. Fields and filed. (See report.)

The character of the deaconesses was passed upon by the Board and the renewal of their licenses recommended.

It was recommended that Miss Anna Logan be continued in the retired relationship. It was also recommended that Miss Mabel Millard of Appleton, Wisconsin, be granted an honorable discharge. The matter of the relationship of Miss Ethel McCumber was referred to Dr. Davis, of the General Deaconess Board. A committee was appointed to draft a resolution concerning the future program of Chaddock.

The following officers were elected:

President—Rev. E. L. Pletcher.

First Vice-President—Dr. J. C. Nate.

Second Vice-President—Mrs. E. C. Fields.

Secretary—Rev. G. L. Losh.

Assistant Secretary—Bertha A. Beadles.

A discussion of a mid-year meeting followed. It was moved by Dr. Nate that the officers be requested to confer with the pastors of Springfield with a view to having a field day and mid-year meeting of the Conference Deaconess Board in that city, February 13 and 14. This motion was seconded by Rev. Hedges and carried.

The following were nominated as members of the Conference Deaconess Board:

From the Conference—E. L. Pletcher, C. R. Morrison, E. A. Hedges, G. L. Losh.

From Chaddock Boys School—J. C. Nate, W. G. Pulliam.

The Needs of Chaddock.

The Illinois Conference Board desires to call special attention to the statement of the urgent needs of Chaddock Boys School as outlined in the annual report of the Superintendent, Mrs. Eva C. Frields.

No statement however can adequately describe the imperative need which the School now faces. Chaddock is caring annually for seventy boys, but she must each year turn away more than twice that number. If each pastor might think of the boy who must be turned away, as a boy from his own parsonage home, the needs of Chaddock would be better understood.

The Chaddock Sunday and Sustentation offering given by our Churches is a great help which is deeply appreciated by your Conference Board. It brings measureless blessings to our boys at Chaddock. We must, however, urge at this time the larger need of equipment, buildings and sustaining endowment. The directors have conservatively estimated these needs at one million dollars. With such a sum this Board could tell the Conference each year the story of ministering to two hundred boys instead of seventy. This is Chaddock's present goal.

We bespeak from the pastors from the Illinois Conference, as our friends and reliance in this endeavor every possible co-operation. We ask at this Conference session the continuing helpful counsel of every district superintendent and preacher. We also seek the earnest co-operation of every church of this great Illinois conference in the promotion of this worthy enterprise and the attainment of our appointed goal.

EDUCATION.

The Committee on Education reports a year of progress in the educational interests of the Conference. The ever-increasing number of young people crowding our college halls presents an ever-increasing opportunity and responsibility to the 10,000 Methodists of our churches, an opportunity and responsibility which will be gladly faced.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

The attendance in the College of Liberal Arts last year was 645, surpassing all previous records. In the College of Law, the registration dropped to 59, owing largely to a Supreme Court ruling in Illinois requiring two years of college work as a prerequisite to admission to a law school. In the School of Music, the college grade students numbered 65, and the special or irregular students 475. The grand total for all departments was 1225.

The freshmen class of this year numbers 300.

We appreciate the cooperation of the pastors in urging their young people to attend Illinois Wesleyan and remain the full four years. Inasmuch as the graduates easily enter the best graduate schools of the country, it works no particular advantage to them, and certainly works harm to the Wesleyan, when friends announce to young people that the Wesleyan is a good place to take only the first two years of a college course. It is desirable that an increasing percentage of those who enter as freshmen shall remain for graduation.

This past year has been rather notable from the standpoint of Wesleyan spirit. Bishop McDowell spent three days with the students, and Dr. W. D. Schermerhorn of Garrett Biblical Institute was present to conduct interviews. In addition many other addresses were given by prominent men and women which brought larger spiritual and social vision to the student body.

Since January first the Wesleyan has met the conditions of the General Education Board and received from it $135,000 in cash as its contribution to the Endowment of Instruction.

A conditional gift of $75,000 has been made towards a new home for the School of Music. It is necessary that an additional $75,000 be raised before construction begins. Already some gifts have been made, and it is hoped that by Christmas time the entire amount may be subscribed.

Agricultural conditions in central Illinois are affecting the Wesleyan, and we desire to urge our people to give increasing support to the institution, even though such support may entail great sacrifice. Out of this institution are coming the leaders of tomorrow, and its work must not be crippled for lack of funds.

Illinois Woman's College.

The year 1925-26 was one of gratifying progress at Illinois Woman's College. The newly elected President, Dr. Clarence P. McClelland, arrived in time for the opening, and was received with enthusiasm. His formal inauguration at commencement was an outstanding event and will long be remembered by the friends of the college. It was attended by delegates from sixty-two colleges and universities from various parts of the country, and was helpful in bringing the achievements and aims of the college to the attention of the general public in a dignified and impressive way.

Financially, the year was the best in the history of the college. $108,500 was added to the endowment funds. The income from endowment and students' fees was $24,292 more than the previous year. The year closed with no indebtedness.

The enrollment was the largest the college has had. The increase in the number of students made necessary the employment of additional instructors and the creation of an additional department. To make room for the still greater increase in the number of students during the coming year two large houses immediately adjoining the dormitories have been completely renovated and attractively furnished to accommodate the seniors.

It is the policy of the college not to expand too rapidly. A slightly increased enrollment is expected year by year, but no more students will be admitted than can be adequately cared for. A conscientious effort will be made to meet the increasingly rigid educational requirements for a college of the highest rank.

A definite program of advancement has been adopted by the trustees. Following is a summary of the needs and objectives included in this program:

A. Immediate.

Endowment	$100,000
Science Building.....	185,000
Power Plant.....	65,000

B. Deferred.

Endowment	$400,000
Building and Equipment.....	525,000
Land	250,000
	<hr/> $1,525,000

A conditional gift of $125,000 towards the erection of a science building and a power plant makes it imperative for the college to begin at once an active campaign to secure funds to meet the immediate needs, as indicated above. The hearty co-operation of the pastors in this effort is earnestly solicited.

The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois.

In number of full time students the University of Illinois last year ranked third among universities of the country—the enrollment being 13,399. 12,263 of these were at Urbana-Champaign and 1,136 in the Chicago departments.

The number of Methodists at Urbana-Champaign runs a strong one-fourth of the total. These 3,000 students constitute the field of the Wesley Foundation.

The program of work is varied and attractive. It is rooted in the university life. Students take the responsibilities of leadership and in the process learn the work of laymen in the church.

There are two imperative needs for the Foundation. The first is maintenance funds to carry forward the regular schedule of work. Some beginning has been made on endowment, but only a beginning. Hence most of the funds for operating expenses must be raised from year to year.

The second immediate need is a New Trinity Church. For years the present building has been utterly inadequate. The ever-increasing student enrollment makes this inadequacy tragic. Bishop Hughes has rightly described the securing of a New Trinity as "a holy enterprise" in which all the Methodist people of the State of Illinois should join. A beginning has been made at Urbana through a campaign among the students and community membership of Trinity Church.

Two significant gifts have come to the Foundation this year. The Reverend M. P. Wilkin and his wife have bequeathed approximately $30,000 to establish the Wilkin Lectureship. By the last testament of President Emeritus Edmund J. James the Foundation has received a little over $1,800.00 as a permanent endowment for the library.

Dr. W. A. Goodell continues as Professor of Religious Education and Reverend Wilbur D. Grose, son of our Bishop George R. Grose of Peking, China, becomes Associate Director of Student Activities, succeeding Reverend George V. Metzel, who has been in this position for six years.

Theological Schools.

We commend the important work being done by our Theological Schools—Boston University, Drew Theological Seminary, Garrett Biblical Institute, Iliff School of Theology and Gammon Theological Seminary. We look to them to supply leadership for the church. If the church is to speak a commanding word in these times of social unrest and religious conflict, its ministers must be men who know God, their own day, the implications and applications of the Christian faith. For the developing of such leaders we must depend upon our Theological Schools. We therefore urge all our young men to take advantage of the training offered by them and the members of our churches to support them financially and thus make such training possible. We also commend the work of the Chicago Training School, believing it is doing a valuable service among many of our young people in preparing them for full or part time Christian work.

Field Day for Christian Education.

1. We believe that the Educational Field Day as observed on January 10th marked most helpful results in sentiment for our institutions. The sustentation offering of $4,500.00 received was also encouraging to our colleges as an expression of the general interest of our churches and their desire to help. We thank the pastors and churches for it. We recommend the renewal of Field Day upon such date as may be determined as heretofore.

2. We recommend that the plans for the Field Day and for the sustentation offering be similar to those of last year, with a frank statement to our people of the serious situation of our colleges and their urgent need for larger offerings. We also suggest the active co-operation of the Conference Board of Education, the Conference Committee on Education and the Trustee Boards of Institutions in the development of plans for the day.

3. We further recommend the development of some plan of annual sustentation for our colleges more fully equal to their large needs and present deficits, upon a basis to be carefully determined by a special committee consisting of the Board of District Superintendents, the heads of the educational institutions and F. A. McCarty, C. E. Pettit, H. A. Keck, J. C. Nate and A. R. Grummon, and reported to the next session of the Annual Conference.

Banquet Committee.

We desire to express our appreciation for the splendid services rendered by the Banquet Committee and to renominate the same members, namely, C. E. Pettit, A. E. Cole, G. L. Losh and A. R. Grummon.

H. A. KECK, Chairman.

A. R. GRUMMON, Secretary.

EVANGELISM.

Believing sincerely in the spiritual note of evangelism, and being confident that this note should be sounded clearly in each undertaking to advance the interests of the kingdom, we prayerfully urge:

That evangelism be given a prominent place in the program of each church in the Illinois Conference, pastors assisting one another when possible.

That the work of religious education among the children and youth of our churches receive proper consideration and attention.

That the continuous program of evangelism under proper leadership in each church be emphasized with special efforts of such nature as may seem most appropriate and most likely to bring desired results.

And that as great a spirit of evangelism as is possible be injected into each session of the annual conference each year.

O. B. HESS, Chairman.

O. E. MARTIN, Secretary.

HOSPITALS AND HOMES.

We view with growing pleasure the widespread interest the church is taking in the care of suffering people everywhere.

The Illinois Conference in the past has fostered and helped its institutions and we doubt not they will continue to do so.

What beneficent work can be dearer to the heart of the Master than the providing of homes for helpless dependent children—the Baby Fold at Normal and Cunningham Home at Urbana and the aged saints at the Old People's Home at Quincy and asylums for sick at the hospitals at Mattoon and Wesley Memorial Hospital at Chicago?

All these are worthy of our beneficence and graciously commended as special objects of philanthropy of our generous Christian people.

The committee recommends the election of two trustees for the Old People's Home at Quincy, Illinois—J. C. Nate and C. F. Buker.

Resolved, That we give a special hearing in each of our churches at least to one of these institutions each year and an offering be taken for these, our wards.

GEORGE F. WETZEL, Chairman.

W. C. HARMS, Secretary.

STATE OF COUNTRY.

The Committee on the State of Country reports the following:

First—That we deplore the corruption of politics as demonstrated in the recent primary elections of the various states and urge our membership and constituency to support only such men who will stand for clean government.

Second—We urge all our citizenship to exert their right of franchise at all elections.

Third—Prohibition having grown out of the moral conscientiousness of the American citizenship, we therefore recommend that both the ministry and laity arouse themselves to a larger degree of loyalty to the great and never-dying cause of temperance.

Fourth—That we favor any movement looking toward a better understanding of international good will among nations.

Fifth—That we request and urge our people to exercise a greater respect and observance of the Lord's Day, since it is the Divine provision made for the preservation and rallying of the forces of Christ.

Sixth—We recommend a careful study of Methodism's pronouncement on world peace of the General Conference, May 24, 1924.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUES.

To the Sunday School and Epworth League is entrusted the supervision of and the systematic planning for the religious and moral nurture of the young people of our church and constituency. They must see this task as a common task and make use of all available resources of material, leadership and time. Your committee, therefore, wishes to recommend certain methods, which, in its judgment, can be used to great advantage:

1. A thorough investigation of the possibilities of the Week Day School of Religious Education and the sincere co-operation of the Sunday School and Epworth League in this plan wherever feasible. The Daily Vacation Bible School may in some localities be a more practicable plan, but a determined effort should be made to bring more religious training to our young people.

2. That the Church Training Night, with its variety of programs and study classes, be given a wider acceptance by those who are planning for the religious growth of our people. The study classes thus conducted have been very helpful and productive of much good.

3. That the children and young people of our church be organized into Junior, Intermediate and Senior groups, and that the plans and programs of the Central Office of the Epworth League be given a fair trial in this respect. We call particular attention to the Standard District Efficiency Program set up by the Central Office and recommend its adoption by the District Epworth League organizations of the conference.

4. That the young people's classes of the Sunday School be thoroughly organized, and that special attention be given to the training of teachers from this group. Teacher Training Classes held during the Sunday School hour and at other times in the week merit serious consideration.

5. That the evangelistic program of the church have within it a large place for these two kindred organizations, emphasis being placed upon Decision Day in the Sunday School and the Win-My-Chum campaign of the Epworth League.

6. That we make use of the splendid literature being produced by our own Methodist book concern. In this connection we deem it proper to call attention to the new departmental literature, in loose leaf form, which the Central Office is now producing for the use of the Epworth League. The evangelistic pamphlets and the graded literature which can be secured from the Board of Education, Department of Church Schools, are greatly to be commended.

7. Since the Institute continues to be a week of inspiration and consecration in the life of our young people, we recommend that it be given a larger place in the interests of the church. We desire to express our gratification over the outcome of the first year of the Institute at the Old Salem Chautauqua Grounds and feel that the location of the Institute at this place for three years to come is a step which leads in the direction of the establishment of a permanent home for the Institute.

We approve the recommendation of the Committee on Constitution appointed by the Institute Commission, by which recommendation Articles III and XI are amended, as follows:

First—That Article III, which now reads, "This organization shall be controlled by a group of twenty-one men, fourteen ministers, members of the Illinois Conference, and seven laymen," be amended so as to read, "This organization shall be controlled by a group of twenty-four men, seventeen ministers, members of the Illinois Conference, and seven laymen."

Second—That Article XI be amended by the addition of the following words to the last sentence of the article: "Through a Student Council or similar representation of the student body."

The following officers elected at the Institute are submitted for conference approval:

President, G. L. Losh; First Vice-President, H. G. Beck; Second Vice-President, G. V. Herrick; Third Vice-President, J. W. Starr; Fourth Vice-President, Paul E. Carson; Registrar, A. A. Heinlein; Life Service Secretary, T. B. Lugg.

The following Institute Commission is submitted for your approval:

Ministers—H. G. Beck, W. G. Pulliam, J. W. Starr, G. L. Losh, H. A. Keck, A. R. Grummon, T. B. Lugg, A. A. Heinlein, J. H. Singleton, C. H. Thrall, C. C. Nordling, G. V. Herrick, A. E. Cole, P. E. Carson, A. P. Jordan, C. E. Pettit, T. E. Tuschoff.

Laymen—Bloomington District, Fred Hitch; Champaign-Danville, District, J. E. Johnson; Decatur District, Dr. I. H. Neece; Jacksonville District, T. V. Hopper; Mattoon District, Harry Houston; Quincy District, N. L. Eddy; Springfield District, Carl Shaw.

Respectfully submitted,

A. A. HEINLEIN, Chairman.

HARRY A. COCHRAN, Secretary.

REPORT OF AUDITING COMMITTEE.

We, the undersigned committee have audited the accounts of Henry C. Gibbs, Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the year ending July 31, 1926, and find them correct.

F. A. McCARTY,
JAS. E. REYNOLDS,
Committee.

Certified correct.

G. ROY ESHELMAN & CO.
By G. E. Huffer.

W. F. M. S. AND W. H. M. S.

We rejoice in the prosperity and growth of the Woman's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary Societies as evidenced by their continued increase in both membership and offerings.

We commend the magnificent work they are doing in carrying the Gospel to the needy millions in both home and foreign fields.

We pledge them our hearty co-operation; we urge the organization of one or both of these societies in every church, and we express it as our conviction that every Methodist woman should belong to one or both of them.

GEORGE FIDLER, Chairman.
LEW E. BALDWIN, Secretary.

(C) SPECIAL COMMITTEES AND RESOLUTIONSDOMESTIC MISSIONARY APPORTIONMENTS.

Resolved, That the usual instruction to pastors to take the domestic missionary appointment in full from the World Service collection be not made mandatory; that action in the matter be suspended for one year, and that our District Superintendents and Charges be urged to develop other sources for raising domestic missions in full.

(Signed) J. C. NATE.

INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

We, the committee selected by the direction of the Illinois Annual Conference of 1925, as recorded on Page 40 of the printed minutes, to proceed under Paragraph 265, Section 4, on the investigation of the charges against T. L. Stotler, find the evidence sufficient to sustain the same, and we hereby suspend him from all ministerial functions until the next sessions of the Illinois Annual Conference according to Paragraph 252, Section 4, of the 1924 Discipline.

H. W. McPHERSON,
District Superintendent, Springfield District,
Chairman of Committee.

Springfield, Illinois, January 5, 1926.

OLD PEOPLE'S HOME.

The report of the special committee appointed to consider the revised constitution and by-laws of the Old People's Home of the Illinois Annual Conference located at Quincy, Illinois.

First, we find that the joint commission authorized by the Illinois Annual Conference of 1925 met at Quincy on January 12, 1926, and agreed upon all changes in the constitution and by-laws of the Home Corporation necessary for the transfer of the home to the Illinois Conference. The new name thus adopted is 'The Old People's Home of the Illinois Conference.'

The revised constitution and by-laws were approved and adopted by the Board of Trustees of the home in annual session at Quincy, Illinois, on April 15, 1926. Your committee recommends the approval of all these measures by the Illinois Annual Conference.

Second, it is recommended accordingly that the Illinois Annual Conference hereby authorize and approve on its own part all legal measures necessary for the amendment of the charter of the Old People's Home and to the completion of its legal transfer to the Illinois Conference. We direct the trustees of the home to proceed with such transfer and to report their further action hereunder to the next conference session.

JOSEPH C. NATE, Chairman.

C. H. THRALL, Secretary.

PUBLICATION OF THE MINUTES.

The Committee on the Publication of the Minutes reports the following:

A contract has been let to the Illinois State Register for the publication of the minutes for the following year at a price of $6.20 per page for the printing of 4,500 copies. Any changes from proof first submitted to cost 10 cents per line additional. Any cuts to be made are additional.

The Committee on Publication submits the following recommendations:

1. That each pastor, district superintendent and preacher in detached service be required to pay into the Minute Fund an amount equal to one-fifth of one per cent of his cash salary to defray the cost of publication, and that this quota be paid before the close of the conference session.

2. That the collectors named on the Minute Fund Committee be authorized to begin collection at once, and that they be given the privilege of the floor on Saturday morning to call the names of ministers who have not paid.

3. That the Secretary of the conference be elected Editor of the Minutes, and that the pastor of the Douglas Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Springfield, be elected treasurer of the fund. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to furnish the publisher with a mailing list, together with quota for each pastor.

4. That the price to be marked on minutes be 35 cents.

5. That the pastors of the Douglas Avenue and Laurel Methodist Churches of Springfield, the District Superintendent of the Springfield District and the Secretary of the Conference be constituted the committee for the publication of the minutes.

6. That the cost of publishing the minutes may be kept within the resources of the treasury, and that the treasurer shall be authorized to cooperate with the printer to eliminate unnecessary use of space.

7. That the following named material appearing in the 1925 copy of the minutes be eliminated from the 1926 publication: Pictures on Pages 8 and 9; Section IV, Page 17, to following immediately Section III, Page 16; standing committees for 1926 to be eliminated; reports and memoirs be condensed to the essential; that resolutions expressing personal regard be expressed briefly; that the Historical Record of the District Superintendents prior to the year 1890 be discontinued and that the Epworth League Statistics on Pages 186-192, inclusive, be eliminated.

8. That no copy be subject to change after it has been submitted to the printer.

RESOLUTIONS.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

The 103rd session of the Illinois Annual Conference has been royally entertained by the City of Mattoon, whose every resource was fully proffered us. The pastor, Reverend H. G. Beck, has been constant and untiring in looking after all our interests. His church, assisted by the other churches of the city, have provided every comfort for our entertainment. We are grateful to the Central and Christian Churches which were so kindly opened to us for various gatherings. The Mattoon National Bank and the other banks of the city and the Association of Commerce, whose spacious rooms were granted to our secretarial forces, have greatly aided in the transaction of the business of the Conference.

The Journal-Gazette, with a reporter constantly on the job, has excelled in giving daily the news of this Methodist conclave.

We are greatly indebted to Dr. Joseph M. Gray of Scranton, Pennsylvania, for his series of scholarly, fervent and deeply spiritual addresses, to Mrs. Fred B. Fisher for two illuminating addresses on China and India, to Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes for his humorous and masterly lecture and to the other visitors who presented various interests of our militant church.

We are glad to express our high appreciation of the genial and able presidency of Bishop Thirkield.

We commend the way he has expedited conference business and we wish some way could be devised that would shorten the time required for the members of the Conference to be away from home.

J. E. EVANS, Chairman.
S. N. MADDEN, Secretary.

(b)

Dear Brethren of the Conference:

We, the District Superintendents of the Illinois Annual Conference, desire to express our sincere appreciation of the presidency of our presiding officer, Bishop Wilbur P. Thirkield. We have been in intimate fellowship with him for a week, and he has given us his most painstaking and efficient consideration. At times we have been astounded with his patience, and always marveled at his endurance. In spite of the long hours of grilling work, with but few hours for rest, he has always come back to us vigorous and fresh, ready to grapple with the difficult problems that have confronted us.

We extend to him our sincerest gratitude for his kindly consideration; for the sympathy he expressed for the brethren who needed special consideration, and for his wise counsel in the solution of some perplexing problems.

During the week he has endeared himself to us, and we shall go out from this Conference with a deeper sense of our obligations and of our opportunities. He has set before us a high standard of service which we hope we may, in a measure at least, attain.

May the Good God who has guided him through the years go with him unto the end of the journey, and may he be spared to the church for many years of service.

We extend to him our love and sincerest wishes.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS,
Illinois Annual Conference.

E. S. COMBS, President.

E. G. SANDMEYER, Secretary.

SELECT NUMBER.

WHEREAS, An equitable adjustment between Lewis Nevile, M. D., and Rev. T. L. Handcock has been made, we recommend that the charges against the latter be withdrawn.

E. L. PLETCHER, Chairman.

C. W. HAMAND, Secretary.

STEWARDS FUNDS.

RESOLVED, That the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards be requested to incorporate his report covering the year ending August 31, 1926, including the Preachers' Aid Credits in the Report of the Board of Stewards.

That the sectional heading of the report called "Receipts," be changed to "Funds available for distribution for the year 1926-27."

That to items noted in the report there be added from the Reserve Fund the amount necessary to balance the account.

(Signed) H. C. GIBBS.

WORLD SERVICE.

Your committee on World Service has given special consideration to the matter presented and reports as follows:

1. We believe that the first great need of our Church touching World Service is information concerning the work. We, therefore, heartily approve the plan of laying special emphasis this year on Missionary Education.

2. We recognize, also, the fundamental importance of the thorough inculcation of the principles of stewardship and the practice of these principles. We recommend that special emphasis be laid on this important phase of our work.

3. Following every time of seed-sowing and cultivation there comes the time of gathering. In harmony with the action of the World Service Commission we recommend that the May Roll Call be faithfully observed, and that every member and friend in every Church be invited and urged to accept his share of responsibility in our common world task.

4. To this end we pledge ourselves and our Churches to do our best to carry out the above items of the Chicago Area World Service program.
A. R. GRUMMON, Chairman.

COMMENT ON ABOVE.

At the beginning of the period under review, there were two Certificates of Deposit of $1,000.00 each in the Farmers State Bank, Decatur, Illinois. Subsequent to the beginning of this period, this Bank failed, and is now in the hands of a receiver. During the foregoing period examined, the sum of $400.00 on the principal sum of these Certificates of Deposit was paid to the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards. Also interest in the sum of $11.00 was paid to the Treasurer. A new Certificate of Deposit in the sum of $1,634.00 was made by the Decatur Bank, upon the surrender of the old certificates. This $34.00 was additional interest accrued, which the Bank could not pay in cash. In the statement of receipts and disbursements shown on page No. 1 of this report, this interest item of $34.00 was not shown, as same was not reduced to the equivalent of cash during this period. It is highly probable that the balance due on the principal of these Certificates with the Decatur Bank, will not be paid in full, upon the final settlement of the affairs of this defunct Bank.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT P. McKINLEY,
Public Accountant.

I, Robert P. McKinley, a Public Accountant of the City of Champaign, Illinois, hereby certify that the statement of Receipts and Disbursements for the fiscal period beginning Sept. 15, 1925, and ending Aug. 16, 1926, of the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards of the Illinois Annual Conference, and the statements of the balances at the beginning and ending of this period, are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Plan of Conference Examinations

BOARD OF EXAMINERS

Chairman—C. D. Robertson.

Registrar—R. L. Steed.

Examiners—J. A. Biddle, H. G. Beck, A. L. Caseley, J. E. Evans, A. R. Grummon, C. W. Hamand, A. A. Heinlein, J. W. Starr, H. A. Keck, T. B. Lugg, F. A. McCarty, D. F. Nelson, A. C. Piersel, W. G. Pulliam, E. L. Tobie, J. W. Starr.

RULES OF THE BOARD

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners by the chairman. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall conduct the examinations in the Courses of Study, and make recommendations to the Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study or to appear for examination, shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time for examination. And in case of such failure to pass, the Registrar shall report the fact to the student and to the Chairman of the Board.

4. Examiners shall report grades on all papers to the Registrar within two weeks after the examinations are held.

5. The examination questions shall conform to the requirements of the Commission on Conference Courses of Study and the markings upon both examinations and collateral reading shall be upon the scale and according to the method established by the Commission, and no mark below 70 per cent shall pass.

6. All credits from schools shall be sent to the Chairman, who shall decide upon the acceptability of them. All grades other than those given by the Board of Examiners shall be marked as "P," indicating a passing grade, which does not affect the general average of the student.

7. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each student, including candidates for admission trial, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, and other expense incidental to the work of the Board.

8. It shall be the duty of the Chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of the candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the Board of Examiners. And it shall be the duty of the Board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable, concerning the candidates, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the Chairman to make similar investigations and of the Board to make similar recommendations in the case of applicants for admission from another church. District Superintendents are requested to report to the Chairman the names of all candidates for admission on trial or into full connection, for admission from other churches, and of all candidates for orders, in time to allow such investigation on the part of the Chairman.

9. The annual meeting of the Board of Examiners, in accordance with the Discipline, shall be held at 4 p. m. of the day preceding the session of the Annual Conference.

10. "Honorable Mention," with public recognition, will be conferred at each annual conference session upon the five students having the highest averages in their respective classes. But no one is eligible to this honor who has not done at least 50 per cent of his work under this Board, or whose standing in the course of study is irregular.

11. All examination papers shall be sent to the examiners by registered mail, and the receipts for the same brought to the seat of the annual conference.

12. A deduction will be made in the grades of all papers in which the spelling, grammar or general appearance is faulty.

13. Papers on Methodist Review must conform to the specified length of 200 words. Otherwise the grade will be made less.

COURSES OF STUDY.

Assignment of Studies for 1926-27.

Where a subject is assigned to two men, the first-named is the instructor in that subject at The Itinerants' School, and conducts the actual examination in accordance with the resolution of co-operation with Central Illinois Conference. All work, including Written Work, inquiries and Examinations must be sent to the men having charge of the respective subjects at the Itinerants' School.

The addresses of the Exchange Examiners may be obtained from the Chairman.

Committee on Itinérants' School.

C. D. Robertson, A. C. Piersel, E. L. Tobie.

Plan of Organization of the Itinerants' School of the Illinois and Central Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Government.

The organization and government of the School shall be vested in a joint committee consisting of three numbers from each conference. One of these three shall be the Chairman of the Board of Examiners; the other two shall be elected by the Board of Examiners.

The two elected by the Examiners shall hold office for one year and may be re-elected.

The Joint Committee shall have power to organize and conduct the School, provide the faculty and special lecturers, and take general oversight of the work of the School.

The Joint Committee shall work with the counsel and help of the Commission on Courses of Study as far as is practicable.

The Joint Committee shall be the final authority in questions of policy.

Faculty.

The faculty shall be chosen from the Examiners of the two Conferences.

Session.

The sessions of the School shall be held annually as soon after the commencement season as is practicable.

The sessions shall be held at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington.

Attendance Required.

All students in the Conference Course of Study shall be required to attend the School unless previously excused by the Chairman of their respective Boards of Examiners.

Finance.

The expense of the School shall be met by apportioning to the churches a minimum of Fifty Dollars ($50) for each district, or such larger sum as the conferences shall fix upon from year to year.

The District Superintendents are asked to provide for the collection of the amount designated before June 1.

Examinations.

All examinations except those required by the Discipline to be given at Conference, shall be held the last day of School.

Written Work.

No student shall be admitted to the examination in any subject unless his required Written Work in that subject is done.

Review by Conferences.

The work of the School shall be subject to review and approval by the two Conferences.

Continuance.

This plan of organization shall continue from year to year unless modified or abrogated by the Conferences.

Memoirs

J. B. COLWELL.

A preacher of the Gospel has gone to his crowning. The brief sketch that is permissible concerning his life might properly be called "the making and the toiling of a servant of God."

John Bennett Colwell was born in England, July 19, 1834. His father was a Methodist local preacher, and came with his family and settled in Cass County, Illinois, about four years after the birth of this son. For three years he taught school, and when 23 years of age entered the Illinois Wesleyan University, where he was a student for two years. Feeling called to the ministry he was licensed to preach, and began his work as a supply pastor. He entered Garrett Biblical Institute and completed the three years course, graduating in 1862, with the sixth class graduated by that institution. Bishop Charles H. Fowler, who had graduated the previous year, was then a pastor in the city of Chicago, and delivered the annual address at the Alumni Meeting. Brother Colwell was selected as the valedictorian of his class, and has served on through the years until all his brethren have gone on before him, and when the class reunion is held in Glory, if they hold class reunions there—and why not—he will complete the gathering.

On his graduation he was appointed to the Topeka circuit, having six appointments to be served every two weeks, requiring the minister to preach three times every Sunday and during the year to hold special revival meetings at each place. In the Fall of 1863 he united with the Illinois Conference, and on October 7th—during that Conference week—was married in Bloomington, Illinois, to Miss Charlotte Ijams. In these days Methodist preachers moved often—two years was the limit of a pastorate—and Brother Colwell usually stayed the limit. Later, when the limit was extended to three years, he served the three year limit six times. Later he served one church five years and another four, indicating to those who know the genius of Methodism that he was a successful and a much loved pastor. For 43 years he served the church, and in 1906 retired from active service. He then went back to his first charge and home community, and there for a year and a half served the church as a supply pastor.

In August, 1907, he came with his wife to Chicago to reside with his son Clyde and his daughter Ella, and with these two he has made his home since that time. In November of the same year Mrs. Colwell was called to her Eternal Home. Two years ago he received in a fall a broken hip, and since that time has been confined to his room.

Now this man who is called of God and who lived through the years feeling that he was a servant of the Most High has gone to his crowning. We do not mourn, we rejoice that we have a faith which can so lay hold upon men that in youth they can dedicate themselves to a service that will bring sacrifice in manhood and satisfaction in work well done in old age.

One of the marvels that often impresses us as we think of the life of a minister is the character of his family. Educated under difficulties, moving from community to community, they yet make themselves a credit to the profession of their father. The remaining members of his family are: Louis W., Mary Ella, of Chicago, Dr. John B. of Champaign, Clyde C. of Chicago. Two of these are teachers in the public schools, one a physician and the other an attorney at law. Truly the sacrifices of parsonage life are often atoned for by its moral and educational standards.

He died September 5, 1926, at Chicago, Ill. Funeral services were held in the Irving Park M. E. Church of Chicago, on September 7, 1926, at 2:30 p. m., in charge of the Pastor, Dr. Fred D. Stone, assisted by Rev. Geo. C. Carswell. On Wednesday, September 8, 1926, the remains were taken to Bloomington, Ill., and interred in the Bloomington Cemetery, after a brief service in the Chapel of the Cemetery, conducted by Dr. Frank McCarty, Pastor of the First M. E. Church, assisted by Dr. Chris Galeener and Rev. E. V. Young.

EDWIN KIMBER CREWS.

February 14, 1863, Edwin K. Crews was born in Cass County, Illinois, Sunday evening, November 15, 1925, he went home, having served as a minister of the Gospel in the Methodist Episcopal Church for thirty-four years. His death was caused by heart trouble from which he had suffered for some time. On February 8, 1888, he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Harris of El Paso, Texas. He is survived by his wife, who not only had been an efficient life-long companion and helper, but who still is carrying on for Christ in her own home, having pointed more than 50 souls to Christ and the fuller life since her husband left her.

The following pastorates were filled by Rev. Edwin K. Crews: Rec. on trial Ill. Conf. 1891-4, Shelbyville, Moulton; 1895-6, Danville, Lincoln; 1897-8, Mendon; 1899, Shelbyville, Moulton; 1900, Windsor; 1901-4, Fisher; 1905-8, Bellflower; 1909-10, Pleasant Plains; 1911-12, Hammond; 1913-14, Niantic; 1915-16, Cowden; 1917, Latham; 1918-20, Arthur; 1921-23, Stewardson; 1924, Findlay; 1925, R'd Decatur.

Rev. Crews graduated from the Illinois Wesleyan University. He was well trained, and was a lover of the best literature. He had selected a great variety of the best books, having in his possession at his death one of the best working libraries in the Illinois Conference. Hanging on the walls of his home, 1160 West Eldorado Street, Decatur, Illinois, are some rare pictures, and on his shelves and mantel are some curios in brass, pottery and pewter of beautiful design and of intrinsic worth. Brother Crews was a lover of the beautiful, and spent goodly sums of money to ornament his home, and to furnish his book-shelves.

The outstanding feature in the career of Rev. Crews was his evangelistic spirit. Not a pastorate was served by him and his good wife without scores and sometimes more than a hundred conversions in a single year. In his big revival in Niantic, 1915-16, he had 173 conversions.

Rev. Crews was brotherly. The men of the conference loved him for his good fellowship. Open, sincere, trustful, humble, his going beckons us on into the glory of the radiant brotherhood above.

Funeral services were conducted on November 17 in the funeral chapel in Decatur in charge of Rev. A. M. Wells, Dist. Supt., and participated in by several other members of the Conference. A second service was held at Garner Chapel, near Virginia, Illinois, where several members of the Conference took part. His body was laid in its final resting place in the Garner Chapel Cemetery.

CHARLES HOLMES DAVIS.

Charles Holmes Davis was born near Carlyle, Illinois, December 30, 1869, and died at his home in Lake Helen, Florida, January 11, 1926.

He was a son of the manse, his father being a member of Southern Illinois Conference, and he himself was for more than thirty years a Methodist itinerant.

He was married April 8, 1896, to Ada Anderson of Butler, Ill., who is left with two daughters and two sons to cherish the memory of a good husband and splendid father.

He entered Illinois Conference in 1895, and served the following appointments: Summit Grove, Summer Hill, Beverly, Chapin, Meredosia, Griggsville, Nokomis, Missionary to Mexico, Metcalf, Jacksonville Circuit, New Holland, Bowen, San Jose, Mahomet, and as Field Worker for the Anti-Saloon League. His work was always characterized by evangelistic zeal and no drudgery was too heavy to be carried for the sake of the kingdom and the church. He was also a good financier and paid several worrying debts on Churches which he served.

His Christian experience was remarkable in that, as he was fond of saying, he never knew when he was converted but could not remember a time when he was not a son of God. And his life and spirit exemplified this testimony.

CHARLES M. ELLIS.

Rev. Charles M. Ellis was born at Woollam, Mo., on October 3, 1865, and died at Springfield, Ill., September 2, 1926. Born in a Christian home and reared by Christian parents he was led early in life to live a Christian life. While yet a young man he was soundly converted at Herman, Mo., and united with the Methodist Episcopal church of which he was a faithful member until his death. In July, 1893, he was united in marriage with his now bereaved wife Emma, nee Muri, of Jamestown, Mo. This happy union was blessed with one son and three daughters one of which, Esther, preceded the father in death six years ago. For many years Brother Ellis served as Circuit Clerk of Herman, Mo. During this time he served the church as Sunday School Superintendent, Steward and Trustee. Later he devoted his life to education. For a number of years he was instructor in one of our Methodist Schools in Kansas. Feeling the call to the ministry in later years, he entered the St. Louis German Conference in 1922 and served Hermon, Mo., four years and Springfield, Ill., two years. In September, 1925, he transferred, with the merging of the St. Louis German Conference with the English-speaking conference, into the Illinois Conference, but was left without appointment because of his physical condition. As pastor and preacher Brother Ellis was conscientious and sincere. He was well liked and successful in all his church activities. About a year ago he began to ail. All that was possible was done to prolong his life but to no avail. He fell asleep on September 2, 1926, and leaves besides his bereaved wife, one son and two daughters, besides a large number of other relatives and friends to mourn his death. A funeral service in charge of Dr. C. F. Buker, Pastor of the First M. E. Church, was held in Springfield, Ill. Rev. J. C. Brown, Rev. F. D. Rademacher and Dr. L. E. Kettelkamp also taking part in the service. The body was taken to Jamestown, Mo., where on September 6th, under a very large attendance of relatives and friends it was buried. Rev. E. L. Rathert Pastor of the Church, had charge of the services and Dr. L. E. Kettelkamp gave the funeral address.

S. A. GOLDSMITH.

Another one of the early day settler of Jefferson County passed away in the person of Rev. Stephen A. Goldsmith.

Mr. Goldsmith was born in Belleville, Ontario, Canada, November 19, 1840, and died at the home of his niece, Mrs. W. H. Hansen, at Thompson, Nebr., May 29, 1926, age 85 years, 6 months and 10 days. He was one of a family of eight boys and two girls. Soon after the Civil war he came to the United States and in 1869 he came to this county, settling on the farm south of Fairbury that he still owned at the time of his death.

Before coming to the United States Mr. Goldsmith attended and graduated from the Toronto Normal School. He engaged in teaching in Canada for some time. After coming to the states he attended the Wesleyan University at Bloomington, Illinois, receiving his B. A. degree there. He afterwards attended the Drew Theological Seminary of New Jersey, securing his B. D. and M. A. degrees. He also taught school and devoted much of his time to the ministry since coming to the states. Among some of the places he served in this vicinity were Filley, Johnson, Graf and Odell. Mr. Goldsmith never married and for the past sixteen years he has made his home with his niece, Mrs. W. H. Hansen and family.

Surviving are his brother, A. W. Goldsmith of this city, a brother, James and a sister, Mrs. Jane Ross, both living in Canada.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. Church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30, Rev. Furman officiating and burial made in the Fairbury cemetery.

C. P. HARD.

The Rev. Clark P. Hard, who died at Zion City, Ill., on December 12, 1925, was a Methodist minister in active service for forty-one years. He began preaching at the age of seventeen in the year 1863, in western New York.

He was graduated from Genesee College, now Syracuse University, New York, in the year 1864, and from Garrett Biblical Institute in Evanston, Ill., in 1867.

He served churches at Rome, Hornellsville, Corning, Rochester and Castile. In 1874 he felt himself called to missionary work in India.

With one short intermission from that work he labored in India from 1874 to 1893. He was presiding elder of the Madras District and of the Central District of the South India Conference. He established or enlarged enterprises of the Methodist Church in India at Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, Katne, Jabalpur, Ajmere and Narsinghpur, in southern, western and central India. He penetrated to many regions never reached by any missionary before him. In some such places no missionary succeeded him for many years, but when his successors came they found large groups of converts practicing the Christian faith as he had delivered it to them.

He returned from India in 1893 and served several churches in Illinois until his retirement from the active ministry in 1904.

In Madras, India, in the year 1877, he married Lydia Van Someran, daughter of General William Van Someran of the British army. She shared all his religious activities for forty-five years. She died in Zion City in 1922.

Their one daughter, Gertrude, died in California in 1924. Mr. Hard is survived by his two sons, William and John Vincent.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Zion City on December 15, the Rev. Harold L. Brett, his pastor, officiating. The Chicago Methodist Preachers' Meeting was represented by Dr. Fred D. Stone. A message of appreciation for his lifework was read from the district superintendent, Dr. J. Hastie Odgers. The Rev. Thomas H. Nelson spoke on behalf of the local churches. Interment was in the Lake Mound Cemetery, where he was buried by the side of his wife.

JOHN A. LUCAS.

John A. Lucas was born May 16, 1852, in Ross County near Columbus, Ohio, a son of James and Rebecca Hedges Lucas.

In 1859 his parents moved from their Ohio farm to Homer, Champaign County, Illinois. John Lucas was reared on the farm, and at the age of 18 years he obtained a teacher's certificate. For a number of years he taught school in winter and farmed during the summer months. He attended a number of universities in Illinois (Illinois State Normal University, University of Illinois, Eastern Illinois Normal and the University of Chicago), receiving an M. A. degree from two of them. In 1893 he graduated from the Garrett Biblical Institute and later received the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

He entered the ministry at Danville in the Danville Circuit of the Illinois Methodist Conference. After a year and a half he was transferred to the Southwest Kansas Conference and held pastorates at Kingman and Harper, Kansas. Pastorates at Manhattan, Illinois, New Lenox, Harvey, Saybrook, Gibson City, Carlinville and Clinton followed. He left the Clinton pastorate to become superintendent of the I. O. O. F. Orphans Home at Lincoln, Illinois, nearly 21 years ago. He remained here until his death.

His work as superintendent of this Children's Home became a most unusual ministry. To the nearly 200 children gathered there, he was a father—a father to the fatherless. He cared for their bodies, so that they were well fed, well dressed, healthy. He cared for their minds, selecting the best teachers to be found anywhere, developing the school until it was a model of educational efficiency. He cared for their souls, teaching them by precept and example of the Savior Christ who loved the children. One of the delightful features about the pastorate of the First Methodist Church in Lincoln was the godly company of well behaved boys and girls from the Home who always attended the morning worship. All over these United States are successful men and women who owe their high ideals to the years they spent under the loving Christ-like care given them by Doctor Lucas.

Though Dr. Lucas, as superintendent of the Home, was out of the active itinerancy, nevertheless, he never lost his interest in the church. Generally he would attend the Annual Conference Session and always he was active in the work of the local church to which he belonged. It was with deep regret to him and his friends, that he never lived to worship in the beautiful new church edifice at Lincoln, in which he was so vitally interested and where his funeral services were held.

Doctor Lucas married Clara Little at Tilton who preceded him in death in 1893 at Harvey. Three children survive this union. They are Fred A. Lucas, Bloomington; Orville C. Lucas, Oshkosh, Wis.; Mrs. Nellie Forsythe, Grand Forks, N. D.

In 1895 he married Josephine Rodman at Saybrook, Illinois.

He was active in Odd Fellow circles, serving as Grand Master of the state in 1905 and in 1906 and 1907 was state representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge. He was appointed Grand Chaplain of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1907 and served until 1924 when he was made Grand Chaplain Emeritus.

Doctor Lucas was also a member of a number of other fraternal organizations.

In addition to his work at the Orphans Home and in state and national Odd Fellow circles, Doctor Lucas was prominent in local civic affairs. He was formerly president of the Lincoln city board of education, also first president of the community high school board, a director in the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Kiwanis Club.

He passed away Aug. 19, 1926, after an illness of four months. Funeral services were held in the First Methodist Church in charge of the Reverend A. R. Grummon. Burial was made in the Union Cemetery at Lincoln.

JOHN WESLEY MILLER.

John Wesley Miller was born in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, September 19, 1847, and died at his home in Bloomington, Illinois, March 3, 1926. He grew to manhood in Iowa, and followed the trade of a carpenter until he entered the Iowa Wesleyan University. He was a junior when the Civil War broke out and he enlisted in Co. H, Third Iowa Cavalry, in which he served during the war.

After his discharge he came to Shelbyville, Illinois, where he was married to Miss Elizabeth Ellen Jones. He helped to build Moulton Church, Shelbyville, and became an active member. Here he heard the call to preach and joined the Illinois Conference in 1882. He served the following charges: Marshall Circuit, West York, Toledo, Mattoon Circuit, Astoria, Shelbyville Circuit, Vermilion, Grandview, Champaign Circuit, Ludlow and Bloomington Circuit. He retired from the active ministry in 1904 on account of his wife's health and located in Bloomington.

Labor did not cease with his retirement. He worked at his old trade as carpenter, preached on Sundays, preached and helped in other ways in the Home Sweet Home Mission, was deeply and actively interested in all the work of First Church and was a tower of strength to its pastors. He was an active member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was for many years Chaplain of the William T. Sherman Post, was for one term its Commander and at the time of his death was Chaplain of both the Post and the Department of the State of Illinois. He was also a member of the I. O. O. F.

Funeral services were held in the First Church, Bloomington, Illinois, March 5, conducted by the pastor, Rev. F. A. McCarty, assisted by the District Superintendent, Rev. F. A. Havighurst; Rev. Christie Galeener, under whose pastorate Brother Miller entered the ministry, and Rev. William Shelper, superintendent of the Home Sweet Home Mission. The G. A. R. rendered their beautiful service. The body was laid to rest in Evergreen Cemetery.

He is survived by four sons and one daughter, William P. of Woodstock, George W. of Chicago, T. R. of St. Louis, Prof. Ray N. of Emporia, Kansas, and Miss Maye Miller, who has lived with and cared for her father since the death of Mrs. Miller thirteen years ago.

WILLIAM NEWTON RUTLEDGE.

William Newton Rutledge was born June 3, 1844, to Rev. and Mrs. George Rutledge in the Methodist parsonage at Greenfield, Illinois. His father was for thirty-six years a member of the Illinois Conference. His mother's father, Wesley Mathers, was named for and baptized by John Wesley, the founder of Methodism.

For eight years he attended the grade schools of Jacksonville and heard the Lincoln-Douglas Debate there in 1860. In 1861 at the great Republican meeting at Springfield he shook hands with President Lincoln.

He was message boy in Governor Yates' office during the first months of the Civil war, and went into the service in the 145th Illinois Regiment.

He graduated from Illinois Wesleyan University in 1862, received his Masters degree in 1869, entered Garrett Biblical Institute the same year and finished the three year course in two years without a vacation, graduating June 29, 1871. At Illinois Wesleyan he was a schoolmate of Bishop Harzell and Governor Fifer.

He joined the Illinois Conference in 1871, the year of the death of his father. Thus as he said, "My home has been fixed every year of my life by the Bishops of the Church."

He was married September 29, 1880, to Miss Emma Luconia Hammel at Lynnville, Illinois. To them were born two children, George, now of Cambridge, Mass., and Margaret, of Champaign.

During thirty years in the pastorate he served the following charges: West Jacksonville Circuit, Greenfield, Petersburg, Alexander, Waverly Circuit, North Jacksonville Circuit, Griggs Chapel, Chatham, Buffalo, White Hall, Barry and Versailles. For the following ten years he was Chaplain at the Southern Illinois Penitentiary at Chester.

He superannuated at Champaign in 1911 after being in active service for 40 years. Besides his father, two uncles and three cousins were also Methodist ministers.

Brother Rutledge reached his home eternal Saturday morning, June 26th, at 3 o'clock. One brother, Charles, of Chicago, and one sister, Clara, of Jacksonville, his wife and two children survive.

Funeral services were held Monday, June 28th, from the home, Rev. Paul J. Snyder, Associate Minister, Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, in charge; Dr. A. K. Byrns, District Superintendent, assisting.

HENRY SCHUTZ.

The Rev. Henry Schutz, District Superintendent of the Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society for sixteen years, died at Springfield, Ill., on January 12, at the age of 82 years. He had been connected with the ministry and church work for more than sixty-two years.

Mr. Schutz was born in the Province of Westphalia, Germany, in October of 1843. In 1851 his father brought the family to America, settling at Peru, Ill. The family joined the German Methodists, and the son, Henry, remained affiliated with that denomination throughout his life. After going to school for a time in Peru, Mr. Schutz learned the cooper's trade, and latter went to Quincy College. Then the Civil War came on and the college was abandoned.

Mr. Schutz entered the conference at Rockford in 1863, and was sent to Oconomowoc, Wis. The same year he was married to Miss Mary Funk.

With his wife, Mr. Schutz spent three years in Wisconsin, then two years at Valparaiso, Ind., as an instructor in the Male and Female College there. Later he served as pastor in Muscatine, Ia.; St. Louis, Alton, Quincy, Edwardsville, and his last pastorate was at Nash Memorial Church, Springfield. He was president of the German College at Mount Pleasant, Ia., for two years, and at one time district superintendent at Quincy.

Brother Schutz was one of four brothers, all ministers. One of them was drowned when just ready to begin his active work as a minister, the other three brothers rendered over a century and a half of service in the Christian ministry. At the time of the merger of the St. Louis German Conference with the English Conference, Brother Schutz and his wife came into membership of First Church, Springfield, Ill.

The funeral service was held on the afternoon of January 14 from First Church, with the Rev. C. F. Buker in charge, assisted by the Rev. C. F. Juvinal and the Rev. A. H. F. Hertzler, friends of the family. Mr. Schutz is survived by his wife, two daughters, and three sons, one brother, and two sisters.

JOHN S. SMITH.

John Spencer Smith, son of S. O. and Anna Smith, was born December 2, 1865, at Carrollton, Illinois. He received his education in the Carrollton schools and the DePauw University. He was converted in 1886, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church on Easter Sunday, 1890.

September 17, 1889, he was united in marriage with Miss Nellie Meldrum of Carrollton. Three of their children died in infancy. One son, George, of Robinson, Illinois, remains to comfort the faithful companion of more than 36 years. There is one grandson, three brothers, two sisters and his aged father now living.

Brother Smith joined the Illinois Conference in 1892, and for more than a third of a century faithfully served his Master as a Methodist preacher. This conscientious, Godfearing minister, like his Lord, went about doing good. He labored through the years in the following fields, during which time for a number of years he was Treasurer of the Conference, filling that trying position in an honorable and acceptable manner: Chesterfield, Topeka, Greenfield Circuit, Auburn, Rochester, Buffalo, Heyworth, Newman, Camp Point, Waverly, Mahomet, Warrensburg, East Lynn, Catlin and Edinburg. As a pastor he was greatly beloved wherever he went, but nowhere more than in Edinburg where it became his lot to lay down the armor. These good people did all in their power to minister in time of need to their beloved pastor, who so tenderly ministered to them for two years. From the earliest indications of failing health, some months ago, to the end they have labored night and day to make the way as comfortable and easy as possible, both for him and his faithful wife, who has been strengthened to an unusual degree to attend to his every want through these long weeks. May God's rich blessings rest upon this church and these loving friends, and bring forth fruit a hundred-fold from the pastorate of Brother Smith, who November 16 peacefully slipped from his earthly ministry to his eternal reward.

I will not eulogize this man. The life that needs this is seldom worthy of it; and the one that is worthy, as his surely has been, does not need it. It seems to me that it is not over-stating his merits to use Paul's words in connection with Brother Smith, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith."

The loved one, sorrowing today, I would commend to our Heavenly Father, to Whom we must commit our brother, "Loved long since and lost awhile," "Till the day breaks and the shadows flee away." Till then, may God's sustaining grace enable you to trustingly say,

"Oh Lord! into Thy mighty hand I creep like bird distressed,
That seeks for shelter in the storm from wind-blown nest.
And why the storm on me so fiercely breaks, I do not know,
I only feel there is no one but Thee where I can go.

"So nestled closely in Thy hand, the Father's hand, I rest and sleep;
There is no need that I should plead that Thou wilt guard and safely keep.
I am so tired; Thou knowest all my heartaches and my loss;
I place them all in Thy great Providence beside the cross.

So let it be. Here I shall rest content.
Nor gloom nor pall can harm my life,
Since Thy great loving hand is over all."

W. W. THEOBALD.

Rev. Walter William Theobald—citizen, preacher, Christian—died at his home in Decatur, Illinois, on Sunday, June 20, 1926, at 6:40 o'clock in the evening after a prolonged illness.

He was born in Glenmore, New York, on August 26, 1861, and was almost 65 years of age at the time of his death. His parents were English emigrants, settling in New York State, where they lived out their lives. The subject of this sketch was the oldest of thirteen children and the Godly teachings and influences of these parents resulted in every one of these children becoming Christians and active in church work.

Early in life he addicted himself to studious habits and not only completed the course of studies in the common schools, but was also a graduate of the old Cazenovia Seminary or Academy at Cazenovia, New York. Later he graduated from the Business College at Utica, New York. And coming west he attended the Valparaiso University at Valparaiso, in Indiana, and then taught school for several years in the state of Michigan near Traverse City. He completed the work at Valparaiso having achieved the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science. For one year he held the position of principal in the North Sangamon Academy at Indian Point, which was near Petersburg, Illinois.

During his days as a student at Valparaiso he met Miss Mary Z. Mead and on December 20, 1888, their marriage occurred. Five children were born to them and it was a great joy that all five of them were permitted to attend his bedside and minister to him in these last days. One of the greatest ambitions of his life came to full fruition in the completion of full college courses by each of his five sons and daughters. No prince was ever more proud of his possessions than this man was of his children.

These children are Rev. Walter B. Theobald, a member of the Illinois Annual Conference and Pastor of the Church at Fisher, Ill.; Miss Effie Theobald, an instructor in the Decatur High School; Dr. Paul K. Theobald, of Oakland, California; Miss Ora M. Theobald, teaching in the Chicago Heights High School, and Miss Grace Theobald, also a teacher in the High School at Maroa, Illinois.

As stated he was the oldest of thirteen children and seven of these brothers and sisters survive him, namely: A. D. Theobald, Cuyler, N. Y.; G. G. Theobald, Herkimer, N. Y.; Mrs. F. W. Simpson, Illion, N. Y.; Mrs. Mabel T. Currin, Syracuse, N. Y.; Francis E. Theobald, Potsdam, N. Y.; Frederick G. Theobald, Utica, N. Y., and Mrs. William Murphy, Ava, N. Y.

In the early days of Walter William Theobald he professed conversion and became a member of the church and to him there was a sure reality in his religion and he took life's responsibilities with all seriousness and steadily gave himself to the life and service of his Christ. In June of 1891 he was given an exhorter's license which was signed by Rev. G. W. Dungan, and in August of the same year he was recommended by the Athens Quarterly Conference and was granted a local preacher's license which was signed by Dr. W. N. McElroy. He was received on trial in the Illinois Annual Conference in September of 1891 and for thirty-four years accepted each year his assignment to an appointment and served without break until his retirement, which occurred in 1925. Having carried the Conference course of study he was ordained Deacon by Bishop Charles H. Fowler, in 1893, and in 1895 was ordained Elder by Bishop Isaac W. Joyce.

During these thirty-four years of Conference membership in the Effective relation he served the following pastoral charges: Atwater Circuit, Edinburg Circuit, Raymond, Chatham, Auburn, Mt. Pulaski, Decatur Circuit, Williamsville, Winchester, Park Church, Bloomington; Brooklyn Church, Jacksonville; Illiopolis, Maroa and Palmyra. His retirement was occasioned only because of disability produced by serious ill health. The thirty-four years of ministerial service was characterized by deep earnestness and conviction and his constant and devoted activity bore rich fruitage to the Church and the Kingdom which he loved.

While he was not especially classed as an evangelistic pastor yet in all his appointments he was successful in revival enterprise and many were the converts that he secured. At Elwin, one of the points on the former Decatur circuit, he led in the building of the commodious new Church and after the building enterprise was successfully completed he directed a revival campaign which proved to be one of the greatest religious awakenings that ever came to that community, resulting in more than eighty conversions. The congregation at Divernon was organized by Brother Theobald and the church there was built under his ministerial leadership.

During these years of his ministry he was esteemed highly by the brethren of the ministry and held in an unusually splendid way the confidence of all who knew him.

His legacy to his children is a knightly honor, an unimpeachable integrity, a good name, an example in righteousness, and the memory of a vicarious service in which he poured out all his ability and his strength for the service of his Lord and the needs of their childhood years. His was a princely soul!

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, June 22, at 2:30 p. m. in the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Decatur, Illinois, and were conducted by District Superintendent A. M. Wells, assisted by Revs. A. S. Chapman, C. R. Morrison, R. Y. Williams, Fred W. Ingvaldstad, F. A. McCarty, W. J. Davidson, H. W. McPherson, J. E. Reynolds and W. P. Bowman. Thirty-three members of the Conference attended the funeral services. The burial was in Fairlawn Cemetery, Decatur, Illinois.

JOSEPH W. VAN CLEVE.

Joseph W. Van Cleve, for years one of the leading members of the Illinois Conference, and one of the leading men of the whole denomination, died in his home in Evanston, Ill., June 29, after a prolonged illness extending over several years. Dr. Van Cleve was born in Macoupin County, Illinois, February 19, 1859. He was the son of the Rev. Wilham and Sarah (Calloway) Van Cleve. He received his training for the ministry in McKendree College, from which institution he was graduated, and joined the Southern Illinois Conference on trial in 1880. He was received into full connection and ordained deacon in 1882 in Bishop Simpson and ordained elder in 1884 by Bishop Foster. He served nine charges in the Southern Illinois Conference, closing his work as pastor of Summit Avenue, East St. Louis, of which church he was pastor five years.

He was transferred to the Illinois Conference in 1902, serving as pastor of Paris, Grace, Decatur; First, Champaign, and as superintendent of the Decatur District. On coming to the Illinois Conference he was instantly recognized as a leader of his brethren and was repeatedly honored by them and always greatly beloved. He was elected delegate to the General Conference in 1896, 1900, 1908, 1912, 1916 and 1920, and was four times leader of his conference delegation. He served as secretary of the Commission on Finance, in which relation he was largely responsible for the unification of the boards of benevolences. He was also secretary of the Chicago area, a member of the Epworth League Board of Control and a member of the Board of Conference Claimants from its beginning in 1908 until his retirement in 1922, when he made his home in Evanston.

On September 17, 1882, he was married to Rachel Annis Talley. The children are: Arthur Van Cleve, Evanston; Mrs. Edgar H. Allen, Decatur; Luella and Ethel Van Cleve, Evanston. There are also two grandchildren.

Brief private services were held in Evanston on Wednesday, June 30, conducted by the Rev. C. M. Barton, followed by services in Grace Church, Decatur, July 1, in charge of the Rev. T. N. Ewing, assisted by Dr. Christie Galeener and the Rev. Wilbert Dowson, pastor of Grace Church, in which church Dr. Van Cleve had a long and eventful pastorate. Burial was in Fairlawn Cemetery, Decatur.

Dr. Van Cleve was a strong, logical and convincing preacher. He was also a hard-working, conscientious pastor, building up the churches everywhere and so thoroughly understood the genius of the Methodist itinerancy that he was always a wise and popular leader. Illinois Methodism is especially debtor to his long and constructive ministry and Methodists everywhere who knew him greatly miss this far-seeing, church-building pastor and preacher and statesman of Methodist affairs.

L. F. WALDEN.

Lewis F. Walden was born in Monroe County, Indiana, June 5, 1833, at the time of his death being 92 years, 9 months and 26 days old. He was converted in Randolph County, Missouri, in August, 1850. Soon after he was definitely called to the ministry and joined the Missouri Conference on probation at Hannibal in May, 1858. He was ordained deacon in the Methodist Episcopal Church by Bishop Ames at Macon City, Missouri, in May, 1860. Three years later he was ordained an elder by the same bishop at Lawrence, Kansas. His ministry not only extended over a long number of years, but also touched a wide range of territory in different conferences. The following appointments were served by Brother Walden during his active ministry.

(See Conference Minutes for 1925-26 for these appointments.)

In 1901 he retired from the active ministry and located at Urbana, where he made his home until the hour of his death.

On November 2, 1853, he was united in marriage with Miss Kate Koffman. They had nine children, three of whom died in infancy, one daughter, Alice, and the mother preceding the father in death by ten years. The following daughters remain: Mrs. J. M. Collison, Los Angeles, California; Mrs. Charles VanValer of Gas City, Indiana; Mrs. Ed. Bacon of Long Beach, California; Mrs. C. R. Sweet, Champaign, and Mrs. G. W. Easterbrook of Urbana. Interment was made in Woodlawn Cemetery.

M. P. WILKIN.

Milton Perry Wilkin, fifth son and eighth child of Isaac and Sarah Burner Wilkin, was born August 17, 1846, at Mount Pleasant, Crawford County, Illinois. He attended school at the place of his birth. He was converted and united with the Methodist Church at a regular Sunday evening service, May 5, 1863. He was licensed to preach at Lebanon, May 29, 1869. He graduated from McKendree College in 1870. He took his master's degree at Chattanooga College in 1873 and was granted a D.D. at Chaddock College in 1897. He was admitted on trial to the Southern Illinois Conference at Cairo in 1871. He was ordained deacon in 1873 and elder in 1875. He transferred to the Illinois Conference in 1882. During his active ministry he served the following charges:

(See Conference Minutes for 1925-26.)

He was placed on the superannuated list at Mattoon in 1909. He died at Florida, April 15, 1926, and was buried from the Trinity M. E. Church on April 17. His wife and companion for many years had preceded him in death only two months. They have continued their happy fellowship in the kingdom above.

MRS. M. G. COLEMAN.

Annie Kirkpatrick Coleman, wife of the Rev. M. G. Coleman, died suddenly at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. N. Hazzard, Lake Charles, Louisiana, Sunday, November 22, 1925. Her husband was en route to Lake Charles by automobile expecting to arrive Thanksgiving day and spend the winter with Mrs. Coleman, who had been in poor health for some time. Monday night, while at a hotel in Rosedale, Mississippi, he received the sad intelligence of her departure.

Mrs. Coleman was born in Alton, Illinois, May 19, 1856, the daughter of Samuel D. Kirkpatrick and Mary Elworthy Kirkpatrick. She came from a fine old Southern Illinois family—a family of abolitionists and strong temperance proclivities.

The Kirkpatricks were all Methodists and strong temperance people. Mrs. Coleman was for many years one of Piatt County's most popular and successful school teachers, specializing in primary work. For twelve years she taught in the old Romeo Building near the present site of the public library, and was elected by acclamation by the board from year to year. For two years she taught primary work in the Piatt County Institute and two years in the Covington, Indiana, Normal School.

December 29, 1891, she was married to the Rev. Matthew G. Coleman of the Illinois Conference and for thirty-four years had been a faithful companion and assistant in her husband's fields of labor in the Methodist ministry. She was of a quiet and gentle disposition, tender and patient and greatly beloved by all who knew her. Certainly a rare and beautiful spirit has gone out from the Church Militant to join the Church Triumphant which is without fault before the throne of God.

She leaves to mourn her departure a sister, Mrs. E. N. Hazzard, of Lake Charles, Louisiana; the husband, Rev. M. G. Coleman; a son, M. Kirk Coleman, of Danville, and a daughter, Dorothy M. Coleman, of Prescott, Arizona.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist Church at Monticello Friday, November 27, 1925, with the pastor, Rev. G. W. Flagge, in charge. He was assisted by Rev. Dr. A. K. Byrns of Champaign, who offered prayer; the Revs. A. N. Simmons and R. Y. Williams of Cerro Gordo, who read the Scriptures, and Rev. Dr. H. C. Gibbs of Decatur, an old friend of the family, who delivered the discourse. The pallbearers were Charles Hazzard, Will Lodge, James Lodge, F. V. Dilatush, W. Piatt Smith and Harry Kaiser. Many friends from former charges of Rev. Coleman were present.

Interment was in the Monticello Cemetery.

"Some day the bell will sound
Some day my heart will bound
And with a shout
That school is out
And lessons done
I homeward run."

MRS. SARAH A. ECKMAN.

Mrs. Sarah A. Eckman, widow of the late Rev. J. W. Eckman, was born March 12, 1846, in Payson, Adams County, Illinois. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. James Honley and she was the youngest of four children, she being the only daughter. She attended school in Payson and finished her education in the schools of Quincy.

In her younger days she was a splendid musician and possessed a beautiful voice, and this accomplishment was a great help to her husband in his early ministry.

Sarah A. Honley and Rev. J. W. Eckman were united in marriage at Quincy, Illinois, December 5, 1867, the ceremony being said by the Rev. J. C. Sargent.

Eight children were born to them and all survive. They are E. S. Eckman, M. H. Eckman, W. R. Eckman, Miss Anna E. Eckman and Mrs. Beulah Zetterlind, living in Decatur, and Mrs. Mamie E. Walker of Bloomington, Illinois; W. D. Eckman of Elkhart, Indiana, and Dr. J. W. Eckman of Winchester, Illinois.

All of the children and many friends gathered in the home in Decatur in 1917 and the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding was celebrated.

Rev. J. W. Eckman died on October 8, 1919, and his body was buried in Fairlawn Cemetery, Decatur, Illinois. The funeral services for Mrs. Eckman were conducted in the family home at 443 North Edward Street, Decatur, and were in charge of District Superintendent A. M. Wells, who was assisted by Rev. H. C. Gibbs and Rev. F. W. Ingvolstad. Her body was laid beside that of her husband in Fairlawn Cemetery, Decatur.

Mrs. Eckman was a true helpmate and faithful companion to her husband and a loving and devoted mother, yet she was always patient and sweet and never offered complaint through the years of her illness. When the end came she called the children to her bedside and told each goodbye, stating that "Papa" had come for her.

MRS. J. B. MARTIN.

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Martin, wife of Rev. Joseph B. Martin, died on December 13, 1925, at her home in Atwood, Illinois. Mrs. Martin was the daughter of A. F. and Jane McAllister. She was born on April 9, 1853, in Newport, Indiana. She was united in marriage to Rev. Joseph B. Martin on October 29, 1872. At the time of their marriage Mr. Martin was the pastor of the Newman Circuit.

Seven children were born to them, five of them surviving.

Mrs. Martin was a good wife, sharing courageously the multiplied duties that fell to their lot. Rev. J. B. Martin was for years a member of the Illinois Annual Conference. Mrs. Martin was a tireless worker in the Missionary Society. She educated a number of boys in the foreign field. She was a charter member of the W. F. M. S. of Atwood, Macedonia and Lake Fork and all these societies will greatly miss the loyal and constant leader in their missionary activities.

Mrs. Martin was in failing health for the twelve months preceding her death and during the last six months she suffered great pain, yet in the midst of her suffering, she would speak of the joys of missionary service. She was 72 years of age at the time of her death. Funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Atwood, conducted by her pastor, Rev. B. H. Pinkston, who was assisted by Rev. G. N. Wilkerson and Rev. G. W. Rippy. She was laid to rest beside the body of her husband in the Atwood Cemetery.

MRS. M. E. HOBART.

Mrs. Meeda Hobart, wife of Rev. M. E. Hobart, died at 9:20 o'clock last evening, April 13, 1926, at the family home, 702 East Oregon Street, after an illness of six months.

Meeda, fifth daughter of Henry and Martha Crum, was born January 10, 1867, near Cooks Mills, Coles County, where she grew to womanhood. On December 25, 1888, she was united in marriage to M. E. Hobart, who was at that time a student at Greencastle, Ind. After a brief residence in Greencastle while Mr. Hobart was finishing his studies she, with her husband, entered into the rather arduous labors of the Methodist itineracy. In the fall of 1891 they went to Brocton, Ill., as their first appointment and for twenty-one years were engaged in the active ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

They came to Urbana in the fall of 1911 and have resided here ever since. In the early days of her life Mrs. Hobart united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Greencastle, Indiana, and had ever remained a devout member of the same. She was especially active in the work of the Home and Foreign Missionary Societies.

Besides her husband she leaves three sons to mourn her passing, Paul R. of Long Beach, California; Ralph R. of Des Moines, Iowa, and Hugh G. of Champaign.

Funeral services will be held at the Renner home Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Burial will be made in Woodlawn Cemetery.

MRS. JOHN MILTON JUDY.

Myrtle Florence Fairchild Judy was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Fairchild of Vermilion County, Illinois. Her grandfather was Daniel Fairchild, an early settler who had much to do with moulding the early history of Vermilion County. "He was a pioneer Methodist preacher, indefatigable in his labors for the moral uplift of his community. Fairchild Chapel, an influential rural church near Danville, Illinois, was the outcome of his labors. The father of Mrs. Judy was a stalwart man, trusted and highly respected by his neighbors, faithful and devoted to his church, taking a leading part in every department of religious work, serving as class-leader, trustee and steward, covering a period of more than 50 years. The mother of Mrs. Judy was a woman of charming personality, quiet, dignified, and a dynamo of energy, the mother of thirteen children, one dying in infancy. Mrs. Judy was the first of the twelve to be called by death."

For 25 years Mrs. Judy was the faithful wife of a Methodist preacher, having been united in marriage to Rev. J. M. Judy in 1900. During many of the years she has been in failing health, her vitality being sapped by disease, and for this reason much of the time she has been unable to take on many of the burdens usually assumed by the wife of a Methodist minister. However, her faith in her Savior has been abiding, and her interest in the triumphs of Christ's Kingdom has been constant. Sunday evening, February 21, 1926, she departed this life, leaving the crumbled walls of her clay cottage for "A building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens."

Rev. J. M. Judy has arranged a memorial booklet for Mrs. Judy. Any one who desires to see a copy may have this privilege by writing to Rev. Judy, Decatur, Illinois. Excerpts from memorial letters, clippings from her own notebook and special messages by her daughter and husband constitute the subject matter. Mrs. Judy was a devoted Christian, a loving mother to her daughter Irene, a wise and good and beloved wife, and a warm and faithful friend. She was the sister of Reverends Roscoe and Wilber D. Fairchild.

Funeral services were held on February 23 in funeral chapel in Decatur conducted by Rev. A. M. Wells, District Superintendent, assisted by Revs. H. C. Gibbs and Fred W. Ingvaldstad, and a second service was held in Danville, conducted by Rev. T. N. Ewing. A number of ministers were in attendance at each place. Her body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Danville, Illinois.

MRS. J. B. MARTIN.

Sarah Elizabeth McAllister, daughter of A. F. and Jane McAllister, was born April 9, 1853, at Newport, Ind. She was one of seven children, six girls and one boy. The oldest sister, Miss Emma McAllister, of Newman, Illinois, survives.

Her childhood was spent on a farm north of Newman. She was converted and joined the Methodist Church in her girlhood. On October 29, 1872, she was united in marriage to the Rev. Joseph B. Martin. To this union were born seven children. Mabel, Francis, Florence, Clarence and Mary survive her. Her husband died on August 6, 1919.

Mrs. Martin belonged to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society at Macedonia, Atwood and Lake Fork and was a charter member of these three societies. She educated a number of boys through her missionary zeal.

Mrs. Martin died on December 13, 1925, at her home in Atwood, Illinois. Funeral services were conducted by Pastors Pinkston, Wilkerson and Rippey. Interment was at Harshbarger.

MRS. H. G. WASS.

Nancy A. Wass, daughter of Joshua D. and America Francis Hazelrigg, was born in Nickolas County, Kentucky, March 14, 1852.

Educated in the vicinity of Lebanon, Indiana, where she gave her heart to Christ and united with the Presbyterian Church. Her family removed to Catlin vicinity some years later, where the years of her early womanhood were spent. Here she united with the Christian Church of Danville and later transferred to the Methodist Episcopal Church.

She was married to Henry G. Wass October 18, 1885. As the wife of a minister she shared his years of labor and struggles, bearing and rearing her family in the spirit and with the Christian forbearance of a true wife and mother.

Since 1903, upon her husband's retirement from the active ministry, she had lived in Catlin. A member of the Methodist Church, she participated in the activities of the church in so far as her physical strength permitted.

She departed this life at 9:50 p. m., January 25, 1926, at the age of 73 years, 10 months and 11 days.

Surviving are four children, Hazel Russell Wass of St. Louis, Harry G. Wass of Detroit, Jessie E. Wass of Indianapolis and Hal S. Wass of Detroit, as well as her husband, Rev. H. G. Wass, of Catlin.

A life of mental and physical activity, devotion to her friends, neighbors and her family, her readiness to help and serve will tend to emphasize her absence.

Green be the turf above thee,
 Friend of my better days,
 None knew thee but to love thee
 Or named thee but to praise.

MRS. A. A. WHITE.

Florence Ashill was born in Bridgewater, Somersetshire, England, February 9, 1859. She was educated in a private school in England and when 23 years of age she came to America. She was united in marriage with Rev. A. A. White in Brooklyn, N. Y., March 25, 1884. For a number of years she accompanied her husband in the work of an evangelist. In 1891 Rev. White was admitted to the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and appointed to Mendon. She was greatly interested in the work of the Church and was a helpmate indeed in the work of the ministry. They also served Paloma, Windsor, Marshall, Arcola, Farmer City, Jacksonville District and Kimber, Danville.

Two years ago Rev. White retired from the active work of the ministry on account of his wife's failing health, and they located in Normal. Here Mrs. White received every attention and care that loving devotion could render. Mrs. White and her husband went to Muncie, Ind., to spend the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. Maddux and family. The visit and change seemed to benefit her. She was taken suddenly worse, soon after the holiday festivities and died Monday evening, January 11, 1926. The body was brought back to her home, where the funeral services were held January 14, conducted by the Pastor, Rev. F. A. McCarty, assisted by Rev. A. L. Caseley of Tuscola and Dr. Christie Galeener of Bloomington, Ill.

Besides her husband, Mrs. White leaves three daughters, Mrs. Florence Gould, Normal, Ill.; Mrs. Pearl Roberts, Arcola, Ill., and Mrs. Joy Maddux, Muncie, Ind. There is also one sister, Mrs. Mina Mortimer, Virden, Ill. One daughter, Grace, died in childhood. Mrs. White was a member of the First Methodist Church at the time of her death.

Conference Rules

"1. The Conference shall meet at 8:15 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12 o'clock, noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

"2. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"3. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"4. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"5. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"6. No effective member of the Conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"7. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"8. All written motions, reports and communications to the Conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the Conference.

"9. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"10. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"11. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"12. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"13. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and, if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"14. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"15. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1) when a member has the floor, (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided, (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question, (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending, (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

"16. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"17. The mover of any question or resolution, that shall in any way place a financial obligation on the Conference or any member of the Conference or any church in the territory of the Conference, shall introduce the same before the Conference at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote on the same, and he shall post a duplicate typewritten copy of the same in a conspicuous place at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the Conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but, on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the Conference, and if the call be sustained by ——— members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than ———, may have their votes recorded by name.

"21. The District Superintendents shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the Conference in advance of the Conference Session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"22. Vacancies in the Conference Board of Trustees, the Conference Board of Stewards and the Conference Deaconess Board shall be filled by election of the Conference on nomination by the District Superintendents.

"23. All requests for special appointment shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

"24. The report of the committee on education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday of each session of the Conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

"25. The Statistical Secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the Conference Session immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"26. Each member in effective relation, and each supply, shall contribute a sum equal to the amount of 1-10 of 1 per cent of his cash salary to be applied as necessity may require to the purpose of securing expert accountants, or stenographers, or assistants, and for Secretarial Expenses.

"27. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the Conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

"28. These rules shall not be suspended except by a majority of all the members of the Conference."

XVII.

NINETEENTH ANNUAL MEETING LAYMAN'S ASSOCIATION ILLINOIS CONFERENCE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

September 17 and 18, 1926, Central Church, Mattoon, Illinois.
Friday Morning, September 17.

After joint devotions with ministers, Bishop W. P. Thirkield presiding, the association was called to order by President Musselman at 9:10 o'clock.

The first president of the association, Judge Cochran, being present was asked to come forward and also four other former presidents—Tarbox, Crawford, Kagey and Grimmett. Few organizations, nearly a score of years old, are favored with the presence of five past presidents.

During roll call by districts, W. F. Engle reported 19 present from Bloomington District; C. W. Groves 26 from Champaign-Danville; I. L. Long 22 from Decatur; J. E. McClure, in absence of Vice-President Thomas Hopper, 7 from Jacksonville; H. R. Snavelly 37 from Mattoon; C. W. Caughlan 23 from Quincy, and H. S. Wiley 20 from Springfield, a total of 154 in spite of the flooded condition of the country.

Principal S. A. D. Harry welcomed the association on behalf of Coles County, Mattoon and local Methodism. Coles County, named in honor of Edward Coles, governor of Illinois 1822-26, a good man, an abolitionist, a powerful factor in keeping Illinois a free state. Abraham Lincoln's father and stepmother lived and are buried in Coles County. Mattoon is a thriving Illinois town and the Methodist church, a working church whose members believe in practical and vital religion.

H. D. Lukenbill (Relator, Springfield) in response, expressed appreciation of the welcome extended, pictured the beauty of our country, the fortunate material and spiritual condition of our people, the need of a right attitude toward the church "more business in the church and more church in business."

Rev. Dr. Parker Shields (not on regular program) gave an appealing three minute talk: "I rejoice that I have had my birth in the 'Heart of America.' If you should draw a line from Pittsburg to the Canadian border, west to the Pacific, south to San Diego, east to the Atlantic, and then north to Pittsburg, you would encircle the 'Heart of America,' and in that vast territory there are 66 dry United States Senators and only 8 wet senators, and the 'Heart of America' will overwhelm all that is meant by 'The Wet New York Sector.'

"A ticket agent said to a W. C. T. U. worker, 'Tell me frankly if you think prohibition will win. So many great newspapers assail it. So many stories of increased drinking among women and young people. Do you think we will be forced to modify?' She noticed his American Legion button. He said he had sixteen months 'over there' with twelve months in the trenches. 'Tell me,' she said, 'did you doubt that the Allies would win as you were in the midst of all that you faced?' 'No,' he answered, 'I never doubted because I knew Uncle Sam would be able to 'carry on' until complete triumph came.' Then she answered, 'We are in another war and once more it is Uncle Sam who will 'carry on' until victory is complete.' His eyes flashed, his form was erect and his lips spoke. 'We will win this war against the moonshiner and the bootlegger, for Uncle Sam leads again'."

Reports of Officers.

President Musselman congratulated the Association upon the large number of delegates and visitors present, upon the activity of all the officers, upon the promising program and then called for report of Secretary-Treasurer which is as follows: Reading of minutes of last meeting may be dispensed with since they were published in Conference Journal and Year Book. One meeting of the Executive Committee and vice-presidents was held at which the policy of the association, finances, the constitution, coming program and other matters were discussed.

During the year the Secretary attempted to keep in touch with the membership. About 4,000 pieces of mail matter were sent out. Some time was spent in collecting past records of the association. Thanks to Brother Kagey and others, we now have a list of all officers for the 19 years of the existence of the organization and a copy of all minutes with the exception of the years 1912, 1913 and 1914, when if any records were kept, they were never published. Such records are valuable and it should be the duty of secretaries to see that they are preserved.

The Treasurer's books show receipts amounting to $325.35 and disbursements amounting to $312.85, leaving a balance of $12.50 in the treasury. The chief expenses were $100.00 sent to the treasurer of World Service in Chicago and $58.00 for printing minutes in Conference. The bulk of remaining expense was for postage, stationery, circulars and a small amount for clerical help. The Secretary-Treasurer appreciates the help and kind expressions of the other officers and members of the association.

The Vice-Presidents reported unusual activity in their districts. For Bloomington, Brother Engle reported one meeting at which the attendance was 130, though the day was the hottest of the season; for Champaign-Danville, Brother Groves told of two interesting meetings averaging about 40 present; because of ill health, Brother Long called no meeting in Decatur District; in absence of Vice-President Hopper, Judge Reeve told of a successful meeting in Jacksonville; for Mattoon, Judge Snavelly reported one meeting; for Quincy, Brother Caughlan a meeting in October which was well attended in spite of the unusually heavy snow fall; Brother Wiley reported the greatest activity with three meetings during the year, two at different churches in Springfield and one at Buffalo where 196 persons were present.

President Musselman appointed the following committees: Nominations, H. R. Snavelly, J. E. McClure, Mrs. Emma Jerman; Resolutions, I. E. Merritt, I. H. Neece, Mrs. Kate Pfitzenmeyer; Auditing, C. C. Grimmett, A. K. Gibson, B. F. Kagey.

Addresses.

N. F. Forsyth, Superintendent Calumet District, Council of Religious Education, gave address on "Need and Method of Religious Education."

"The need for religious education is as great as the need for religion. The church must teach parents to assume the primary obligation of teaching children religion. Next, Sunday Schools must use modern plants, methods and curricula to measure up to the opportunity and obligation. One hour a week is not enough. Week day religious schools must work together with the home for the religious nurture of the pupil, that children may be reared in democratic America who shall not be spiritual illiterates, but who shall have in them the mind of Christ."

On motion of Prof. C. L. Stewart, a vote of thanks was given to Mr. Forsyth.

Area Secretary Fairchild and Assistant Treasurer Barton presented World Service interests.

New Constitution.

Consideration of new constitution prepared by committee consisting of Blackstock, Grimmett and Crook was taken up article by article, copies having been distributed, and after a spirited discussion and amendments offered by Caughlan, Engle, Hough, Hunter, Kagey, Lukenbill, Reeve, Smedley, Snavelly, Wilson and Wiley, it was adopted as follows:

CONSTITUTION.

Article I—Name.

This association shall be called the Laymen's Association of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Article II—Purpose.

The purpose of the association is to awaken among our laymen, greater interest in our church; to increase knowledge of church affairs and needs and to aid our ministry in advancing God's Kingdom on earth.

Article III—Members.

The membership shall consist of the following persons: First, the delegates and the reserve elected once every four years by each church or charge to constitute the quadrennial lay electoral conference; second, delegates to any special lay conference; third, the annual delegate chosen from each charge at a quarterly conference, preferably the third, and who retains his membership until his successor is elected; fourth, the past and present officers of the association and the committees appointed at the annual meetings. All members of the association shall be members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Article IV—Officers.

The officers of the association shall be a president, a vice-president, a secretary, a treasurer and a chairman from each district. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be combined at the discretion of the association. Each conference district, at a district meeting, after having previously announced this purpose, may elect the chairman of its district.

The nominating committee, appointed by the presiding officer, will present the names of all officers to be voted upon on the first day of each annual session. Nominations may also be made by a member from the floor. A majority vote is necessary for election. The newly elected officers shall assume their duties at the close of the annual meeting at which they are chosen and perform them until the close of the next annual meeting.

Article V—Duties of Officers.

The president shall perform the duties that usually devolve upon the presiding officer and shall look after such interests of the church in all parts of the conference as may be strengthened and furthered for the welfare of the church and the glory of God.

Each district chairman shall perform the duties of a presiding officer, seek to promote the interests of the association in his own district and report his activities at the annual session.

The secretary and the treasurer shall perform the duties which are naturally implied in these offices and keep complete records which must be preserved and handed on to the officers succeeding them.

Article VI—Committees.

There shall be an executive committee consisting of the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and the seven district chairmen. This committee shall conduct the affairs of the association between annual meetings, arrange the time and place of such meetings, assist in preparing programs and attend to such duties as may aid in making the association a power for good in the conference. Committees on nomination, auditing, resolutions, etc., may be appointed as needed.

Article VII—Dues.

The annual dues shall be $1.00 from each charge in the conference.

Article VIII—Amendments.

This constitution may be amended at any session of the association, provided thirty day previous notice of the proposed amendment has been filed with the secretary who shall use his best endeavor to notify the members. A two third vote of all members, present and voting, is necessary for adoption.

Addresses Continued.

After noon recess, Brother Samuel Moore of Williamsville, lead devotions with the thought "I was glad when they said unto me, 'Let us go up into the house of the Lord'."

Charles L. Stewart, Chief of Agricultural Economics, University of Illinois, author of a valuable plan to afford relief from present unfortunate agricultural conditions, in speaking of relationship of religion to agricultural economics, said:

"In giving support to movements for social justice, the church need not overlook the situation of agriculture. The church is entitled to the benefit of the results of study by its own agencies of the moral and religious factors at stake in this situation. Economic practice needs religious impress increasingly."

Frank Anderson in discussion of this said: "The Christian ideal in business is not to take advantage of another's ignorance or weakness. In fact it is to rescue the perishing. Agriculture is perishing. In a family, if one member is sick every one tries to see that he gets well. So with the human family. If one class is distressed, it should have help. I agree with Professor Stewart.

Attorney Charles E. Howard, Instructor in University of Illinois, discussed "Christian Ideals in Business."

The past and probably the present general concept of property is incompatible with Christian doctrines.

It is materialistic and individual and has been a stumbling block in our attempt to apply the teachings of the Master in our group life. Such ideas rest upon the laws of brute creation and tend to stimulate the selfish motives of man. They assume that class conflict rather than class harmony is a fundamental human trait. It is an idea that property is a relationship of man to things rather than a relationship of man to man.

The more modern concept of property, namely that it is a relationship of man to man however is consistent with the Christian doctrine. This idea that property is not a physical thing but a human relation, lends itself to the application of the Christian theory of fellowship, brotherhood and mutual helpfulness. Under such philosophy, class struggle will become less common and human values will become actualities rather than platitudes. The universe is fundamentally a friendly order. This idea is working itself out in the business world. Human values are important factors in our corporate life. The many schemes now used to give labor a share in the control and management of his task are striking examples. The codes of merchants' organizations and the business principles of the United States Chamber of Commerce are other illustrations. Christian business men are collective, not private, for service and not for self.

In discussion H. F. Gollogher, banker, Taylorville, referred to change in attitude among many business men in the last 14 years. Where formerly bankers, merchants and other business men were jealous or distrustful, now a spirit of co-operation and confidence is more common. The Christian attitude of cheerfulness, hopefulness, confidence in ourselves and in others, courage to face difficulties, is becoming more the habit. Demand these things of ourselves and encourage them in others.

A. H. Haenig, electrical goods, Springfield, gave practical application referring to a church which still owed $300.00 to a former pastor who was greatly in need. God cannot give us his greatest blessings when we permit conditions such as this to exist.

B. F. Kagey—"The matter of Christian ideals in business can be considered at all times with this scripture in mind, 'Whatsoever you would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them'."

In reply to Brother Stewart's question as to good books on the subject, Brother Howard mentioned the following: Personal Administration, its Principles and Practice, (1920) O. Tead and H. C. Metcalf; Manual of Ethics, 2nd ed. John S. Mackenzie; A History of Trade Unionism in the United States (1922), Selig Perlman; Is Christianity Practicable (1918), W. A. Brown; Industrial Goodwill, (1919) J. R. Commons; The New Industrial Day (1913), W. C. Redfield; Bolshevism (1919), John Spargo; The Human Factory in Industry (1920) Frankel and Fleisher; A More Christian Industrial Order (1920), H. S. Coffin; The Economics of Jesus, E. Griffith Jones; Fundamental Legal Concepts, W. N. Hohfeld.

A. C. Callen, Professor Mining Engineering, University of Illinois, spoke on the Relation of Religion to Engineering.

Engineering has been defined as "The art of directing the great sources of power in nature for the use and convenience of man. The church should recognize the real service that is being rendered by those who are engaged in various forms of engineering work—whether as employer or employe. Religion knows no class distinction, and the church should endeavor to right industrial wrongs of whatever nature by insisting that mutual understanding based on the teachings of Jesus will prove a solution.

Mrs. Harris told of the work at the Cunningham Home and Mrs. Fields at the Chaddock Boys School. On motion of Kagey, it was voted to express our approval of this work.

District Chairmen.

Announcement was made of the election of the same men as district chairmen as were serving last year with the exception of Brother Hopper of the Jacksonville District who wished to be relieved. U. S. Marshall J. E. McClure of Carlinville was elected to succeed him.

Committee Reports.

I. E. Merritt, banker, Hoopeston, presented the following report of the resolutions committee:

RESOLVED, 1st—That we still have abiding faith in the 18th amendment but deplore the lax methods in some localities in law enforcement and deem it our duty as Christian people to not only help and assist the law enforcement body in every way, but to use our best endeavors to elect men that are dry for all offices;

2nd—WHEREAS, We realize that the World's Service cause and the different institutions of our church have suffered greatly because of insufficient funds to properly carry on their work, be it

RESOLVED, That the laity of our church co-operate with the heads of such institutions and others who have these things in hand, to help bring our Conference back to its former financial standing in helping World's Service and these institutions;

3rd—We wish to thank our local committee, the pastor of the Mattoon charge, the musicians, the officers of the Central Church and all others who have extended us many courtesies; be it further 4th—RESOLVED, That we express our appreciation to the retiring officers for their untiring efforts during the past year and for the very splendid program of this session.

C. C. Grimmert for auditing committee reported treasurer's accounts correct and well kept.

Judge H. R. Snavelly for nominating committee presented list of candidates for officers of the association for the coming year. H. S. Wiley made nominations from the floor. The following were elected: President, A. R. Crook; Vice President, I. E. Merritt; Secretary, I. B. Blackstock; Treasurer, D. L. Musselman. The district chairmen were elected by each district as noted above.

Adjourned for educational banquet.

Saturday Morning.

After devotions with the Ministerial Conference, President Musselman called the Laymen's Association to order at 9 A. M.

F. M. Thrasher, Professor of Philosophy, Illinois Wesleyan, spoke on "The Boy, the Church and the Gang." The chief function of the church is to interest and train adolescent youth. Careers, virtuous or vicious, begin during adolescence. My study of 1313 gangs with 25,000 members in Chicago shows this and that the gang is an important factor in organized crime and corrupt politics.

Gangland occupies the poverty zone which extends in a semi-circle about the Chicago loop district. It is divided into three kingdoms—The North Side Jungles, the West Side Wilderness and the South Side Badlands. Most of the crime in Chicago has its origin in these districts.

These areas of gangland are largely immigrant colonies of first settlement, but it is the child of the immigrant who becomes a criminal. This is because he becomes superficially Americanized, acquiring the vicious side of American life.

The church has an opportunity to organize the lives of young people by giving them supervised activities of a wholesome type, such as dramatics, athletics, etc. The most telling sort of moral and religious education can be given in carrying out such a program.

In discussion I. H. Neece, physician, said the church should be interested in: (1) Out put rather than in out fit; (2) in psychology of the adolescent; (3) in teaching boys and girls not books; (4) in fourfold program, a, physical, b, mental, c, moral, d, spiritual. The home should (1) furnish religious background; (2) cooperate with church and community, to direct leaders in "gangs" in the right way.

Judge Reeve said: "There is a disposition to coddle boys in the church. A boy is an immature man, and ought to be treated as such. No father has any complaint if his boy follows in his footsteps; no mother, if her daughter follows in her footsteps. Unless our children are greater factors for good than we have been, there has been no progress along our line. There never was a time in the history of the church when people were so hungry for the preaching of true love of Jesus Christ. There has been too much of the spectacular in church work, and too little of the real spirit of Christ.

E. Dow Bancroft of Urbana, Ohio, spoke on "Three Attitudes Towards Life."

Laymen are waking up to their responsibility and are uniting through the Methodist Brotherhood in a serious effort to carry out the Lord's commission to make disciples of all nations.

The purpose of the brotherhood is "To help men discover the mind of Christ, reproduce the character of Jesus, develop a passion for personal evangelism, apply Christian ideals to social relationships, adopt a Christian program for home life, and inspire a generous and sacrificial support of educational and missionary causes." It means a spiritual emphasis for evangelism and home religion, for evangelism and home religion are covered in this objective. It is also missionary, covering world service, and missionary education. It is social, emphasizing world peace, community service and race relationships. It is educational, boosting men's Bible classes, and week-day religious education. It is also financial, for it must have money to carry out its work. However membership dues are not being stressed so much as stewardship of possessions.

Judge Snively said, "The manhood of the church today is Challenged by the Word Service." The men of the church must be organized to the whole task of the church. This brotherhood movement aims to accomplish that purpose.

Paul J. Snyder, U. S. Army in France, 1918, now at Trinity Church, Urbana, spoke on the Relationship of the Church to War. War is collective murder evoked by greed, perpetrated by lies, provocative of beastliness and resultant in irretrievable moral waste. It is futile and reproductive. To be Christian the church must be done with war, create peace mindedness in society, expend money on education rather than militarism, make an impact upon government which will bring about a judicial settlement of difficulties.

George H. Wilson, attorney, Quincy, former member of State Legislature, made the following points: (1) Peace—a universal aspiration, to be hoped for but not soon realized; (2) distinction between offensive and defensive war; (3) this nation is one of the few remaining citadels of representative government; (4) World's court as entered into with the Senate reservation is safe; (5) a practical solution is disarmament. (a) on the sea. This was advanced by the Washington conference. (b) May be further advanced by withholding loans to France until she agrees to refund her debt to the United States. This would necessarily result in a reduction of her appropriations for her army and navy. (c) The church could urge the holding of another conference for disarmament both on land and sea.

Doctors Harker and McClelland spoke about Illinois Women's College; Dr. Davidson about Illinois Wesleyan; Mr. Hempke, about Old People's Homes, and Mrs. Asher, about the Baby Fold.

Brother Kagey announced that the following items should be called to the attention of All Laymen, Ministers and District Superintendents in this Conference.

1st. They should acquaint themselves with the new constitution just adopted and which will appear in the Conference Journal of 1926. 2nd. The annual dues under Article VII should be promptly remitted by the authorized person (each District Superintendent) to the treasurer of the association. 3rd. In 1927 on Friday during the Annual Conference at Springfield, a Lay Electoral Conference will meet. Under the Discipline, the Secretary of the last Conference, Brother C. C. Grimmert, 614 S. Crea St., Decatur, Illinois, is authorized to receive all credentials, make up a roll of members and call the body to order. These members will become members of the Laymen's Association for four years following, 1927-1931.

Music.

The music throughout the meeting was unusually satisfactory. T. V. Wright played the organ well and Pierre Warren lead the singing most effectively, and in addition they were continuously present and thus always available much to the satisfaction of the association. The singing of Mrs. Frank Kern and Mrs. B. J. Bockelman delighted their hearers. The Ministerial Quartette and Brother Luce's solo were greatly enjoyed. The singing of the congregation was good and all the music added to the devotional atmosphere of the meeting. The association is appreciative of the service of the musicians.

President Musselman declared the meeting adjourned.

A. R. CROOK,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Boards and Committees—The Superintendents were authorized to make nominations for various Boards and Committees for printing in the Minutes.

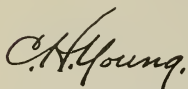

Resolutions—C. W. Hamand read the report of the Committee on Resolutions, which was adopted by a rising vote.

E. G. Sandmeyer read resolutions which had been passed by the Cabinet regarding the brotherliness and services of Bishop Hughes.

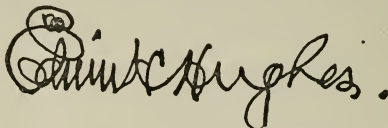

Adjournment—On motion, it was ordered that the Conference adjourn subject to the call of the Bishop, the Bishop spoke briefly concerning the appointments, the appointments were read, and after prayer by the Bishop, the Conference adjourned.

OFFICIAL CERTIFICATION.

We hereby certify that the foregoing, together with all reports, is a correct record of the proceedings of the One Hundred and Fourth Session of the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, held in Springfield, Illinois, September 21-26, 1927, and was adopted as its Official Journal.

Reports

(A) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT.

Freeman A. Havighurst, Superintendent.

Bishop Hughes and Brethren of the Illinois Conference:

In this my third annual report I approach a review of the year and a summing up of its activities with varied emotions. The changing times, the changing standards of conduct and religion, the changing and not clearly satisfactory approach to the religious life, the apparently growing indifference on the part of large sections of people of nearly every community including many whose names are on church records, the difficulty of keeping pastors and churches satisfied, happy and aggressively active—these conditions together with some unusual District problems have sometimes seemed to call for more ability than I possess and have at times made real and necessary optimism difficult, and above all have served to reveal both the importance and the difficulty of the work of a District Superintendent. They have also made doubly clear to me what has ever been my personal attitude to this office, that the District Superintendency is not an office to be coveted but a heavy responsibility to be accepted in the spirit of loyal obedience to the call of the church.

District Growth.

The Bloomington District has grown somewhat in size since my appointment to the District Superintendency. Three years ago it was a district of thirty-nine charges. It now has forty-six charges. The growth has been due not to the discovery of new fields of labor but to additions from the outside. We have also lost two charges—one of our strongest churches, Mason City, and a smaller but attractive church at New Holland.

Sorrows and Joys.

Three of the ministers' homes in our district have been bereaved during the year. A few days after Easter in the opening months of a very happy and useful ministry at Grace Church, Bloomington, Rev. E. L. Fletcher, generous, sweet spirited, large hearted soul, passed to his coronation. In the closing days of May, Mrs. W. H. Traeger, wife of one of our honored retired ministers, after a long and useful life went to her eternal reward. In June, Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Gross of Heyworth were bereaved in the death of their little son, Warren. After a few brief years on earth he went to grow up with his Heavenly Father. But there are also joys. As three have gone from us, three have come to us. The parsonage homes thus gladdened and enriched are those of Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Payne, Rev. and Mrs. Harry R. Evans and Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Ragan.

Ministerial Charges.

The session of conference closed last September with the Methodist ideal realized in our district—every church having a pastor and every pastor having a church. Soon after the opening of the conference year Rev. W. H. Traeger, appointed to Salem Church, Bloomington, was unable to attend to the duties of his church and during the year two Wesleyan students have taken charge of that church—Merrill Krughoff and Exelle Cox. In December Rev. A. M. Sinclair asked to be relieved of the Kenney church. I secured Rev. A. A. White who put himself into the work of that church with his usual enthusiasm, devotion and efficiency. Early in the spring Kenneth McConkey, appointed to Wesley Chapel, relinquished his charge and I secured Henry Neel who has faithfully served that church for the remainder of the year. Prof. C. J. Kinrade of Wesleyan has been in charge of Bloomington Grace for the past two months. Two excellent young men, both Wesleyan students, will apply for Admission on Trial—Howard Dagley who graduated last June and Henry Neel, already mentioned, who is in his Junior year.

Evangelism.

The distinct aim and purpose this year in the Bloomington District was to place special emphasis on evangelism, particularly personal visitation evangelism. The results are only fairly satisfactory but I believe nearly all of the pastors have labored faithfully. The largest number of decisions are reported by E. V. Young, 52; G. J. Kinrade, 50; T. H. Tull, 41; W. E. Keenan, 41; Milton Wilson, 36. The reports for the year show 502 accessions and 426 by transfer—a total of 820. However, as many are lost by transfer as are gained which probably signifies that the population of Bloomington District is not increasing, rather than a lack of faithfulness on the part of pastors in seeking out new comers in their communities. The small number of decisions for the Christian life both for the District and for the Conference should awaken most serious thought among us. My conviction is that the personal religious life of our members is at a low ebb and the churches are not spiritually prepared to win others to the Christian life. The one thing above all we as ministers should labor for with greatest possible earnestness is the deepening of the religious life of our church membership. Methodism has been known for its emphasis on personal religious experience. With proper modifications to fit the intellectual life of the age, Methodism must again find a way to bring back to its membership a vital personal religious life.

Local Budgets and World Service.

In spite of the financial depression the reports of the pastors indicate that all but one of our churches will pay all ministerial claims in full. Salary increases made this year total $1,400. Hartsburg First, $100; San Jose First, $100; Wapella, $200; Bloomington First, $400; Bloomington Grace, $600. Unfortunately there are also decreases of the same amount: Atlanta, $300; Chestnut, $200; Heyworth, $200; Hopedale, $200; Weedman, $400; White Heath, $100.

A week before the opening of this session of conference I confidently hoped to be able to report an advance in World Service offerings. From the latest reports it seems that our District will have almost the same total as last year. Thirty charges report increases and fifteen report decreases. The two largest gains are reported by Milton Wilson at LeRoy and O. E. Martin at Saybrook.

Bloomington Methodism and Wesleyan.

Bloomington as the chief city of the District rightly deserves a special paragraph. Bloomington Methodism is not lacking in ability to plan wisely but thus far has been unable to bring its plans to a successful consummation. The merger of First and Grace churches not having been favored by both churches, First Church during the past year launched its building campaign independently but was able to secure only $115,000 in subscriptions and thus temporarily the movement was halted. There is however still a possibility of a successful completion of the project during the coming year. Park Church, pursuing a safe financial policy has delayed beginning its church building program until a considerable amount of cash has been paid in on subscriptions. The definite purpose is to begin actual building operations in the spring. The cost will be at least $60,000, and will constitute the first unit. Ultimately they contemplate building also a new auditorium extending to the south of the first unit. When completed Park Church will have a beautiful church plant adequate to its great opportunity. Grace Church has not only increased its salary but has definitely faced a larger and more aggressive future.

Illinois Wesleyan University has had in many respects the best year of its history, and the new year has opened auspiciously. While, due to the present economic stress in the corn belt, the incoming Freshman class is considerably smaller than last year there is a large increase of upper classmen. Illinois Wesleyan has a great and useful future if people of means can be found who will see in the college an opportunity of investment of the wealth God has entrusted to their stewardship. We rejoice in the increasing influence of religious foundations at our tax supported institutions, notably our own Wesley Foundation, yet generally speaking the future of our church depends on well equipped church schools in which the religious life will be kept vital and strong. Pastors and laymen of vision should everywhere be looking for men of wealth to make much larger gifts to our colleges.

Various Forms of Service.

Pastors' reports indicate an increase of about 500 in Sunday School attendance. Sixteen churches observe Church Night. Fourteen conduct Daily Vacation Bible Schools. Clinton, Green Valley, Bellflower and Arrowsmith report Community Training Schools. Twenty-two churches report midweek prayer services—a gain of three. Pastors report more than 18,000 pastoral calls—an average of about 400. Four pastors report having made more than a thousand calls—F. A. McCarty, J. J. Gross, J. E. Evans and Milton Wilson. Two-thirds of the churches have Epworth Leagues and a small increase in membership and attendance is reported. There are four Intermediate Leagues, six Junior Leagues and four Junior Churches. The W. F. M. S. and W. H. M. S. with their usual efficiency report offerings equal to last year. The Ladies' Aid Societies have raised nearly $20,000; $23,257 has been spent on church building improvements and $2,000 on parsonages.

The limit placed upon the superintendents' reports has already been exceeded. I regret being unable to mention individually all the churches and pastors who have some worthy achievement to their credit. I must express my warmest gratitude for countless courtesies and loyal co-operation shown me by pastors and laymen during the year in the arduous work of the district. And then I would record my humble gratitude to God that He has sustained all of us in the difficult but glorious work of the building of His Kingdom in all the communities of the Bloomington District. Alas, many of our most immediate problems are still unsolved. There will be heart aches and disappointments for some in the days just ahead of us. But unto Him that is able to keep us and strengthen us for every burden and prepare us for every disappointment and inspire us anew to larger and better effort, be glory and honor and praise forever.

CHAMPAIGN-DANVILLE DISTRICT.

A. K. Byrns, Superintendent.

Bishop Hughes and Brethren:

I wish at the beginning of my report to record my gratitude to Almighty God for His unfailing Grace; to the Bishop of this Area for his wise counsel and encouragement; to my colleagues, the District Superintendents, for their fine spirit of co-operation; to the Members of the Illinois Conference for their genial fellowship and to the pastors of the Champaign-Danville District for their constant support and their loyal devotion to our common tasks.

Death has not entered our parsonage homes this year but one from our retired ranks, has passed to the eternal home, namely, Rev. Simeon R. Reno, who was greatly honored and much loved because of his consistent Christian life, his genial spirit and his constant usefulness. He was indeed a "brother beloved."

In many respects I think it may be justly stated that this has been the best of the past six years on the Champaign-Danville District. In evidence of this the following items may be cited:

1. The largest ingathering into church membership from preparatory membership. To accomplish this the pastors have used varied methods including revival services, communions and special decision days, and personal work campaigns. The latter method, so far as results in numbers are concerned, seemed to be the most productive. At the Easter season the pastors reported a total of almost 1,000 receptions to membership.

2. The average attendance in the Sunday Schools has increased.

3. There were more Religious Vacation Schools in operation. These have steadily grown from year to year in number, popularity and influence. While six years ago only one charge had ever held such a school, this year almost every pastor had this in his annual program, and hundreds of boys and girls spent from three to five weeks in valuable religious training.

4. The Epworth Leagues have had a fine year holding regular devotional meetings, win my chum campaigns, doing gospel team work, conducting study courses, developing religious pageantry, etc. One hundred thirty of these young people were registered in classes at the Epworth League Institute this summer at Old Salem Chautauqua Grounds. This District had the honor of having the largest attendance and the banner given by the Institute to the individual League having the largest number of registered delegates has been awarded for two years to Rantoul. Their number this year was thirty.

5. Our Ladies' Aid Societies have accomplished wonders. For instance one raised in money during the year $2,141.00. Another $2,463.00. Another $3,300.00 and still another $3,853.00. Many of the smaller ones did as well proportionately and in some cases have literally saved the church to their community. This is not true alone because of the money they have expended in the interest of the church but quite as much because of the activities which they have carried on and the good fellowship which they have provided.

6. Many weeks of "Church Night" programs have been held in which well planned courses of study have enriched the minds and hearts of the membership.

7. The District Rural Association has made a complete survey and study of many of the small town and country charges with practical results. Conferences, teachers' training classes, daily vacation schools, and other activities by the scores have added to the development of leadership and interest in these more difficult fields.

8. The Woman's Home and Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies have gone steadily along and will report good results despite some unfavorable conditions which have handicapped them.

9. Most carefully arranged and thorough plans for World Service cultivation were carried out during a large part of the year consisting of district and sub-district meetings, special programs, sermons, lantern slides, lectures and literature, and the pastors generally have given themselves with unusual devotion to the task of securing an "Advance in World Service givings." Whether this has been accomplished or not we cannot yet tell. All we can say is we do not know anything more which could have been done to produce a better result.

10. If I may be permitted to do so in this next item I would like to go back three or four years because they are so intimately connected with the accomplishments of this year. The past three or four years have been especially important ones in this District from the standpoint of the preparation for and the erection of new churches, parish houses, and other equipment for carrying on the work of the Kingdom.

First among the larger of these enterprises to reach completion was the building of a parish house adjoining First Church, Champaign, at a cost of $160,000.00. This more than doubled the capacity of that great church for purposes of religious education, and social and recreational work. It is now filled almost to capacity and has already more than justified the expenditure.

The second was a new church and parish house erected in Danville by the Lincoln Church congregation at a cost of $103,000.00, giving them one of the most complete and up to date plants for all their work to be found anywhere. This church is going forward by leaps and bounds.

The third in order of completion was the beautiful Bedford stone Gothic building in Urbana engraved "The First Methodist Episcopal Church." It was dedicated September 11, 1927, by Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes. The cost was $220,000.00 and is said by all to be a marvelous result for the money expended.

The fourth—For at least five years the St. James Church congregation at Danville has been raising funds and persistently working toward what is now a most happy realization—a wonderful Bedford stone structure, so imposing, so worshipful, so well arranged and so adequate that all far-seeing people who behold it go away thanking God for men and women who have vision enough to plan so well and sacrifice so much for the religious culture and development of this and coming generations. The total cost of this great achievement is $350,000.00. The Parish House part was publicly opened for use May 22, 1927, and the dedication of the entire plant is set for October 9th to 16th, inclusive.

While these four edifices which I have mentioned have cost over $833,000, and no words can tell of the sacrifice and unremitting toil coupled with the most skillful leadership on the part of the pastors and of the loyal devotion of their people, I am absolutely convinced it has been money and effort well spent, and is pleasing to Him whose approbation above all others we desire and to whose worship and work they are dedicated.

There have been many other smaller improvements such as basements excavated and additions built for better Sunday School and social work which have been quite as important to their communities as have these which are larger. All of which indicate that our people are endeavoring to provide the facilities which are best adapted to the needs of kingdom work in our day.

Cunningham Home.

The Cunningham Children's Home at Urbana has continued its gracious work of love and care to as many little ones as could be crowded into their buildings. An average of from eighty to ninety have been provided with home and comfort during the year. It is almost beyond understanding how so much can be done with their room and equipment. Because of a very critical situation which made necessary the revising of their heating system, a new brick building is nearing completion in which will be housed the heating plant and an up-to-date laundry, the cost to be about $23,000.00. Prof. James White, Supervising Architect at the University of Illinois, has donated his services in outlining a group of buildings for the future development of this institution, and it is hoped ere many years much needed enlargement will be possible.

The Wesley Foundation.

It is impossible to describe the importance of the work of The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois in its ministry to the religious and social life of the youth who come from our Methodist homes to prepare themselves for life at this great educational center. There were over 14,000 students registered at the U. of I. last year of which more than 3,000 were members of the Methodist Church or gave our church as their preference. No greater responsibility faces the church anywhere than the religious care of these boys and girls during this most important period in their lives, and it will be nothing short of tragic if sufficient support is not given to adequately maintain this work.

In Conclusion.

During these six years in which I have occupied a position in the cabinet of this great Conference I have not been unmindful of the honor and responsibility it has placed upon me.

I do not hesitate to say I have often felt my unworthiness and inability for such a trust. Yet I can say with equal frankness that I have endeavored honestly and sincerely before God to discharge the duties of my office to the best of my ability. I shall never cease to be grateful to you, my brethren, for the honors you have conferred upon me, for the trust and confidence you have given, and above all for your patience and charity. I shall gladly, and I trust happily, take my place among you again in the ranks of the pastors and hope to have your continued love and prayers as I strive again to serve in that capacity.

Respectfully submitted,

A. K. BYRNS.

DECATUR DISTRICT.

A. M. Wells, Superintendent.

Bishop Hughes and Members of the Conference:

There were four Charges left to be supplied at the close of the last Conference, namely, Argenta, Hammond, Latham and Long Creek. Rev. A. N. Simmons, a retired member of this Conference, was secured in March to supply at Argenta; Rev. J. D. Muir was transferred from the Rock River Conference and appointed to Hammond. Rev. D. L. Jeffers was appointed to Latham and Rev. J. D. Shuck has supplied during the year at Long Creek. On January 1st Rev. L. R. Koser, supply, was released from Shelbyville Circuit and Rev. F. M. Harry has supplied there, and Rev. R. A. Hartirick has supplied at Forsythe for the closing months of the year.

Death.

On July 19 Reverend Homer B. Montgomery, a retired member of this Conference, rich in years, experience, honors and victories of faith, was gathered to the fathers. Following his retirement he had served as supply pastor at Forsythe for the past five years.

Births.

Babes were born to the following: Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Hartman; Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Muir; Rev. and Mrs. Charles Ramsden; Rev. and Mrs. J. Fred Melvin and Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Sauer.

Evangelism.

Special Evangelistic services were held in many of our churches and the year has brought into our fellowship 622 from preparatory membership and the total received into full membership is 1,171. The most successful of the special protracted meetings were held at Cerro Gordo, St. Paul's, Sullivan, Assumption and the new Wesley Church, Decatur.

Improvements.

We have had no extensive or intensive building program but repairs and improvements in churches and parsonages have been made amounting to $21,122, by the following churches: Argenta, $150; Arthur, $25; Atwood, $180; Bethany, $170; Blue Mound, $200; Cadwell, $473; Cerro Gordo, $600; Cowden, $250; Cleveland Ave., $350; First Church, Decatur, $4,500; Grace, $54; St. Paul's, $100; Elwin, $700; Findlay, $175; Forsythe, $3,000; Garrett, $1,230; Latham, $285; Lovington, $140; Monticello, $1,329; Moweaqua, $300; Oconee, $450; Sadorus, $700; Sanner, $100; Shelbyville, $800; Tolono, $250; Tower Hill, $105; Warrensburg, $1,000; Assumption, $200.

Debts.

Payments on property debts have totaled $14,391.00, made by the following Charges: Blue Mound, $4,000; Cisco, $600; Cowden, $424; Cleveland Ave., $300; First, Decatur, $2,800; Grace, Decatur, $265; St. Paul's, Decatur, $1,000; Findlay, $457; Lovington, $4,350; Niantic, $25, and Tower Hill, $170. There are three churches in this district that are struggling earnestly to carry very heavy debts. Blue Mound has near $20,000; Lovington, $24,000; and St. Paul's, Decatur, $29,000. This last named church has carried on a desperate struggle to live. Overwhelmed with indebtedness and unable to carry in its annual budget the interest charges amounting to near $2,000 per year it has seemed at times that this church might not survive. During the past year Rev. C. S. Boyd has heroically struggled with the situation and today the conditions are more hopeful than before although the future is beset by many clouds. During the months of the spring and early summer this pastor has carried on a campaign against great odds that resulted in something more than $15,000 being pledged to meet this indebtedness.

Ministerial Support.

There will probably be two or three places that will show small deficits on Ministerial support. During the past year the following decreases were authorized by the Quarterly Conferences: Argenta, $100; Blue Mound, $200; Lovington, $500; Sanner Chapel, $100. And the following advances were made: Assumption, $200; Bethany, $100; Bement, $200; Cleveland Ave., $500; First, Decatur, $500; and Macon, $200. For the coming year the changing salaries are: Decreases—Bethany, $100; Blue Mound, $300; Cisco, $200; Moweaqua, $450; Elwin, $200. Increases—First, Decatur, $500; Grace, Decatur, $500; Cerro Gordo, $500; Garrett, $150.

Educational.

At least twelve places have held Daily Vacation Bible Schools with a total of thirty-two weeks of service and 1,006 in average daily attendance. The largest of these was in Grace Church, Decatur, where the daily average attendance was 265.

Fifteen Charges held church training night programs with a total of 204 days and with 1,310 for the average attendance.

Epworth and Junior Leagues have carried on many study classes contributing largely to the teaching ministry of the church.

Organizations.

Junior Church organizations have been formed in a number of places. The best development in this type of service has been at Assumption, Decatur First, Macon, Maroa and Monticello and the results have been of great value.

The Ladies' Aid Societies have wrought steadily and faithfully and they report this year a total of $26,553, as contributed for the support of the local church.

The W. F. M. S. and the W. M. H. S. have each labored on in their devotion to the enlargement of the kingdom of God among men and the former reports $10,328 and the latter $6,382, a total for the three above named women's organizations of $43,323.

In addition to the financial report the Ladies' Aid Societies seem to have caught a vision of another great opportunity and that is the visitation of homes in the community. The notable instances of this visitation service is at First Church, Decatur, where the visits made by this society numbered more than 11,000 and at Grace Church, Decatur, with more than 7,000 visits.

World Service.

Again we have felt the hindrances of economic conditions and the achievements of the churches have not been as great as had been hoped for but the aggregate of cash in hand and most recent estimates made by the pastors would indicate a total of $21,782, which is approximately the same as last year. A few churches have made a splendid advance. Tolono has advanced 200 per cent and First, Decatur, 63 per cent over last year. Some others have not held their ground which is a fact profoundly regretted. With a burning and consuming passion for souls thrilling and dominating the heart life of pastors and churches there will be a new return to evangelism and world redemption.

New Enterprise.

Among the most interesting achievements of the year has been the building of the new Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church located in a rapidly building section just east of the city limits of Decatur. The starting of a Sunday School and Epworth League in the Brush College School House was reported last year. We now have a Sunday School with an attendance of 85 and a finely operating Epworth League. Upon the gift of a building lot by Mrs. Harry Fisk we have erected a modest frame church costing $3,500, and this building was dedicated on Sunday, September 18, by the District Superintendent. Rev. Leon W. Kern will be the student pastor of this new church, giving three days in the week and all day Sunday for this pastoral service.

Respectfully submitted,

A. M. WELLS.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

C. F. Buker, Superintendent.

Bishop Hughes and Brethren of the Conference:

I briefly relate to you some of the things that have been done on the Jacksonville district through the year through the ministry of the District Superintendent, the pastors and lay workers.

I commend my predecessor, Dr. A. S. Chapman, for the fine group of men placed in charge of the churches of the district last year.

Curran and Nilwood were left to be supplied. I secured Rev. R. L. Barnstable, a member of one of the Iowa conferences, to take charge of Curran; in the middle of the year he returned to his own conference and I secured Rev. C. M. Schaffner to fill out the year.

Rev. Walter Mitchell has cared for Nilwood.

Death entered one of the parsonage homes during the year. On June first Mrs. Howard, wife of our pastor at Pleasant Plains, Rev. Leo Howard, passed to her heavenly home. Mrs. Howard was ever a faithful companion and efficient helper.

The Methodist forces of this district consist of forty-five pastors, more than thirteen thousand members, some twelve hundred Sunday School officers and teachers, and more than one hundred and fifty Epworth League officers and workers.

Some of the general officers of the church gave us valuable assistance during the year.

We greatly appreciate the presence of our resident Bishop on two different occasions. Bishop Hughes preached at the dedication of our new church at Rockbridge, he also spoke at one of the vesper services of the Woman's College. Bishop Anderson spoke at one of the services of the College. Dr. W. D. Fairchild, our Area Secretary, made several visits to the district during the year and rendered valuable service. Dr. DeBra brought helpful messages on Visitation Evangelism, Dr. Fulkerson and Dr. and Mrs. Dildine brought informing and inspiring messages on the World Wide work of the church, E. Dow Bancroft did good work in the interest of the laymen. The faithful and efficient work of the six group leaders deserves special mention.

I would also mention the valuable work done by the Laymen's organization.

I would gladly mention the achievements of each church and pastor, but time and space will not permit.

I find it very difficult to tabulate the results of the year's work in kingdom building. The Master said, "The kingdom of God cometh not with observation." Who can tabulate the result of those silent forces at work in the molding of character and thus building the kingdom?

Evangelism.

Weather and road conditions have made the work of evangelism difficult. At the time of writing this report I do not have complete reports from the charges but indications from reports already received are that some seven or eight hundred people have been added to the churches of the district during the year.

We need increased emphasis on Visitation Evangelism, we also need a deepening conviction of the fact that evangelism, in its broadest meaning, is the supreme task of the church.

Young People.

The work of caring for the religious interests of our young people is partially done through organized classes in the Sunday School and through the Epworth Leagues. It is a matter worthy of note that our young people in increasing numbers are attending our Epworth League Institutes.

Work Among the Men.

One of the main objectives for the year was increased emphasis on work among the men. Something has been accomplished but I have a growing conviction that all our churches and our laymen's organizations need a more definite program for interesting and holding the men in the great task of kingdom building.

Property Interests.

The churches and parsonages of the district have a value of more than a million dollars. During the year a beautiful new church was built and dedicated by our people at Rockbridge, at a cost of $30,000. The parsonage at Carlinville was remodeled at a cost of $4,700, the church at Bluff Springs was remodeled at a cost of nearly $2,000. Other churches and parsonages improved bring the total amount expended for building and improvement up to more than $40,000.

One of the needs of the district is a greater number of comfortable homes for our pastors and their families.

World Service.

We endeavored to reach every church of the district with a special message concerning the great benevolent interests of the church. I cannot say just what the results will be in money given but I hope that the standard of last year will be maintained and that, at least, eighteen thousand dollars will be given for these great causes.

We greatly need a more intelligent and loyal devotion on the part of many of our good laymen to these great benevolent interests.

Woman's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary Societies.

No mention of the benevolent interests of the church would be complete that did not include the work of these great women's organizations. Both of these organizations will show a healthy advance in their giving.

Ladies' Aid Societies.

The story of the year's work could not be written without mention of the fine achievements of these organizations. In many instances the work these societies do makes possible the success of the church's financial program.

Illinois Woman's College.

This institution, under the efficient leadership of Dr. C. P. McClelland, continues to be a mighty force in the Christian training of young women.

The graduating class of the past year was the largest in the history of the college. The moral and religious atmosphere of the institution has been positive and stimulating.

Dr. McClelland said in his annual report, "The outstanding event of the year was the offer of the President of our Board, Senator James E. MacMurray, of $125,000 towards a fund to provide a new Science Hall and a new Power House.

Other gifts have been secured to meet the condition made by Senator MacMurray and the New Science Hall is approaching completion.

I desire to speak a personal word in appreciation of Dr. McClelland's brotherly spirit and his willingness to co-operate in work outside his immediate task as president of the College.

We all greatly appreciate the presence of Dr. and Mrs. Harker in Jacksonville and their fine spirit of co-operation in the work of the college and the kingdom generally.

Observations.

I know that the making of a report is not the time for preaching, but may I be permitted to make two observations.

1. The need of better business methods.

In a large number of our churches there is greatly needed the careful organization of the Disciplinary Plan of financing the church.

2. The need of a more passionate devotion to Christ and His cause.

I use the words of Dr. Gossip in this connection.

"In Christ there is all that any of us can require; a strength that is sufficient, a grace that is enough, for every possible call upon it. And yet somehow we do not really lay hold upon it, nor draw from it anything like what it could give us, we are immeasurably more ineffective than we need be."

In closing let me say a word in appreciation of all the courtesies shown me by the pastors and their families and the people of the churches and of the joy I have had in "Working together with Him and them in building God's kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,

C. F. BUKER.

MATTOON DISTRICT.

E. G. Sandmeyer, Superintendent.

Bishop Hughes and Brethren of the Conference:

While we cannot report any outstanding achievements, the year has been one of varied and important activities. We have the consciousness that good work has been done on the part of both pastors and laymen, and in the midst of some discouraging circumstances good seed has been sown and some substantial gains have been made.

Pastoral Changes.

Four charges, Broadlands, Marshall Circuit, Murdock and Strasburg were left without appointment last year. Ernest Shepherd was appointed to the Broadlands charge, H. G. Wass, a retired member of this Conference to the Marshall Circuit, F. W. Stoll to the Murdock charge, and C. E. Pease to the Strasburg Circuit. We were not disappointed in either case, all doing good work in their respective fields. Shortly after Conference W. A. Roahrig of Lerma was transferred to the Northwest Indiana Conference, and J. T. Hendrix, M. E. Church South, was secured to fill the vacancy.

To the Church Triumphant.

For the first time in three years the Death Angel has entered our parsonage homes. Soon after Conference Brother L. E. Baldwin, our pastor at Hindsboro, was called to his home beyond. In the middle of his Passion Week Services Brother R. S. Shaw, pastor at Metcalf, became violently ill, and within a week went from among us. Likewise Brother M. G. Coleman, pastor at Windsor, took suddenly ill and within a few days he too joined the unnumerable host of the Church Triumphant. These brothers in the ministry were rare men, loyal and capable, faithful stewards of the Word, and tireless workers in the Kingdom. We greatly miss their fellowship, and the District loses heavily in their going. Our sincere sympathy goes out to those who were so suddenly bereaved and must carry on without the strong arm of their support.

D. Ross Fleming of the Southern Illinois Conference was secured for the Hindsboro work, W. J. Edmunds of the St. John's River Conference for Windsor, and Mrs. R. S. Shaw, by unanimous request of the Metcalf churches, finished the work her husband laid down. In each instance the work of the churches has prospered in the hands of these new pastors.

Evangelism.

In the field of Evangelism some very successful meetings were held, and pastors for the most part have been their own evangelists, some of them being unassisted in any way. In some charges the "Guy Black Plan" of Personal Evangelism was used, and this has proved to be the most fruitful of results, judging from the stand-point of the numbers received, and of the number of people actively engaged in personal soul-winning.

The visible results are 603 conversions, and 310 received by letter and from other denominations, making a total for the year of 913. One hundred and seventeen of our members have died during the year. We have approximately 15,000 members of the church in the Mattoon District who are counted as Resident Members, and thirty-three pastors report 1,356 Non-Resident Members.

Other Pastoral Labors.

Thirty-three pastors report 13,860 pastoral calls. Some have kept no record of calls made, and some do not report. Ten charges report successful Church Training night services, and fourteen churches conducted Vacation Bible Schools. The outstanding ones being in both instances in our Mattoon Church. Brother Stoll on the Murdock work conducted such a school in each of his three churches with notable success. In some instance union Vacation Bible Schools were conducted with great profit to all of the churches participating. In each case the pastor has been the moving spirit and bore the larger share of the responsibility. The church Training Nights had an average attendance of more than 100, and the Vacation Bible Schools had a daily average of sixty-six.

More and more our pastors are being called upon to do community work, and in all too many instances they must yield to the demands which take them from the work they are actually assigned to do, and often the work of the charge suffers as a consequence.

World Service.

Special stress has been placed upon the importance of our Benevolent work. Drs. Fairchild, Fulkerson, Dildine, Bancroft, and others have worked faithfully in our district and helped us materially in getting the World Service message to our congregations. Our pastors for the most part have worked hard and used every legitimate means to get our people interested in the work. Incomplete reports from our pastors, however, do not encourage us to believe that we will go much beyond last year's giving. In some instances there have been substantial increases, but on the other hand there have been some disastrous decreases which we fear will greatly reduce the total contribution.

Women's Work.

1. The Ladies' Aid Societies are functioning in many capacities and raised more than $15,000, and contributed more than $5,000 to the running expenses of the church, besides paying for many repairs and improvements in both church and parsonage property. Many of our smaller churches would be in hopeless financial difficulties but for these organizations.

2. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will again register an increase, their report showing that $11,913 was raised this year. The Woman's Home Missionary Society reports $4,588, which is also an increase over last year's contributions.

Local Finances.

In most churches this has been a difficult year in church finances. The agricultural depression and consequent business difficulties have hindered the work of the church. Plans for next year have likewise been greatly delayed on account of the financial outlook. This has resulted in reductions in ministerial support for next year. Thirteen charges have reduced pastors' salaries from $50 to $700 each. Twenty-seven are holding steady, and six are increasing. The total decrease is in the neighborhood of $2,600, while the increase is about $1,000. In our judgment a decrease was necessary in only one or two places. Usually the difficulty is not a lack of funds, but the absence of good business methods in Church Financing. Where the Every Member Canvass was faithfully put on, and finances and collections looked after each quarter, with real leadership at the helm, the financial problem is not a difficult one.

We would urge a strict adherence to the letter and spirit of our Quarterly Settlement Day, and faithfulness on the part of our Stewards to do a steward's part.

Material Improvements.

There have been no outstanding building projects this year. Churches and parsonages have been redecorated and generally improved and made more comfortable at Allerton, Arcola, Broadlands, Casey, Chrisman, Gays, Greenup, Humboldt, Lerna, Marshall Circuit, Mattoon, Metcalf, Fairland, Neoga, Central Avenue, Paris, Ridgefarm, Strasburg, Toledo, Westfield, Windsor, and Windsor Circuit, at a total cost of $5,685. At Sidell Brother McMahon led his people in the enterprise of putting a new basement under the church which adds much to the working efficiency of that church. The outstanding improvements were made at Villa Grove, under the leadership of J. D. Kruwel. The parsonage has been improved, a double garage built, the church redecorated and greatly improved with new lights, carpets and other equipment, and a new pipe organ installed, which is the gift of the generous Hensen sisters. The total cost of this improvement will be about $5,000, and on Sunday, October 16th, the church will be reopened to the public.

During the year $10,000 or more has been paid on old indebtedness, and the present indebtedness on churches and parsonages is less than $15,000.

Educational Work.

1. The Sunday School attendance has been greatly hindered this year by heavy rains and inclement weather, but the general average for the year has been maintained, and in some of our churches greatly increased. We have a total enrollment of 15,000 in our Sunday Schools, more than 1,400 officers and teachers, with healthy Home Departments and Cradle Rolls. The greatest need is still "Trained Teachers" and very little being done by the schools to supply this need. Most of our schools are embarrassed for lack of adequate room and equipment to do modern and efficient Educational work.

2. The Epworth League and Young People's work shows a healthy growth. The average attendance at Devotional meetings of the League has increased about 2 per cent over the District. Four new Epworth Leagues have been organized this year. One hundred and seven registered at our Institute this year and were greatly benefitted for having been there.

3. The Eastern Illinois Teachers' College at Charleston is still an outstanding challenge to our Methodism. More than 33 per cent of those attending this school during the winter months and 42 per cent attending the summer term, are Methodist young people.

The church at Charleston under the leadership of pastor Pettit has given a welcome to these students, secured the attendance of many of them, and enlisted many in active service. It is a responsibility that we hope will soon be recognized by our Conference.

Methodist Memorial Hospital.

At Mattoon is our Memorial Methodist Hospital, the only institution of its kind within the bounds of the Illinois Conference. This year also it has shown steady progress and rendered valuable service to Mattoon and the communities. Improvements have been made and some new equipment added. The physicians have co-operated in helping to make it an up-to-date Hospital in the strictest sense of the word. The assets of the Hospital are in round numbers $170,000. Nearly 1,000 patients received treatment this past year. It does an unusually large amount of free bed work, and ministers to all who are in need of its services, regardless of race or creed.

The hospital's outstanding need just now is a New Nurses' Home, Adequate Endowment, liberal Donations, and the prayers of God's people.

In Conclusion.

The limits placed upon our reports make it impossible to mention personally the pastors who deserve the credit for the year's progress. We come to the close of the year conscious that "There is yet very much land to be possessed." Pastors have had their difficulties and disappointments this year, but they have also had their joys and triumphs. But for their faithful and self-sacrificing labors, their courage and faith, some of our churches would have experienced near defeat. We wish to publicly express our gratitude for their co-operation, and the fine hospitality of the parsonage homes. We close the year with some regrets because of unfinished tasks, but look forward with faith in God and with high hopes for the future.

QUINCY DISTRICT.

C. F. Juvinall, Superintendent.

Bishop Hughes and Brethren:

Appointments and Supplies.

When Conference adjourned last year, forty-one pastors had been appointed to the Quincy District. LaPrairie had been left to be supplied and the assistant pastor for the Pittsfield Parish had not been chosen. A few days later, John Roosa was transferred from Loraine to LaPrairie. Harold Hotchkiss came from a parsonage home in Iowa to supply Loraine and Ray Corrothers, a student from McKendree College, was selected assistant pastor to the Pittsfield Parish. On account of illness, Mrs. Marion Polk gave up Kinderhook about the middle of the year and E. J. Williams, a retired minister of the Illinois Conference supplied that charge. W. A. Hostetter, because of ill health, was compelled to leave his work at Lima in May and David Powell completed the year's work at that place. C. S. Mundell was transferred to the Colorado Conference in May and the Rushville Circuit was supplied during the summer by Andrew Juvinall.

Church Activities.

During the year, the chief emphasis has been placed on Evangelism and World Service. As a result of the evangelistic efforts, six hundred twenty-three new members have been received into church membership from probation. Taking into account the loss by transfer, death and removal, the year shows a net gain of six hundred forty-two members.

Floods and road conditions during the larger part of the year have reduced the attendance at church services, Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues in many charges in the District bounded on the West by the Mississippi River and on the East by the Illinois. During the past three months, however, many churches have overcome much of the loss sustained during the first nine months of the Conference year.

The Women's Organizations have shown unusual activity. Thirty-six Ladies' Aid Societies reported over $21,000 raised for various church purposes.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Woman's Home Missionary Society report in almost every instance that their full quota will be reached.

World Service.

The report of the World Service treasurer on August 31 shows a gain of $1,094.00 over the previous year, to that date. Eighteen charges report a gain over last year of $1,416, while seventeen charges report losses about equal to this gain. Many pastors have worked up to the last day to prevent losses. We hope that the final report will show a distinct advance.

Material Interests.

During the year old debts on church and parsonage property amounting to $7,500.00 have been paid. Improvements, amounting to $38,000.00 have been made on church property, and $14,000.00 have been expended on the homes of our pastors.

My first official meeting as District Superintendent was with the Quarterly Conference of Grace Church, Quincy. At this meeting, it was voted to complete the new church building which had been started six years ago. After having spent five years in helping to plan and construct the building in which we are now assembled, I felt perfectly at home in that building enterprise. On April third, Bishop Hughes dedicated Grace Church. It is valued at $60,000.00. Melrose Chapel built an addition to their church at a cost of $3,200.00. Riggston built a social service room at a cost of $1,275.00. Vermont St. Church spent $5,000.00 in improvements on their auditorium and in the purchase of a property adjoining their church on the East. This new lot will provide room for the enlargement of their plant. Paloma and Golden have completed new modern parsonages during the year, each valued at $6,000.00. On January 31, the Parsonage at West Point was partially destroyed by fire. It has been repaired at a cost of $1,500.00, all of which was paid by the Insurance Company. Other repairs and improvements, costing less, though representing just as heroic effort, are reported at Beardstown, Beverly, Bluffs, Clayton, LaPrairie, Littleton, Mt. Sterling, Valley City, Payson, Perry, Plymouth, Union, Rockport, Rushville, Versailles and Warsaw.

Chaddock Boys School.

Slowly but surely, Chaddock is going forward toward her goal. She is ministering in a Christ-like way to 70 boys. Each year she is forced to turn away more than twice that number. Her goal is to be able to care for 200 boys. Her needs are sufficient equipment, buildings, and sustaining endowment to reach this goal. With the continued good-will and sympathetic co-operation of the ministers and laymen of the Illinois Conference, these needs will be met.

The Old People's Home.

The Methodist Old People's Home at Quincy is caring for 70 old people, and giving them the blessings of a Christian Home as they face the setting sun. This institution is out of debt and has a productive endowment of over $90,000.00. Many other old people long for such a place in which to spend their last days, so the trustees have in their program plans for a new building, costing about $25,000.00. We recommend this worthy institution to all our people.

Parsonage Homes.

The father of Mrs. G. W. Holmes passed to his eternal reward in May.

Shortly after Conference, Rev. G. L. Gatch, feeling the need of an associate in the ministry, took unto himself a wife.

The homes of Rev. and Mrs. George Carl and the Rev. and Mrs. LaVerne Barkley have been made happier by the coming of a little girl at each home.

A Closing Word.

At a reception given the new D. S. and his family last October in the Vermont Street Church, Quincy, the speaker who gave the address of welcome said, "You have before you a six year's joy ride." There has been much variety in that "joy ride." Some of it has been on foot over roads where horses could not draw a carriage, and some by boat over flooded districts. Almost every other method of conveyance, save the airplane, has been used.

The traveling has not always been conducive of joy, but the fellowship in the parsonage homes and the sympathetic co-operation of the official boards and churches have kept alive in my heart a continual feeling of gratitude. I wish to thank the pastors and their families and all the laymen of the district who have so faithfully supported the Master's Work with their prayers, money and labor. To our Heavenly Father, we give the praise.

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT.

Ernest J. Campbell, Superintendent.

Bishop Hughes and Fellow Members of the Illinois Annual Conference:

In bringing to you my first Annual Report as Superintendent of the Springfield District I desire to express my gratitude to God for the Divine favors continually bestowed upon our District during the year. Any progress noted or service rendered has been accomplished with His help and the earnest endeavor of the faithful men and women of the District.

My predecessor, Dr. H. W. McPherson, turned the District over to me, well manned and in good running order. I here record my appreciation of his splendid work and also the counsel he has freely given at my solicitation this year.

Again, I must say of the forty-six pastors in the Springfield District that all have labored well, though not all in equal or similar degree. Bishop, I suppose in the course of this conference some of the ministers will go from this District but there is not one that I shall give up gladly nor even very willingly. Such has been the fine hospitality of the parsonage homes and the faithful endeavors of the ministers, many times under trying circumstances, that I rejoice as I labor with them all.

Pastoral Supply.

At the close of the last Conference two charges were left to be supplied. Keith L. Loveless, a student at Illinois Wesleyan University, was secured for Cornland, and in spite of a cyclone which totally wrecked the church building, he has done a fine year's work. E. A. Moore, a local preacher, was secured for Waggoner and has served faithfully and well.

There has been considerable illness among the pastors but I think all are now able to attend the Conference sessions. On October 14th, Raymond, little son of Pastor A. B. Kettlekamp of Illiopolis died from tetanus induced by a wound in his knee made by a rusty nail. Raymond was a bright little lad and the shock to his parents was very great. After a lingering illness of many months, Miss Maude, daughter of E. A. Moore, our pastor at Waggoner, passed to the Father's House. In November A. B. Kettlekamp failed in health. After two months of rest he returned to his work but his health was such that in June he reluctantly asked for a supply to assist him in closing the year and now asks to retire on account of disability. Donald Lemkau, a student at Garrett Biblical Institute has closed the work of the year for him in fine shape.

Church Activities.

The year has been marked by a spirit of revival. Fifty-four weeks of Evangelistic effort resulted in 504 professed conversions while evangelism throughout the year resulted in 664 accessions, making a total accessions for the year of 1,168. A net gain in membership of 604. Twenty-two Sunday Schools show a gain in average attendance, 23 show a loss and a few no apparent gain. The total loss in average attendance in Sunday School for the year for the District is 504. The Epworth League held five group rallies, 26 weeks of "Win-my-Chum meetings," and four booth festivals. The annual convention at Taylorville was largely attended, with 426 sitting down to the banquet. A good representation of the leaguers attended the Institute. Church night was observed in the District for a total of 69 weeks. Daily Vacation Bible School was held for a total of 30 weeks. The church night in some form and the Daily Vacation Bible School are taking their rightful place on the calendar of most of our churches. The Ladies' Aid Societies have raised a total of $37,663.42. The Missionary Societies report a steady growth. Miss Eunice Vanwinkle at Langley under the direction of the Woman's Home Missionary Society has had a fine year in that mining community. At Korthkamp Miss Corinne M. Calvert, under the direction of the Home Missionary Society has paid $120 on the debt on their Community Building and added nine to church membership in that new field.

World Service.

According to latest reports our District will show a very slight loss from last year in World Service giving. Nineteen Charges increasing, fifteen showing a decrease, and the rest holding steady. Many of our charges in the District have suffered great financial loss and depression owing to the closed coal mines and many others are feeling the pinch of floods and poor crop conditions. In spite of all this I record with mixed feelings that the Springfield District for the World Service year closing May 31, 1926, led the Conference in per capita giving. But the total amount is all too small. Would God we might have done more. Our good record thus far is no doubt due in part to six group meetings at which Dildine, of China, Washburn of Bolivia, and our own Fairchild of the Area Office, presented World needs and plans for reaching the goals in the local fields. The pastors are becoming more optimistic and I note a more sympathetic attitude toward World needs among the laity.

Material Improvements.

On February 27, Bishop Hughes, dedicated the new auditorium and refinished church at Douglas Ave., Springfield. The cost of the new improvement was $72,000.00. This gives Douglas Ave. the largest floor space of any of our churches in the city as well as a most beautiful auditorium. Mt. Auburn church costing $25,000.00 was dedicated March 20th, by the District Superintendent with President W. J. Davidson of Illinois Wesleyan assisting. Kumler Church, Springfield, moved its old parsonage to a new site and practically rebuilt it. Then added a parish house to and refinished their church at a cost of $53,000.00. The reopening was a great day for Old Kumler. Springfield First Church dedicated a $10,000.00 organ in December. Cornland is building a new brick veneer church to take the place of the old frame building which was wrecked by the cyclone. A total of $15,722 has actually been spent in cash on church improvement this year. Edinburg, Hillsboro, Morrisonville, Pana, Rochester, Sharpsburg, Taylorville, Williamsville and Wesley and Laurel, Springfield, have paid on old debts and redecored parsonages. Many others have made minor improvements.

Visitors.

Springfield District has been greatly refreshed and edified during the year through the repeated visits and addresses of our beloved Bishop Hughes. Though he has been generous with his time his visits have been all too short and far too infrequent. Bishop, we pray for your spiritual and bodily health and for your frequent return among us. Bishops Anderson, McConnell, Waldorf, Blake and Meade have visited the District this year to our joy and benefit and we look for a gracious message from Bishop Richardson during the Conference.

A Personal Word.

No Superintendent can record all the labors of the faithful pastors and people in his district. Would that I might mention each one here even as I lift them up in prayer by name, but I cannot. The year has had its sorrows and defeats as well as its joys and victories. I rejoice that joy and victory predominate. We have been laborers together in a great task and I thank God for the fellowship of service. No words can express my love for the brethren and my appreciation of the kindness and co-operation of the pastors and people of the District. The year has gone quickly leaving much undone and incomplete. May God forgive our shortcomings and bless and reward all faithful service.

(B) STANDING COMMITTEES AND BOARDS.

BENEVOLENCES.

Believing in the Kingdom of God for the whole world and realizing the necessity for the whole Church to be brought into intelligent sympathy with our Lord's command, as interpreted by the leaders of our Church, we recommend that in the whole Church there shall be most hearty co-operation with all of our Benevolent Boards in carrying on and providing for their several needs.

That Stewardship of prayer and property be taught our people by precept and example.

That the benevolent enterprise of our own Church be given preference.

(Signed) H. A. LITHERLAND, Chairman.

CHADDOCK BOYS SCHOOL.

Francis G. Blair, President of the National Education Association, said recently, "To be a child is to look forward. That is the message of the Great Teacher. Every institution that is to endure must be tested by its service to Childhood."

Applying this test promises long life to Chaddock Boys School. In rendering that service this year we have ministered to seventy-three boys, and seventy-three boys in a family make an attractive and promising household. As usual, applications on file reveal that our family could and should have been two hundred. Only three of our boys have found residence away from Chaddock; two to homes, and one to a field of self-support. The boys continuing through the year have been excellent in health, in scholarship, and in social, moral and spiritual unfolding. Providing wholesome environment, high ideals, proper outlets for such pulsating growing lads is a task of highest honor.

Pride, gratitude, and joy have mastery in our hearts when we reflect upon the personell and loyalty of our Board of Trustees. Each day we have evidence of their loving interest. Chaddock would be impossible and unthinkable helpless without them.

Miss Mary E. Williamson with her faculty, whose training and experience compare most favorably with that of any similar group in the public schools, has called out high endeavor on the part of the lads along scholastic lines.

The Director of Physical Education led various groups to fine attainment, including the championship of the city of Quincy in the Junior High School Football League, and without a place to practice except as Madison School could spare occasional periods in their gymnasium to Chaddock they won second place in the basketball league.

The housemothers kept a fine, wholesome, Christian home atmosphere, listened to the heart-stories most often poured out at eventide from mother-hungry young hearts, dressed the wounds from playground accidents, and took care of the thousand and one calls that are naturally made upon a mother.

The men in the garden, dairy, carpenter shop, buildings and grounds have kept the boys actively and constructively busy outside of school and recreational periods.

The leaders in the music department have helped them to expression through song and instrument.

The office and administrative force have replenished the treasury from day to day, kept the accounts, directed expenditure of their personal funds, as well as the general funds.

The cooks and laundresses with skillful hands, and with clock-work precision have spread the tables with wholesome food and have contributed much to the neat appearance of the boys and to the cleanliness and order of their environment.

Co-operation at Chaddock Boys' School is as necessary as breathing. "The strength of the wolf is in the pack, and the strength of the pack is in the wolf."

What shall I say of the Chaddock Aid Society—Instant in season and out of season—They glide in and out with deeds of love and mercy continuously. They are the silver lining of every cloud. They are the clarion call to highest endeavor. They are big sisters to the faculty and vicarious mothers to the boys. With clear vision they forget all else but the cause.

It takes no effort at Chaddock to accept the philosophy that "dollars talk." Their message of money is audible when over one hundred dollars must come daily if our current expense budget is met. This year has been difficult with the unusual depression and storms within our field of support. Nevertheless, we have gone forward. The Treasurer's report is far from discouraging—donations of thousands of eggs and hundreds of quarts of fruit—the opening of pulpits to the Chaddock appeal, the increase in Club members—all tell the story of how we met our budget. We do need and are working toward the establishing of more permanent channels of income for our current expenses. We must always stress the significance of a large productive endowment.

If Chaddock Aid Society, faculty and staff, donors and Trustees together can build a school and as we do it, lead along year by year seventy and more of these lads through childhood and youth "setting their feet in right paths before some one else sets them in wrong paths," giving them to Church and State, God and Country with trained minds, clean hands and pure hearts, what will it matter if we do learn the anguish of giving?

The need of the world perpetually called to Jesus, and His heart answered in passionate longing. His soul ran out to the service of humanity as the river runs eagerly to the sea. He reached onward, even to the Cross, as the heart of the bridegroom runs out to his bride. We follow in His footsteps.

(Signed) EVA C. FIELDS, Superintendent.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

We have in the Methodist Book Concern an institution of our church thoroughly prepared to meet our needs in the line of literature. We urge that our people avail themselves of this opportunity in the purchase of books, etc.

Every pastor should observe Good Literature Day and remember at all times that he is an agent for The Methodist Book Concern.

(Signed) GUY W. HOLMES, Chairman.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS AND PREACHERS AID SOCIETY.

Whereas, a splendid advance has been made in the building up of an endowment fund for the support of the retired ministers, widows of deceased preachers, and their orphan children, we urge that every minister manifest a greater interest in—and loyalty to—this worthy enterprise by being on the alert for people who can make gifts, buy annuity bonds, and make bequests to this cause, sending their names to the Rev. H. C. Gibbs, Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society.

It is recommended that great care be used in the investigation of the applications for claims upon the necessitous fund.

Every precaution should be exercised for the conservation of funds belonging to the Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Conference. Any proposed legislation that does not make ample provision for our present Conference Claimants and those approaching retirement should be discouraged; we feel that the proposed new pension plan should not be made obligatory upon the Conference but be left to its option to accept or reject.

(Signed) S. N. WAKEFIELD, Chairman.

J. R. FORD, Secretary.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

Your Committee on Domestic Missions Recommends:

1. That as the church in the past received a large per cent of its leadership from the rural districts, and these districts are as thickly populated today as then, but today the church is fast disappearing from among these people, and this territory is becoming a missionary field, the committee suggest that the District Superintendents call this condition of things to the attention of our stronger churches and urge them to make larger contributions to the cause of Domestic Missions, that this may be used in support of pastors to help redeem to the Master's Cause these fields which are now being deserted.

2. That as a goal the minimum salary in the Illinois Conference be at least $1,500.00 and parsonage.

3. That the names of all charges receiving Domestic Missionary money and the amounts they receive be tabulated in our Conference Minutes.

(Signed) J. S. THARP, Chairman.

CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD.

Springfield, Illinois, September 21, 1927.

The Conference Deaconess Board met in annual session at the seat of the Illinois Annual Conference at Laurel M. E. Church, Springfield, Illinois, Wednesday, September 21, 1927, with the following members present:

Dr. J. C. Nate.
E. A. Hedges.
C. R. Morrison.
W. G. Pulliam.
Eva C. Fields.
Bertha A. Beadles.
George L. Losh.

The meeting was called to order by Dr. Nate, First Vice President; Mrs. Fields gave a full report of the Deaconesses' work as related to Chaddock Boys School. The report was accepted and placed on file. (See report.) The Board expressed its appreciation of the help found for the work of the School in the Chaddock Sunday and Sustentation Offering, and bespeaks the continuing co-operation of our pastors for the observance of the day.

After careful consideration, the Conference Deaconess Board unanimously voted to adopt the following resolution to be presented to the Conference for approval:

(Resolution.)

Proposed Endowment Development Chaddock Boys Schools.

Inasmuch as Chaddock Boys' School proposes an immediate campaign this coming conference year 1927-28 for an endowment fund to the amount of $100,000.00; and,

Inasmuch as the campaign is planned without including the use of the regular machinery of the Conference, or without bringing embarrassing pressure upon any pastor; and,

Inasmuch as our Area Bishop and District Superintendents unanimously give to such a campaign their good will and approval,

Be it resolved that the Illinois Conference (meeting at Springfield, September 21, 1927) heartily endorse such a campaign,

Rev. E. A. Hedges was asked to prepare suitable resolutions relative to the death of our President, Dr. E. L. Pletcher, and the following was unanimously adopted:

"The Conference Deaconess Board desires to express its great sorrow in the death of Dr. E. L. Pletcher, who for the past four years, has served as the devoted and helpful president of this board. We share in the deep sense of loss which is felt in the many relations of his work with our Conference, and desire to extend our sympathy to his bereaved family."

Mrs. Frields, Miss Calvert and Miss Beadles were appointed as a nominating committee and they presented to the Board the following officers who were elected for the ensuing year. (See list.) The following names are presented as members of the Chaddock Board for the class of 1930. (See list.)

A motion was made and carried that a mid-year session of the Conference Deaconess Board be held at time and place to be determined by the executive committee.

It was also moved and carried that each deaconess be asked to present a written report of her work annually to the Conference Deaconess Board. The secretary was instructed to notify the deaconesses before each meeting.

The character of all the deaconesses was passed upon. Miss Bessie Musick and Miss Adah Nelson were reported as probationers. Miss Anna L. Logan was reported as retired deaconess and continued in that relationship. Leave of absence was granted to Miss Nelson, and Miss Harriet Severns. Miss Bessie Musick was granted deaconess license and recommended for consecration.

Supplementary Minutes of the Conference Board of Deaconesses.

September 26, 1927.

It was moved and carried that Miss Jeanette Scott of Grace Church Quarterly Conference, Jacksonville, be honorably discharged from Deaconess work upon the surrender of her license and certificate of consecration as required by the Discipline.

GEORGE L. LOSH, Secretary.

EDUCATION.

The Committee on Education reports a year of progress in all the Educational Institutions of the Conference. Indeed it is the very success of these institutions that constitutes our present problem, for the ever increasing opportunities before them make inadequate their present equipments and endowments.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

The registration at the Illinois Wesleyan University last year was in the College of Liberal Arts, 644; in the College of Law, 26; in the School of Music, students of college grade, 81; and special students, 492—a grand total of 1,243 names counted but once. The co-operation of the pastors is appreciated in urging their young people to attend the University and to remain the full four years. It is desirable that an increasing percentage of those who enter the Wesleyan as freshmen should remain for graduation.

A beginning was made at the task of raising $75,000 to meet a conditional gift of like amount for the new Music Building but the increasing depression in the patronizing territory, growing out of serious crop conditions, has blocked the effort, and it was found necessary to defer further activity until this autumn. It is hoped that the remainder of the fund may soon be secured, so that the conditional gift may be saved and the building erected.

Agricultural conditions in central Illinois are now seriously affecting the Wesleyan. The School of Law has had to be discontinued. The freshman class in the College of Liberal Arts has been much reduced this year and that is practically the same as meaning increased deficits. The budget was planned, the teachers employed and overhead contracted for, on the assumption that, while it might not be necessary to turn any students away as was done last year, there would be a freshman class of practically the same size as last year. Wesleyan is glad to favor students with scholarships as long as scholarship funds hold out, but such funds are not unlimited. We therefore urge pastors to seek for the Wesleyan not only students who need scholarship help but also good students who need no financial assistance.

Illinois Woman's College.

The enrollment at Illinois Woman's College last year showed an increase of 14 per cent with a gain of 35 per cent in the number of Seniors. The total enrollment was 681, including 326 who were candidates for degrees, 292 music students, and 63 special students.

Never was the moral and religious atmosphere of the College more positive and stimulating. The Y. W. C. A. has been a vital force in the life of the students. Its members have been active in twenty-six various forms of service. There is a strong student Volunteer Band. Most of the teachers and students are earnest Christians, and in countless ways they work out every day Christ's method of life.

In spite of the serious financial depression throughout the State, cash gifts totaling $105,845.88 came to the College during the year. About $40,000 was added to the permanent endowment funds.

Last fall a development program for this college, to cover a period of about twenty years, was carefully prepared, adopted, and given wide publicity. It was an ambitious program, but it included only what a well endowed and thoroughly equipped, liberal arts college with a limited enrollment should have.

The first item was the erection of a Science Hall and a new Heating Plant, to cost $250,000. Towards this amount, one conditional gift of $125,000 was secured, the condition being that other friends of the College would subscribe an equal amount. To meet this condition a quiet campaign was conducted. It was not a good time to raise money. The Bi-Conference Campaign period had hardly ended. In addition, Central Illinois was in the midst of a financial depression, such as had not been known for many years; besides all this, we were unable to summon the Illinois Conference to our aid. Notwithstanding all this, however, very good progress was made, although $40,000 has yet to be secured.

The prospect for the coming year is promising. The enrollment will be larger than last year's. The buildings are all in first class condition.

A special gift was recently received for the purpose of painting the entire interior of Harker Hall and the dining-room in the main building.

This college is well on its way to becoming the outstanding woman's college in the Middle West, comparable in endowment and equipment to the strong woman's colleges of the East. It deserves and must have the hearty support of both pastors and laymen of this Conference year by year. Without special gifts for sustentation, it will be unable to meet its budget of expenditures during the coming year.

The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois.

One thousand one hundred and seventy-nine students at the University last year joined Trinity Church, the Church of the Foundation, as affiliate members. There were thirty-eight who came in on Confession of Faith.

In addition to the above number there were 800 students who shared in the life and work of The Foundation and Trinity.

Twelve University of Illinois Methodist students are now training in theological schools. Year by year additional recruits are found for the specialized service of the church at home and abroad.

The classes in religion at the Foundation—credit and non-credit—are largely attended. Dr. W. A. Goodell, with his helpers, is doing effective work in this field.

Wilbur D. Grose is Associate Director. He has a group of about forty students who make up the Student Council. They share the responsibility for the planning and carrying out of the work. They gather 300 additional workers around themselves. This is a great training in the work and life of the Church.

The work is terribly embarrassed by lack of adequate Church facilities. Year by year the Methodist Church turns from its doors for lack of room hundreds of students seeking to enter them as worshipers. This is an appalling situation which must be remedied as soon as possible.

The first and immediate problem this year is to secure maintenance funds for carrying forward the regular daily and weekly program of work. We appeal to the Methodists of the state to put this work at the University of Illinois into their regular budget of giving.

Theological Schools.

We believe in our Theological Schools. In this day when college graduates are more common than were High School graduates a generation ago, when new fields of knowledge are daily opening in philosophy, psychology, and science, when there is an increasing complexity in social and industrial relationships, it is imperative that our pastors be thoroughly trained for their work. We therefore urge all candidates for our ministry to attend one of our Theological Schools and commend these same schools to our laymen, who, we trust, will support them with prayers and gifts. We are very happy to have a visitor at our Conference this year, one of the new Professors at Garrett Biblical Institute, Dr. R. D. Hollington. We congratulate the school on securing him for the teaching staff.

Sustentation Fund for the Illinois Wesleyan University, the Illinois Woman's College and the Wesley Foundation.

Believing that the increasing needs and opportunities of our Educational Institutions make imperative an increased support on the part of the Conference, we make the following recommendations:

1. That the Conference raise a Sustentation Fund of $40,000.00 for the Illinois Wesleyan University, the Illinois Woman's College, and the Wesley Foundation, this Fund to be secured by the end of January, 1928.

2. That this $40,000.00 be allocated to the Districts as a suggestion of their respective total responsibilities, the amounts to be raised as determined by the Districts.

3. That each District Superintendent associate with himself a special committee of pastors and laymen to plan and promote the work in the district.

4. That the Institutions be asked to provide suitable literature for mailing before the local campaign, and that the pastors provide mailing lists for same.

5. That one or two Sundays preceding the canvass be devoted to special messages upon the necessity of the Sustentation Fund, the dates in the respective Charges to be scheduled by the pastors in conference with the District Superintendents.

6. That the District Superintendents, the Chairman and Secretary of the Conference Board of Education, the Chairman and Secretary of the Committee on Education, and the three heads of Institutions be appointed the Conference Committee for the general guidance of the work and for co-operation with every District throughout the year.

7. That the Sustentation Fund raised under this movement be equally divided among the Illinois Wesleyan University, the Illinois Woman's College, and the Wesley Foundation.

We recommend the following Trustees of Illinois Wesleyan University for re-election in the class of 1930:

Ned E. Dolan, Bloomington.
Cliff Guild, Bloomington.
J. N. Hairgrove, Virden.
John O. Honnold, Kansas.

EVANGELISM.

Your Committee on Evangelism prayerfully suggests: That all successful methods of evangelism such as special meetings, and personal approach used throughout the conference and reported by the several District Superintendents, be continued this coming Conference year.

That religious schools of instruction be given a larger place in the local church program.

That decision days in our Sunday Schools, and Epworth Leagues, be considered as valuable opportunities to lead our young people to Christ, and be treated as such.

And that all ministers of our Conference pray unto God that we be given the vision and strength to lead our people; that pastor and people possess, and exemplify, that mind which was in Christ Jesus.

(Signed) O. B. HESS, Chairman.

O. E. MARTIN, Secretary.

STATE OF COUNTRY.

The Committee on the State of the Country reports the following:

Inasmuch as the Christian Church has been and is an important factor in moulding opinions and creating sentiment in the moral areas of political life where she has the sphere of service, The Illinois Annual Conference hereby express its judgment that the Anti-Saloon League, distinctly a child of the church, has had and now has a right to exist and we are proud of its accomplishments, recognizing in them ample justification for its organization and its continued plea for support.

Be it therefore resolved:

1. That the ministers and churches of the Illinois Conference give earnest and sincere co-operation with the Anti-Saloon League in all of its efforts to defeat the repeal of any dry laws or the enactment of any other laws which would in any way conflict with the enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment.

2. That we urge all of our people to resent all of the widespread propaganda for the modification of the Volstead Act. The church must not permit the press of the country to be her guide in moral issues. We cannot consent to the idea that the press of the country should become the conscience of the church.

3. We exhort all of our citizens to improve the opportunity which the Primary of 1928 will afford them to express effectively their choice of the best candidates possible for the respective offices.

4. That we register our sentiment and vote in favor of any movement that will more completely unify the nations of the world and produce international good will, that war may be forever outlawed.

5. That we urge all of our people to exercise a greater respect and observance of the Lord's Day, since it is the Divine provision made for the preservation and rallying the forces of Christ for renewed and continued efforts for the building and extending the Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

(Signed) LEWIS S. ELLISON, Chairman.

A. L. CASELEY, Secretary.

HOSPITALS AND HOMES.

We view with great pleasure the widespread interest the church is taking in the care of suffering people everywhere.

The Illinois Conference in the past has fostered and helped its institutions and we have no doubt but that it will continue to do so.

What beneficent work can be closer to the heart of the Master than the providing of homes for the helpless as the Baby Fold at Normal, and Cunningham Home at Urbana, the aged saints at the Old People's Home at Quincy, also the asylums for the sick at the hospitals at Mattoon and Wesley Memorial Hospital at Chicago. We recommend confirmation of the election of Rev. E. G. Sandmeyer, Rev. A. C. Adams, and Mr. Chas. Eishenhauer of Quincy as trustees of the Old People's Home.

We also authorize the trustees of the old People's Home to build the addition as planned by them, with the understanding that no campaign or drive be instituted for this purpose. We wish to have the support of the Conference when we approach people friendly for this cause.

All these institutions are worthy of our beneficence and graciously commended as special objects of philanthropy of our generous Christian people.

RESOLVED, That we give a special hearing in each of our churches at least to one of these institutions each year and an offering be taken for these, our own worthy Conference institutions.

(Signed) GEORGE T. WETZEL, Chairman.

W. C. HARMS, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUES.

The emphasis which is today being placed upon Religious Education should make our church keenly alive to the opportunities which are presented in the Sunday School and the Epworth League. We deem it of the utmost importance that every effort be made to increase the efficiency of the Sunday Schools and Leagues and present to the Conference the following recommendations:

First—That all available methods of instruction and development be used in an attempt to give our young people adequate training for their task as christian young people. Those methods most highly productive of success are the Week Day School of Religious Education, The Daily Vacation Bible School, Church Training Night, and the development of a better teaching force for the Sunday School through some suitable plan for the training of teachers.

Second—That wherever possible the youth of our church should be organized into age groups, giving the plans and programs of the Central Office of the Epworth League a thorough trial in such work. The Twenty-four Hour Day League plan is surely to be commended for its emphasis upon the development of the Missionary outlook in young life.

Third—That, since evangelism should be the dominant force in all church activity, we give special attention to Decision Days in the Sunday School and the Win-My-Chum campaign of the Epworth League. This year of emphasis upon the first Department of the League should give added impetus to our evangelistic efforts in this organization.

Fourth—There are still some Methodist Churches that are missing the help of the splendid literature produced by our Book Concern. We suggest that every church of the Conference make use of the literature which is so carefully prepared by the Book Concern.

Fifth—We concur in the recommendation of the Epworth League Institute Commission, by which recommendation Article III of the Constitution is amended as follows:

That Article III which now reads: "This organization shall be controlled by a group of twenty-four men, seventeen ministers, members of the Illinois Conference, and seven laymen," be amended so as to read, "This organization shall be controlled by a group of twenty-seven men, twenty-one ministers, members of the Illinois Conference, and six laymen, one-third of whom shall be elected each year for a term of three years."

The following officers elected at the Institute are submitted for Conference approval:

President, A. R. Grummon; First Vice President, H. G. Beck; Second Vice President, G. V. Herrick; Third Vice President, J. W. Starr; Fourth Vice President, Paul E. Carson; Registrar, H. B. Oborn; Life Service, Secretary, T. B. Lugg.

The following Institute Commission is submitted for conference approval:

Class 1928—Ministers, G. L. Losh, A. A. Heinlein, C. C. Nordling, J. E. Tuschhoff, C. R. Booth, Ray Funk, W. G. Pulliam; Laymen, Fred Hitch, J. E. Johnson.

Class 1929—Ministers, J. W. Starr, P. E. Carson, T. B. Lugg, A. R. Grummon, Raye Ragan, H. B. Oborn, J. H. Singleton; Laymen, I. H. Neece, T. V. Hopper.

Class 1930—Ministers, H. A. Keck, C. E. Pettit, A. E. Cole, G. V. Herrick, H. G. Beck, A. P. Jordan, C. H. Thrall; Laymen, Harry Houston, N. L. Eddy.

HARRY A. COCHRAN, Secretary.

BOARD OF STEWARDS.

1. WHEREAS, We believe it to be fundamental to the success of any pension system that its funds shall be administered in justice and equity; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, First, that for the sake of expediency the Board of Stewards be authorized to pay annuity at the rate of $24.00;

RESOLVED, Second, that from the cash allowance of any claimant whose years of service upon which his claims are based are not previously paid to the Preachers' Aid Society, there shall be deducted the sum of nine dollars per year and for each widow the sum of six dollars per year for each year for which dues had not been paid, until the sum of forty-five dollars for each delinquent year has been paid. These deductions are to be indicated in a separate column in the report of the Board of Stewards.

RESOLVED, Third, that the District Superintendents be requested to report to the Committee on Conference Relations, at the opening of the Conference session, all cases where members are coupling business pursuits with pastoral work to such an extent that only part of their time is devoted to the work of the churches to which they have been assigned. This committee is hereby directed, after proper consideration, to recommend to the Conference what relation, if any, such members shall sustain to this Conference.

RESOLVED, Fourth, that all ministers who are received into the Conference, whether from probation or transfer, or in any other way, shall be required to file with the Secretary of the Conference and Secretary of the Board of Stewards a complete pastoral record of all items which may affect the annuity rights of the claimant and that no claim shall be allowed until such record has been filed.

When a minister is transferred out of the Conference the Secretary of the Conference shall forward to the Secretary of the Conference to which the brother has been transferred his complete record.

A claimant on the funds of the Annual Conference may draw his first quarterly benefit October first, following the session of the Conference at which he becomes a claimant. But such a prospective claimant should notify the Secretary of the Board of Stewards not later than August first, preceding the Annual Conference session.

That with every member of the Illinois Conference it is a matter of good faith—that he become an active member of, and pay his annual dues to the Preachers' Aid Society in the benefit of whose funds he is to share.

That every member of the Conference appointed to service other than that of pastor or District Superintendent, shall file with the Statistical Secretary of the Conference the name of the position held and the amount of salary or income received, and the Statistical Secretary is hereby instructed to include these reports in the statistics of the Conference. All those who do not comply with the foregoing are automatically referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

That all who handle Conference Claimant's Funds shall furnish bonds in such amount as the Conference may decide.

That the Conference year of the Board of Stewards begin and end with the beginning of the Conference session, and that the accounts of the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards be audited annually.

That the income on invested funds remain in the hands of the Treasurer of the Preachers' Aid Society until the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards shall need the same in order to meet the claims due from quarter to quarter, and that upon request of the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards the Treasurer of the Preachers' Aid Society shall remit to the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards in the amount apportioned for the coming year.

That for the Conference year 1927-28 each pastoral charge be apportioned an amount equal to 10 per cent of the pastor's cash claim for the Conference claimants of the Illinois Conference and that there may be money available to pay our claimants quarterly, the receipts for ministerial support be prorated quarterly and the apportionment for Conference claimants sent to the Treasurer of the Illinois Conference.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees was held in Laurel Methodist Episcopal Church, Springfield, Ill., Wednesday, September 21, 1927.

Present: F. B. Madden, F. A. Havighurst, C. F. Buker, H. C. Gibbs, A. M. Wells, A. L. Caseley. F. B. Madden was elected president, T. N. Ewing, vice president, A. M. Wells, treasurer, A. L. Caseley, secretary.

The report of H. C. Gibbs, retiring treasurer, was read and approved and placed on file. R. W. Ennis was elected to present the Annual Strawbridge Sermon, C. S. Boyd, alternate.

The following was presented by A. M. Wells:

WHEREAS, The lot on which Wesley Church, Decatur, Ill., has been built is deeded to the Trustees of the Illinois Conference, we recommend that said Board of Trustees be authorized to deed, give title and possession of said lot to the Board of Trustees of said Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church when said board shall have been elected.

Second—On motion of A. M. Wells the Cisco Quarterly Conference be authorized to sell the property of the Enterprise Methodist Episcopal Church near the town of Cisco and apply the money to repairs on the property of the Cisco Church.

Third—On motion of A. M. Wells the Trustees recommend that sum not to exceed $500.00 in the hand of the Conference Trustee from the sale of Proprietors in Shelby County be placed at the disposal of the Superintendent of the Decatur District for repair of the Moulton Parsonage.

Fourth—On motion of F. A. Havighurst the sale of Old Town Church Property close to Arrowsmith, be authorized, the proceeds to be turned over to the Arrowsmith Methodist Episcopal Church.

(Signed) F. B. MADDEN, President.

A. L. CASELEY, Secretary.

Supplementary Report Board of Trustees.

An adjourned meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Illinois Conference was held Friday, 23d, 1927.

Present: F. B. Madden, president; A. M. Wells, C. F. Buker, F. A. Havighurst, A. L. Caseley.

1. The Trustees recommend the sale of Zion Church, New City charge, Springfield District, the funds to be turned over to the New City charge.

2. The Trustees recommend the sale of Pidgeon Creek Church, Plainville charge, the funds therefrom to be invested in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Hull, Illinois.

3. The Trustees recommend the sale of Asbury Church, four miles north of LeRoy, Ill., the proceeds to be paid to the LeRoy Church for improvements on the LeRoy Church property.

4. The Superintendent of Jacksonville District be authorized to sell the church and parsonage at Topeka, Ill., and that the Trustees of the Conference be given power to make title and give possession of the same. The proceeds to be turned over to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Trustees.

5. Virden Church. The Superintendent of the Jacksonville District be granted authority to sell church property in the neighborhood of Virden and the proceeds placed in the hands of the Conference Trustees.

6. In the case of Graham Chapel on the Allenville charge, the Trustees recommend that the Superintendent of the Mattoon District be authorized to sell the church and the proceeds be turned over to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Trustees.

7. That the Prentice Memorial Sermon be preached by A. L. Caseley. This sermon to be preached in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, Decatur, Ill., some time during the coming month of November.

(Signed) F. B. MADDEN, President.

A. L. CASELEY, Secretary.

W. F. M. S. AND W. H. M. S.

We rejoice in the prosperity and growth of the Woman's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary Societies as evidenced by their continued increase in both membership and offerings.

We commend the magnificent work they are doing in carrying the Gospel to the needy millions in both home and foreign fields.

We pledge them our hearty co-operation of one or both of these societies in every church, and we express it as our conviction that every Methodist woman should belong to one or both of them.

MEMORIALS.

We your Committee on General Conference Memorials respectfully submit the following report:

1. That we memorialize the General Conference to make provision for more adequate financial support of the Schools of Theology of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

2. That we approve and adopt the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the Methodist Episcopal Church submitted by the Central Swedish Annual Conference as adopted by the General Laymen's Associations relation for the admission of Laymen into the Annual Conference.

3. RESOLVED, That while we sympathize with the objective of the Memorial from the Dakota Conference we do not concur with the method of reaching it.

4. Concurrence.

5. Concurrence.

Provision for More Adequate Financial Support of the Schools of Theology of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

WHEREAS, The future of the Methodist Episcopal Church, as of every other Protestant Church, and, indeed, the hope of Christian civilization for America and the world, depends upon adequately trained spiritual leadership; and

WHEREAS, The Schools of Theology are charged with the responsibility of furnishing this training, and are expected to do this at inconsiderable expense to students preparing for the ministry and other forms of religious service under the auspices of the church; and

WHEREAS, The rapid developments in various types of church activities are emphasizing the need of training for specialized forms of service, which, in turn, involves heavy expenses for enlargement of teaching staff and equipment, for which the returns from endowment and other regular sources of income are insufficient; and

WHEREAS, The Schools of Theology of the Methodist Episcopal Church are in a real sense institutions of the entire church, not of particular conferences, or areas, or restricted geographical divisions, and are thus legitimately dependent upon the co-operation of the entire church; and

WHEREAS, For various reasons it is impossible for the Schools of Theology to secure the needed increase in financial support through methods used by other Connectional Institutions; and

WHEREAS, Methodist Schools of Theology can expect no assistance from the large general educational foundations which are prevented by their regulations from aiding denominational theological education; and

WHEREAS, The provision for financial support made by the General Conference of 1924 (Discipline, 1924, Paragraph 458, Section 5 and Sub-section 2) is proving entirely inadequate, and is creating some feeling of injustice because it tends to group the Schools of Theology with educational institutions whose relation to the church and to their constituencies is of an entirely different nature from that of the Schools of Theology; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we urge upon the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church assembled in Kansas City, Mo., in May, 1928, the necessity of considering the need of more adequate financial support, supplementing the normal resources of the Schools of Theology, and of providing a plan which shall meet the pressing and urgent needs of these institutions.

Admission of Laymen to the Annual Conference.

WHEREAS The General Laymen's Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at a meeting held in the Chicago Temple, Chicago, Illinois, on June 28, 1927, adopted a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the Methodist Episcopal Church, whereby laymen may be admitted as members of the Annual Conferences; now, therefore,

"BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the Central Swedish Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in regular session at Chicago, Illinois, hereby approve and adopt said proposed amendment, and recommend favorable action thereon by General Conference.

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we submit, and we do hereby submit, said proposed amendment to the Constitution to the several Annual and Lay Electoral Conferences and request the presiding Bishops to present it to them for a constitutional vote thereon."

Protest Against the Use of Cigarettes.

WHEREAS, The use of cigarettes by almost all classes and ages has spread with alarming rapidity, affecting particularly the young life of the country; and

WHEREAS, Medical authorities of the highest rank are agreed as to the harmful physical effect of this pernicious habit, a conviction which is endorsed by leading athletic directors throughout the land; and

WHEREAS, Conscientious educators in our highest institutions of learning, as well as teachers in our public schools corroborate the claim that the use of cigarettes does weaken the intellectual ability of students addicted to this habit; and

WHEREAS, The general public is constantly subjected to annoyances and physical discomfort on account of the indifference and discourtesy of those who persist in poisoning the atmosphere of public places with the vile fumes of this obnoxious weed; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Dakota Annual Conference memorialize the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church (At its 1928 Session) to register its hearty disapproval of the sale and use of cigarettes, and petition for legislation in every state of the United States that will help to abate this nuisance; and

RESOLVED, That the General Conference effectively protest against the employment, on the faculty of any of our denominational educational institutions of professors addicted to the use of cigarettes or tobacco in any form.

The above Memorial was adopted by the Dakota Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in session at Vermillion South Dakota, October 9th, 1926. We ask all Conferences to join with us in securing favorable action on this matter by the 1928 General Conference of our Church.

H. P. EBERHART,
Secretary, Dakota Conference.

Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

WHEREAS, There has been presented to the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church the "Complete Text of the Plan of the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund" of the Methodist Episcopal Church as approved by the Board of Pensions and Relief; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, (1) That we hereby approve the principle of providing adequate reserve funds to protect and stabilize the payment of pension and other benefits to the retired and disabled ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church and to the widows and orphans of Methodist Preachers.

(2) That we commend to the next General Conference the adjustment of the pension program of the church in such manner as to make the progressive funding of pensions for "New Entrants" a certainty, and at the same time make provision for the guaranty of all pensions based on services rendered by "Previous Entrants."

(3) That we urge the General Conference to direct that steps be taken to promote a general effort throughout the church to secure the requisite reserves so as to make possible at an early day the reserve funding of all accrued pensions.

(4) That we approve the general principles embodied in the "Complete Text of the Plan of the MINISTERS' RESERVE PENSION FUND," prepared and approved by the Board of Pensions and Relief, as furnishing a progressive program that will gradually stabilize the pension system of Methodism on a reserve basis, without disturbing, meanwhile, pension operations under the "Original Pension System" of 1908; and respectfully memorialize the General Conference to adopt the Plan of the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund and incorporate it into the legislation of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Conference Course of Study.

RESOLVED, That the Illinois Conference commend heartily the work of the Commission on the Conference Course of Study, both as to the content of the course and the methods used to make it useful to our preachers throughout the Itinerant Schools of Theology.

PUBLICATION OF THE MINUTES.

The Committee on the Publication of the Minutes reports the following:

The contract has been let to the Illinois State Journal for the publication of the Minutes for the following year at a price of $6.40 per page for the printing of 4,500 copies. Any cuts required are an additional cost.

The Committee on Publication submitted the following recommendations:

1. That each pastor, district superintendent and preacher in detached service be required to pay into the Minute Fund an amount equal to one-fifth of one per cent of his cash salary to defray the cost of publication, and that this quota be paid before the close of the Conference Session.

2. That the treasurer of the Minute Fund be authorized to name an assistant who working with him shall receive the moneys paid at the seat of Conference for the publication of the Minutes. The treasurer and his assistant shall have a desk easily located at which one or the other may be found at hours to be announced by them. The committee further recommends that all pastors, district superintendents and preachers in detached service who do not pay their apportionment at the seat of Conference shall have the Minutes of Conference sent them C. O. D.

3. That the Secretary of the Conference be elected Editor of the Minutes, and that the Pastor of the Douglas Avenue Methodist Church, Springfield, be elected treasurer of the fund. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to furnish the publisher with a mailing list, together with quota for each pastor.

4. That the price to be marked on the Minutes be 50 cents.

5. That the cost of publishing the Minutes be kept within the resources of the treasury, and that the treasurer shall be authorized to co-operate with the printer to eliminate unnecessary use of space.

6. That the Pastors of the Douglas Avenue and Laurel Methodist Churches of Springfield, the District Superintendent of the Springfield District and the Secretary of the Conference be constituted the committee for the publication of the Minutes.

7. That the following named material appearing in the 1926 copy of the Minutes be eliminated from the 1927 publication: The Sunday School Statistics marked No. 3.

8. That all copy to be submitted to the printer for insertion in the Minutes be typewritten and double spaced.

9. That no copy be subject to change after it has been submitted to the printer.

10. That in the interest of speeding the printing of the Minutes, all proof reading be done in Springfield under the direction of the committee for publication.

HASENSTAB REPORT.

Kindly receive this report of the missionary work that has been carried on among the deaf within your territory during the past Conference Year. I have made eleven monthly trips through the field, and held eleven preaching and four communion services in Jacksonville, Springfield, Illiopolis and Decatur each, and eleven preaching services in Clinton. The rite of water baptism was given to one lady in Decatur and one infant in Jacksonville; one wedding ceremony performed in Mt. Pulaski, and one funeral service conducted for a hearing man, a son of deaf parents, near Clarence, my daughter Beatrice interpreting orally.

The financial side of the work stands as follows:

	Jacksonville.	Other Cities.
Collections	$27.58	$ 35.69
Tithes	3.54	101.22
Offerings for Local Budget.....	55.00	24.00
Offerings for World Service.....	28.25	32.41
Special Collections	4.00	11.05
Sunday School Collections.....	4.20
	<hr/>	<hr/>
	$122.57	$204.37
Total		$326.94
The same has been thus applied:
World Service		$ 75.00
Chicago City Missions.....		15.00
Wesley Hospital at Chicago.....		15.00
School for Deaf Children in China.....		13.00
Illinois Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf.....		2.00
Missionary's Traveling Expenses.....		96.26
Conference Claimants		19.00
Bishop		1.00
Missionary's Support		81.00
		$317.26

May not you jointly with the other Conferences of your area consider the wisdom of securing a regularly trained missionary-pastor for your own area, who will then give more time each month to the deaf all over the area's territory than I can with four days in your territory. There are many other deaf residents within your territory whom I cannot reach simply because of limit of time, and those cannot well be neglected. In some way you can address the Board of Home Missions, and also the coming General Conference, on the basis of a missionary-pastor in each area. I have been in my work for thirty-four years and the assistant pastor for over twenty-five years, and it is time now to find and train our successors and several more on the basis of a missionary-pastor for each area. We cannot be doing well by doing less for children of silence who cannot be waited on by you unless you know and use their sign-language to a practical extent.

(Signed) PHILIP J. HASENSTAB.

RESOLUTIONS.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

The 104th session of the Illinois Annual Conference has been royally entertained by Rev. E. S. Combs, the pastor of the Laurel Church, his splendid people and by Springfield Methodism and its friends in the beautiful new edifice of which they and we are justly proud. Our being fed and banqueted in the same building in which our sessions are held is a unique experience to the Conference, and we desire to pay tribute to the faithful and efficient service rendered by the women of Laurel Church in thus ministering to our comfort.

We appreciate the kindness of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, the First Methodist Episcopal Church in allowing us the use of their buildings for our committees, and the First National Bank for the use of adding machines. We thank the Churches of Springfield for so cordially receiving us in their pulpits on Sunday. The Illinois State Journal and the Illinois State Register gave us valuable publicity for which we are very appreciative.

We wish to express our thanks to the State of Illinois for the use of the State Arsenal on Sunday morning, thus making possible that great Service of worship with its thousands of attendants.

We consider ourselves very happy in having the inspiring addresses of Dr. Cameron Harmon of McKendree College, Dr. William L. Stidger of Kansas City, the lecture of Bishop E. G. Richardson of the Atlanta Area and the addresses of Dr. H. D. Hollington of Garrett Biblical Institute, and we wish to express our appreciation of these and all other speakers who contributed to the very fine program of the week.

We also wish to thank Rev. J. A. Betcher, Miss Evalyn Gilbert, Mrs. E. S. Combs, and all others who have inspired us with music and lead us in the service of praise.

The presence of Bishop Edwin H. Hughes with us is always a cause of gratification. His ready wit, his spirit of brotherliness and the exalted spirituality of his messages are typical of the dual nature of our holy religion which has both its human and its Divine aspects.

We earnestly request the General Conference of 1928 to return Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes to the Chicago Area for the next quadrennium, and instruct our delegates to work to that end.

(Signed) J. E. EVANS, Chairman.

CHAS. W. HAMAND, Secretary.

WORLD SERVICE.

Your committee on World Service has carefully considered the interests of this great cause and reports as follows:

1. We regret exceedingly that the treasurer's report at this Conference session shows another decrease in World Service receipts for the Conference year.

2. In the light of this fact we urge upon the conference a deep determination to end this retreat and to face about toward victory.

3. To this end, we urge a continuation this year of a campaign of seed sowing and cultivation in every church. Information concerning the needs of the constituent Boards in World Service is fundamental.

4. We, therefore, urge that the proper forces be carefully organized and set to the task of preparing the hearts and minds of the people to accept their share of financial responsibility in world redemption. We suggest the circulation of literature, the use of stereopticon lectures, and the employment of special speakers available as a means toward this end.

5. In harmony with the action of the Executive Committee representing the Chicago Area World Service Council we pledge ourselves to work through the area office in close co-operation with the Board of Education in this year's cultivation plans.

6. Recognizing its importance we recommend that the May Roll Call be faithfully observed and that every member and friend in every church be invited and urged to respond in a very large way.

(Signed) A. R. GRUMMON, Chairman.

R. J. WROUGHTON, Secretary.

Certification of Funds.

RESOLVED, That the Conference Secretary be instructed to report to Reverend Charles Guenther, 2600 Accomac Street, St. Louis, Mo., the amount the Illinois Conference has received for its superannuate relief fund from the former St. Louis German Conference through the Board of Pensions and Relief of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

(Signed) J. E. TUSCHHOFF.

Church Publicity.

RESOLVED, That this Conference create a Conference Publicity Committee, to which all newspaper copy of Conference actions may be submitted for correction and proper wording.

BOARD OF STEWARDS.

Auditor.

Pursuant to engagement we have made a cash audit of your books and pertinent records for the period beginning August 17, 1926 and ending September 10, 1927.

As a result of such audit we submit the following:

EXHIBIT A—Statement of Receipts and Disbursements, August 17, 1926, to September 10, 1927; and EXHIBIT A—SCHEDULE 1—Conference Claimants from Preachers' Aid, August 17, 1926, to September 10, 1927.

Comments.

Findings.

1. That all receipts had been accounted for.
2. That the disbursements to Conference Claimants as disclosed by Exhibit A—Schedule 1 were regular as to amount and endorsements.
3. That the other minor disbursements were regular.
4. That the expenses of the Treasurer were only $60.46 for the year and $79,434.71 worth of checks were issued.
5. That the records were faithfully kept.

Conclusion.

A payment of $400.00 on the principal and $11.00 interest was received on the Certificate of Deposit of the Decatur Bank. The prior report states that a new Certificate of Deposit amounting to $1,634.00 had been issued which leaves a balance due of $1,234.00. Inasmuch as this report is on a cash basis the $34.00 has not been added to income, therefore, the balance appears at $1,200.00. We are not in a position to comment as to the value of this Certificate of Deposit because no Report of the Receiver was available.

Every courtesy and assistance were extended by Reverend Lloyd.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) BACCHUS & BISHOP CO.
Clifford E. Estes.

Plan of Conference Examinations

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

Chairman—C. D. Robertson.

Registrar—R. L. Steed.

Examiners—J. A. Biddle, H. G. Beck, A. L. Caseley, J. E. Evans, A. R. Grummon, C. W. Hamand, A. A. Heinlein, J. W. Starr, H. A. Keck, T. B. Lugg, F. A. McCarty, D. F. Nelson, A. C. Piersel, W. G. Pulliam, E. D. Palmer, J. W. Starr.

RULES OF THE BOARD.

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners by the chairman. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall conduct the examinations in the Courses of Study, and make recommendations to the Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study or to appear for examination, shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time for examination. And in case of such failure to pass, the Registrar shall report the fact to the student and to the Chairman of the Board.

4. Examiners shall report grades on all papers to the Registrar within two weeks after the examinations are held.

5. The examination questions shall conform to the requirements of the Commission on Conference Courses of Study and the markings upon both examinations and collateral reading shall be upon the scale and according to the method established by the Commission, and no mark below 70 per cent shall pass.

6. All credits from schools shall be sent to the Chairman, who shall decide upon the acceptability of them. All grades other than those given by the Board of Examiners shall be marked as "P," indicating a passing grade, which does not affect the general average of the student.

7. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each student, including candidates for admission trial, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, and other expense incidental to the work of the Board.

8. It shall be the duty of the Chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of the candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the Board of Examiners. And it shall be the duty of the Board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable, concerning the candidates, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the Chairman to make similar investigations and of the Board to make similar recommendations in the case of applicants for admission from another church. District Superintendents are requested to report to the Chairman the names of all candidates for admission on trial or into full connection, for admission from other churches, and of all candidates for orders, in time to allow such investigation on the part of the Chairman.

9. The annual meeting of the Board of Examiners, in accordance with the Discipline, shall be held at 4 p. m. of the day preceding the session of the Annual Conference.

10. "Honorable Mention," with public recognition, will be conferred at each annual conference session upon the five students having the highest averages in their respective classes. But no one is eligible to this honor who has not done at least 50 per cent of his work under this Board, or whose standing in the course of study is irregular.

11. All examination papers shall be sent to the examiners by registered mail, and the receipts for the same brought to the seat of the annual conference.

12. A deduction will be made in the grades of all papers in which the spelling, grammar or general appearance is faulty.

13. Papers on Methodist Review must conform to the specified length of 200 words. Otherwise the grade will be made less.

COURSES OF STUDY.

Assignment of Studies for 1927-1928.

Where a subject is assigned to two men, the first-named is the instructor in that subject at The Itinerants' School, and conducts the actual examination in accordance with the resolution of co-operation with Central Illinois Conference. All work, including Written Work, inquiries and Examinations must be sent to the men having charge of the respective subjects at the Itinerants' School.

The addresses of the Exchange Examiners may be obtained from the Chairman.

Committee on Itinerants' School.

C. D. Robertson, A. C. Piersel, E. L. Tobie.

Plan of Organization of the Itinerants' School of the Illinois and Central Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Government.

The organization and government of the School shall be vested in a joint committee consisting of three members from each conference. One of these three shall be the Chairman of the Board of Examiners; the other two shall be elected by the Board of Examiners.

The two elected by the Examiners shall hold office for one year and may be re-elected.

The Joint Committee shall have power to organize and conduct the School, provide the faculty and special lecturers, and take general oversight of the work of the School.

The Joint Committee shall work with the counsel and help of the Commission on Courses of Study as far as is practicable.

The Joint Committee shall be the final authority in questions of policy.

Faculty.

The faculty shall be chosen from the Examiners of the two Conferences.

Session.

The sessions of the School shall be held annually as soon after the commencement season as is practicable.

The sessions shall be held at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington.

Attendance Required.

All students in the Conference Course of Study shall be required to attend the School unless previously excused by the Chairman of their respective Boards of Examiners.

Finance.

The expense of the School shall be met by apportioning to the churches a minimum of Fifty Dollars ($50) for each district, or such larger sum as the conferences shall fix upon from year to year.

The District Superintendents are asked to provide for the collection of the amount designated before June 1.

Examinations.

All examinations except those required by the Discipline to be given at Conference, shall be held the last day of School.

Written Work.

No student shall be admitted to the examination in any subject unless his required Written Work in that subject is done.

Review by Conferences.

The work of the School shall be subject to review and approval by the two Conferences.

Continuance.

This plan of organization shall continue from year to year unless modified or abrogated by the Conferences.

Memoirs

REV. MATTHEW G. COLEMAN.

The Rev. Matthew Gray Coleman, for thirty years a devoted pastor in the Illinois Conference, died in Lake View Hospital, Danville, Ill., June 3. Death was due to apoplexy. He preached in Windsor, Ill., the Sunday before but feeling ill came to the hospital on Monday for treatment. His son, Matthew Kirk, was with him during his last hours, but his daughter, Dorothy of Lake Charles, La., did not reach Danville until Saturday morning.

The Rev. Matthew Coleman was born near Danville, Ill., October 22, 1858. He attended the public schools of Danville, and at an early age united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. He taught school for a while but feeling called to the pastorate he entered the Illinois Conference on trial September 19, 1888. He held important charges in the Illinois Conference for thirty years, being always a faithful and hard-working pastor, interested in everything that ought to concern a Methodist pastor.

On December 29, 1891, Brother Coleman was united in marriage to Miss Annie Kirkpatrick of Monticello, Ill. To this union were born two sons and one daughter. Mrs. Coleman became an invalid in later life, and on account of her failing health Brother Coleman felt constrained to give up the work of the regular pastorate, entering upon financial work in connection with Lake View Hospital of Danville, Ill., and the work for the Conference Claimants and Preachers' Aid Society. He was serving as a supply pastor at Windsor, Ill., at the time of his death.

Mrs. Coleman preceded her husband in death about one year.

Brother Coleman lost three uncles in the Civil War. He was always a great favorite among the veterans and spoke repeatedly to them on Memorial Day and on other occasions. During the World War he was enthusiastic in every good endeavor. His work in connection with Lake View Hospital in Danville resulted in the raising of over $100,000 for that institution.

Funeral services were held in St. James Church, Danville, and in the Methodist Church in Monticello. Burial was in Monticello. A large number of Methodist ministers attended both services.

HOMER B. MONTGOMERY.

Homer B. Montgomery, veteran of the cross, a devoted minister of Jesus Christ, a faithful servant of the church, came to the end of his earth's journey on Tuesday morning, July 19 at 4:40 o'clock. For many weeks he had suffered an attack of intestinal influenza and growing weaker from day to day at last, with the consciousness of the saving and keeping power of his Lord, he fell asleep.

He was born on November 27, 1850, in Salem, Ohio, and was the son of the Reverend and Mrs. Joseph Montgomery. He came to Illinois with his parents in 1856, the family locating in Decatur and with the exception of two years when he resided in Lincoln he has called Decatur his home.

In the great revival held in the old First Church under the leadership of the Reverend Thomas Harrison he was converted and united with the membership of First Church. He immediately identified himself with the activities of the church. He served as song leader in the Sunday School and later became an evangelist and carried on his evangelistic service for a number of years and as an evangelist he was successful in bringing many persons into a conscious personal relation with Jesus Christ and adding them to the church membership.

In 1895 he united with the Illinois Annual Conference and continued in his ministerial activities until his death. For one year, 1900, he was appointed by the Bishop as Conference evangelist. The following pastorates were served. Minier, Waynesville, Heyworth, Assumption, Elkhart, Mt. Pulaski, Blue Mound, Harristown, Hammond, Indianola, Argenta, and Latham. He was given the retired relation in 1922 and for the past four years and more he has served as supply pastor at Forsythe.

During the lifetime of his father, Reverend Joseph Montgomery, and himself the two responded to the Conference Roll Call eighty-two times. His father never missed a Roll Call during his fifty years of Conference membership and Homer went on with that good record and answered to each Roll Call for thirty-two years. *

He was one of the original nine men who organized the Y. M. C. A. in Decatur and at the golden anniversary observed during last March he was one of the four then living and he offered the prayer at the beginning of the program.

On February 19, 1873, he was united in marriage with Miss Etta A. Pease. One son, Louis Montgomery, was born to them. Both wife and son survive him and one grandchild and three great grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery were devoted to each other and during all the years they have been like sweet hearts. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1923. This wedding was solemnized by the father of the groom, Reverend Joseph Montgomery, and the father's blessing was realized in this long and happy union of hearts.

Funeral services were held in the First Methodist Church, Decatur, the church where he had so long worshipped and which he loved so dearly and the interment was in the Mausoleum in Greenwood Cemetery, Decatur. The services were in charge of the District Superintendent, A. M. Wells, and he was assisted in the service by Wilbert Dowson, R. L. Steed, A. N. Simmons, H. C. Gibbs, J. E. Reynolds and S. H. Hoar.

REV. HENRY J. PANNWITT.

Rev. Henry J. Pannwitt, member of the Illinois Conference, former member of the St. Louis German Conference, died in his home in Decatur, Ill., on Tuesday morning, April 20, 1926.

He was born in Germany in 1863; when he was three years old his parents came to America and settled near Chicago, later moving to Effingham, Ill. He was converted at a camp meeting near Nokomis, Ill., and soon after that felt the call to the ministry. He had his college training and was a graduate of Central Wesleyan College of Warrenton, Mo. He joined the St. Louis Conference in 1889 and served faithfully thirty-six years, during these years of his ministry he was highly esteemed by the brethren of the ministry and had the confidence of all who knew him.

He served the following places: Moweaqua, Chester, Bunker Hill, Mascoutah, Nashville, Carondulet, St. Louis, Ellis Grove, Decatur, Granite City, Emden. At Moweaqua he led in the building of a new parsonage and concluded his ministry with the building of a splendid new church at Emden, Ill. He was especially interested in the religious education of the youth of his church, every year maintaining classes of instruction.

He was married in 1890 to Miss Emma Kettlekamp of Nokomis, Ill., who twelve years later died in Nashville, Ill.

In 1903 he was united in marriage to Miss Lillie Kallenbach of Boody, Ill., who survives him. He leaves to mourn his departure, his bereaved widow, one daughter, Mrs. Ada Zimmerman, three grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. Sophia Brockman and Mrs. Lena Schniepp, both of Nokomis, Ill., and many relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held in the First Methodist Church, Decatur, Ill., in charge of the Decatur District Superintendent, Dr. A. M. Wells. Dr. F. W. Wahl, District Superintendent of Warrenton District, St. Louis Conference, preached on First Timothy 4:6. A number of ministers were present and took part in the service. Interment was in the Boody Cemetery.

REV. ERNEST L. PLETCHER.

In the midst of many unfinished plans and ambitions and in the opening of an unusually happy and successful pastorate, on Saturday afternoon, April 30th, at half past five o'clock Rev. Ernest L. Pletcher passed from his earthly life to his larger immortal life. His brief illness was of only ten days' duration.

Ernest L. Pletcher was born December 9, 1868, on a farm near Platteville, Ill., being the son of Samuel E. and Alice A. Pletcher. His parents moved to a farm near Hoopeston when he was six years of age. He was educated in the country school and the Hoopeston High School. After graduating from the High School this ambitious, eager youth of seventeen years secured a position as a teacher at Albin, Ill., where he taught two years. He then entered Holbrook Normal University at Lebanon, Ohio, at that time a flourishing institution of nearly 4,000 students, and graduated from the Classical Course with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He had an eager desire to continue his education at Boston School of Theology and always felt greatly disappointed that he was unable to find the financial means to carry out his ambition.

After his graduation from the Normal University he became Superintendent of Schools at Georgetown, Ill., which position he held for two years. On November 22, 1895, he was married to Miss Maude Pullen, who had also been a student at the Normal University. To them was born one daughter, Louise, now Mrs. Don Peebles of Carlinville.

Brother Pletcher was deeply religious from early childhood and early came into membership in the Methodist Church. After his two years as a teacher at Georgetown he entered the Illinois Conference on trial in 1894 and was assigned to the church at Villa Grove. All of the remaining years of his life he with his devoted wife gave themselves to the Christian ministry, serving the following charges: Two years at Sidell, four years at Sidney, three years at Fairmount, two years at Ridge Farm, three years at Marshall, one year at Delavan, five years at Gibson City, one year at Centenary Church, Jacksonville, six years as District Superintendent of Jacksonville District, three years at Vermont Street Church, Quincy, and finally at Grace Church, Bloomington, where his happy and fruitful ministry was so suddenly cut off by his untimely death. These thirty-three years are a record eloquent of painstaking planning and indefatigable labors, of kindly and highly appreciated ministries to his people and in many ways of conspicuous achievement.

Perhaps his most outstanding achievement was as a builder of new church edifices. Six churches stand today as a monument to his vision, his self sacrificing labors and his tactful leadership in great and difficult undertakings. His first new church was at West Ridge on the Villa Grove Circuit. On the Sidney Circuit he built two new churches, one the first year of his pastorate at Pleasant Hill and later a new edifice at Sidney itself. During his pastorate at Ridge Farm he led the people also to a new church enterprise. At Marshall he built a fine stone church and later a church at Gibson City was erected very similar in architecture to that at Marshall, and until the recent new church at Lincoln, the best church structure in Bloomington District. The movement at Gibson City began in a prayer meeting where amid great spiritual fervor the first $7,000 was subscribed to the Building Fund. Such a record as builder of churches is probably unique and unparalleled among the active ministers of the Illinois Conference.

That his brethren in the ministry recognized these contributions to the building of the Kingdom within our Conference is evidenced by the fact that they bestowed upon him the honor which only relatively few receive, that of a delegate to the General Conference of 1912. He was also for many years a Trustee of the Woman's College at Jacksonville.

The funeral service was held at Grace Church, Bloomington, conducted by Dr. Freeman A. Havighurst, assisted by Dr. Joseph Harker, Dr. F. A. McCarty, Dr. Wm. J. Davidson, Dr. W. D. Fairchild and Dr. A. C. Piersel. Nearly one hundred ministers attended the funeral services. Interment was made in the beautiful new cemetery at Carlinville in charge of Rev. F. A. Havighurst and Rev. W. G. Lloyd. Here there was assembled another large company of sorrowing friends from Carlinville and another group of ministers from near by towns.

SIMEON RALSTON RENO.

Simeon Ralston Reno, son of John Berry and Sarah Bates Reno was born at Browning, Ill., March 14, 1857, and died at Villa Grove, Ill., March 19, 1927. He attended the Browning public schools, Center College, and Garrett Biblical Institute, graduating from the latter in 1892.

He was admitted to the Missouri Conference in 1884 and was transferred to the Illinois Conference in 1898.

In 1893, he married Emma Jamison. In 1896, the wife and infant daughter passed from this life at Vandalia, Mo.

In 1902, he married Anna Maxwell. Besides brothers and sisters, he is survived by the wife and their two sons, Donald Maxwell, student of Music School of the University of Illinois, and Paul Bates Reno in High School.

Reverend Reno was a man of strong convictions and with tongue and pen was ever embracing opportunities to strike unrighteousness in every form. He was especially happy when striking blows at the legalized and illegalized liquor traffic.

In the Illinois Conference Reverend Reno served the following charges: Rushville Ct., Warsaw, White Heath, Topeka, Mindon, Rockport, Manchester, Griggsville Ct., Littleton, Edgar, Argenta, Curran, Mt. Auburn, Latham, Tower Hill and Seymour.

Since entering the retired relationship, he has been constantly in the employ of the Champaign News-Gazette as subscription solicitor and occasional contributor to its column. In this capacity, he served faithfully and efficiently for which the staff showed appreciation in many beautiful ways. And all this time, he was being used a large percentage of his Sabbaths by his District Superintendent, Rev. A. K. Byrns, or the First M. E. Church of Champaign, the church home of the Reno family. In this church, funeral services were held March 22, 1927. In this service tribute followed tribute to "a beautiful Christian spirit" as Reverend Reno was described by his pastor, Rev. H. A. Keck and his District Superintendent, Rev. A. K. Byrns. Other ministers who assisted in the services were: Rev. T. N. Ewing, Rev. O. B. Hess, Rev. Paul Carson, Rev. Jas. C. Baker, Rev. G. L. Losh, Rev. H. W. Hartman, Rev. H. C. Augustus and Rev. F. M. Harry, all members of the Illinois Conference.

Among Reverend Reno's cherished papers, the pastor and the Reno family found several copies of a poem by Frederick Lawrence Knowles, much loved by Reverend Reno and which couched so much of his theology:

"This body is my house—it is not I;
Herein I sojourn till, in some far sky,
I lease a fairer dwelling, built to last
Till all the carpentry of time is past
When from my high place viewing this lone star,
What shall I care where these poor timbers are?
What though the crumbling walls turn dust and loam—
I shall have left them for a larger home.
This body is my house—it is not I
Triumphant in this faith I live, and die."

REV. R. Y. WILLIAMS.

Reuben Yates Williams was born near Lerna, Coles County, Illinois, February 17th, 1864, the third in a family of seven children born to Samuel and Mary E. Williams. At the age of 15 he was converted in a revival held in the old Pleasant Grove M. E. Church, near his boyhood home, and at once united with that church. His conviction was so deep, his repentance so sincere, his surrender so complete and his conversion so triumphant that it is no surprise to learn that on the very next day came a definite and unmistakable call to preach the gospel. It was in his 20th year that he was set apart for the christian ministry "by the laying on of hands" as he knelt by the bedside of his dying mother, and she, with wasted, feeble hands layed on his head, bestowed a mother's ordination to the work of the gospel of Christ.

One year was spent in the Illinois Wesleyan University and in the fall of 1887 he joined the Illinois Annual Conference and received his appointment to Windsor. After a successful pastorate of two years there and three years at Grandview, he was left without appointment to attend school and spent three years at DePauw University, at Greencastle, Indiana. Returning to Conference in 1895, he served the following charges in order: Downs, Versailles, Villa Grove, Chrisman, Saybrook, Delavan, Carlinville, Sidell, Moweaqua and Cerro Gordo.

From the beginning of his ministry, it was evident he had special qualifications fitting him for evangelistic work, and his help was continually sought by other pastors, both as revival preacher and song leader in evangelistic campaigns. Yet he loved the pastorate and was never tempted to step aside from it for any other line of religious work. In most of the charges served, there were marked results in the way of conversions and accessions to the church.

He was unusually successful, also, as a builder, leaving three new churches and three parsonages in different charges he served as evidence of his care in looking after the material interests of his work. Brother Williams was a man of strong convictions, yet uncommonly well balanced and sane. This made him an unflinching foe of all manner of evil, yet a wise organizer and leader of the forces that make for righteousness.

This was demonstrated again and again in different charges in saloon days, when the fight against the saloon waxed hot, he was always in the forefront of the fight, and generally as the acknowledged leader of the dry forces. By the wets, he was cordially hated and feared; sometimes insulted and on several occasions his life was threatened, yet in any battle he never flinched—just fearlessly fought on, but always in the spirit of a christian warrior “With the Cross of Jesus Going on Before.”

His faithful wife, a true companion and helpmate in every pastorate, is left to sorrow at the separation, yet wonderfully sustained and comforted by the assurance of the coming reunion in that deathless clime, where no sin, sorrow nor sickness can ever come. He also leaves in sore bereavement at their irreparable loss, two daughters, Mrs. L. W. Harmison, of Oneida, Ill., and Mrs. F. F. Gaines, of Maplewood, Mo., and five grandchildren. Two brothers and one sister also survive him, Samuel U. Williams and Joseph F. Williams, and Mrs. Minnie Greer, all of Lerna, Ill.

The funeral of Rev. R. Y. Williams was observed at the Methodist Episcopal Church in Cerro Gordo, Friday, April 8th, at 1:30 p. m. In spite of the rain, the church was filled.

An escort of some twenty ministers accompanied the body to the church, after a prayer in the home, given by Rev. Lloyd, of Carlinville, Ill. The ritual was read by the pastor of the local church, Rev. O. B. Hess, who had charge of the funeral services.

The music was furnished by Prof. Edwards and Miss Bernice Phillips, accompanied by Miss Florence East. Following a solo “Faith of Our Fathers,” the scripture lesson was read by Rev. W. H. McGhee. The opening prayer was given by Rev. G. W. Flagge, of Monticello. The obituary was prepared and read by Rev. A. N. Simmons.

Rev. Thomas H. Tull, of Clinton, Rev. T. N. Ewing, of Danville, and Rev. A. M. Wells, of Decatur, gave short talks, each touching the character and services of Brother Williams as they had known him through the years.

The services in the church were concluded by the ministers—some twenty-five in number—gathering around the casket and singing “In the Sweet Bye and Bye.”

Interment was in the Cerro Gordo Cemetery, the commital being given by Rev. E. G. Sandmyer and the benediction by Rev. H. C. Gibbs.

MRS. MELISSA CATHERINE (WILLIAMS) BALCH.

Miss Melissa Catherine Williams, daughter of R. E. Y. Williams and Mary Ann VanMeter Williams, was born January 15, 1855, in Lafayette Township, Coles County, Illinois, and died February 26, 1927, at the home of her daughter in Mattoon. Age seventy-two years, one month and eleven days. All throughout the years of her youth she lived in this township.

She was united in marriage November 25, 1875 to Rev. Samuel W. Balch, member of the Illinois Annual Conference for twenty years, and a Minister for 32 years. To this union were born three children, Horace R. Balch, who passed away in Springfield twelve years ago last November, Charles A. Balch of Avon Park, Florida, and Mrs. J. W. Johnson of Mattoon.

Mrs. Balch was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in Mattoon fifty-three years ago under the ministry of W. R. Goodwin.

For many years she ably assisted her husband in the various Churches to which he was assigned as a Minister. Frequently going to a parsonage in a poor state of repair and by her deft touch and excellent taste soon converting it into a hallowed place surrounded with flowers and the graces of her excellent touch.

Like Mary of old in her Bethany home who anointed her Lord with precious ointment and heard Him say, “She hath done what she could,” so Sister Balch continued to bless the services of her ministry with the ointment of love. The sweet influence of her life still remains in many of these parishes and though she is dead through these inspiring services she continues to speak. Triumphant in faith she has passed on to her reward, being ready to go and join her husband in the continued service of heavenly glory.

Her's was a beautiful life. With an abiding hope for the future and a deep sense of the service of the past—she always lived in the present—even down to the last, with her family and her friends and her God—as young as youth, as fervent as middle age, as wise as the aged.

Funeral services were held at the home of her daughter at 2:30 Monday afternoon, February 28, 1927, conducted by the Pastor, Rev. Harris G. Beck and Rev. C. F. Buker of Jacksonville, Illinois. The remains were laid to rest at the side of her husband in Lodge Grove cemetery.

MRS. REBECCA M. GOODSPEED.

Rebecca Jessee Goodspeed, widow of the late Rev. James M. Goodspeed, was born, Feb. 24, 1854, in Russell County, Virginia. She was a daughter of David H. and Eliza Jane Jessee, and was among the oldest of nine children. She moved with her parents when a small child, to Indiana, and later to Illinois, both trips being made in a covered wagon. They located near Villa Grove, Ill., and it was here that she grew to womanhood, and joined the M. E. Church during her early life.

She was married to Rev. Jas. M. Goodspeed April 14, 1875, at the "Brick Church," west of Villa Grove, her husband being the pastor there at that time. The marriage ceremony was performed by Elder Buck. To this union two children were born, Wilbur Fisk Goodspeed, and Edith Jessee, wife of Geo. J. Buehrig, both of Tuscola.

Mrs. Goodspeed passed away at her home in Tuscola, May 7, after a short illness of two weeks. At the time of her death, she was 73 years, 2 months and 13 days of age. Besides her two children, she leaves to mourn her loss, two grandchildren, Kenneth Goodspeed and Jeane Buehrig; one sister, Mrs. Ida B. Hopkins, of Urbana, Ill.; two brothers, John Jessee of Arlington, Kansas, and Joseph Jessee of Champaign, Ill., and many other relatives and friends.

Rev. Goodspeed was one of the most widely known Methodist Ministers in the section surrounding Tuscola and its vicinity. With him, his wife had worked for the cause they both loved for thirty-three years or more. She had a bright and sunny disposition and in her quiet way, did much for others. Often depriving herself of things she would have liked, she never forgot the poor and needy. The spirit of the parsonage in which she had lived for so many years, reigned in her heart and life, and she always found time and money to help those who were less fortunate. Her loyalty to her church lasted throughout the years and she was always in her place at the church services when her health permitted.

Funeral services were conducted from the Methodist Church in Tuscola, and Rev. P. P. Carson paid a glowing tribute to her life. Interment was in the city cemetery beside her husband.

MRS. IDA MABLE HOWARD.

Mrs. Ida Mable Howard, nee Wescoat, was born at DeLassus, Missouri, February 12, 1872, and departed this life at Pleasant Plains, Illinois, June 1st, 1927, aged 55 years, 3 months and 19 days.

Mrs. Howard was converted early in life and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and ever remained a faithful and earnest worker for the Master's kingdom. For more than thirty-four years she was a most efficient pastor's wife. Always forgetting herself in her unselfish endeavor to be a blessing to those with whom she came in contact. During the weeks of her illness she never complained and more than once told her husband whatever the outcome, it was all right. All through the weeks of sickness she was mercifully spared the accute suffering and her death, though sudden was as painless as the weeks preceeding her going home.

Besides the children, she leaves to mourn her loss, a husband, Rev. Leo Howard, Pleasant Plains; five brothers and two sisters, John Wescoat of Crystal City, Mo.; Emmett Westcoat of DesLoge, Mo.; James Wescoat of Kewanee, Mo.; Lloys Wescoat of River Mines, Mo.; Ellis Wescoat of Springfield, Ill.; Mrs. Nannie McGeorge of Bismarck, Mo.; Mrs. Maggie Hawk of Crystal City, Mo. She also leaves two grandchildren; Alfred Howard Akers and Marion Howard.

MRS. ELIZABETH M. TRAEGER.

Early in the morning of May 31, before the dawning of the day, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Traeger, the wife of the Rev. Wm. H. Traeger, answered the summons of her Lord, whom she served for many years, to be with Him forever.

She was the daughter of Mr. Charles J. and Mrs. Christina Schneider, who were among the first Methodists of this city. She was born October 25, 1856, in Peoria, Ill., where she grew to young womanhood. When eleven years of age she was converted under the faithful ministry of the Rev. Henry Thomas, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Being a lover of music, she served as organist both in the Sunday School and Church for many years. Her chief delight was in a Sunday School class of young girls, which she taught, among whom are some of the most useful members of this congregation today. Often, in later years, she spoke of her love and affection she cherished for these girls.

In the providence of God she met the Rev. Wm. H. Traeger, who was visiting relatives in Peoria, and was united with him in marriage, May 6, 1879.

Rev. Traeger took his young bride with him to his field of labor in Clear Water, Minn. Two years later they were transferred to New Orleans, La., where Rev. Traeger labored as a missionary. From here Rev. Traeger was transferred to the St. Louis German Conference, receiving Peoria, First German M. E. Church as his charge.

Continuing in the arduous work of the ministry, Mrs. Traeger labored with her husband in the following charges: Bloomington, Ill., Burlington, Iowa, Pekin, Ill., then called to the superintendency of the Deaconness Work and Bethesda Hospital in Cincinnati, Ohio. Then taking up the regular pastorate again, were transferred to Burlington, Iowa, for the second time, thence to San Jose, Ill., and then to Emden, Ill., after which Rev. Traeger, at his request, was given the superannuated relation.

Five children came to grace their home, a son and daughter of which died in infancy.

Mrs. Traeger was a woman of quiet disposition and temperament, never demonstrative, but deeply pious. She took a keen interest in the work of her husband, and was a potent factor in the success with which his work was crowned. She won for herself many friends who deeply mourn her departure.

Surviving are her beloved husband, her children, Esther, at home; Edward of Omaha, Neb., Dr. Carl of Faribault, Minn.; two grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. D. F. Fox, of Pasadena, Calif., and Mrs. Fred L. Block of Peoria.

The funeral services were held in St. John's Methodist Church in charge of the Rev. A. H. F. Hertzler, pastor. The Rev. Wm. E. Shaw, D. D., pastor of First Church, Peoria, spoke the prayer and the Rev. Freeman A. Havighurst, D. D., District Superintendent of the Bloomington District, Illinois Conference, made the address.

MRS. MARY J. TURNER.

Mary J. Squier, daughter of Charles C. and Jane Squier, was born near Hardin, Calhoun County, Illinois, October 8, 1855.

The education and training of the subject of this sketch, were of the best, and were of high school grade.

She was naturally of a scholarly turn of mind and never considered her education finished. In her young womanhood she became a teacher in the public schools and attained high distinction in her chosen calling.

On June 8, 1876, she was married to Mr. James B. Day, an estimable young man engaged in the same profession with his bride. The ceremony was performed by her former pastor Rev. H. C. Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Day lived for some years in Osage City, Kansas, until his death in November, 1880. On October 29, 1885, Mrs. Day was married to Rev. H. C. Turner of Oakland, Ill., a member of the Illinois Conference Methodist Episcopal Church.

For thirty-one years Mrs. Turner walked by her husband's side, nobly assisting him in the arduous and delicate duties of the christian ministry. And he is here to witness to the patient skill and good judgment, almost amounting to genius, which she displayed during those years.

She was a student all her life, having joined the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle of Bishop Vincent, a movement to establish a college course in every home.

The early struggles of the Revolutionary heroes appealed to her, and being eligible she joined the Daughters of the Revolution, belonging to the branch at Alton, Ill.

Her husband being a Civil War veteran she united herself with the Woman's Relief Corps of Sedgwick Post 17, G. A. R. of Santa Ana, California, and that worthy body of loyal women had charge of her funeral services.

In September, 1916, her husband asked for the retired relation to the Conference which was granted, he having been on duty forty-four years.

Their only son, a well known organist, having located in California, they naturally followed him and his good wife, and so were making their home there for the past few years.

Mrs. Turner, while never rugged, yet had enjoyed pretty good health all her life. She did so enjoy California, its delightful climate and beautiful and varied scenery. In a way it was having a heaven to go to heaven in.

The funeral was held under the auspices of the Woman's Relief Corps of Sedgwick Post 17, G. A. R. of Santa Ana, of which Post her husband, a Union veteran had just been chosen Commander. The funeral sermon was delivered by Rev. Chas. F. Seitter, pastor of the First M. E. Church in Santa Ana. The interment was in beautiful Forest Lawn Cemetery, Glendale, California. There she rests in peace until He calls her to come.

Conference Rules

"1. The Conference shall meet at 8:30 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12:15 o'clock, noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

"2. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"3. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"4. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"5. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"6. No effective member of the Conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"7. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"8. All written motions, reports and communications to the Conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the Conference.

"9. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"10. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"11. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"12. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"13. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and, if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"14. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"15. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided; (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending; (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

"16. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"17. The mover of any question or resolution, that shall in any way place a financial obligation on the Conference or any member of the Conference or any church in the territory of the Conference, shall introduce the same before the Conference at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote on the same, and he shall post a duplicate typewritten copy of the same in a conspicuous place at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the Conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but, on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the Conference, and if the call be sustained by ——— members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than ———, may have their votes recorded by name.

"21. The District Superintendents shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the Conference in advance of the Conference Session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"22. Vacancies in the Conference Board of Trustees, the Conference Board of Stewards and the Conference Deaconess Board shall be filled by election of the Conference on nomination by the District Superintendents.

"23. All requests for special appointment shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

"24. The report of the Committee on Education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m., on Saturday of each session of the Conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

"25. The Statistical Secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the Conference Session immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"26. Each member in effective relation, and each supply, shall contribute a sum equal to the amount of 1-10 of 1 per cent of his cash salary to be applied as necessity may require to the purpose of securing expert accountants, or stenographers, or assistants, and for Secretarial Expenses.

"27. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the Conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

"28. These rules shall not be suspended except by a majority of all the members of the Conference."

TWENTIETH ANNUAL MEETING LAYMAN'S ASSOCIATION OF ILLINOIS CONFERENCE AND THE QUADRENNIAL
LAY ELECTORAL CONFERENCE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

September 23 and 24, 1927, at the First M. E. Church, Springfield, Illinois.

Friday Morning, September 23, 1927.

The sessions were opened promptly on time. The devotions being led by Dr. J. R. Harker, formerly president of the Illinois Woman's College at Jacksonville, Illinois.

President A. R. Crook called the meeting to order and introduced former past presidents of the Layman's Association: Mr. Crawford, Mr. Cochran, Mr. Grimmett, Mr. Kagey and Mr. Musselman.

Mrs. O. B. Irwin of Springfield sang "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled," Mrs. A. M. Booth accompanying on the pipe organ.

Hon. John A. Barber, Springfield, warmly welcomed the Association and Mr. George Risto of Quincy heartily responded.

The Secretary, as formerly, having no personal expense account.

The Secretary's Annual Report is as follows:

Friends: Since the last annual meeting, three called meetings of the Executive Committee were held, December 3, May 11, and September 22, to carefully consider Men's Brotherhoods, Boys' Work, Clarification of the Constitution, the holding of District Meetings, the Chairmanship of Decatur District, Lay Representation in Annual Conference, plans for the 1927 Annual Meeting and other things for the general good of this fine Association. Letters of sympathy were sent to Mrs. I. L. Long over the passing away of Brother I. L. Long, for many years Chairman of Decatur District, and to Mr. C. W. Groves, whose splendid wife was called to her heavenly home.

Last fall, two sets of letters were sent to each delegate, reserve delegate and annual delegate concerning the activities of the Laymen's Association. This spring another letter was mailed to the same delegates concerning "Holy Week." In June another letter was sent to all the delegates and in August and September three additional letters boosting the 1927 sessions of this Association went to all the newly elected delegates, reserve delegates and annual delegates urging their presence for the good of the best Laymen's Association on earth. The result being shown by your presence here today. Various letters in answer to all sorts of inquiries during the year were promptly sent out. In all, over five thousand letters were mailed in behalf of an increased good-will of this Association. All having been done for the Kingdom of God.

It has been a pleasure for your President and Secretary to co-operate with the Local Committee in seeing to it that every comfort is provided for our guests.

Respectfully submitted,

IRA B. BLACKSTOCK, Secretary,

Sept. 23rd, 1927.

Layman's Association, Illinois Conference.

Dr. A. R. Crook, President of Laymen's Association of Illinois Conference in delivering his address as retiring president spoke in part that gatherings such as this contribute to the moral and spiritual welfare of our country. Five hundred business men ceasing their ordinary work so that they help advance the cause of religion, represent a great force for righteousness. Twenty years ago this association was started in Bloomington. Possibly fifty persons were present. Today we have this fine audience. What may we expect in the future! There are now more than 100,000 members in the Illinois Conference. If each charge in the Conference should send the three delegates to which it is entitled, there would be nearly 1,000 members of the Association present. We hope that with each succeeding year more churches will see that they have the full representation to which they are entitled, in order that the members generally may take greater interest in the church, may acquire increased knowledge of its affairs and needs, and may the better aid our ministry in advancing God's Kingdom on earth. In the twenty years of its existence this Association has had ten presidents. Two of them, Brothers Austin and Loar, have passed to their eternal reward and eight of them are still actively interested.

May the Association become a great power, strengthening the arm of those who enforce our laws; aiding all advocates of honesty, decency and right living, helping spread knowledge of the gospel, our defense, our safety and salvation.

President then appointed the following committees:

Auditing—J. S. McClelland, Decatur; Henry Rogers, Jacksonville; G. F. Rearick, Danville.

Nominating—C. C. Grimmett, Decatur; Harvey Gross, Paris, R. B. Smedley, Waverly.

Resolutions—H. W. Mumford, Urbana; Cliff Guild, Bloomington; Judge Lee Capps, Pittsfield.

The President also gave notice to each district to meet sometime today and elect their District Chairman for the ensuing year and report back for confirmation by the Association.

By actual count, 270 delegates, reserve delegates and annual delegates were present at the meeting. Twenty-nine being from Bloomington District, 34 from Champaign-Danville District, 27 from Decatur District, 39 from Jacksonville District, 45 from Mattoon District, 40 from Quincy District and 56 from Springfield District.

Judge H. R. Snively of Marshall gave a vigorous address on "Law Enforcement" in which he gave a new version of personal liberty. That liberty means law and not license was the burden of his address. The speaker declared that no state of the United States and no country of the world has a law which guarantees to any person such a thing as personal liberty which he said, if interpreted to mean that any person can do as he or she pleases is anarchy. "The liberty that men fought and died for is the liberty of law and not of license." "Liberty is not the right to do as you please but the privilege to do as you ought to do. Such propaganda as is rampant today is a great encouragement to violators of the law, and men and women everywhere who believe in government and respect for law must educate, agitate and organize against the sources of this propaganda in order to offset and overcome the highly organized gang of law breakers in this country."

Hon. I. E. Merritt of Hoopeston then led the discussion with emphasis, adding:

"The ills of America today are laid to prohibition, but as a matter of fact we would be a great deal worse off than we are if it were not for prohibition. The foundations of respect for the law are being undermined by a large section of the press and magazines which are advocating that a person has a right to violate and nullify a law that does not please him, under the guise of personal liberty."

On motion of Mr. Engle of Bloomington, a recess was taken until 2:30 this afternoon.

Lay Electoral Conference.

The Lay Electoral Conference of the Illinois Annual Conference was called to order by Mr. Clarence C. Grimmett of Decatur.

After opening remarks and prayer by Mr. Ed. P. Imboden of Decatur, the Conference proceeded to elect temporary officers. Mr. E. S. Dillavou of Champaign was chosen temporary chairman and Dr. I. H. Neece, Decatur, was elected as Secretary.

The temporary organization was unanimously made permanent. The secretary chose as his assistants, Mr. Ira B. Blackstock, Springfield; Mr. H. D. Lukenbill, Springfield, and Mr. R. B. Smedley, Waverly.

The roll call of districts showed the following regular elected lay delegates present:

Quincy District	34
Mattoon District	31
Jacksonville District	40
Decatur District	35
Springfield District	44
Champaign-Danville District	21
Bloomington District	33

Total voting delegates..... 238

On motion, nominating speeches were dispensed with and candidates' names presented to the conference, each nominee standing in front of the assembly.

The following names were presented by districts:

Bloomington District—Prof. Cliff Guild, Bloomington; C. C. Curl, Mansfield; P. E. Kuhl, Lincoln.

Champaign District—Mrs. A. E. Cole, Rantoul; Mr. C. W. Groves, Champaign; Mr. I. E. Merritt, Hoopeston.

Decatur District—Thomas J. Prentice, Decatur.

Jacksonville District—Thomas V. Hopper, Jacksonville; E. E. Caldwell, Havana.

Mattoon District—Judge H. R. Snavelly, Marshall.

Quincy District—Mrs. F. N. Wells, Pittsfield; Mr. C. W. Caughlan, Pittsfield; Mr. D. L. Musselman, Quincy.

Springfield District—Mr. H. S. Wiley, Buffalo; Mr. I. B. Blackstock, Springfield.

Moved and carried that in conformity with the usual plan of the General Conference and as used by the Lay Electoral Conference in 1923, each delegate must vote for eight (8) candidates on the first ballot or it would not be counted.

The Secretary appointed the following tellers:

Bloomington District—Roscoe Smith.

Champaign-Danville District—D. L. Barkman.

Decatur District—Ed. P. Imboden.

Jacksonville District—Luther Wiley.

Mattoon District—Harvey Gross.

Quincy District—O. O. Williamson.

Springfield District—W. A. Joy.

The ballot was spread and the following candidates were duly elected:

Ira B. Blackstock.....	195 votes
H. R. Snavelly.....	186 votes
Mrs. Emma Wells.....	159 votes
H. S. Wiley.....	153 votes
T. V. Hopper.....	131 votes
Isaac E. Merritt.....	130 votes
Charles W. Groves.....	129 votes
D. L. Musselman.....	128 votes

The eight above named having received the majority of all votes cast were declared elected as lay delegates to the General Conference which convenes in Kansas City, May, 1928.

The other candidates received the following votes:

Cliff Guild	124 votes
J. T. Prentice.....	109 votes
C. C. Curl.....	88 votes
Chas. W. Caughlan.....	85 votes
Mrs. A. E. Cole.....	85 votes
P. E. Kuhl.....	54 votes
E. E. Caldwell.....	52 votes

Mr. Blackstock then voiced his appreciation of the courtesy of the Conference in again electing him to lead the lay delegation.

The Conference recessed for luncheon and re-convened at 1:15 p. m.

Nominations were received for reserve delegates to General Conference in the same manner as for delegates. The following being nominated:

Mrs. A. E. Cole, Prof. A. R. Crook, Prof. Cliff Guild, Benjamin F. Kagey, Thomas J. Prentice.

Each ballot, in order to be counted, to have three names only. The ballot was spread with the following result:

Prof. A. R. Crook.....	114 votes
Prof. Cliff Guild.....	106 votes
Mr. Thos. J. Prentice.....	105 votes
Mr. Charles Caughlin.....	85 votes
Mrs. A. E. Cole.....	76 votes
Mr. Benjamin F. Kagey.....	71 votes

The three first named having received the highest number of votes cast were declared elected reserve delegates to the next General Conference.

Mr. Engle of Bloomington then presented a resolution whereby Lay Representation in the annual conference should be equal to the ministerial members of the conference. This was fully discussed but the motion was lost.

The General Layman's Association plan was then presented to the Conference by Mr. R. Clarence Brown of the General Laymen's Association. After much discussion for and against this plan, which has for its purpose Lay Representation in the Annual Conference in the ratio of one Lay Member and one Reserve for each eight hundred (800) Lay Members or majority fraction thereof within the bounds of the Annual Conference (the proposition to be presented to the next General Conference) was submitted as a resolution which carried by a vote of 94 for and 24 against.

No further business coming before the Lay Electoral Conference the meeting adjourned at 2:30 p. m.

I. H. NEECE, Secretary,
Lay Electoral Conference.

RE-ASSEMBLING OF LAYMAN'S ASSOCIATION, Mr. I. E. Merritt presiding. Devotions were led by Mrs. I. A. Love and Mrs. Lloyd Morey of Urbana led in a special song service. Prof. Lloyd Morey being at the piano. At this time, Hon. Charles S. Deneen, United States Senator from Illinois gave us a real treat by way of an exceptionally interesting and instructive address which will always recall the most pleasant memories. It is very seldom that Illinois Conference is accorded the privilege of listening to such a wonderful address. Senator Deneen spoke particularly of the laws of the United States which are based on the Mosaic laws and wherever the United States has had jurisdiction over lesser peoples the ideals of Christianity have not been overlooked. He reviewed the history of the United States from its inception as a Christian nation and pointed out that the ideals and teachings of the church have always been upheld by the governmental institutions of the country. Quite a hearty ovation was given to Senator Deneen.

"The Value of Our Church Institutions to Methodism" was given to the Association by Prof. Cliff Guild of Bloomington in which he appealed in particular for support of the conference colleges, speaking out of his experience of twenty-two years at Wesleyan University. He said that Methodism cannot expect to control these colleges if its financial support is withheld from them. The institutions would not pass out of existence but would probably be compelled to exist under other than the control of the conference. He made a plea for the young people of the church who have a right to expect to receive their religious and higher education at these institutions and who are expected to carry on the work of the church.

The discussion of Prof. Guild's address was led by Dr. I. H. Neece in a most effective manner.

The report of the members of the nominating committee was presented by Mr. Grimmett, Chairman, as follows:

"For president, C. W. Caughlan of Pittsfield; for vice-president, J. E. McClure of Carlinville; for secretary, H. D. Lukenbill of Springfield; for treasurer, Dr. Joseph Hall of Westfield. There being no other nominations, on motion of Mr. Grimmett the above gentlemen were unanimously elected for the ensuing year."

The President asked a show of hands for all who desired to make the trip to Lincoln's Tomb and to the Lincoln Home. Seventy-five indicated that they would be present.

Adjournment was taken so that all who desired might attend the Annual Educational Banquet at Laurel M. E. Church.

Saturday Morning, September 24.

Joint devotions of the Layman's Association with the Ministers were held at the Laurel M. E. Church after which the sessions of this Association were resumed at the First M. E. Church.

Mr. H. G. Rockwood of Springfield conducted the memorial service for members of this Association who have passed to their reward during the year; Nels Allyn leading in prayer and song. Among the members who have passed away were: Hon. S. A. Bullard, Mayor of Springfield, Hon. S. E. Prather and Thomas Quinlan all of the First Methodist Church; Theodore Hierman of Arenzville, John W. Earp and Charles Hester, both of Lorain, Illinois; I. L. Long of Assumption, former Vice-President of the Lay Association of Decatur District; Wilson R. Kirkland of Bethel Church, Nilwood Circuit. In addition, Mr. Kagey and Mr. Engle mentioned Mr. James L. Loar of First Church, Bloomington. Mr. Benjamin Weir mentioned Mr. C. C. Digby of First Church, Charleston. Mrs. Maude Beebe of Bloomington gave the name of Mr. J. T. Storey of First Church, Bloomington and Mr. G. J. Turney mentioned Mr. J. G. Flint of First Church, Decatur.

Then Dr. I. H. Neece of Decatur presented the following memorial of Brother I. A. Long:

"When the finger of death silenced the lips of Isaac L. Long, of Assumption on March 11, 1927, the Laymen's Association lost a valuable member; the Methodist Church, a devout christian leader; the Decatur District, a faithful Vice-President and Chairman; Assumption and community, an esteemed and loyal citizen and the family, a devoted Father and Companion.

His local Church feels most keenly the loss of this good man who for more than a half century gave generously and at times to the point of sacrifice of his time and talents that the cause of the Kingdom might advance. For twenty-five years he was Superintendent of Sunday School, President of Township Sunday School Association, Teacher of Bible Class, President for Epworth League and a dependable member of Official Board and Trustee of his church.

All those who came in contact with him in his life work were impressed with the breath of his views and his devotion to his task. Like many other men of fine mind and high attainments, he was modest for himself and keenly appreciative of the opinions and work of others. His ideals were always high ideals and his aims were always large aims. As time passes on there will continue to live our pleasant association with him, our feeling of love as we miss his genial presence.

His life was honorable and his service true. He was beloved and highly esteemed by his associates and the loss of his unselfish and manly personality is a grievous one."

Judge J. J. Reeve delivered an address, "Youth and the Church"; speaking especially on the "unconscious influence" that every right-minded church member has upon children who are made more responsive to the finer things of life by the steady impact of your own life upon others. The highest thing that we know on earth is "human personality." And he added: "Get your receiving set in tune in your heart and the music of heaven will come to your heart."

Hon. Hugh S. Magill, General Secretary of the International Council of Religious Education and former Superintendent of Springfield Schools and nationally known educator, delivered a most interesting address to the Laymen on "Church Tasks." When he was introduced and also at the conclusion of his address, he was given splendid ovations.

Mr. Magill emphasized the fact that religious education should include the training of laymen for Christian service and the stimulation of spiritual life as well as the preparation of preachers for the ministry. Mr. Magill urged a wider program in the denominational institutions and made special mention of the necessity of laymen training as well as for education for the ministers.

On motion of Benjamin F. Kagey of Tuscola, an expression of gratitude from the Association was unanimously voted.

"Builders of the Church Invisible" was Mr. H. D. Lukenbill's topic and he covered it in a splendid manner after which Harvey Gross of Paris interestingly led the discussion.

Mr. Henry Rogers, Mr. J. S. McClelland and Mr. G. J. Rearick of the auditing committee reported that the books and accounts of Mr. D. L. Musselman, treasurer were correct. Mr. Kagey moved the approval of the committee's report which was carried unanimously.

Two resolutions were presented by the committee, H. W. Mumford, Cliff Guild and Lee Capps and were read by the Secretary and were considered separately on request of Mr. Dillavou and Judge Snavelly. Mr. Grimmett then moved that the following resolution be adopted and the motion carried unanimously.

We, your Committee on Resolutions, present the following for your consideration:

RESOLVED, 1st: That we have faith that the 18th Amendment to the Constitution can and will be enforced, notwithstanding in some localities the efforts to enforce it seem not to be effective. We deem it our duty to not only aid and assist those officers having in charge the enforcement of those laws passed to carry out and effectuate the 18th Amendment, but at all times to see to it, insofar as we are able, that we elect men who are dry and see that none but men dry in fact are appointed in the enforcement service. We commend to our people and to our citizens generally the sentiments expressed by the immortal Lincoln in his address, in which he enjoined upon every citizen the supreme duty of obeying all the laws of our country.

2nd: We pledge ourselves to co-operate with all of the institutions sponsored by our church and to support them financially to the end that no backward step will be taken by any of them.

3rd: We wish to thank the members of the Local Committee, the Pastors of the Springfield Charges, the officers of the various churches, the musicians, and all others who have extended us so many courtesies, and we further express our appreciation to the retiring officers for the untiring efforts in behalf of our organization during the past year, and we congratulate them upon the building and carrying out of the splendid program of this session.

Inasmuch as the activities of the various candidates for election as lay delegates to the General Conference seem to increase from year to year, it seems to us fitting that this body take some action towards simplifying the process of election and limiting the publicity methods of candidates, and we therefore suggest that a committee be appointed to make a study of the situation, with power to make recommendations.

H. W. Mumford, Cliff Guild and Lee Capps, Committee.

The second resolution concerning Depression in Agriculture was discussed at length by Mr. Kagey, Mr. Huff, Mr. Gross, Mr. Caughlan, Mr. S. A. Buddenmeyer, Mr. A. C. Muns and Judge Snavelly. However, on motion of Mr. Dillavou the resolution concerning Agriculture was adopted as follows:

We, your Committee on Resolutions, recommend the adoption of the following:

WHEREAS, The evidence persists that throughout the area of this Conference depression in Agriculture is not only causing personal distress to many of our members, but is also rendering more difficult the problems of our churches in rural and other communities;

WHEREAS, It is the belief of many of our members that the persistence of the depression is caused in part by disadvantages resulting from Federal policies less favorable to Agriculture than to other branches of our economic system; and

WHEREAS, It is the belief of our members that the disadvantages under which our rural communities struggle are partly remediable by measures which can bring equality for Agriculture without imposing corresponding injustice upon groups already enjoying Federal protection; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Laymen's Association of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church hereby urges that nationwide study be given by religious agencies of Laymen and clergymen so as to ascertain whether the national position of American Agriculture is such as to warrant the belief of some of our members that social justice and sound national policy unite in favor of obtaining for Agriculture a more prosperous condition in American life; and be it FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be sent to the secretaries of the laymen's associations of all other conferences of our church and of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to the secretaries of the boards of home missions of these churches, to the secretary of Rural Life Work of the Board of Home Missions of our church, to the secretary of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America and to the secretaries of its Home Mission Council, and its Commission on the Church and Social Service, to the secretary of the Board of Directors of the National Catholic Rural Life Conference, to the County Work secretaries of the state Young Men's Christian Associations, and to such other religious agencies as might be expected to be interested in an answer to the question which this resolution raises.

H. W. Mumford, Cliff Guild and Lee Capps, Committee.

Carried 38 to 13 by actual vote.

A memorial adopted by the Dakota Conference on the topic of "Protest Against the Use of Cigaretts" was read by Mr. Grimmert and on his motion it was referred to Dean Mumford, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee.

Mr. Kagey moved that a letter of love and greetings be sent to Mr. John Kissack.

On motion of B. F. Kagey, the Secretary was authorized to have the minutes of the Laymen's Association and the minutes of the Lay Electoral Conference published in the Conference Minutes of 1927 at the expense of the Association.

Mrs. Eva Fields of the Chaddock Boys School of Quincy, Miss Vaught of the Cunningham Home, Champaign and Rev. E. Hemke of the Old Folks' Home of Quincy were then introduced by the President.

At the suggestion of Bert E. Smith, Executive Secretary of the Methodist Brotherhood, Judge Snively moved that Mr. Caughlan, the newly elected President of this Association be sent as delegate to the rally of Methodist Men at the next General Conference, May 12 and 13, 1928, with the necessary expenses to be paid by this Association. Carried.

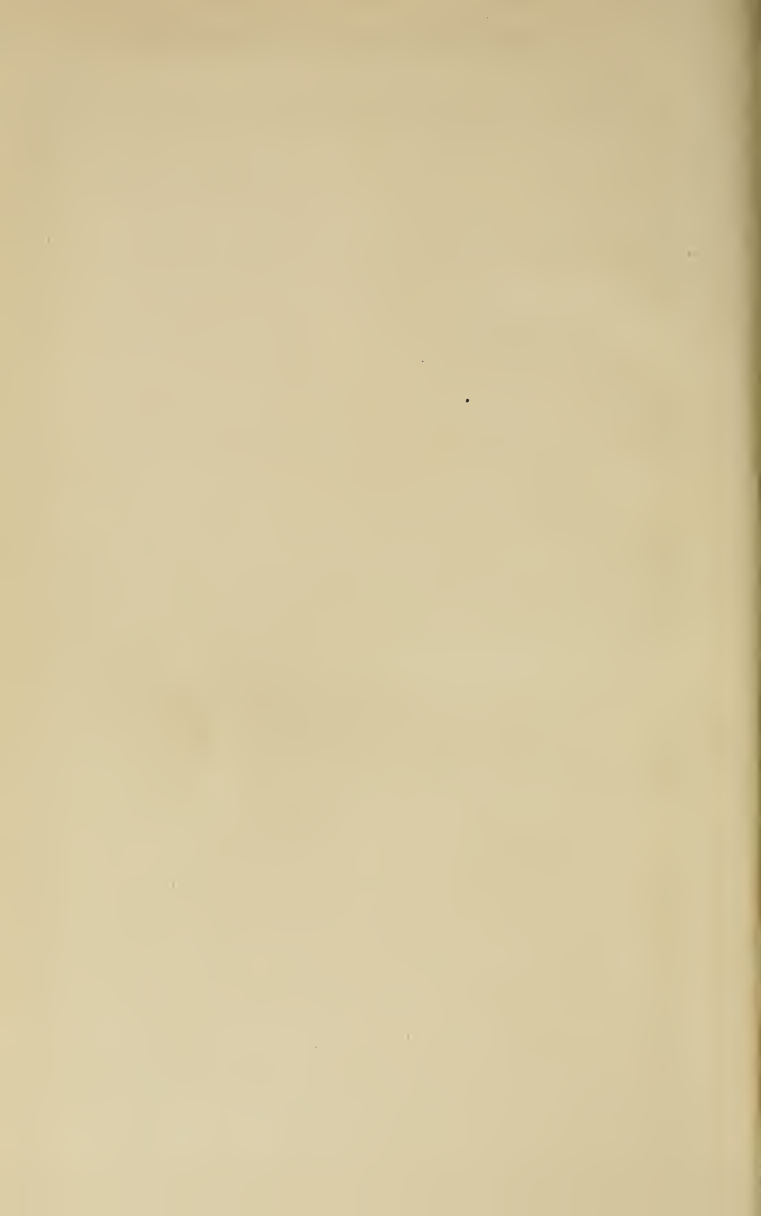

The newly elected officers were then presented to the session.

On motion of Mr. Kagey, the executive committee of the Laymen's Association was authorized to fill any vacancy in the officers and district chairmen of the Laymen's Association that may occur by death or otherwise during this coming conference year. Carried unanimously.

After adjournment, seventy-five Laymen met at the First M. E. Church at 2:00 p. m. for a trip to Lincoln's Home and Lincoln's Tomb as the guests of Mr. Blackstock. On the return from this trip, the Laymen and Ministers met in joint session at the Laurel M. E. Church where Dr. T. A. Stafford of Chicago delivered an address "On Board of Pensions and Relief," after which final adjournment was taken.

A. R. CROOK, President.
